INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

George William Stoddart, the well-known actor, is dead at New York.

The town of Berber in Jomali-land has been burned to the ground. Forty persons, mostly children, invalids and cripples, perished.

A marriage has been arranged between Dr. Stewart, a practising physician of London, and the eldest sister of the Duke of Norfolk.

The body of Miss Stewart, daughter of Mr. Thomas Stewart of Ottawa, who was drowned some days ago at the Peche, was recovered yesterday.

The body of a man, supposed to be Geo. Lane of London, was found yesterday floating in the River Rouge, near Detroit. A letter from his mother, who resides in London, was found in his pocket.

Frances C. Cleveland and 12 other heirs of the late John B. Folsom have filed a petition in the District Court at Omaha for the portion of their interests in 50 lots in that city, valued at several hundred thousand dollars. The petition states that Frances M. Cleveland is the same as Frances C. Folsom, she having intermarried with one Grover Cleveland.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets—Canadian Oil.

TORONTO, July 10.—The receipts of produce at the St. Lawrence Market yesterday were small and prices steady. Butter and eggs nominally were unchanged, although butter showed a tendency to advance. Vegetables and fruit were dull with prices unchanged and without special feature.

On the hay market new season's sold at $12 to $13. 50 per ton. Last season's hay sold at $18. There is a marked scarcity, and the market would stand three times the quantity that is now being brought in.

No grain or produce of any kind was offered on the street market yesterday.

On Call yesterday at the Board of Trade one car of No. 2 red winter sold at 98c.

Receipts of strawberries and other fruit were limited. Strawberries were quoted at 10 to 12 cents per box with choice selling at 14c. Gooseberries are quiet at 60c to 75c a basket; cherries at $1.25 to $1.50 for sour and $1.75 and $2 for whites and reds; red currants at $1.25 to $1.50; watermelons at $30 a hundred; apples at $3.50 and $4 a barrel.

THE BREADSTUFFS' SITUATION.

The official visible supply of wheat June 30, 1888, was 23,623,989 bushels (987,544 bushels less than a week ago), against 31,-113,127 bushels a year ago and 26,195,260 bushels two years ago, 10,779,131 bushels less now than a year ago, and 4,571,991 bushels less, including Minneapolis and St. Paul wheat stocks.

The stock of wheat at five Atlantic ports June 30, 1888, was 3,281,315 bushels against 4,727,432 bushels the preceding week, 5,113,816 bushels the corresponding week in 1887, and 3,020,303 bushels June 30, 1886, being 1,032,001 bushels less now than a year ago. The decrease in the week from June 23 to June 30, 1888, was 446,117 bushels.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports: Wheat firm with demand fair and holders offering moderately; corn firm with demand fair. Quotations: Spring wheat 6s 6½d to 6s 7½d; red winter 6s 7½ to 6s 9½; No. 1 Cal., 6s 9½d to 6s 9d; corn 4s 11d; peas 6s; pork 70s; lard 40s 9d; cheese 46s.

The Victor's Crown

should adorn the brow of the inventor of the great corn cure, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It works quickly, never makes a sore spot, and is just the thing you want. See that you get Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the sure, safe and painless cure for corns. 6dw28

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Nothing Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

The Weather.

Light to moderate variable winds, fine weather, stationary or a little higher temperature.

A New Laundry.

A man from Toronto came to Peterborough a few days ago, to prospect for the establishment of a new laundry, and he thought his chances were good. He found, on investigation, that the ladies are making such a rush for the beautiful prints at the golden lion that there would be work for two or three laundries. It's no wonder these prints go, they are stylish, neat and cheap—imported goods, worth fifteen, sold at ten cents.

Our customers always speak when they pass by and say. Xamine these Xcellent unXcelled T's, at The Pantry.

Training Stables.

Mr. Tom McEwen, the well-known horseman has established training stables at the driving park, and daily "coaches" the horses under his charge in speeding on the course. At present he has Winch's "Sleepy Dan," Brown's "Lady B," Clancy's "Royal Jim," Morgan's "Grey Ned," Howden's horse and Croft's (Cobourg) mare. These are stabled on the grounds, and the effects of Tom's skilful training are already apparent.

Put off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Weekly Practices.

The newly organized Volunteer Rifle Association will hold two matches every week, on Saturday and Monday. Yesterday and Saturday a number of the red-coats shot, and, while some of the scores were good, in the main they showed that the majority of the volunteers knew as little about rifles as the average agricultural editor does about stump-pulling. These practices will greatly improve the marksmanship of the men in the battalion.

A Very Narrow Escape.

At half past eleven this forenoon a little boy and his sister, named Jones, were walking along Aylmer street just as the C.P.R. express train was approaching. The little girl crossed ahead of the train, and the boy in attempting to follow was struck by the engine and thrown several feet. The train was stopped, and the little fellow picked up and carried to the station, where it was found that his injuries were only slight, consisting of a cut on his eye and nose and sundry bruises. The children were carrying their father's dinner from their home on Lake street to where he worked. It was a narrow escape from death, and will probably teach the boy a lesson he will never forget.

COAL OIL STOVE—largest size; best American make; very complete; will do the work of No. 10 wood or coal cook; at cost price.
2a w GEORGE STETHEM.

A Complete Combination.

There is on exhibition at D. Belleghem's furniture warerooms the most complete combination bedroom suite made, or possible to be made. It is, when folded, like a sideboard, and in the front we see a dressing case with mirror, a set of three bureau drawers; lifting a cover reveals a wash bowl and other toilet appurtenances. This rests against the wall, upon castors. Run out from the wall, the bed, composed of spring mattress and clothing, lets down and forms as comfortable a bed as possible. It is compact, convenient and useful, especially when it is necessary to economize room. The sample spoken of is built by the Lindsay-Seldon Furniture Company, of solid walnut and is cheaper than an ordinary bedroom suite of an inferior material and finish. It has only to be seen to be appreciated; call at Belleghem's and see it.

The Town Bridges.

The town bridges are a veritable bone of contention. First they are all stone and iron, then wood with stone abutments, then wood with cedar foundations. First, tenders are called for; then, after they are received, it is decided to do the work by the town workmen. There is an evident effort to secure cheapness, and a very round-about way is taken to arrive at cheapness. The straight cut to cheapness, however, lies through the store of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, who keep the cheapest goods on earth in readymade clothing for men, youths and boys. A magnificent stock of first class goods, bought at a bankrupt sale of a great montreal house—goods 'way up in quality, prices 'way down. Go to gough bros.' emporium of fabulous bargains, george street, peterborough. From fifty to a hundred per cent. saved in price and from fifty to a hundred per cent. gained in quality. It's the people's store.

Excursions.

A Few Paragraphs Regarding the Excursion Events.

About four hundred people crowded the seven coaches that comprised the George-street Methodist S. S. excursion train to Sturgeon Point this morning. The committees in charge carried out their intentions to the letter, and everything was ready in good time. The train left sharp on time, and, as a result, a number of tardy excursionists were left behind. Station Master Brandrette kindly made arrangements for them to go on the regular 8:15 train by their excursion tickets, and a telegram was sent to Lindsay to hold the boat. Appearances are favorable for a delightful day's outing.

The steamer "Golden Eye" took down a large number of the Mark street Methodist Sunday school pupils and their friends to Jubilee Point this morning. It is not expected there will be any serious obstruction encountered in the shape of logs.

Arrangement will soon be complete for the annual picnic-nic and excursion of the Charlotte street church Sunday school. It will be held in about two weeks to either Jubilee Point or Campbelltown.

The excursion of St. Andrew's church Sunday school, has been postponed till further notice.

St. John's South Ward Sunday School picnic goes down to Jubilee Point per Golden Eye on Thursday—the annual excursion.

AN INFLUX.

At 10.40 the special train bearing the excursion of the Port Hope Methodist Sunday school rolled into the Midland station. There were about seven crowded coaches, which were drawn by two engines most of the way. It is estimated about 560 persons were on board, among them the band of the 45th Batt. and the baseball club. A few got off at the station, but the great majority went on to Inverlea park, where the day was spent.

Attached to the regular noon train were 5 special coaches for the accommodation of the Whitby excursionists, of whom, it is estimated, there were between 200 and 300. These scattered about town and gave the streets a lively appearance.

For Drill.

No. 3 Company will meet at the drill shed to-night at quarter to eight o'clock p m. A good attendance is requested.

Cricketers, Ho!

A very urgent meeting of cricketers is called for 8 o'clock this evening at Ray's cigar store.

The regular monthly meeting of Peterborough lodge No. 135, Ancient Order of United Workmen, will be held in their Hall this (Tuesday) evening, when a full attendance is requested.

The Contracting Carpenters.

The adjourned meeting of the contracting carpenters of Peterborough is called for this (Tuesday) evening in the Snowden block. A full attendance is requested, as matters of vital importance must be decided.

Good News for Violinists.

Mr. J. A. Doucet has been appointed sole agent for, and has received a stock of August Pollman's celebrated soloists' favorite violin strings. The finest made in the world. "E" strings in stock. Call and see them.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

The Siding Enlarged.

The transfer siding at the diamond on Bethune street has been enlarged from its former capacity of 8 cars to 25. The interchange traffic between the G.T.R. and C.P.R. has become so great that the siding had to be enlarged.

The Cheese Board.

At the Peterborough Cheese Board to-day higher prices made makers merry. The competition was keen. There were 3,473 boxes boarded, 2,581 Peterborough, and 892 Victoria. Warrington took the former at 9⅝ cents, and Wrighton the latter at 9½ cents. Liverpool, 46s. and 6d.

Fine Beverage.

J. H. Gurd & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 18 lbs. good sugar, $1; tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. lw W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

Work for the Inspector.

A resident of Harvey street hailed the EXAMINER last night and remarked: "Will you call the attention of the Street Inspector to the sidewalk on Harvey street?" "What's the matter with it?" was asked. "Matter? Well the matter is that there are no boards on it. If there's a place in town where a new walk is needed, it's there."

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

Parting Courtesies.

Miss Minnie Caron, who has for some time past filled the position of organist to St. Andrew's Church with great acceptability, left last night for her home in Brockville. Before her departure a few of the ladies of St. Andrew's Church waited upon her and presented her with a beautiful and valuable writing desk, completely equipped, accompanied by the following address:

DEAR MISS CARON,—We, a few lady friends of St. Andrew's Church, in bidding you good-bye, beg your acceptance of the accompanying memento as a token of our sincere and affectionate regard.

While with us, your duties have been faithfully as I pleasingly discharged and now that you are leaving us our best wishes go with you, and our one united desire is that your future may be as happy and prosperous as we wish it to be.

Signed—

CHARLOTTE J. NICHOLLS.

St. Luke's Lawn Social.

The spacious and handsome grounds adjoining the residence of Mr. John Burnham, Reeve of Ashburnham, were handsomely illuminated, and filled with people Monday evening, and the garden party in behalf of St. Luke's church was a decided success. Refreshment tables were scattered about the grounds, while in a large marquee a sale of fancy articles was conducted under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary by Mesdames Bradshaw and Geo. Rogers. In a smaller marquee lemonade, cake and ice-cream were dispensed. The young ladies in charge were Misses Strickland, Caddy, Maynard, Tivey, Calcutt, Ethel Rogers and Edith Burnham. The handsome residence was thrown open to the guests, and music and song were the order of the evening. The guests strolled about the grounds or indulged in the games placed at their disposal, while others went boating. The garden party was entirely successful, and the results will net a good round sum. The host and hostess were indefatigable in their efforts to make the evening a pleasant one, and they succeeded admirably.

The Nicholls' Hospital.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

MY DEAR SIR,—A friend of the writer has been lately an inmate of the Nicholls' Hospital. He is overwhelmed with a sense of the kindness which he there experienced. He thinks it his duty to let it be known through your columns what an admirable institution the hospital is and how well it is conducted. He takes this opportunity of returning his thanks for the attention shown him by the matron and nurses of the hospital while he remained under their charge.

I am,

Yours truly,

AMICUS.

Promotion Examinations—List of Pupils Promoted from Form I to II.

Mr. J. H. Long, head master of the Collegiate Institute, has furnished the EXAMINER with the following promotion list. The names are given in the order of merit:—

FROM FORM I.

Cameron, C., McCarthy, J., Burnham, E., Fife, M.H., Brown, L. A., McDonnell, M., Stenson, G. T., Detcher, M., Fobert, W. A. and Best. B.,(equal), Brodie, W., Brown, E. G., Morrow, M., Wilson, C., Saunders, E., Dover, V., Burnham, H., Fowler, A., Stewart, A. M., Hall, L., Wills, A., Merrick, B. M., Welsh, J. K., Cromie, A., Kennedy, H.

FROM FORM II.

VanEvery, J. F.; Carveth, A. J.; Brown, B. C.; Carey, A. M., and Robinson, A., (equal); Carveth, T. H.; Fairweather, J.; Mannell, S.; Best, E.; Hicks, R.; Davidson, L.; Fairbairn, J. M. R.; Matthews, S. W.; Fowler, G. W.; Cummins, J. G.; Fife, A. F.; Taylor, E., and McKee, A., (equal); Rutherford, B.; Deane, G.; Fitzgerald, H. G.; O'Brien, J.; Dwyer, T. J.; Croly, A. J.; McBain, G.; Davidson, L. G.

Some other pupils who failed by only a few marks, may be promoted in the early part of the autumn term, if the masters are satisfied with their work.

The Sparrows.

The boys who are employed at Irwin's Mills and many of whom are tinged with a taste for natural history, are daily furnished with ample opportunity for indulging in that study by attending to the movements and antics of the combative sparrow. The large mill is literally filled with sparrows nests arranged along the beams; especially at the north end they are very numerous. Last week a pair of these birds cut companionship with the commoners and moved to the south end, where they proceeded to build a nest at the union of two rafters at the top of the mill, and established house keeping apart from their fellows. It seemed as if they thought the other birds not quite up to their social standing. Be that as it may, their deserted comrades resented the move and became aggressive. After the nest had been completed, the north end colony came down on them by the dozen, and with beak and claw attempted the demolition of their home which they ably and persistently defended, the female occupying the nest, while the male did sentry on the outside, and the din and uproar became deafening as the conflict raged. The defender and one of his enemies would get locked in a deadly embrace and fall fluttering to the floor where the sawdust would fly for a short space, when the owner of the nest would ascend only to encounter a new enemy, when down they would come again. This continued for three or four hours Friday and Saturday. The creatures would sit panting and exhausted on the beams six or eight feet from us, with beaks extended and a fiery glow of hatred expressed in a human degree in their little, bright eyes. When the nest was totally destroyed the bombarding party retired, seemingly satisfied. The same pair commenced a new domicile, and at the time of writing (Monday) it looks to be nearly completed.

Another case of two of those birds is noteworthy. They built a nest on a beam just over our heads, where we could see them continually, and became, in a way, acquaintwith them. The male looked as though he was "knocked out" and seemed entirely destitute of ambition. He had only about three feathers in his tail and acted tame and mopish. His wife on the other hand was exceedingly brisk and lively. They had four eggs and had commenced hatching when a stranger appeared on the scene. This was a sparrow from Whitby or Port Perry, or some place. On his arrival he at once formed an acquaintence with Mrs. Sparrow, and she seemed to receive his addresses with pleasure. When the stranger would fly unto a beam near the nest, Mrs. Sparrow would come out and have a pleasant chat with him. This naturally awoke the green-eyed monster in the soul of her husband, who would get between and try to break up the conversation. Mr. Sparrow did not want to be disturbed and immediately a furious combat would ensue, the stranger generally being the victor. This continued for three or four days when the legitimate husband entirely disappeared and left the frail, fair one in undisputed possession of the stranger, who now does the honors of his ill-acquired home. Unfaithful Mrs. Sparrow!

Indian River.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The hum of the mower is again heard in the adjoining fields. Barley and fall wheat ripening.

A public examination was held in our school, No. 3, Otonabee, on Friday last, when Bertha Laurie, Bella Duff and Susie Patterson passed with honors. Mr. J. Pallin's little girls sang some very nice pieces, which greatly pleased the audience. The rest of the children did remarkably well.

Mr. R. Carveth has our sincere sympathy in his sad bereavement caused by the death of his wife. Mrs. Carveth was a daughter of Mr. Thomas LaClare, and the large number (over sixty rigs) which followed her remains to the Roman Catholic cemetery shows how highly respected she was in the neighbourhood.

News Nuggets.

—The last of Rathbun's drive of logs has been boomed in the lake, and the river is now pretty clear of stragglers.

—Another effort is being made to ameliorate the condition of the sewerage system about the town buildings.

—There was no police court to-day. The "fraud" case was settled out of court, as the magistrate had advised.

—A Frenchman named Gagnon was on Monday committed to gaol for 30 days on a warrant for contempt of court, issued by P. M. Edmison. He will serve out the time.

—Police Magistrate Edmison's son was driving the family horse Sunday, when the animal stumbled in going down a hill, and fell and broke its leg. It was shot to relieve its misery.

—Mr. Wm. Radkins, through his solicitors, Messrs. Stratton & Hall, claims $1,000 damages to his property because of the diversion of the creek, consequent upon the building of the new King street bridge.

—A ten-year-old boy arrived in town by the 11.30 C.P.R. express Monday night, bound for Hazel Bros. P.C. McGinty looked after the little fellow until he was taken to the Home.

—All the steamboats running on Little Lake and the Otonabee were satisfactorily examined by Capt. Dick, a government inspector, last Saturday. The steam yacht "Eva" has been granted a special permit to to carry passengers.

—Mr. Geo. Ball will give a suit of clothes and a $5 bill to the person who cut his awning strings on Sunday, if that person will only come manfully forward and acknowledge. He need not fear prosecution, either.

—A horse owned by Mr. Condon, of Douro, had its jaw broken by a stone the other day. Dr. Stephenson, V.S., on Monday removed the splinters of bone from the facture and the animal is now recovering.

—The EXAMINER is informed that a brace of dogs went out from either Ashburnham or town on Sunday and killed thirteen sheep—five for one Otonabee farmer (his whole flock) and eight for another.

Personal.

Mr. George Wilson, of the Port Hope Guide, was in town to-day and gave the EXAMINER a call.

Mr. John Burns, an old-time employe of the EXAMINER, now of the Guide office, Port Hope, was in town and called on the boys to-day.

Mr. H. Wade, Secretary of the Provincial Agricultural and Arts Association, of Toronto, is in town to-day on business connected with the exhibition. This year will be the 43rd annual exhibition; it will be held at Kingston from 10th to 15th September, and being the first exhibition of the season it will, no doubt, be a success.

BOARDING and DAY SCHOOL
PRINCIPAL -- MR. EDWARD DUFF.
ON resuming work for the autumn term, Mr. Duff will take up with junior pupils, the subjects required for entrance to the Collegiate Institute. Additional subjects such as Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, French, &c., will receive careful attention. Those who desire a classical and mathematical training for their children will do well to have the preliminary work entered on at an early stage. Two of Mr. Duff's present pupils, both under twelve, were this term examined by J. H. Long, Esq. M. A., Collegiate Institute, in the first three books of Euclid. The result was very satisfactory, one taking 90%, the other about 30%. Both boys took high marks in Latin and Greek Translation and Grammar.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

What We Notice.

That our Pic-Nic Baskets are great sellers.
That it pays to advertise.
That a plain statement of facts is not boasting
That travel must be brisk judging from our large sales of Trunks and Valises.
That progression, not retrogression, is a good motto.
That there is no "long felt want" in our line which we do not supply.
That "ROUTLEY" has become a familiar household word.
Even though he don't want all the earth.
That they can climb as well as we, if they keep pow.
That the Fan Season is not over yet.
That our Stock of Pens will have to be renewed again if the demand keeps up like this.
That merit is the measure of success.
That it takes "hand" to set up head.
That it is often a little lonely at the top.
That we would like some of our competitors to "try, try again."
That we haven't pulled the ladder up after us.

THE FISHERIES TREATY.

SENATOR HOAR'S LONG THREATENED SPEECH.

A Plea for the "Protection" of the American Fishermen—A High Tribute to Canadian Statesmen.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Senator George Hoar of Massachusetts delivered his long-threatened address on the fisheries question in the Senate yesterday. The speech in the form of public document makes over sixty close printed pages, besides which the Senator felt impelled to add a summary not contained in the printed document. Mr. Hoar's address was a plea for the protection of the American fishermen, because the fishermen are the only portion of a nation that maintain unimpaired their fighting quality during a long peace.

"We pay," said Mr. Hoar, "$60,000 a year for West Point and Annapolis. Canada exported from the produce of her fisheries in 1887 a value of $8,843,388, of this we took nearly $1,500,000. Every dollar of that was a payment to our great rival, to our only possible enemy, towards the support of a naval school to which Annapolis or Greenwich is quite unimportant. The desire of Canada and Great Britain to contract within the least possible limits the fishing grounds to which Americans shall have access and to possess themselves without obstruction of the calling which brings to this great American market its supply of fish for food and oils has a vastly larger purpose than mere struggle for a profitable industry, important as that may be."

He said the Fisheries Treaty is not the road to honor, to safety or to power; it is not the road to the respect of Great Britain or even of Canada. Where it removes one cause of discord it will produce ten new grievances. Adherence to treaties, submission to the judgments of duly constituted treaties, the same for both sides, will give us security. We can never have commercial reciprocity until justice and courtesy are first established. We can never live in peace with Canada if we allow her to think that the methods she has taken for the last three years are the way to concessions from the United States; we can never live in peace with England if we permit her without prompt and instant protest to try once more the experiments on our forbearance which preceded the revolution, which preceded the war of 1812, which accompanied the war of the rebellion.

The rejection of this treaty is in the interest of a true, thorough and lasting peace. We have every motive of kindred, of friendship and of commercial interest to live in amity with the Mother Country, and with the young power which is rising on our northern boundary, whose frontier for more than fifty degrees of longitude marches side by side with our own.

We look with no contempt or dislike upon Canada. We are glad to see the spirit of her young nationality stirring in her veins; we behold with admiration the growth of her magnificent railroad system and the courage and enterprise with which her statesmen are adding these new links to the chain with which England like a mighty snake is winding her coils about the globe.

Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John Macdonald may well give lessons to both sides of this Chamber. Canada is not afraid to create or control the great railroads that are essential to her commercial prosperity, she does not send away her famous engineers when they place their genius at her command, humbled and baffled from her legislative chamber, to die in sorrow and disappointment. She is not afraid to build a ship railway, or even to create a navy, but when she asks us to abandon our fishermen to her tender mercies to build up a naval school for her by giving her fishermen our market, she asks what is neither fitting for us to yield nor for her to receive.

I do not like the present treaty. It leaves the American sailor to be bullied and insulted without redress and abandons the American right to the fisheries, older than the nation itself, which the valor of our fathers won for us and the wisdom of our fathers preserved for us.

An allusion by the speaker to the lack of special ability on the part of the American negotiators of the treaty was taken up and contested by Senators Payne and Gray. Mr. Hoar thought that if Messrs. Frye, Scott or Woodbury had been selected as the American representatives a more satisfactory treaty would have been agreed upon.

At the close of his speech Mr. Hoar was complimented by a number of the Senators on his side of the House.

U. S. Crop Averages.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Department of Agriculture makes these July general averages of condition: Cotton 86.7, winter wheat 75.8, spring wheat 95.9, corn 93, oats 95.2, barley 91, winter rye 95.1, spring rye 93.8, tobacco manufacturing leaf 89.

Gen. Sheridan's Condition.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 11.—Gen. Sheridan passed a quiet night and continued comfortable this morning. Hopes are expressed that the favorable conditions may continue and that the work of permanent improvement may be entered upon.

A SENSATIONAL FIASCO.

THE SALIENT POINTS IN THE GREAT TIMES CASE.

There is Probably No Truth in the Suggestion that the Action was Collusive—Among the Bishops.

LONDON, July 11.—The great Times case has been at once a sensation and a fiasco. The disclosures made in the Attorney-General's speech for the defendants have produced a profound impression upon the public, but this only serves to deepen the feeling of disappointment that the mass of evidence which had been collected at such great expense was not laid before the jury. The scale on which the case for the defendants was prepared is sufficient refutation of the theory that the action was a collusive one. I have good reasons, moreover, on independent grounds for saying that there is no truth in that suggestion. Until a few days before the trial serious doubt was entertained at Printing House Square whether the case would come into court at all, but it was never doubted that if Mr. O'Donnell opened his case he would do so thoroughly, and produce a number of important witnesses to refute The Times' attack upon the Parnellites.

The points which have most impressed the public are Mr. Parnell's old Forster letter to Mr. Egan and Mr. Frank Byrne's letter from Cannes acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Parnell's check. As regards the former, I understand that all who have examined the document are satisfied of its genuineness. The body of the letter is in the handwriting of one of Mr. Parnell's fellow-prisoners. It is known by whom it was passed out of Kilmainham, a person in whose hands the writer was as safe as he would naturally have supposed himself to be with Mr. Egan. The precautions taken were so complete that even if it had been intercepted in transit no suspicion would have attached to the writer. As Mr. Parnell says he never wrote such a letter, of course the signature must be a forgery, but I believe there is no doubt that the forgery was committed in Kilmainham prison on the date given, namely January, '82. In the earlier period of Mr. Parnell's imprisonment he came under punishment for attempting to bribe a warder to carry out a letter for him. Afterward communication with the outer world was carried on freely without expense or serious risk.

One hundred and ten bishops never dined before in England under the same roof. The scene at the Mansion House was very striking on Wednesday. The prelates from the States do not, like their Anglican colleagues, wear purple court dress, but appear in ordinary garb, and it was somewhat difficult to realise that some of the stalwart, moustached men present, looking more like guardsmen than clerics, were actually bishops with vast dioceses.

A very interesting figure was the venerable black bishop, Dr. Crowther, who looked for all the world like a picture of "Uncle Tom" in Mrs. Beecher Stowe's immortal work. Another was the Bishop of Michigan, who was a cavalry officer in the Civil war. A third was the tall, gaunt Bishop of Minnesota, Dr. Whipple, with flowing hair encircling his shoulders, who is better known as an apostle to the Red Indians. Some of the bishops well-known to London were welcomed back again—such as Dr. Barry, primate of Australia; Dr. Anson, well remembered as rector of Woolwich, but now Bishop of Qu'Appelle, in the Canadian region where the thermometer often registers forty degrees below zero, and Dr. Mackray, bishop of Rupert's Land. A good many Irish bishops were present, all wearing skull caps. The Archbishop of York made a capital speech, urging that the Prime Minister's bill for creating life peers was a great raison d'etre for continuing bishops as members of the Upper House. The speeches were homely and to the point. The seven hundredth Lord Mayor of London, the first Papist who has occupied the civic chair since the Reformation, welcomed the 92nd Archbishop of Canterbury and the 108th Bishopof London. The Primate made a genial, kindly address. The Bishop of Minnesota, for the American prelates, and the Bishops of Calcutta and Sydney, for the Colonial bishops, also spoke. It being Independence Day, the band played a charming selection of American airs, and subsequently "The Star Spangled Banner" with variations. EDMUND YATES.

Parnell's Optimism.

LONDON, July 11.—In an interview Mr. Parnell said he believed that Home Rule would result in the establishment of an Imperial Parliament in which England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Colonies would be represented. Each country would also have a separate Legislature to manage its own affairs. The Imperial Parliament, he thought, would supplant the House of Lords. Mr. Parnell also believed that the next general election would result in the return to the House of Commons of a majority of 120 Gladstonians.

In the Imperial Commons.

LONDON, July 11.—In the House of Commons last evening, Mr Smith, the Government leader, moved that precedence be given daily to Government business during the remainder of the session. He asked the assistance of the House in making the County Bill workable. He hoped the bill would pass next week. If the members lent their aid to facilitate business the Government would be enabled to adhere to their programme of promoting bills for Imperial defence, for local reforms, for the creating of a Ministry of Agriculture and for several Irish measures. If the work was progressed Parliament would adjourn in the early part of August and reassemble in October. After some discussion the motion was agreed to without division.

Charges Against Dr. Mackenzie.

BERLIN, July 11.—Dr. Gerhardt, acting under the directions of the German doctors who attended the late Emperor Frederick, has drawn up a report stating that early in 1887 the German physicians pronounced the disease from which he was suffering to be of a cancerous nature. They decided to open the laryux, and preparations were made to perform the operation on May 20, when Dr. Mackenzie saw Frederick and declared that the disease was not cancer, and opposed an operation. Dr. Mackenzie removed a portion of the growth which Prof. Virchow examined, but there was no proof that the piece was taken from the actually affected part. Dr. Gerhardt examined Frederick's throat after the piece had been removed, and accused Dr. Mackenzie of removing a piece from the unaffected part of the throat instead of from the diseased part. Dr. Mackenzie replied that it was possible he had done so. The German doctors protested against Dr. Mackenzie's treatment throughout. Prof. Von Bergmann corroborates Dr. Gerhardt's statement and gives the reasons why he lost confidence in Dr. Mackenzie.

The Mormon Church Troubles.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 11.—Receiver Dye has compromised in the matter of the Mormon Church property. The receiver keeps what property he has seized and has been paid $157,666 in cash. Further proceedings are to be dropped pending the hearing of the appeal in the United States Supreme Court.

A "Queer" Operator Arrested.

SARNIA, July 11.—W. O. Parsons, a prominent contractor, was arrested at Shedford on a charge of counterfeiting and brought here yesterday. He was remanded by the magistrate for a week. There was found in his house and on his person about $600 in bills and American silver. Parsons is mixed up in the counterfeiting work on which Charles Johnston, now in jail here, is held.

THE MINING COMMISSION.

To Start on its Tour Next week—Toronto Victims of Reckless Drivers.

TORONTO, July 11.—The Mining Commission will start on its travels on or about July 16.

James Mason, the corpulent American, against whom the detectives hold an indictment for the purloinment of $300 from Liquidator Henry Lye at the Union Station on the night of June 30, came up again yesterday. His counsel applied for a remand till July 17, which his Worship allowed.

When the quartette of alleged burglars, Charles Fitzgibbons, Michael O'Neill, Thos. Thornton and Michael Graney, were arraigned for burglarizing the residence of H. Green, Czar-street, Fitz Gibbons requested the court to alter his plea, as he desired to plead guilty, much to the disgust of his confreres. He was remanded until Friday, and in the meantime it is expected that he will throw some light on a number of things hitherto in the dark.

George Harold, who, when he recovered consciousness, said he was from Hamilton and was on his way to Montreal, was knocked down and run over by a butcher's John on Queen-street west near Bay, this morning. A number of ugly cuts were stitched up in an adjacent drug store, and he recovered strength enough to proceed on his way.

Mr. H. S. Watkins, of J. McFarlane & Co., is the victim of another reckless driver. In crossing Queen-street east, to catch a street railway car, he was run down by an unknown man, who drove furiously away when he had done the mischief. The injuries to Mr. Watkins' head are so serious that a consultation was held yesterday.

Billy Price undertook the role of highwayman last night, and from a guileless countryman succeeded in extracting three five cent pieces. There was then a struggle, in which Billy was captured, with the aid of a policeman, and this morning he was sent to the Kingston Penitentiary.

Reuben S. Wilson, of 20 Dovercourt-road, was, on the strength of a despatch from Percy Sherwood, Chief of the Dominion Police, arrested and his place searched to-day. The detectives found Wilson asleep in bed, and in the pocket of his coat they discovered a $5 U. S. silver certificate of the bogus brand. Wilson came from Sarnia about two years ago and works as a carpenter. He is 50 years old and has a large family. He will be sent to Sarnia for trial as a counterfeiter.

Judge Macdougall charged Charles Brown, livery stable proprietor, with demanding a higher rate for the use of one of his hacks than allowed by tariff. His Honor stated that he brought the charge against Mr. Brown because, being a Police Commissioner, complaints had continually reached him of overcharge by livery stable men, and a case having occurred with himself he considered it to be his duty to have it ventilated. Mr. Brown in his own behalf explained to the court that he interpreted the tariff to permit him to charge by the hour. The Magistrate held Mr. Brown's contention erroneous, and fined him $1 and costs or ten days.

The Governor-General will open the Industrial Exhibition here on September 10.

Toward the end of next week Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, will leave for a month's camping in Muskoka.

The Teachers' Institute in connection with the Chautauqua Assembly at Niagara will be carried on from Aug. 6 to Aug. 13. The proceedings will be conducted by Mr. William Houston, M. A., Provincial Librarian; Mr. W. A. Douglass, B. A., Inspector J. L. Hughes, Mr. W. J. Robertson, M. A., of St. Catharines, and Professor Clark, of Queen's College. The chief subject will be the teaching of English, and Mr. Houston's work will be main'y an expansion of what he has been doing at Teachers' Institutes in various parts of the Province. The week's course will be of great value and interest, and ought to attract a very large attendance of teachers.

Inspector Archibald says that the Bucket Shop Law will be rigidly enforced in this city.

Thomas E. Smith, 170 Sumach-street, a cousin of Jennie Irving, called at police headquarters yesterday and claimed the trunks belonging to the unfortunate girl.

North Toronto residents are setting on foot a project for an electric street railway.

The annual convention of the National Division of Sons of Temperance opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the theater of the Normal School. Over 100 delegates are in attendance from all parts of Canada and the States.

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO.

The Priests Send a Strong Petition to the Holy Office for Reforms.

TORONTO, July 11.—It has just transpired that at the meeting of the priests of this diocese, held here on June 20 last, a memorial was signed in triplicate and sent to the Holy Office praying: (1) for the affirmation of the decrees of the Council of Baltimore in so far as the diocese of Toronto is concerned; (2) for the right to elect their own bishops; (3) for the rule of the canon law. This petition was supported by every priest, with the exception of one of the administrators; (4) the other said under the circumstances he would not sign it, but his sympathy was with it entirely. Father McBride, the late Archbishop's secretary, opposed the petition or part of it, but when he saw the unanimity of his fellows asked for leave to second the motion making the conclusion of the meeting unanimous. The priests of this diocese expect the priests of the diocese of Hamilton to take a similar stand.

The London Deputation at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 11.—Mayor Cowan of London, Ont., with Aldermen Vining, Skinner and Boyd are in town. The object of their visit was to wait upon Mr. Hickson of the G. T. R. with a view to induce that gentleman to rebuild the car and locomotive works which four years ago were burned out in London. A basis of agreement was arrived at. Mr. Hickson will meet the deputation in Toronto in about a month and conclude arrangements.

$400 Reward for a Murderer's Arrest.

QUEBEC, July 11.—The Government offer $400 reward for the arrest of Morrison, accused of the murder of Bailiff Wesson at Lake Megantic, June 28.

A RUMPUS IN THE G.G.F.G.

FIVE OF THE CAPTAINS SEND IN THEIR RESIGNATIONS.

What the Trouble is about—Hon Mr McLelan Sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.

OTTAWA, July 11.—Hon. A. L. McLelan was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia at three o'clock yesterday afternoon by Mr. J. J. McGee, Deputy-Governor.

It is rumored that delegates from the Australian colonies are on their way here to confer with the Dominion Government with reference to the proposed Pacific cable.

Ald. Ashwith, contractor for the Canadian Pacific Railway short line through the State of Maine, says the road will be completed to Mattawamkeag in about six weeks.

There is quite a rumpus in the Governor-General's Foot Guards. Five out of six captains have resigned, the sixth being absent. It was rumored also that two majors had resigned, but Major Tilden denies that he has sent in his resignation, and Major Todd is out of town. The following is assigned as the reason for the action of the captains: A demand was made by the friends of Mr. Lebaron Ross of the Department of Railways and Canals, who belonged to the sharpshooters when in the Northwest, for a commission for him. This is said to have evoked considerable hostile comment and opposition from the officers. Mr. Ross wrote a letter to Major Todd upon the matter, and the five officers who have resigned then wrote to Col. Macpherson asking him to call a meeting to consider the letter in question. The request from the officers, which was not dated, was written some little time ago and was refused by Col. Macpherson on the ground that the matter was one that should be dealt with by him and not by the officers. Thereupon, after considering the matter the resignations of the five who signed the "Round Robin" as before mentioned were sent in to the commanding officer.

There is trouble in St. Bartholomew Church, New Edinburg, between Rev. Mr. Hannington, the rector, and a portion of the congregation who claim that the rev. gentleman is too high church and is introducing ritualistic practices. This has been specially the case since the advent as curate of Mr. Norvey, a young student of Trinity College, and several of the congregation threaten to resign. A meeting of the congregation will be held on Monday evening to discuss the matter. Those who object to the rector's course propose to move that his salary be reduced by one-half in order to persuade him to resign.

Hon. John Hamilton's will was admitted to probate yesterday. His Ontario estate is put at $60,000.

It is understood that Dr. Tache, who has been Deputy Minister of Agriculture since 1864, has been superannuated on account of ill-health, and that Mr. John Lowe, Secretary of the Department, has been promoted to the position of Deputy Minister.

QUEBEC FINANCES.

The Scheme for the Conversion and Consolidation of the Provincial Debt.

QUEBEC, July 11.—In the Assembly yesterday afternoon Mr. Shehyn brought down a message from the Lieutenant-Governor transmitting resolutions for the conversion and consolidation of the provincial debt.

The resolutions, which are quite lengthy, provide for calling in the whole of the current debentures of the provinces, either by redemption in cash or exchange for new debentures. The Provincial Treasurer is given power to raise by loan a sum equal to the whole amount of the present debt, bearing a rate of interest less than 4 per cent., for the purchase of the present debt, but it is provided that the Treasurer shall fix a date within which the holders of the present debentures shall exchange them for the new issue or be paid in cash, the only alternative being a forced reduction of interest from the present rate to the new one.

This last clause, it is claimed, is illegal, and the bondholders threaten an appeal to the courts to test the legality of the proceeding.

When the resolutions came up last evening they were adopted without amendment and a bill founded thereon read a first time. On the second reading Mr. Desjardins, the financial critic of the Opposition, objected to the clause giving the Government power to effect a forced conversion of the debt and dubbed it equivalent to a repudiation of the financial engagements of the province. He said that the clause was unjust and calculated to injure the credit of Canada.

He moved in amendment that all the negotiations be conducted by the Treasurer without any intermediary, hoping by this to defeat the Government's agreement with the Credit Foncier of Paris.

Mr. Mercier said that the amendment was a ridiculous one, and would, if carried, only lead to the resignation of the Government.

Mr. David moved a sub-amendment expressing confidence in the Government, which was carried after a long debate.

The Calm Before the Storm.

WINNIPEG, July 11.—No evening preceding elections has ever before been as quiet here as last night, and comparatively little interest is taken in the fight. Interest centres in North Winnipeg, where it is expected that Treasurer Jones may be defeated, and in Kildonan, where it is reported a number of Norquay's native supporters have been invited to a steamboat excursion from which they won't return until after the polls close.

The Northern Pacific officials have again returned here and had an interview with the Government.

Hamilton Notes.

HAMILTON, July 11.—Grocer Daniel Henry has been fined $30 by the Police Magistrate for selling liquor in less quantities than required by law.

John Connors of Barton Township has been fined $7 at the Police Court for using profane and threatening language to his wife.

At the annual meeting of St. George's Benevolent Society the report for the half year showed receipts $1753, disbursements $1611

Irish Affairs.

An Interesting Letter to President Fitzgerald by Mr. Thomas Shillington.

Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald, town, sends us the following clipping from an American paper, received by him from President Fitzgerald of the Irish National League of America. As the introduction to the letter says, it shows that an Irishman can be both a Protestant and a patriot.—

"President Fitzgerald of the Irish National League has just received the following letter from Mr. Thomas Shillington, president of the Irish Protestant home rule association. It will be read with interest as an evidence of Protestant opinion on Irish affairs, and showing that Protestantism and Irish patriotism can go hand in hand in spite of the declarations of men whose religion is but a mask for treachery and self-interest:"

PENTADOWN, IRELAND, 28th May, 1888.—Hon. John Fitzgerald, President Irish National League of America, Lincoln, Neb.—Dear Sir: I am glad to learn from the papers you have been good enough to send me, that Irishmen and their friends in America are coming forward in support of the action of the Catholic members of the Irish parliamentary party at this critical juncture.

By perpetual scheming and plots of the meanest character, the supporters of the present Balfourian tyranny in this country are constantly seeking to divide the people and bring about disunion amongst their leaders.

The important assistance rendered by the Catholic bishops and priests to their people in their struggle for political freedom, has rendered them the special objects of attack, and the supreme efforts of the landlords have been directed to detaching them from the cause of the people.

Having completely failed in Ireland, this last master stroke is now tried at Rome. The plot is this: If on a question of morals their religious guides can only be placed in a position of apparent antagonism to the people, suspicion, discouragement and weakness would result. The more active, advanced, and less wary amongst the people would probably be forced into open opposition to their religious teachers and to their church. The cautious would be alarmed; divisions secured; two parties formed in the national ranks; tenants in despair would succumb to the pressure of their landlords, and resistance to impossible rents collapse. Seizing the opportunity, the Tories would bring in a measure to buy out the landlords at their own price and saddle Ireland with an enormous debt for their advantage; they (the tories) then hope that, discouraged by divisions in the Irish party, the liberal party of Great Britain would be forced by political exigencies to consent to some petty measure of local municipal reform for Ireland and shelve the question of Irish self-government for a generation, leaving the future to take care of itself.

This is the plot, the first act of which is this rescript from Rome which the Duke of Norfolk has succeeded in obtaining.

You cannot, therefore, better serve the cause of Ireland than by sustaining with the utmost encouragement the Irish leaders in the patriotic stand which they have taken on this question, and also by supporting the patriotic Catholic clergy under circumstances of the greatest difficulty, in following up their noble record in the past by standing by the people to-day.

The Southampton election of last week has produced an immense sensation. There can be little doubt that opinion in England is rapidly verging in our direction; but the real danger to the Irish cause now lies in the possibility of divided counsels, and in relaxed efforts on the part of our friends.

The present is one of the most critical crises through which the Irish question has passed and our enemies are working with the energy of despair.

The spirited action of the Irish Catholic members of the parliamentary party will be of the greatest possible advantage to us in Ulster in removing one of our difficulties with those Protestants who from old religious prejudices are opposed to home rule.

They are now forced to acknowledge that the movement is really a national one and that interference from Italy in Irish political affairs would be resented as much as interference from England or elsewhere.

The widest and most emphatic expression of American opinion in support of the action of our friends here just now would be of the greatest use to us.

I hope the day is not distant when the Irish people at home will be able to make some suitable acknowledgement of the invaluable assistance which their American friends have afforded them in their struggle for self government.

I have been much obliged by the newspapers which you have been kind enough to send me occasionally. I am, dear sir,

Yours faithfully,

[Signed] THOMAS SHILLINGTON.

Cold Springs, Otonabee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Friday evening, 6th inst., the Cold Springs football club were treated to a strawberry festival by the young ladies of this place. The ladies intimated that the treat was intended to mark their appreciation of the club's recent victory over the Crystals.

The club assembled on the grounds at 6 o'clock, and after an hour's effective practice during which some effective strategy was displayed, an adjournment was made to the tables, where the ladies had a tempting spread of various cake and numberless dishes of strawberries "smothered" in cream.

When the lads had performed their duty at the tables to the satisfaction of the lasses, short speeches, votes of thanks, etc., wound up the proceedings of a very pleasant evening.

Willie Fawcett, who had his leg splintered by a kick from an opponent in the match on 27th ult., is still unable to be around. The ankle and leg below the knee are badly swollen, and quite painful. It is not expected to be better for some time yet. Dr. Kincaid is attending him, and the club are doing what they can to keep him from worrying.

Liverpool quotations were 46s. 6d. Among the buyers present were Messrs. Wrighton, Hodgson, Flavelle, Dingwall, Cook, Fitzgerald, Cluxton, McBean and Warrington.

Bidding was as follows:—Warrington, 9c. for selections; 9c. for further selection; Cluxton, 9½ for Peterborough section; Hodgson, 9½ for selections; Cluxton, 9½ for Peterborough; Warrington, 9⅝ for selections; Wrighton, 9⅝ for the whole board; Warrington, 9½ for Peterborough; Hodgson, 9⅝ for Pemelon Falls, Downerville, Boboaygeon, Mariposa and Starr; Warrington, 9c. for the balance of Victoria; Wrighton, 9⅝ for Victoria board and 9½ for selections of Peterborough board, viz., Warminster, Central Smith and Cherry Grove; Warrington, 9½c. for the balance of Peterborough board; Hodgson, 9⅝ for Westwood, Melrose Abbey and Norwood; Cluxton, 9⅝ for Warminster, Myrtle, North Smith and Pine Grove; Warrington, 9⅝ for the Peterborough board and Hodgson, 9 7/16 for Victoria. Messrs. Cluxton, Wrighton and Flavelle objected to Mr. Warrington's offer being accepted after they had named their selections, but the board ruled, and the salesmen endorsed their actions by vote, that it should be accepted. Then Mr. Cluxton bid 9 11/16 for the Peterborough Board and Mr. Wrighton 9½ for Victoria. Mr. Hodgson bid 9⅝ for selections Victoria Board and Mr. Wrighton followed with 9⅝ for the whole of Victoria board. A final offer of 9⅝ for Peterborough board was made by Mr. Warrington. The two last bids were accepted—9⅝ for Peterborough and 9⅝ for Victoria. All the factories sold.

A Woman's Confession.

"Do you know, Mary, I once actually contemplated suicide"? "You horrify me, Mrs. B, tell me about it." "I was suffering from chronic weakness. I believed myself the most unhappy woman in the world. I looked ten years older than I really was, and I felt twenty. Life seemed to have nothing in it worth living for." "I have experienced all those symptoms myself. Well?" "Well, I was saved at the eleventh hour from the commission of a deed which I shudder to think of. A friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so. In an incredibly short time I felt like a knew being. The 'Prescription' cured me, and I owe Dr. Pierce a debt of gratitude which I can never repay." c

Valuable Properties for Sale suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—East Half of Lot No. 1 in 2nd Concession of the Township of Thorah, County of Ontario, 120 acres all cleared, soil good clay loam, house and barn on farm, which is situated about three and a half miles from Beaverton. Price $4,000.

2nd.—The Erskine Homestead, being the North Part of Block "U" Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 328 feet on Concession street, and 2340 on the Road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be subdivided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "E" Ashburnham, containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan on the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town with brick dwelling house 26x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil first-class, suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The residence of Mrs. F. W. Hamilton, situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House hill, there is about ½ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c. soil, first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—Erin Cottage being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13 in 13th Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN. We have a large amount of private funds for investment and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

MORE SLEDGE-HAMMER WHACKS: HIGH PRICES

Our aim accomplished, to make our store the Hub of Peterboro's Clothing Trade.

52½

A Continuation of our Great 52½ Cents on the Dollar CLOTHING SALE.

We are Rattling away at this price at Express Speed, FINE LINES.

WE BOOM UP THE GOODS! WE BOOM DOWN THE PRICES!!

Right we are. Right we shall be. We hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may. The dealers who buy at six month's time pursue the even tenor of their way. They are content to do business as hundreds of others are doing, and get left. How can the six months' time men compete with GOUGH'S. The Wonderful Cheap Men, the High Pressure Electric Clothiers, who seize the opportunity to buy at Spot Cash, and buy Awfully Well.

Read you Noble Sons of Toil, what the Clothiers of the Age are going to do for the next 30 days, and when you read, reflect, and when you reflect, come and buy from them, for you cannot buy from any Wholesale House in Canada at the following prices:

FOR 30 DAYS
WE WILL SELL YOU
SUITS for——$2.95
That Cost Imaginary Clothiers $4.25, Wholesale.
Men's Fine Wors'd Suits $6.90
Worth $13.00.
Men's Pants for——$1.50
We don't say what they are worth, but see if you can buy elsewhere for $1.95.

Special Drives
Boys' Coats 19 Cents Each.
MEN'S Working Pants, 17 Cents Each.

FOR 30 DAYS
WE WILL SELL YOU

CANADIANS AT WIMBLEDON.

A Good Showing—Parnell on Imperial Federation—The Newfoundland Loan.

LONDON, July 11.—The Canadian team at Wimbledon are meeting with excellent success. Private Duncan, of the Queen's Own Rifles, scored 92 in the first range of the Queen's, and several made 31 and 30. Seven prize winners received £32 in the Alexandra, Gunner Campbell, of the Halifax Garrison Artillery, leading with 61 against three prize men who won £6 each year.

The Privy Council case of the St. Catharines Milling Company v. the Queen was listened for yesterday but not reached. It will stand till Thursday.

Mr. Parnell's interview in the Pall Mall Gazette last night giving a frank adhesion to the principle of Imperial Federation, created much interest in political and colonial circles.

The success of the Newfoundland £235,000 four per cent. loan is considered beyond doubt. The minimum price is 102.

The Canadian Government exhibit at the Royal show in Nottingham, under the direction of Mr. John Dyke, is attracting much attention from the farming classes. There is an unusually large attendance of Canadian pedigree stock buyers, and many purchases for Canada were made at prices much higher than in former years.

Telegraphic communication with Australia and New Zealand is entirely suspended. This interruption has revived interest in the cable via Vancouver to Australia, and pressure is being brought to bear on the Imperial Government to grant the subsidy asked for, which would guarantee the success of the enterprise.

His Arm Torn Out.

WHITBY, July 11.—A few minutes before the whistle of the Mowat Manufacturing Company's works here blew the noon hour yesterday, Arthur Thompson in handling a machine belt caught his right hand in a rapidly revolving pulley, and before he well knew what had happened the arm was stripped of its flesh and sinews from the shoulder down, the bone broken off below the elbow and the lost member twisted tight about the whirring shaft.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1888.

The Weather.

Fresh southwest to west winds; fair, very warm weather, with a few local thunderstorms.

Hot Weather and Harvest.

This hot dry weather is bringing on the crops at a rapid rate and the harvest in the country will soon be on. The harvest of bargains in stylish neat and pretty prints is now on at the golden lion. See the splendid display of imported prints in the shop windows, sold at 10 cents, worth 15 cents.

Drowned in Gull River.

John Macaulay, a young man working on one of J. M. Irwin's drives, was drowned while breaking a jam in the rapids on Gull River, about four miles from Minden, on Monday. His body was found about a quarter of a mile away. His parents live near Haliburton.

The Collegiate Institute Buildings.

The committee, appointed by the School Board to examine the Institute premises with a view of ascertaining the possibility of their being changed to meet the government requirements, and also to make enquiries respecting the North Ward school site, met and decided to request the architects of the town to look the building over, see if the necessary changes can be made and report the result of their investigations. They were also instructed to submit plans for the proposed north ward public school building.

The Excursionists.

The Port Hope and Whitby excursionists who visited town Tuesday will carry away pleasant recollections. The weather was fine and the natural advantages of Inverlea as a picnic ground were fully appreciated. During the day the band of the 46th Batt., Port Hope, played on the grounds while the sports and amusements were being conducted. Afterwards the people spread themselves over the town and took in the sights. They left at an early hour for home.

Outing of Ashburnham Methodists.

Tuesday morning the steamer Golden Eye left the Ashburnham wharf with about 180 happy excursionists, consisting of the friends and pupils of the Mark street Methodist church Sunday School. They were en route to Jubilee Point to hold their annual pic-nic. Though slightly delayed by logs, the detention was trifling and they arrived at their destination at 12:30. Here they found a beautiful spot; and swings, boating and other water-side amusements, with games for the little ones, served to put in the time delightfully. The day was most pleasantly spent in the usual amusements. The party arrived safely home at 8:30, all delighted with a day of decided pleasure unmarred by any accident of note. The party is much indebted to the courtesy of the officers of the Golden Eye, who supplied hot water for tea and ice for cooling drinks, not only free of charge but with cheerful courtesy. The ladies of the Sunday school, Mr. A. D. Russell, chairman of the committee, and Mr. John Weir deserve credit for their successful efforts to contribute to the success of the annual outing, for it was a success, both in the matter of pleasure and in financial outcome, a tidy sum having been netted—above expenses.

After Many Years.

Yes, the patience and endurance of our people has been tried for many years, and at last it is pleasant, especially so to those who enjoy just for one day an amusement that in every detail is edifying, strictly moral in every feature, and illustrates the skill, daring and athletic development of the human family, to know that the monotonous style of two and three ringed shows, with a centre stage, has been wiped off the slate. It has been a just cause of complaint to amusement seekers, that these so-called big shows, presented too many attractions, many of which were in progress at the same time, and the spectator became so bewildered that in fact he saw nothing, received no pleasure for his investment. Messrs. Miller and Freeman, of Columbus, Ohio, have organized a thorough old time and classic one-ringed show; a show in which every act as presented by the leading artists of the old and new world, can be seen by everyone. The features are new, not one of the hackeyed, worn out and highly exaggerated being introduced. The most startling, daring features, and one that is given by no other show in the world, is the thrilling balloon ascent for nearly one mile in the air, made by the king of all aeronauts, Prof. Ned Hathaway, and who, when at this great height, makes a leap into the air, and by the aid of a parachute lands safely on mother earth. This daring act is repeated daily at 1 o'clock, p.m., and free to all. It is the most wonderful performance ever attempted, and one that may never again be witnessed. As this is positively the only railroad show that will visit Canada this summer, those who desire a relaxation for the hour, should visit Miller and Freeman's old time, one ringed show. The show will visit all the principal cities and towns in Ontario during the months of July and August.

Gospel Hall.

Mr. Phillips will conduct gospel services in the above hall to-night, Thursday and Friday nights, beginning at 8 o'clock. All are invited. No collections.

Enlarged.

The Owen Sound Advertiser shows the enterprise of its manager and its prosperity by appearing in an enlarged 8-page form. The Advertiser is hereby congratulated on such evidences of thrift, of which it is amply deserving. May it continue to prosper.

New Barley

Mr. Oxway Carver, of North Monaghan, has left at the EXAMINER office (July 11th) a sample of new barley. It is fully ripe, perhaps a little light in weight, but bright and clear in colour.

Short Crops.

There will be a good deal of short crops this year. A drive through the country shows some fields of grain fully headed out but only about eight to ten inches in height. Some barley is seen with the heads as long or longer than the rest of the stalk.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

Thanks.

The lady managers of the Peterborough Protestant Home desire to return thanks for the receipt of $27.02, the amount of the collection taken in St. Paul's church on Sunday on the occasion of the annual Orange sermon.

Spots of Sport.

A team of the Colts is in Lindsay to-day playing the return match with the High School team.

A team of the Norwood lacrosse is expected to play the Y.M.C.A. team here next Monday.

The Lindsay Y.M.C.A. lacrosse club want to play here on the 28th

Obituary.

The EXAMINER records with regret the death on Tuesday of Mr. Robert Grant, one of the oldest residents of Smith, at the age of 63 years. Contractors' Meeting.

There was a misunderstanding respecting the night of meeting of the contracting carpenters. The first meeting was adjourned till Tuesday night, but some of the carpenters got Thursday night into their heads and there was only a small attendance. A meeting will be held in the Snowden block on Thursday evening next and a full meeting is requested in particular.

PUT off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Willow and Wicket.

A slightly attended meeting of cricketers was held at Ray's cigar store Tuesday evening. A telegram from the team of Irish gentlemen cricketers, Toronto, mentioning a guarantee of $100 as a condition of their playing a two days' match in Peterborough, was considered, and it was decided to assure the guarantee stipulated. The eleven for the county match on Friday next and that for the Toronto match on the 19th, have been selected.

Seats for the Park.

Here's a chance for the liberality of some public spirited citizen with a warm pocket. There are not half enough seats in the park, especially on band nights. The better the seating accommodations are the quieter the crowd will be and the less liability there will be of damage being done to the park. The cost of additional seats would be a paying investment.

Foresters' Excursion.

The members of Court Peterborough No. 29, C.O.F., have decided this year on holding one of their old time picnic excursions, the date of which is fixed for Thursday, 19th instant, and the retreat Jubilee Point. The tickets, the number of which are limited, are now in the hands of the members and committee, and from the rapid way in which the sales are being made, it will not be long until the limit is reached; therefore all those who wish to enjoy a genuine day's sport, a beautiful sail and the bracing air of Rice Lake should secure their tickets early and make their arrangements to attend this, THE PICNIC of the season. The Fire Brigade Band and full orchestra are engaged for the day. See hangers and future announcements for further particulars. 1d1w

News Nuggets.

—Work is going on at the foundations of the King-street bridge.

—To-morrow is the 198th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

—The tourist trains on the Lakefield branch are made lively with passengers.

—Canoes now form pertinent subjects of negotiations, and both factories are kept busy.

—The band played in the park last night, and, though a slight shower of rain fell, the crowd in attendance was as large as ever.

—The members of the fire brigade band are requested to muster at the Midland station Thursday morning at 6:30 sharp—not a minute later.

—It is proposed that the Lakefield and Nassau Orangemen drop off at Ashburnham and march through town to the Midland station to-morrow.

—The Fire Brigade Band has another reed instrument—a clarionet. This fine organization is getting into a fine shape in the matter of equipment, and its playing—ensemble—shows continuous improvement.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, July 11.

There were six Scott Act cases before the police magistrate this morning. Mr. E. B. Edwards prosecuted. The Morgan House, Croft House, Stewart House, Commercial Hotel and J. Donoghue admitted the offence and a fine of $50 and costs in each case was imposed. The charge against Mrs. Condon was defended, Mr. Leonard appearing in defendant's behalf, and the case dismissed.

A charge of larceny of fruit against four lads, Dwyer, Webber, Ventress and Harris, was preferred by A. Bertrand, and the conviction made, suspended during good behaviour.

A charge of assault, preferred by Mrs. McMillen against Mrs. Grady, was dismissed.

A Signally Successful Excursion.

The Annual Outing of the George-street Methodist Sunday School—Successful in Every Respect—List of Prize-winners—Excellent Management.

The annual excursion and pic-nic of the George-street Methodist Sunday School was held on Tuesday per G. T. R. and steamer to Sturgeon Point, and was, without doubt, the most successful ever held under the same auspices.

About 400 excursionists—a good many adults—left the Midland station and the run to Lindsay was made in quick time. The steamer left Lindsay at 9:40 and arrived at Sturgeon at 11:20. The first object of the newly-arrived was dinner, and soon the beautifully oak-shaded lawns were dotted with family parties, preparing or partaking of dinner. The wants of the inner man, or rather boy, being satisfied, all on pleasure bent, sought congenial amusement, some took to boating, others to bathing, others to spooning—not for fish, however—and some few solaced themselves with pipe or cigar, grateful shade and cooling breeze.

THE SPORTS AND GAMES

were run off very smoothly under the superintendence of Mr. A. E. Scott, assisted by Mr. F. J. Wesley and Mr. R. J. Kidd. Miss Ventress and Miss Taylor presented the several prizes as they were won. Following is the prize list:—

BOYS RACE, UNDER 8.—1st Walter Robinson, 2nd Norman Wilson.

BOYS RACE, UNDER 12.—1st Gussie Johnson, 2nd Harry Pearson.

GIRLS RACE, UNDER 8.—1st Edna McFarlane, 2nd Mabel Bradburn.

GIRLS RACE, UNDER 12.—Laura Belleghem, 2nd Katie McCullough.

BOYS RACE, UNDER 16.—1st Theo. Thornton, 2nd Clarence Dumble.

BOOT RACE—BOYS UNDER 16.—1st Leslie McWilliams, 2nd Rupert Bradburn.

BOYS THREE-LEGGED RACE, UNDER 16.—Theo. Thornton and Ernie Brown.

GIRLS RACE, UNDER 16.—1st Bertha Smith, 2nd Annie Belleghem.

[For the single and married ladies race, as well as for the bachelors and benedicts prize, there were no entries.]

BOYS THREE-LEGGED RACE, OVER 16.—1st Fife Bros.

SACK RACE, UNDER 16—1st Sidney Mitchell, 2nd Rupert Bradburn and L. McWilliams (equal.)

POTATOE RACE.—1st L. McWilliams, 2nd Ernie Brown.

EGG RACE, (egg to be carried on spoon between two given points.)—Girls—1st Emaie Dixon. Boys—1st Fred Larmer, 2nd Percy Owen.

ALL FOURS RACE—1st Bert Belleghem, 2nd Geo. Bradley.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in various delightful ways, swinging, boating, etc. At 4 o'clock the signal whistle was blown, and at 4.45 everything was stowed away, all were on board, and on the steamer went—the train made sharp connection, the run home was made quickly and the arrival in good time—about eight o'clock. Better time was never made on any similar excursion, and a more successful picnic was never held under the auspices of the Sunday school. This was largely due to good management and preparation. Everything worked like clockwork, and the great share of the credit is due to the different committees, of which the following are chairmen:

BASKETS—(collection) T. W. Robinson, (on board train) Geo. Sanderson.

CARE OF CHILDREN ON TRAIN—G. W. Powell.

CARE OF CHILDREN ON BOAT—W. F. Hilliard.

The superintendent, Mr. H. S. Griffin, and the secretary, Mr. J. T. Emmerson, gave general assistance, the latter especially being particularly active.

The whole affair was a complete success, both as a pleasure-seeking excursion and financially.

A Narrow Victory.

The Cobourg-Port Hope Baseball Club Defeated—A Remarkable Game of Ball.

The uncertainty of baseball that forms the chief attraction of the game was amply demonstrated in the match Tuesday afternoon. The Peterboroughs at the last moment narrowly escaped defeat though having it all their own way up to that time.

It was a "slugging" game throughout, but some fine playing was done. The Peterboroughs played and excellent game up till the last innings, only three or four errors being placed to their credit. Moore and Brennan made some fine catches, and both distinguished themselves at the bat. Fligg knocked the sphere over the the fence for a home run in one inning, and none of the Peterboroughs had any difficulty in hitting Livingstone. Cameron on the other hand struck out quite a number, and it was seldom that the visitors could crack the ball outside the diamond. The Peterboroughs fielded sharply and kept cool—until the last inning. The visitors, too, played a good game, though they could not do much against the heavy batting of the Peterboroughs.

At the end of the eighth innings the score stood 18-4 in favor of the home team. Peterborough let its half of the 9th go by default, expecting, and with reason, to retire the side with a cipher or a couple of runs at most. But, ye gods of war, what a delusion! The Peterboroughs "rattled," as it seems they are bound to do in every game sooner or later. Cameron's pitching broke down, the visitors drove the ball all over the field and chased each other round the bases. Wild throws and glaring errors on the part of the Peterboroughs assisted them, and they piled up 14 runs. The spectators began filing out the gate, tired of the exhibition of leather-hunting, which appeared interminable, when by a fluke the side was retired.

The score was now a tie, with Peterborough an inning to go. Cooks scored and won the game with only one man out for the innings.

Following is the official score, incomplete as it is:

Peterboroughs — Battery, Cameron and Billings; Fligg, Callahan, Cooks, Kincaid, Moore, Brennan and Galley.

Port Hope-Cobourg—Battery, Livingstone and Mulhall; Cann, Thomson, Hamly, Hanson, Pickering, Clark and Stevens.

Peterborough	5	0	2	3	0	2	4	2	1	—19
Port Hope	0	0	0	0	1	1	2	0	14	—18

Umpire McNaughton, of Port Hope, proved generally satisfactory in his position.

The attendance was about 500 people.

Does anyone understand the Peterborough baseball club? How is it that they can go so completely to pieces, as they have done time and again? No other club under the sun could do it. They play a grand game one inning and worse than "baby" ball the next. What's the matter with them, anyway?

Presentation to Bro. Alexander Smith, W. M. Warsaw L. O. L. No. 284.

The officers and members of Warsaw L. O. L., No. 284, on the night of the 5th July, had the pleasure of giving their W. M., Bro. Alexander Smith an agreeable surprise in the shape of a gold-headed cane, accompanied by the following address:—

To Bro. Alexander Smith, W. M. Warsaw L. O. L., No. 284.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—It is with feelings of pleasure that we, the officers and members of Warsaw L.O.L., No. 284, take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your services as Worshipful Master. We feel it our duty, as well as a pleasure to assure you that the great devotion and trustworthy manner in which you have presided over us, and also on all other occasions in furthering the interest of the lodge, with your brotherly kindness exercised toward us, have gained for you the approval and entire confidence of your brethren. While some who have severed their connection from us, you have stood by the standard, always helping to bear it aloft, your motto being, "No Surrender." We now request your acceptance of this gold headed cane as a small token of our appreciation of your service, hoping that you will receive it in the same spirit that it is offered, that of brotherly love and kindness, and that you may be long spared to preside over our deliberations in the furtherance and promotion of this lodge. In conclusion, dear brother let us remember the time may not be far distant when we shall have to separate and leave this lodge below, but let us hope that we may meet again in the Grand Lodge above where parting is no more. Hoping that you may be spared for many years to come, and that God's choicest blessings may ever attend you and your family, is the sincere desire of the officers and members of L. O. L. No. 284.

Signed on behalf of Warsaw L.O.L. No. 284,

STEPHEN MILLER, D.M.
RICHARD DEAN, R.S.

Bro. Smith replied in a few very appropriate words, thanking the brethren for their kind and handsome present and address, and also for the brotherly feeling displayed by them.—[K.D.

Constant Advertising in the Examiner Pays.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

LIVING FOR THREE YEARS.

SMALLPOX GERMS IN TORONTO BREAK OUT AFRESH.

Three Patients in the Smallpox Hospital—Troubles of the Vevvers Family—The House Quarantined.

TORONTO, July 12.—For the past three weeks there has been a smallpox scare at North Toronto. It will be learned with surprise that the Smallpox Hospital contains three patients. Happily, however, for the comfort and safety of the citizens, the area embraced by the disease is comparatively a small one, and it is claimed on the part of the Health Department that every precaution has been taken since the discovery of the existence of the disease to prevent its spread.

Two years ago a family named Vevvers rented No. 77 Yorkville-ave., Mrs. Vevvers immediately on taking possession opening up a boarding house, which from the beginning was liberally patronized. On June 26 Mrs. Vevvers complained of feeling ill and medical assistance was called. On June 27 the doctor who had charge of her case thought he perceived undeniable symptoms of smallpox, and at once recognizing the gravity of the situation communicated with Dr. Canniff, the Medical Health Officer. That official took charge of the case, and after satisfying himself himself that the first diagnosis was correct, had Mrs. Vevvers removed to the Smallpox Hospital and the house quarantined.

On July 5 a 10-year-old son of Mrs. Vevvers developed similar symptoms to those exhibited by his mother, and he also was sent to join her. Yesterday the eldest daughter of the household was attacked, and was conveyed in the afternoon to the Smallpox Hospital, where they are all doing well. The boarders have all left the house. Every member of the family, which is a large one, were vaccinated on June 27, and the girl who was last attacked among the others, on the day of her removal, had two well developed pustules on her arm showing that the virus had taken well.

A reporter last night was talking to the doctor who attended Miss Vevvers. He said that the attack, so far as he could judge, was a light one, approaching the nature of variolold, and not likely to result fatally.

The question which is agitating the minds of the officers of the Local Board of Health is, how or where the Vevver family caught the contagion. The owner of 77 Yorkville-avenue told a reporter that Mrs. Vevver had bought a lot of second-hand carpets and furniture with which to furnish the rooms, and she thought that the disease might have been carried in with the goods. The doctors, however, have a different theory. Three years ago a colored family resided in a house in rear of 77 Yorkville-avenue, and at the time one of the family was ill with smallpox. It is thought that the germs were never properly eradicated from this dwelling, and through the usual process were conveyed into Vevver's household with the above result.

AN INFLUX OF IMMIGRANTS.

Four Steamships Land 1000 Immigrants at Montreal One Day This Week.

MONTREAL, July 12.—There was quite an influx of immigrants into the city on Tuesday, no less than four steamships arriving with large numbers on board. The Norwegian brought 399, the Carthagenian brought 438, the Pomeranian brought 55, and the Lake Huron brought 114, in all 1006. Among those by the Norwegian were 250 Icelanders in well-to-do circumstances, who proceeded by special train to Winnipeg, there to join the farm settlement of Icelanders, 400 strong, that was formed in that neighborhood last year. Of the remaining immigrants 100 went to the States, 30 will settle in the city and vicinity, while the balance proceeded direct to Ontario and the Northwest, their nationalities being, with the exception of about 20 Germans, English and Irish, with a few Scotch, all strictly industrious in their habits and none that could be written down as of the "really poor" class.

BYTOWN HIGHWAYMEN.

A Young Man Named Charles Cummings Shot by Two Unknown Highwaymen.

OTTAWA, July 12.—A young man named Charles Cummings, who lives at the east end of the city, was attacked last night while on his way home by two unknown desperadoes. Three shots were fired at Cummings, two taking effect, one on the left and the other on the right side of the body. He made a desperate struggle with the men, and finally succeeded in beating them off and making his way home. One of the bullets glanced off the ribs. The other, which was extracted this morning, was buried in his side. No serious results are anticipated.

A $3000 Blaze at Blenheim.

BLENHEIM, July 12.—Yesterday morning Andrew Irwin's cooper shop was totally destroyed by fire together with the contents. The loss is $3000, insured in the Western. The fire started on the roof by a spark from the chimney.

PARNELL'S VAST SCHEME.

THE NATIONALIST LEADER'S IMPERIAL FEDERATION SCHEME.

The Times Controversy Waxing Hotter Day by Day—T. P. O'Connor's Charges—The Marlborough Nuptials.

LONDON, July 12.—Mr. Parnell's declarations touching the new Home Rule bill is very important, though whether it is much more important than the questions at issue between him and The Times it is too soon to say. The Irish leader has come out as advocate of what he calls "Imperial Federation." His letter to Mr. Rhodes, whether written immediately after the conference with Mr. Gladstone or not, expresses the result of many conferences. There can be no doubt that Mr. Parnell and Mr. Gladstone are working together. The latter has agreed to devise a scheme for retaining the Irish members in the House of Commons instead of excluding them. But that is only one item in the new programme. The federation idea has been Mr. Gladstone's underlying thought in all his repeated references to separate nationalities within the United Kingdom.

The Unionists describe this as a scheme for splitting the Empire into fragments in order to federate the fragments. Scotland is to have a parliament, Wales a parliament, and Ireland a parliament. The House of Commons is to become merely an English Parliament, and the new Imperial Parliament, with Colonial delegates, is to rise on the ruins of the present Constitution. This vast scheme, by far the most revolutionary ever heard of in England, is given to the world in a casual way, half by letter and half by talk, with a third half, as the Irish would say, eked out by the guesses of Mr. Parnell's semi-confidants. The English take it all with a coolness that is something more than sceptical. It may strengthen Irish Home Rule, but it seems quite as likely to frighten away friends by the disclosure of a project so vast.

The Parnell-Times controversy waxes hotter day by day. Language of extreme violence is used on at least one side. The Times daily renews its challenge to the Irish leader to test its charges in a court of law. Mr. Parnell thus far shows no sign of accepting this attractive proposal. He prefers now, as he did a year ago, a parliamentary committee.

The British public meantime seems a little puzzled. Men without partiality or partisan feeling are few, but men with strong desire to see fair play are numerous. Most of these, I think, suspend their judgment. They do not give full credit either to The Times' charges or to Mr. Parnell's denials. They say that Mr. Parnell, whether innocent or guilty, must either confess or deny. If he did not deny, he would have to leave, but they think him entitled to the benefit of the doubt so long as The Times, though declaring its readiness to prove its charges, has not actually proved them.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, I suppose, speaks for his leader. He says he would not trust a London jury, whom he describes as partisans passionate and bigoted. The Times, in his opinion, prefers trying the cause in a court of law because it would there have the liberty to use poisoned daggers and explosive bullets. The conduct of the Attorney-General convinces Mr. O'Connor of what he has long suspected, that The Times has for once been innocently imposed upon. That period has passed. "We now," says Mr. O'Connor, "charge Mr. John Walter and Mr. G. E. Buckle with uttering forgeries, knowing them to be forgeries. We are quite willing to stand our trial on this statement before that court of law to which The Times is so fond of referring its assailants."

I saw the Duke of Marlborough yesterday afternoon at the residence of his mother, the Dowager Duchess of Marlborough, in Grosvenor-square. While conversing with him in the library, carriage after carriage rolled up to the dark house, which seemed to frown upon the rays of sunshine chasing each other across its sombre front. Lackeys, footmen, gentlemen and ushers were scrambling, shoving and elbowing each other to leave cards or call upon the new American Duchess. The crush grew thicker, and as I bowed myself out the duke hastened into the drawing-room again to meet his old friends and introduce them to his new and handsome wife.

Later in the evening I called upon George Lewis in regard to validity of the marriage which New York lawyers have impugned. There is no doubt that Mr. Lewis is the greatest authority on English law in its relation to divorce of any living man, so his decision in favor of the legality of the ceremony should be accepted as final.

"The marriage is perfectly valid," said Mr. Lewis, "English law upon this subject is decisive. The 57th section of 20 and 21 Vic., cap. 85, enacts that at the expiration of time limited for appealing against any decree, it shall be lawful for respective parties thereto to marry again as if the prior marriage had been dissolved by death The Duke of Marlborough was consequently free to marry again, and inasmuch as the lady whom he married was a widow suffering from no disability by American law, the marriage is beyond doubt valid."

If rumor, which runs like wild-fire through Clubland and Belgravia, has any foundation, in fact the newly married duke and his bride are not out of the woods yet. It is stated that the Marchioness of Blandford, who is at present at Hinard, in France, is coming to England in a few days, and that on her arrival here she will apply to the courts for a summons against her former husband for contempt of the decree of the court, by which it was expressly stipulated that the respondent was not to marry again. I imagine, however, that this rumor is merely based upon the popular belief that the marchioness is a peculiarly revengeful, if not malicious, woman. This popular opinion at the time of the divorce case greatly neutralized public sympathy, which otherwise would have been overwhelmingly with the injured wife.

Monotonous Variety.

DUBLIN, July 12.—Patrick Joseph O'Brien, M.P. for a division of Tipperary, was released from Tullamore Jail yesterday, his time of service under the sentence of three months' imprisonment imposed on him for violation of the Crimes Act having expired. He was immediately taken in charge by officers and conveyed to Kilkenny Jail, where he will undergo a further imprisonment of three months for an offence of the same nature.

Dillon Tenderly Treated.

LONDON, July 12.—Private letters received by the Parnellite leaders give a satisfactory account of Mr. Dillon's health. He is receiving careful treatment at the hands of the prison officials, who, it is believed, have taken warning from the death of Mr. Mandeville. Mr. Parnell said that an inquest would reveal the fact that Mr. Mandeville was terribly ill-treated while in prison. He was compelled to pass the night lying on a plank, and was deprived even of a blanket. He passed the time in solitary confinement in a cell unfit for habitation.

Mrs. Joseph Deeks, of Marshville, committed suicide by jumping into the Welland Canal feeder.

Pitcher Getting Anxious.

MONTREAL, July 12.—The preliminary investigation in the Pitcher case was continued yesterday, when Mr. Johnston was cross examined by Mr. Guerin. His evidence was not shaken in the least. No new developments transpired. Pitcher, as the case proceeds, looks rather anxious and more discouraged than at first.

TIMELY TORONTO TOPICS.

The Hook Investigation—A Big Steamer—The Jenny Irving Case.

TORONTO, July 12.—The investigation by the Police Commissioners into the death of George Mack, the prisoner who died in the police cells shortly after being arrested as a "drunk," was concluded yesterday. Decision was reserved.

The steamship Rosedale, the largest vessel that ever visited this port, arrived here yesterday morning. The Rosedale was launched at Sunderland on May 1 and loaded at London with a cargo of cement for Chicago. Leaving London on May 25 the Rosedale anchored at quarantine just below Quebec on the night of June 11, having occupied 17½ days in the trip. The passage was a pretty stormy one, but the vessel sustained no damage. After a brief delay at Quebec the Rosedale proceeded to Chicago and discharged her cargo. She then took in a load of corn for Kingston, and having delivered her cargo at the Limestone City she turned her head toward Toronto, arriving here as already stated, at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Her officers are: Captain, James Kwart; chief engineer, J. H. Ellis; mate, J. Grant. It is not intended that she shall return to the Old Country, although this is the popular supposition. She is next going to load with coal at Cleveland for Port Arthur, and will then take on wheat for Kingston.

Henry Preston, who was taken to the smallpox hospital by order of the Medical Health officer, under the belief that he was suffering from smallpox, and who afterwards was found to have been afflicted with a different disease, compromised his suit against the city yesterday for $75 and costs.

At yesterday's meeting of the British Methodist Episcopal Conference a report recommending the raising of $10,000 for mission work was adopted.

Ned Durham, a World compositor, was bitten by a black spider on Tuesday. Great swellings ensued in different parts of the head, and it was thought at one time that the brain would become affected. He was last night, however, reported out of danger.

To-day's Orange celebration was on a more extensive scale than was ever before witnessed in Canada.

At the Police Court yesterday Edward Marshall, charged with assaulting a street-car conductor who ordered him to desist from smoking on the platform, was fined $20 or 40 days.

The total imports into the Toronto money market during the past three weeks exceed $1,000,000.

The directors of the Canada Permanent Loan and Savings Company decided yesterday to issue $1,000,000 additional stock.

Public interest continues to centre in the Jenny Irving case. Her identity with the dead girl has been fully established, and the result of the coroner's inquest to-night is being looked forward to with the greatest curiosity. According to Mrs. Thomas E. Smith the girl's father died when she was about 12 years old, and she lived with different relatives in the County of Bruce until she came to Toronto four years ago. It is probable that her friends will see that the remains are decently interred, and not left to the scalping knives of the medical students.

Between the hours of 5 a.m. and 7 p.m. yesterday, during the absence of the family at a picnic, the residence of Mr. John Whittleton, 97 Harbord-street, was broken into and some $200 worth of property stolen.

At the session of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance yesterday Most Worthy Patriarch E. H. Clapp of Boston read his annual report showing that the Order was in a prosperous and healthy condition. Other routine business was transacted and in the evening the members of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance of Ontario, gave a reception to the National Division in the theatre of the Normal School.

DARING STAGE ROBBERY.

British Columbia Highwaymen Make a Haul of $3,500 in Gold Dust.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 12.—A most daring robbery took place the other day about 20 miles above Soda Creek. The Cariboo four horse stage, Mr. J. R. Tait driver, was on a bridge when two masked men confronted him with a rifle and pistol and ordered him to stop his horses. They then compelled him to leave the stage, and took the sack out of the wagon, which contained $3,500 in gold dust. He was then ordered to get into his place and drive on. One of the highwaymen wore a dark calico mask, the other had a flour sack over his head. One man stood on each side of the stage when they ordered the driver to stop, and the largest man kept Tait covered with the rifle until he drove away. There were no passengers on the wagon, and as the driver had the reins he had no chance to use weapons. The Government agents are scouring the country with a number of special constables and all the Alexandria Indians are hunting for the robbers. A reward of $500 has been offered for their capture. It will be a very difficult thing for them to leave that portion of the country, and news of their arrest is expected in a short time. Mr. F. S. Barnard states that he believes the same men robbed the stage four years ago and succeeded in getting clear with $4,000. Mr. Tait's brother was driving the stage at that time, and the robbery took place about 100 miles below the scene of the robbery of Saturday last.

Struck by Lightning.

GLENCOE, July 12.—A heavy storm passed over Glenoce and vicinity Tuesday night doing considerable damage. The barn of George Innes of Mosa was struck by lightning and totally destroyed, together with about 18 tons of new hay, all his farming implements and several bushels of grain. Loss between $900 and $1,000; insured in the Royal for $650.

Two Brothers Drowned at Bothwell.

BOTHWELL, July 12.—Two boys aged 8 and 10, sons of Daniel Mask, residing near Bothwell, were drowned in the River Thames last night. The two boys and another boy of about the same age were in bathing, the youngest getting beyond his depth the other attempted to rescue him and both were drowned. The bodies were recovered shortly after.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS

THE LIBERALS MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP OF THE PROVINCE.

Reformers Probably Returned in Nineteen Constituencies—A Few Districts yet to Hear From.

WINNIPEG, July 12.—The Liberals made a clean sweep yesterday, probably carrying nineteen of the constituencies in which elections were held. This with the ten Reformers elected by acclamation last week will give them twenty-nine seats in a House of thirty-eight. All the Ministers except Prendergast are elected, and he may be, as there are several places to hear from.

The returns so far as received are:

Winnipeg North—Jones (Lib.) 495 majority.
Winnipeg Centre—McMillan (Lib.) 512 majority.
Winnipeg South—Campbell (Lib.) 243 majority.
Kildonan—Norquay (Con.) 2 majority.
Brandon North—Sefton (Lib.).
" Centre—Smart (Lib.).
" South—In doubt.
Carillon—Jerome (Lib.).
Cypress—Wood (Con.).
Dennis—McLean (Lib.).

Woodland—Robinson (Con.) probably.
Westbourne—Morton (Lib.).
La Verandrye and Cartier yet to hear from.

CANADA AND BRITAIN.

Board of Trade Returns—The Quebec Central Loan.

LONDON, July 12.—The Board of Trade returns show a decrease of 2½ per cent. in June exports to Canada and 16½ per cent. decrease in the six months. The decline is largely in cotton and worsted goods. The imports from Canada decreased 3½ per cent. for the month and 13½ for the six months, largely in oxen, wheat and flour.

Sheppard, Pellys, Scott & Co. have offered £200,000 of 5 per cent. prior lien bonds of the Quebec Central Railway at 96, being part of a total of £300,000 repayable at par in twenty years.

A TERRIBLE FIRE.

Alpena, Mich., Devastated by the Flames—1,200 People Homeless.

DETROIT, July 12.—Very meagre reports have reached Detroit of a disastrous fire at Alpena, Mich., which broke out at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. The total loss is estimated at $300,000 with insurance less than half that amount. Two hundred dwellings are destroyed and 1600 people homeless. The Government lighthouse and 30,000,000 feet of lumber on the docks are burned. A number of persons were seriously burned and one fatally. The burned district is half a mile long and three blocks in width.

DEADHEADS.

Two Kingstonians Attempt to Beat Their Passage Across the Atlantic and Back.

MONTREAL, July 12.—Albert Scott, a well-known cattle dealer of the Kingston District, was arrested on Tuesday with a lawyer of the same town, who gave his name as Simpson, on the arrival of the steamship Colina, on board which they had just arrived from Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. Scott had come on board the steamer Alcides with his friend at Three Rivers some two months ago, and when asked for his ticket said he had received the customary pass for cattle shippers for himself and companion, but had unfortunately lost it. He would, however, hand him a ticket on his arrival. He had secured a pass because he was just then shipping a large consignment of cattle by another of the company's steamers.

The captain agreed, but not only was the pass never delivered to him, but Scott and his friend took another passage on a similar pretext by the steamer Colina. The captain distrusted the two passengers and telegraphed to Mr. Reford, the company's agent here, and arriving at Rimouski Mr. Reford denied that any such pass had been issued and immediately saw Mr. Joseph Duhamel, Q. C., who caused a warrant to be issued for the two deadhead passengers, who were consequently arrested on their arrival. They settled by paying their fares out and back, and were discharged by Chief Hughes.

The Guelph Junction Crossing.

GUELPH, July 12.—Mr. Thomas Ridout, Government inspecting engineer, will be here to-morrow to inspect the ground and the crossing at Inglis' Bridge, with a view to settling the dispute about the Guelph Junction Railway crossing of the Grand Trunk at Goldie's Mills. Mr. Hobson, engineer for the Grand Trunk, and Mr. Davies, engineer for the Guelph Junction, have been requested to meet Mr. Ridout on that day and accompany him in making the investigation.

The Guelph Carriage Top Company.

GUELPH, July 12.—At the meeting of creditors of the Guelph Carriage Top Company Mr. Charles Walker made an offer of 25 cents on the dollar, cash, and 10 cents unsecured. All appeared to favor the acceptance of 35 cents secured, but there are some doubts of the present offer being suitable. However, the matter was left in the hands of five trustees to report on, at Toronto, on Monday next.

The Pan-Presbyterian Council.

LONDON, July 12.—There was applause in the Pan-Presbyterian Council yesterday when Rev. Mr. Matthews, of Quebec, accepted the office of permanent secretary of the Council. He will reside in England, with a salary of £500. Professor McVicar, Principal of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, Rev. W. Cochrane, of Brantford, and Mr. Hall were appointed to represent the Council before the Presbytery of Quebec.

In Florence, the Beautiful

A Racy Description of a European Trip—The Every Day Life of a Traveller in Italy — Commodore Miller's Experience.

FLORENCE, June 23rd, 1888.

The 16th of May, the day we sailed, was the starting point of many pleasant and permanent friendships. Shut in by the waves, with no land in sight and nothing to amuse but an occasional whale or passing steamer, a fellow turns for solace to the people around him, and at the end of an eight days' voyage there are many on board for whom we have a genuine regard, and who seem as friends of a life-time. On landing, the passengers disperse, but it is only, at least in many cases, to meet again. On all trans-Atlantic steamers the majority of the passengers are Americans, and they are all going first to London, then to Paris, Marseilles, Genoa, Pisa, Rome and Naples, and return by Venice, Milan, Switzerland, the Rhine and Belgium. Though we separate at Liverpool, we are sure to see the others at every town. We met our ship comrades in hundreds in Liverpool, we saw them by scores in London, by dozens in Paris. Here they take different routes. Some go south and some go east, but all meet in Rome and hand in hand go down to Naples and climb Mount Vesuvius together. We have not had a different experience. We have met friends everywhere. From New Haven to Dieppe we had quite a number of nice people from New York state, and our courses since then have been almost identical. We were in Paris together. They went south; we went east; we just missed each other in Genoa, but we overhauled them in Rome and we went together to Naples; returned with them to the Eternal City and we were all together in Florence, the Beautiful. We have had no end of experiences of a more or less startling character, especially in Italy. The hotel men, the railroad men, the porters and the cabmen are villains of the deepest dye, but when they came to deal with us they met their match. We created a disturbance at nearly all the hotels when we came to pay our bills, as a result of which our bills were generally reduced. We abused porters as much as they bothered us, and we never stepped into a cab without knowing exactly what we were to pay, and we never patronized a cabby who tried to rob us by asking too much. We drove very tight bargains. On entering the hall of a hotel, we never set down our valises nor dismissed our cab until we had a statement of rates. It is necessary to do all this, for these ruffians picture all strangers as millionaires and as their lawful prey. I really think, on the whole, that we have never been swindled.

We have enjoyed our trip very much. We saw Mr. Gladstone and heard him deliver a speech. Our stay in the wonderful old London was quite delightful. We have not finished the sights there by any means, but have left many of the best of them for our return from the Continent. We wished to do the hot countries first, and I tell you it was necessary to do this. Naples is very warm and unhealthy and Rome is killing. The air out here (in Florence) is quite different, and we feel like new men. I would not stay all summer in Rome for all Canada.

Yours,
JOHN MILLER.

NAPLES, June 17, 1888.

Having now reached the full length of our rope, it may be a good time to send in a report of our doings up to date. It is Sunday to-day and we are remaining in the hotel enjoying a very acceptable rest. A week ago last Friday we shook the dust of Paris off our feet and turned our faces towards Italy. We went there via Macon, Dijon and Modane. These are important places, centres of the wine industry, which, by the way, seems to be all important there. Turin was our first Italian city, Modane being on the border. We spent Sunday and Monday in Turin and liked the place very well. Our railway from Modane to Turin led us through frightful scenery. At Mont Cenis we plunged into the bowels of the mountain and emerged again eight miles further on, having passed right through it's base. This was the famous Mont Cenis tunnel, costing a fabulous sum of money and requiring nine years of labor of four or five thousand men to finish. The language then became Italian, and we were considerably at sea of course. Many of the people speak French but very many do not. We got on very well, however, and have never been put to any serious trouble through our ignorance of the country. The scenery was grand; mountains towered far above us on one side and on the other we saw fearful gorges. The building are very odd. We saw villages in the most impossible places. Monasteries stood on the peaks of mountains, villages were in the clouds. How the people went up and down these awful slants is astonishing. I saw one church so high up that were I a resident I certainly would never go to worship. Our next move was to Genoa, the city of palaces so called; a very nice place, beautifully situated on the blue Mediterranean, but ten times worse than Quebec for hills. Its streets are sometimes four feet wide, but the broad ones are far wider, some even being six feet and some seven. All through Italy we see the most flagrant examples of indecent exposure. It beats everything I ever saw. We have seen any number of men almost naked, bare to the waist and from above the knees. Few of the poor wear boots. Our next stopping place was Pisa, between Genoa and Rome. Here we saw and ascended the world famed leaning tower, about which I have heard since ever I can remember. I bought a little marble model of it. It was a remarkable affair. Then we came to the Eternal City, Rome. We had heard fearful stories of the heat and fever of Rome. The heat is not any greater than we have it in Peterborough in summer, and I think with a little caution there is no danger of fever. Here we found several of our steamer friends. It was a delightful re-union. We felt as if we were brothers instead of acquaintances of a few weeks' standing. Rome is full of ruins of a most stupendous scale. The Coliseum is simply a marvel. Its grandeur is wonderful. It is oval in shape and very high, with galleries inside and an arena in the centre. It seated 87,000 persons and was the scene of thousands of tragedies; gladiators, bull fights and martyrs were all the "go" once. The dungeons where the martyrs lay until the hour when they were to be led out to be eaten by the wild animals, are still here as perfect as in the days of Nero. The cages in which the beasts were kept are there, too, of course. It is the most stupendous ruin I ever saw, fully realizing any anticipations I had. So full is this city with historic spots that one tires of looking at anything that is not positively remarkable. We saw where Cicero delivered his orations against Catiline; we saw, too, where Mark Anthony delivered his oration over the body of dead Cæsar; we saw the forum, we stood on the different hills of Rome and wondered could it be possible that these were the spots where these things occurred, and so long ago. The presence of these colossal ruins aid us in realizing that they are. Our ship friends had been in Rome some time before us and were going to Naples right away; so, in order to have the pleasure of travelling with them, we decided to finish Rome after doing Naples. So we came to Naples and are in full view of Mount Vesuvius, which is pouring out steam and lava as usual. We are all preparing to ascend Vesuvius to-morrow, and, if we have time, to visit Pompeii also. If we are tired we shall do Pompeii next day and shall then return to Rome for the finishing touches. Nearly every one of the crowd, except myself, have been ill with local disorders, caused, they all say, by the malarial winds. The stench from the marshes surrounding Rome is terrible and no wonder 200 per day died of cholera a few years ago. I, for one, though I am in excellent health, shall not linger any longer than necessary. It would be a temptation of Providence. When we shall have visited Pompeii, the tide of our journey shall ebb. We shall then work towards home, though, of course, slowly. We return via Rome, Florence, Bologna, Venice, Milan, Switzerland, the Rhine, Belgium and Holland to England, then to Scotland and Ireland, boarding the steamer at Queenstown on the 23rd of August or thereabouts. The scenery around Naples is lovely, but our really mountainous scenery is yet to be seen in Switzerland. I shall be uproariously glad to go to a cooler land.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN MILLER.

Ennismore.

WEATHER NOTES.—Of June, I can add but little, having furnished your readers with the different changes during the month, however, bearing in mind the two extremes, being as as follows:—Cold frost and ice on the 4th, and on the 21st the thermometer went up to 100° in the shade, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 64°. We had frost on 4 mornings, rain on 10 days to the depth of 1 97/100 inches, 6 times thunder, 2 nights, auroral lights, first clover seen in blossom on the 14th, first timothy headed out on the 13th, first wheat on the 14th and first barley on the 19th. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, respectively:—west 4 days, south 2 days, north 3 days, south-west 14 days, north-west 3 days, north-east 3 days, and south-east 1 day.

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

AFTER HAMILTON'S FRANCHISE.

Utica and Jersey City Anxious to Enter the International Baseball Association.

HAMILTON, July 12.—The Utica Club has written to Secretary White asking him to find out the lowest terms on which Hamilton would part with her franchise in the International Association. Secretary White in turn telegraphed to Secretary Dixon of the Hamilton Club, who replied that he could give no answer until after to-night's meeting of the shareholders. The Jersey City team has also made application for the first opening in the International Association, and will buy any franchise that can be got. It is thought that the shareholders of the Hamilton Club will decide to sell the franchise at the meeting to-night.

FRENCH FORTIFICATIONS.

Urgency Asked for the Port Defences Bill—The Nationalists' Primary Object.

PARIS, July 12.—In the Chamber of Deputies the committee appointed to inspect the defences at Cherbourg, Brest, and Toulon, submitted its report. The committee suggests that sealanks and other barriers be constructed on the roadsteads at Cherbourg and Brest. M. de Mahy asked the House to vote urgency for the consideration of the Port Defences Bill. Admiral Krantz, Minister of Marine, spoke of the importance of the measure, saying that its passage was an absolute necessity in order to render French ports secure against a coup de main. The bill will be considered to-day.

The Deroulede section of the Patriotic League will hold a demonstration in front of the Strasbourg statue to-morrow. M. Deroulede in a circular says: "In occupying itself resolutely with home politics and adopting for the welfare of the country and the salvation of the Republic the program of the leader of the National party, Gen. Boulanger, the leader, has never for an instant lost sight of its primary object, namely, the restitution of Alsace-Lorraine." Gen. Boulanger met with a cordial reception at Fougeres. In a speech he advised his hearers not to cry "Vive Boulanger!" but "Vive la Republique!" and "Vive la Revision!"

In the Senate the Recruiting Bill was read a second time. The bill fixes the term of service in the active army at three years and in the reserves at six and a half years.

Canadian Pacific Earnings.

MONTREAL, July 12.—The traffic receipts of the Canadian Pacific Railway, not including the Southeastern Railway, for the week ending July 7 were:

1888	$ 261,000
1887	252,000
Increase for 1888	$ 9,000

A Big Freshet in Monongahela.

PITTSBURG, July 12.—An almost unprecedented freshet in the Monongahela river has done great damage to the craft and property along the river front. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

TO THE DEAF.—A Person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any Person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. dwly

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

From Meropane, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Increasing west to north winds, fair and a little cooler.

Hot Weather and Harvest.

This hot dry weather is bringing on the crops at a rapid rate and the harvest in the country will soon be on. The harvest of bargains in stylish neat and pretty prints is now on at the golden lion. See the splendid display of imported prints in the shop windows, sold at 10 cents, worth 15 cents.

Palace Horse Cars.

Last night thirteen new "palace" horse cars passed through town on the C.P.R., conveying to the Northwest a number of fine Clydesdale horses imported from the old country. These new cars are 55 feet long, with padded stalls and mangers, and have been built by the C.P.R. specially for the transportation of valuable stock.

A Church Dismantled.

A terrific gale of wind blew yesterday afternoon and numerous cases of damage to property are reported. The most serious in this locality was the blowing down of the spire of the Roman Catholic church at Norwood. Fortunately no one was hurt. In town, trees were snapped off, windows smashed and awnings twisted.

A Severe Blow.

During the wind storm of Wednesday afternoon a young man, when passing the City Hotel, was struck by the gate of the yard and knocked down, giving him a severe blow. He picked himself up and was somewhat dazed for a few minutes.

House Numbering.

The committee in charge of the house numbering for the town, of which Mr. W. Langford is chairman, have decided to do the work at the town's expense, and this morning the first numbers were put up on George street. The work will be continued until the whole town is numbered.

Bridges and Culverts.

Street Inspector Pope has just finished the building of eight culverts on Aylmer, London and McDonnell streets and in the northwestern part of the town. They are made of square cedar and being firmly built should prove durable. He is now engaged on the King street bridge. The carpenters to-day began laying timber for the structure.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

A Small Fire.

A little after three o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in some sheds back of the brick house next to Matthews' pork packing establishment, George street south. The brigade were out in a few minutes and quickly on the spot. The sheds were burned and the fire extended to the smoke-house of the factory, which was saved by the firemen in a slightly damaged condition. The loss will not exceed $200.

A Tale of the Gale.

During the gale yesterday afternoon a gentleman was walking down a dusty street in afternoon attire, dressed in his best with rose in button hole and all the make up of a gentleman. The rain came down with a dash and as he had no umbrella he got rather wet; though there was not rain enough to lay the dust. A howling sweep of the blast came on, it whisked off the crust of dampness of the inch thick layer of dust, and smothered the unfortunate pedestrian in its cloud, forming a coating of stucco on his wet clothing and completely ruining them. He went home in a savage humour and abused his wife for letting him wear his best clothes when she might have known such a storm would rise. She was a sweet-tempered lady and merely replied, "Don't be vexed my dear over a few clothes, they can be easily replaced. You can get a suit so cheap at gough bros.' that you wont feel the loss. They have a splendid stock of fine clothing at very low prices. I'll go down in the morning and look you out a suit and have them sent up." That settled it. The dove of peace spread its snowy wings over that household and gough bros. made a cash sale this morning.

The Glorious Twelfth.

A Big Demonstration in Port Hope—The Local Orangemen will Participate.

The "Twelfth of July" was in town today, and in the forenoon quite a stir was caused by the departure of the west Peterborough Orangemen for Port Hope, where the demonstration for this district will be held. Orange ribbons and buttom-hole favors were conspicuous. One man who sported an orange badge was observed sailing down street with a green ribbon flying from his coat-tail, where it had been pinned by some mischievous practical joker.

At half-past six the 57th Batt. band left for Nassau to join the lodge of that place. Thence boarded the Lakefield train bearing the northern lodges. All disembarked at Ashburnham, where they were met by the brethren from Peterborough, Smith and Campbellford. Order of procession was formed and all marched through the village and town to the Midland station as follows:

Mr. Geo. W. Hall, Marshall, mounted.
Lakefield brass band.
Peterborough Prentice Boys, No. 7.
Young Canadian L.O.L. 128, Lakefield.
57th Batt. Band.
L.O.L. 467, Nassau.
Jubilee L.O.L. 178, Smith,
and fife and drum band.
Campbellford L.O.L.
and fife and drum band.
Peterborough True Blues, No. 42.
I.O.L. No. 42, Peterborough.
I.O.L. No. 88, Peterborough.
Royal Black Knights.
Peterborough Preceptory.

It is estimated that there were over 300 men in line. Arrived at the station, the special train was boarded and left at 10 o'clock sharp. Besides the Orangemen, a large number of excursionists went down to Port Hope.

Mr. R. M. Roy was on hand with his photographing apparatus and took views of the station platform, crowded with people, from the top of the water tank.

"Are You Saved?"

Texas Asks the Flag Displayed Atop the Salvation Army Barracks—A Token of the Near Completion of the New Building—A Brief Description of the Temple.

It is said that workmen are busy all day and up to 10 o'clock at night upon the new Salvation Army barracks, Simcoe street, rushing on the work of completion to be in readiness against the opening day, July —th. The work is now in an advanced state. The painters have completed their work, except upon the seats, which are now being rapidly knocked together. The general features of the new structure have previously been presented in the EXAMINER, and the public eye is familiar with the external appearance of the new structure, with its massive foundations with their Egyptianesque buttresses and solid superstructure of red brick, and the imposing facade surmounted by its turretted battlements. It covers an area of ground 50x90 feet, the size of the main auditorium, access to which is gained from the street by three flights of steps opening on a landing depressed about three feet, forming entrance lobbies. At the further end a raised platform of some half dozen grades is furnished with seats and intermediate flights of steps. The lofty ceiling is supported on rows of turned pillars ranged from front to rear, on a line midway between the middle line and the lateral walls. The ceiling is double coved and ceiled with narrow ceiling continuous in style and material with that of the walls. The coves and the angles permit of several moulded cornices in wood. These are painted in vivid colors, each including white, red, yellow and blue. The artist seemed to aim more at variety than harmony of colors. The side walls are painted one neutral tint, one of the ceiling coves another tint, and the other still another tint, including a warm drab a greenish yellow and a yellowish green. Artificial light is supplied by two eight-jet gasaliers hanging from ceiling bosses painted in colors of vivid brilliancy loud enough to be heard. These are circular and divided into eight compartments adorned with the initial letters "S." and "A." placed alternately, the central space being perforated for purposes of ventilation. Above the platform the ceiling bears the coat of arms depicted in glowing colors, red of the most sanguinary cast predominating. Flanking the circular centre piece is the scroll bearing the words "Salvation Army." The centre piece bears the sacred symbol of the cross, entwined with the initial letter "S.", and around the circle blazes, in audible red, the sanguinary legend, "Blood and Fire." The main auditorium is seated for a thousand persons, while the platform will accommodate two hundred and fourteen officers and musicians, and will give the Army in Peterborough a splendid battle ground for waging the warfare and carrying on the campaigns against the Evil one they prosecute so vigorously.

At each corner of the main audience room stairs lead to the basement. In the rear this is divided into seven apartments, constituting the officers' quarters, where they eat and sleep, like the priests of the Jewish dispensation living in the temple. The front and larger portion of the basement is reserved for other meetings of less important character—for skirmishes, as compared with the pitched battles fought on the floor above. It will be seated and portable tables will be prepared, to be used on occasions of banquets. Here also is situated the combined hot air and steam furnace for heating the whole building. Special care has been taken to provide for as perfect ventilation as possible. Flues, leading from the outer air, pass upward alongside the walls above the heads of the people, and admit fresh air to replace the vitiated air which passes out at the ventilators above the gasaliers. Altogether the building is a substantially built structure, a good exposition in brick, wood and stone of the principles of modern architecture, and that the army should be able to put up and complete such a structure shows that their religious profession is not mere life service, but involves the sacrifice of their worldly goods upon the altar of faith, which, though carried out by practices at variance with popular ideas of seemly worship, appear to be proclaimed with remarkable success among those to whom the orthodox avenues to salvation are closed or, at least, obstructed by refined formalism and an excess of spiritual starch. St. Paul himself doubtless rubbed the wrong way the slick hair of the æsthetic Athenians, and epicurean Corinthians, as rudely as the Salvation Army methods disturb the spiritual serenity and respectability of the present day.

Shameful Neglect.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—The question is, does this town run itself? The streets looked like it yesterday afternoon. A gale was blowing at ninety miles an hour, driving the dust in blinding clouds, which penetrated every crevice, and destroyed and injured goods in the shops to ten times the value of our old, useless watering carts. What good are these carts anyway? George street yesterday was simply a gigantic dust-flue, and George street is supposed to be well watered; but it was mud in some places and in most other parts as dry as the eye sockets of Adam's skull. It is time the Mayor looked after the street watering matter and not allow the people's money to be wasted on useless work, for unless the watering is thoroughly done the money spent on it is wasted. Constant complaints are made of the insufficiency of the street watering service. The drivers apparently do as they like and exercise no judgment whatever. What have we a Mayor and Water Committee for? Are they mere ornaments, or are they expected to take some interest in town affairs? I demand, in the name of a suffocated, blinded, dust-drowned public, that our authorities exercise their authority, compel the watering carts to do their duty, and put an end to the wicked waste of money which the present perfunctory, puerile and useless street watering service involves.

Yours, indignantly,
DRYASDUST.

Peterborough Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Peterborough met at nine o'clock Tuesday morning in the Presbyterian hall, Walton street, Port Hope, Rev. A. Bell, of Peterborough, Moderator, presiding. The ministers present were Revs. Messrs. Bennett (clerk), Cleland, Ewing, Cameron, McCrea, Jamieson, Carmichael, Craigie, McKay, McEwen, McKenzie, McLeod, MacWilliam, Turnbull.

It was reported that the pulpits of Baltimore and Coldesprings had been declared vacant as directed.

There was tabled a call from Brockville to Rev. W. A. McKenzie, of Grafton and Vernonville, signed by 179 members and 76 adherents, and promising a stipend of $1,000 and manse. Mr. McKenzie signified his acceptance of the call and the Presbytery agreed to the translation. Rev. Mr. Cleland was appointed to declare the pulpits of Grafton and Vernonville vacant on Sunday, July 29th. Mr. Duncan was appointed Moderator of session during the vacancy.

The next meeting of the Presbytery was appointed to be held in Cobourg, on the 4th Tuesday of September, at ten o'clock a.m.

Permission was granted to Baltimore and Coldesprings to moderate in a call so soon as the congregation shall be prepared for the action.

The report on statistics was read and appointed to be printed for distribution in the congregations.

Rev. Mr. Bennett was appointed to visit the mission field of Chandos and Burleigh; Rev. Mr. Craigie, the fields of Haliburton and Minden; Rev. Mr. McEwen, the Harvey field and Rev. Mr. Carmichael that of Havelock.

Committees on Home Missions, Sabbath School, State of Religion, Temperance and Statistics were all re-appointed.

Reports were received from the various mission fields and the necessary action taken upon them with a view to the benefit of the fields.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Willow and Wicket.

A team of the Colts went to Lindsay yesterday to play the return match with the High School club of that place. The Colts went up six strong, expecting to pick up the full team complement in Lindsay. In this they were disappointed, only two subs being secured. The Lindsay men were taken unawares, as they never received the letter announcing the visit of the "Colts." A "scratch" team had to be got up on short notice, and at two o'clock play began on the school grounds, the Colts playing 8 men to their opponents' 10.

The match was won by the Colts. A very poor crease, the ground being fairly baked, and very rough at that, rendered good play impossible, and wickets fell in quick order. Almost half of the Colts' score in the first innings was made up of extras. The scores were:—Irwin 3, Hamilton 5, Kincaid 7, Bell 0, Hay 1, Anderson 0; the two subs. made 2 runs; extras, 16; total for seven wickets, 34.

Their opponents were no more successful. Irwin took 5 wickets for 9 runs, and Bell, who bowled in the face of a fierce gale, did almost as well. The Colts fielded sharply and only a couple of extra were made; total for 9 wickets, 31 runs.

The Colts in their second attempt piled up 72 runs. The principal scores were:—Anderson 16, Kincaid 9, Hamilton 7, Irwin 6, Bell 6, and Hay 1; 15 extras were scored. The Lindsay men also did better, but when time was called at six o'clock six wickets had fallen for 43 runs. In this innings Hay made a fine catch of a hot liner from a full-pitch ball.

The Lindsay team were mainly composed of seniors, only two or three of the regular school team being on hand.

The boys are proud of their victory.

SLIPS.

The match between Peterborough and Ontario county on the P.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow will be interesting and should draw a large attendance.

Mr. C. J. Logan is in town and will probably play with Peterborough to-morrow. He has just recovered from an illness, however, and is not yet in good form

The Irish Gentlemen will play the following matches in Canada during the month of August: Halifax, N. S.; St. John, N. B.; Ottawa, Peterborough, Orillia, and All C nada at Toronto. The match against the Toronto club has been abandoned.

Aquatic.

Unless the high wind that has prevailed all day subsides, it is not likely the regatta will be held on Little Lake to-night. If the weather is favorable, however, it will come off as announced.

A meeting of all persons who wish to attend the A.C.A. meet at Lake Couchiching this month is called for this evening at Mr. G. W. Hatton's office at eight o'clock. Peterborough should be well represented at the meet this year.

The Bicycle Races.

To-morrow evening on the P. A. A. A. grounds the first meet of the Peterborough Bicycle club will be held. A good programme of races has been made out and these will be run off by electric light. The band will also be in attendance.

Spots of Sport.

The Emerald baseball club has disbanded.

It is probable the Norwood lacrosse club will play the Y.M.C.A. team here next Monday.

An effort is being made to arrange a match between the Peterborough and Norwood baseball clubs.

Personal.

Mr. J. Morrow, Inspector of Inland Revenue offices, Toronto, was in town to-day on official business.

Mr. Wyld, of Wyld, Grassett & Darling, Toronto, was in town a couple of days this week on his way home from camp.

Dr. R. W. Bell, Grand Warden of the I. O.O.F. Grand Lodge, is in Toronto attending an important meeting of the Dues and Benefits Committee in connection with the Grand Lodge.

At a meeting of the Lindsay Presbytery at Sunderland on Monday, it was decided that Rev. Dr. McTavish, of Lindsay, be allowed to go to the Central church, Toronto. The pulpit there will be declared vacant on the first Sunday in August. As is usual in such cases, the final decision was left to Dr. McTavish, who considered in his duty to accept the call.

W. C. Commission.

The Trent Valley Canal Commission were in Lindsay yesterday. They went north up Cameron and Balsam lakes to-day.

To-Night's Meeting.

A meeting of the contracting carpenters is called for this evening in the Snowden block. Every member of the profession is requested to be on hand.

St. Andrew's S. S. Picnic.

The annual picnic of St. Andrew's Church Sunday school will be held on Tuesday, July 17th, per steamer Golden Eye to Jubilee Point. The steamer leaves the wharf at 8.30 a.m. sharp. Tickets, 35c.; children, 15c. 1d

Bicycle Meet.

Don't forget the bicycle meet to-morrow night on the P.A.A.A. grounds. Complete arrangements are made and this meet promises to be a brilliant success. The band has promised a fine programme, which alone is worth the small admission fee. Admission, 10 cents. Be on hand at 8 p.m., sharp. 2d

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

News Nuggets.

—There was no police court to-day.

—The Ontario Canoe Company's office on Water street, corner Brock street, is now open.

PUT off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

—An excursion of the South Ward Sunday school children and teachers went to Jubilee Point to-day.

—At Campbellford cheese market last week there were no sales, only 9½c. being offered.

—Mrs. Morrow and her son William, of Norwood, have been committed for trial on a charge of having drugged and robbed Alex. Small, of Dummer. They are not in gaol, being out on bail.

—The Lindsay Warder finds material for a "dairy" editorial in the report of the Peterborough cheese board sales. It urges the establishing of more factories and creameries, and says: "Peterborough is only fairly well work up, yet compare its output with Victoria's!"

A Malicious Outrage.

BRAVERTON, July 11.—On Sunday last a large portion of Mr. Alex. Hamilton's pasture field, a short distance from the village, was discovered to have been plentifully sprinkled with Paris green reduced to dust. The party who found it immediately gave information to Mr. Hamilton, who notified all the owners within range of the danger in the air. The ground on which the "green" was spread was quickly turned, and none of the animals on the pasture have received damage. "Mayflower," McKee's fast and famous little horse, was one of the animals grazing in the field.

PARTY STANDARD BEARERS.

East Elgin Conservatives Will Select a Candidate for the Local on July 17.

AYLMER, July 11.—The Executive Committee of the Conservative Association of East Elgin met here yesterday and decided to hold their convention here on July 17, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the coming election, to fill the vacancy in the Local House caused by the death of the late Mr. T. M. Nairn.

Nominations in Nicolet.

MONTREAL, July 11.—Nominations took place in Nicolet County yesterday for both the Dominion and Provincial Houses. For the Federal Parliament two Conservatives were nominated, Messrs. Archambault and Boisvert. For the Local the nominations were: Mr. Tourigny (Con.), and Mr. Turcotte (Nat.).

Wanted to be a Desperadoe.

WINNIPEG, July 12.—A youth named Robert J. Stackton purchased an old gun from a second-hand dealer the other day, and, securing a quantity of amunition, started out on an expedition. It was immaterial to him the description of game met with, so long as he could get a shot at something. Fortunately for the children in the vicinity, the little culprit thought powder was all that was needed. However, Alexander O'Grady received some injuries from the careless handling of the weapon, for Stackton fired a charge of powder in his face, tearing the flesh about the forehead and eyes. Stackton then got on a passing wagon and rode out to St. James, where he was arrested.

Belleville Briefs.

BELLEVILLE, July 12.—William McGurn, a farmer owning 100 acres of land at Tyendinaga, was brought to this city yesterday and committed for medical examination on the charge of being a dangerous lunatic.

At the last meeting of the School Board a report favoring the establishment in the Central School of a division having special regard to the furthering of education in the commercial and technical branches and to be designated "The Commercial and Technical Division," was adopted.

Mrs. Wm. Phillips of the third con. of Tyendinaga has deserted her husband and gone to the States.

To Visit Lundy's Lane Battle Ground.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 12.—Col. Otter, D.A.G., will, by order of the Government, to-day visit Lundy's Lane battle ground to report what measures should be taken to restore the military graves of July 25, 1814, and to erect a suitable memorial to the heroic dead.

Poor Milk.

HAMILTON, July 12.—The milk which has lately been supplied to the city hospital was of very poor quality, yielding only 1½ per cent. of fat when tested by the lactoscape. No more of that milk will be received there.

The steamer Celtic will start from Hamilton on her annual lighthouse supply trip on Friday.

Yesterday Detectives Doyle and Campbell recovered about $50 worth of tools that were taken from the boathouse of the late Mat. Thompson. They were found at the residence of Jos. Thompson, 193 Emerald-street north.

An Unfortunate Tamworth Family.

TAMWORTH, July 12.—The eldest daughter of W. D. Mace took a dose of carbolic acid by mistake yesterday, and died within 15 minutes. Her youngest sister, Jessie, was buried yesterday morning, having died from diphtheria after two days' illness. Another daughter, Myrtle, is in a critical state from nervous shock, as is also Mrs. Mace, who was just recovering from a severe illness.

A Big Catch of Halibut.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 12.—The Millie Adams has arrived at Seattle from Cape Flattery, having been gone from Seattle about one week, and returned with 45,000 pounds of halibut. Although the weather was so rough this trip that they could fish only two days and a half, the crew succeeded in capturing the largest cargo the schooner has ever brought to Seattle.

Too Strange Not to be True.

HAMILTON, July 12.—Yesterday a German emigrant woman, on her way to Chicago, looked out of the car window just as the departing train was beginning to make speed. What she saw of the town convinced her that she was in Chicago. She seized her grip, rushed out and landed on the platform, cutting her hand and spraining her wrist. She was forwarded by a late train.

Constant Advertising in the Examiner Pays.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her Jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

INCREASED IMMIGRATION.

40,323 SETTLERS IN CANADA DURING THE HALF YEAR.

Capt. Harston's Improved Accoutrements—Departmental Changes—The Ayer Case to be Appealed.

OTTAWA, July 13.—Adjutant-General Powell has received a set of improved accoutrements, the invention of Capt. Harston of the Royal Grenadiers who is now in London trying to get the Imperial authorities to adopt his patent. The most radical change is at the back where the valise goes to the top instead of the bottom, the canteen coming next, with the overcoat underneath. The new arrangement is said to distribute the weight more evenly than the old one. In front and on each side of the waist belt, are cuff cartridge pouches holding together seventy rounds of ammunition and two pouches on the shoulder belts hold twenty-nine. Some exception may be taken to these latter as interfering with the free action of the rifle, but on the whole the changes seem to be good.

It is understood that Lieutenant-Colonel White will shortly resign command of the 43rd Battalion on account of his promotion to the Deputy Postmaster-Generalship preventing his devoting sufficient time to the regiment.

Dr. J. C. Tache, Deputy Minister of Agriculture has been superannuated and John Lowe, Secretary of the department, who has been acting as deputy for several years past, has been promoted. It is understood that the position of secretary will not be filled.

The contract for the erection of the public buildings at Pembroke has been awarded to Munro, Beatty & Grive of that place, whose tender was the lowest.

The storm Wednesday was very severe here, and after six o'clock Ottawa was entirely cut off from telegraphic communication west, and but a few wires worked east. During the storm two men were blown from the fourth story of the new Banknote Building and seriously though not fatally injured.

Immigration returns for June show 14,780 arrivals during the month, of whom 6,510 settled in Canada and 9,170 were passengers to the United States. During the first six months of the current year the total arrivals have been 84,543 as compared with 70,745 for the same period last year. The number of settlers in Canada has been 40,323, an increase of 4,177 over the same period last year.

The Hull Relief Committee commenced yesterday the distribution of $12,000 in money and several thousand more in lumber, etc., contributed for the benefit of the sufferers by the late fire. As careful an estimate as possible has been made of the loss and a percentage will be paid to each. The amount to each individual will not be large, but small as it is it will be a great help to those who lost their all by the fire. The distribution will probaby take two or three days.

Comptroller White of the Northwest Mounted Police says that no disquieting news in regard to the doings or movements of half-breeds of the Northwest has been received. The Metis received some little assistance in the spring and are now gathering in their crops, being perfectly contented and quiet.

There is no new development with respect to the trouble in the Guards. All the officers with two exceptions are said to have sent in their resignations, and if they are not accepted by Col. Macpherson it is understood the officers will forward their resignations to headquarters. It is understood that there is to be a meeting of the officers to consider the situation, and if amicable arrangements cannot be arrived at it is possible that the friendly mediation of General Middleton may be invited.

Mr. Lowe, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, says the Toronto municipal authorities have not furnished the statistics concerning alleged pauper immigrants which they were asked to do. He says it is true that some of the lower classes from the East End of London were among the immigrants in the commencement of the year but they were not altogether an undesirable lot.

Hon. Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, left for Antigonish yesterday for his holidays and Hon. Mr. Bowell is now the only Minister in the city.

It is understood that it has been decided to appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision of Chief Justice Ritchie in the Ayer case.

Application has been made to the Department of Justice for the extradition of two men named Cottaran and Gallagher held at St. Albans for robbery.

No Celebration at the Capital.

OTTAWA, July 13.—There was no celebration of the Twelfth here, but about 800 Orangemen and Young Britons went to Carleton Place and took part in the demonstration there in which over thirty lodges aggregating fully five thousand participated.

Portugal's Acquisitiveness.

LISBON, July 13.—The Portuguese Government is preparing an expedition to go to the country north of the Zambesi River to secure and extend the Portuguese possessions.

FOUND WITH HER THROAT OUT.

A Fair Adventuress Supposed to Have Been Murdered by One of Her Victims.

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 13.—Alice Kelly, a fine-looking woman, about 25 years old, was found dead in the edge of the timber on the "old field," in the outskirts of the city. A horse and buggy standing hitched near attracted the attention of two passers-by, who found the body covered by a lap robe, the throat cut and the head badly pounded. Lying near was a razor and an iron bolt a foot long. Miss Kelly's first appearance here was June 13, when she registered at Dick's Hotel as from Detroit, Mich. Two weeks later she went to a private boarding-house. Arrested for jumping a board bill, she escaped on a point of law.

She left her boarding-house, the proprietor refusing to keep her longer, and went to the Revere House, where she took supper. About 7 o'clock she engaged a buggy and drove alone to the greenhouse, where she got a bouquet, afterwards found on her body. An hour later she was seen on Third-street alone in the buggy. This was the last seen of her. The nature of her wounds show it to be a murder. She was a bright, bold woman, and the opinion prevails that the murder is the result of her attempting to blackmail somebody.

Her History in Detroit.

DETROIT, July 13.—Alice Kelly, reported murdered at Ottumwa, Ia., was notorious in many places in Michigan, where for a long time her actions kept a number of prominent men in hot water. She was a blackmailer by taste and profession, having a mania for that calling, and for the crime had served a sentence in the Iowa House of Correction. She had also been imprisoned in the Detroit House of Correction. After her release not long ago she went from one hotel to another, whence she was removed in each case by the proprietors as soon as her true character was discovered.

Her last Detroit sensation was her examination in the Probate Court for insanity, this being brought about by her persistent attentions on the street to Dr. George B. Malone, who caused her arrest. In this case she conducted her own defence and kept the Court in an uproar by asking the most indecent questions of the witnesses, many of them well-known citizens. Finally consenting to go to her sister's house at Ottumwa, she was declared sane and allowed to go.

Sunk in the River with their Throats Cut.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 13.—The body of an unknown woman has been found in the river opposite the Waterworks, a mile above the city. The location and the condition were almost identical with those attending the finding of the man's body the night before. The throat was cut in the same way, the feet were bound together and a huge stone attached as a sinker. The body had on a shirt, a basque and a pair of stockings, all of cheap material. She seemed to be about 30 years old and had short brown hair. The features are so distorted by decomposition that they can afford little help in identification. A farmer reported that a man and his wife were missing from a shanty boat lying near Charlestown Landing, on the Indiana side, fourteen miles above the city, and the sheriff has gone up to investigate.

The Bridegroom Could not Escape.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J., July 13.—The climax of a romance was reached in Justice Mitchell's Court at a late hour at night. Mrs. Alice Space had been left at the very altar one week ago, at the house of a friend at Griggstown. Addison Lent had agreed to wed her. The parlors were filled with guests, and the clergyman stood with open book awaiting the bridal party, when the guests were informed that Lent had disappeared. He was found at midnight at the village tavern. The next day he disappeared, but Miss Space was on his trail. Lent was compelled to return to New Brunswick, where she was married to him by Justice Mitchell.

Iron Moulders in Council.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—The eighth biennial session of the Iron Moulders of North America is in session in this city. The session will probably extend over five or six days, but there are no governmental questions of importance to come before the body. The main matter to be considered will be the appointment of a committee to wait upon the Manufacturers' Association in Pittsburg as to a schedule of uniform wages for the entire country. Mayor Francis, who had been invited to welcome the delegates, did not appear to do so, it is said, because a local labor organization passed resolutions asking the iron moulders to rescind the invitation to him to address them.

Tortured the Boy with a Strap.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Mrs. Emma Carleton, a determined looking woman of 40 years, was convicted before Recorder Smyth in General Sessions of whipping Albert Bowker, aged 14 years, with a shawl strap on June 17. She tied his legs together and whipped him with the strap until the boy was covered with red welts an inch broad. In some places the skin was broken. The boy declared that the defendant beat him for fifteen minutes without ceasing. The jury found her guilty of assault in the third degree, the punishment for which is not more than $500 fine and a year's imprisonment.

They All Went Insane

PRINCETON, Ill., July 13.—The two grown daughters of Jacob Nye, a well-to-do farmer living eight miles south of Princeton, have been adjudged insane here and will be sent to Jacksonville for treatment. The father and mother and another daughter are also insane. The family of five were all stricken with this strange malady on the same day, and physicians are unable to account for the cause, as all were as well as usual a few days ago, and there had been no unusual excitement in the neighborhood. They spend their time singing and praying, and seem to fear being poisoned.

Cheaper Papers for Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 13.—A week ago The Chicago Times reduced the price of its daily edition from three to two cents. The Tribune has made a like cut. The News reduced its morning edition from two cents to one cent. The Inter-Ocean will cut to two cents in a few days. All the morning paper will then be sold for two cents except The News. About two years ago they all sold for five cents.

A General Break Expected.

PITTSBURG, July 13.—The amalgamated scale has been signed by Jones & Laughlin of the American Iron Works of this city, by the Gate City Iron Company of Gate City, Ala., and by the Lacking mill of Covington, Ky. The officers now look for a general break.

An Overworked Prelate.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 13.—Cardinal Gibbons, who has been overworked for the past month, left yesterday for two weeks' vacation in North Carolina.

Phinney Did it Himself.

BROOKLYN, July 13.—It has been ascertained that Gilbert Phinney, who said he had been shot early yesterday morning by burglars, committed the deed himself.

Through a Trestle.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 13.—A terrible accident occurred on the Virginia Midland Railroad early yesterday morning. The through Southern train that left here at 11.25 last night went through a trestle between Orange Courthouse and Barboursville, a distance of fifteen feet, killing five persons outright and wounding about 25, some priously.

O'Donnell and the "Times."

LONDON, July 13.—Frank Hugh O'Donnell in an interview said that up to February he had intended to treat his libel suit against The Times as a purely personal matter. At that time, however, Mr. Davitt wrote to him offering him every assistance in Mr. Parnell's power to further his interests. On finding that Mr. Parnell was willing to assist him, he felt himself bound to regard the representations put forward on behalf of the Parnellites for a better prosecution of the case. Down to a short time before the trial began, Mr. Parnell had agreed with Mr. Davitt and other prominent Parnellites that the mere fully the case was fought in court the better it would be for the reputation of the Home Rulers. Immediately before the opening of the trial, however, he heard through Mr. Davitt that Mr. Parnell was listening to other advisers, that the Liberals were impressing upon him the necessity of adopting a more cautious policy. Last month he himself was persuaded to pursue the same over-cautious policy which had led to the collapse of the entire case.

He also desired that the evidence should be of the fullest nature, but two of the most distinguished Liberal lawyers gave him unsought advice, counselling him not to assist the defence in fishing for evidence. It was undoubtedly known that The Times had gone to great lengths, even with the Invincibles, whose hands were red with the blood of the Phœnix Park victims, in order to procure evidence. It was urged that The Times' own evidence ought to justify the libels. If any part of the case appeared to have been made out, Parnell, Davitt, McCarthy, Sexton and others should have gone into the witness' box and stated the facts. Mr. O'Donnell continued:

"I am ruined in consequence of this action. I remain unable to understand how my eminent advisers proved so seriously wrong. All of the best and most straightforward and courageous Nationalists were heartily with me, desiring that the most complete inquiry be made. Through the over-cleverness of certain eminent advisers the case was ruined. Mr. Parnell, as regards the personal charges with reference to the letters ascribed to him, is entitled to consider the best course to be pursued in his own defence, but The Times' charges affect the party generally. My abortive contest with The Times more than ever proves that the true policy of the Nationalists is to demand a thorough investigation."

Dillon's Prison Discipline.

DUBLIN, July 13.—The prison officials deny that any change has been made in the treatment of Mr. Dillon in consequence of charges made that the death of Mr. Mandeville was due to privations he was compelled to undergo while in prison. They say the only relaxation of rules permitted in Dillon's case is that he is allowed to have books in his cells. He wears the prison garb, takes exercise in the yard with the other prisoners and at 8 o'clock every night is locked in his cell. His health is said to be good.

A Colonization Scheme.

LONDON, July 13.—The Parliamentary Colonization Committee waited upon Lord Salisbury yesterday, and urged that a Colonization Board be created and that the Government guarantee the payment in thirty years with 3 per cent. interest of whatever amount the public might subscribe to the colonization scheme in land, rent or stock. Lord Salisbury advised that the scheme be tried without State aid.

IS SHE A PRISONER?

A Sensational Story Concerning the Dowager Empress Victoria.

LONDON, July 13.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes some sensational correspondence from Berlin, under date of July 10, to the effect that the Friedrichskron Palace at Potsdam, where the Dowager Empress Victoria is living, is in all but name a prison, and the Empress is virtually under arrest. In any case she is receiving scant consideration from those who are now in power. It is presumed that the object is to bring influences to bear upon Her Majesty which will induce her to surrender her husband's papers.

The Doctors' Quarrel.

BERLIN, July 13.—The excitement created throughout Germany by the reports of the German doctors who attended the late Emperor Frederick is intense, and their criticisms of Dr. Mackenzie's conduct of the case form the sole topic of conversation.

The Kreus Zeitung in its comments on the reports, overwhelms Dr. Mackenzie with invectives.

To the question why the German doctors did not attempt to save the Royal patient from Dr. Mackenzie, the National Zeitung responds that according to Prussian principles their official position in the tragedy prevented them from making an appeal to the public, but they did appeal to Emperor William while the sick man was at San Remo, and one of their number stated their case to him without reserve. His Majesty was deeply distressed by the recital of the circumstances, but answered: "My son is 56 years of age, and the right of final decision regarding his medical treatment cannot be taken from him."

The Progressists' Journal, which is inclined to defend Dr. Mackenzie, points to the fact that there were eight doctors concerned in the case who did not sign the report criticising Dr. Mackenzie.

It is announced that Doctors Bergmann and Gebhardt will receive the decoration of the High Class Order of Hohenzollern.

The Bundesrath to the Emperor.

BERLIN, July 13.—The Bundesrath has prepared a reply to the proclamation issued by the Emperor at the time of his succession to the throne. The reply expresses the fullest sympathy with the principles enunciated by the Emperor, and promises to give his policy the heartiest support.

President Diaz Re-Elected.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 11.—On Monday the electoral colleges met throughout the country and voted for President, three members of the Supreme Court, members of Congress and one Senator in each state. So far no opposition whatever has been made to the re-election of President Diaz.

DOINGS IN THE DOMINION.

THE IRVING INQUEST AT TORONTO ADJOURNED UNTIL TO-NIGHT.

An 8-Year-Old Larcenist at Hamilton—A Fight at Montreal not According to Queensberry Rules—The Prosper Case.

TORONTO, July 13.—The inquest on Jennie Irving, the girl found in the bay last Saturday, was adjourned last evening until to-night on account of the absence of four jurors. The absentees will be summoned before the Police Magistrate for contempt. Jennie's twin sister and her uncle were here and will return to Bentwick Township to-day with the body which will be interred in the family burying ground.

Between 700 and 800 Chosen Friends from Ohio and New York came to the city on an excursion yesterday.

Mary Lawlor, a notorious woman, fired two shots from a revolver at a Young Briton band yesterday. She was arrested and remanded for examination.

John Parker, a deck hand on the steamer Rothesay, was drowned yesterday at noon.

E. Vanwicklin, an excursionist from Colborne and a guest at the Revere House, blew out the gas on retiring Wednesday night. When discovered he was insensible.

The celebration of the Twelfth was one of the most successful the Orangemen of Toronto have ever held. There were 6000 men in the procession which took 1 hour and 15 minutes to pass a given point. At Exhibition Park speeches were made by Prof. Goldwin Smith, Mayor Clarke, Dr. Wild, Grand Chaplain Sibbald, H. E. Clarke, M.P.P., and others, and the afternoon was filled out with games, music and dancing.

The National Division of Sons of Temperance elected these grand officers yesterday: Rev. R. Alder Tapple, Halifax, N. S., M.W.P.; A. A. Baldwin, Milford, Conn., M.W.A.; B. R. Jewell, Boston, M.W.S.; Jas. Roberts, Boston, M.W.T.; E. R. Young, Bowmanville, Ont., M.W. Chap.; S. T. Patterson, St. John's, N.B., M.W.C.; E. B. Caldwell, Athens, Tenn., M.W. Sent.; H. H. Clapp, Boston, P.M.W.P. It was decided that the next meeting should be held at Saratoga in June, 1889.

Not According to Queensberry Rules.

MONTREAL, July 13.—A brutal fight took place in one of the Allan sheds on the wharf. The combatants were two carters employed by Mr. Quinn, master carter for the Customs Examining Warehouse. The fight arose out of an altercation about one of the men's horses, and several rounds were fought in defiance of all the rules of the Marquis of Queensberry. In the course of the scrimmage one of the men dealt the other a savage kick with his heavy boot while he was on the ground and smashed in a number of his teeth. When the injured man had returned to his team the other followed him, and dragging him to the ground again deliberately bit his ear off. He then took to his heels with a yelling crowd after him, while his unfortunate antagonist was removed home. The police know nothing of the matter.

An 8-Year-Old Larcenist.

HAMILTON, July 13.—Before the police magistrate yesterday William Freeman, a little lad of only 8 summers, was charged by John C. Smyth with the larceny of a dozen salt cellars from the China Arcade. The lad was arrested by Constable Bleakley and nine of the stolen articles were recovered. He admitted taking the salt cellars. The magistrate gave him a good talking to and allowed him to go.

The Prosper Murder Case.

MONCTON, N. B., July 13.—It is said there are some curious things in connection with the Prosper murder case yet to be revealed. The genuineness of Emily Dillman's alleged letters is denied in some quarters. Some of the jurymen who found Prosper guilty are talking of going out to Guysboro road to make a careful inspection of the spot where Doyle's body was found.

PROROGUED.

The Quebec Legislature Winds up its Work—197 Bills Passed During the Session.

QUEBEC, July 13.—By an early morning session of the Legislative Council to finish the discussion on the Debt Conversion Bill, which finally passed, the Legislature was able to prorogue yesterday according to the program laid down at the beginning of the week.

During the session, which began May 14, 197 bills of various kinds were passed, a number in excess of any former session of the Legislature.

Governor Angers formally closed the session with the customary ceremonies, which were deprived of some of their brilliancy by the bad weather, which prevented the usual attendance of ladies. The speech closing the session contained nothing of importance and consisted mainly of a review of the work of the session.

At 4.30 the Legislature formally prorogued to Aug 18.

CANADA'S COMING OF AGE.

Celebrated at a Brilliant Banquet in London Last Night.

LONDON, July 13.—The Dominion "Coming-of-Age" banquet was held last night. There was a brilliant company present, including Senator Sanford, Sir Adam Wilson, Hon. Oliver Mowart, Lord Knutsford, Lord Lansdowne, Sir Charles Tupper, Dalton McCarthy, Q.C., M.P., Duncan McIntyre, and Donald Macmaster, Q.C. Mr. McLeod Stewart, Mayor of Ottawa, presided.

The toasts of the "Queen" and the "Prince and Princess of Wales" were proposed by the chairman. Dalton McCarthy proposed "Our Mother Country," to which Lord Knutsford responded. Lord Lansdowne replied to the toast of "Governors-General," and Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Oliver Mowat to the "Dominion."

The Ontario Mineral Appeal.

LONDON, July 13.—The Ontario mineral appeal was commenced before the Privy Council yesterday. The English Attorney-General, on behalf of the Dominion, not of the province, endeavored to establish three points: That the Indian lands had never been considered public lands; that they were not Crown lands; but that the Indian title had always been recognized.

WATCHING BY THE SICK BED.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for the Examiner.)

The sight of the sick bed furnishes a lesson by which all may profit. The sick bed will be the end of all men. From the highest to the lowest, from infancy to old age, all are doomed to feel the pangs of sickness, and to realize the fact that all are mortal. That they no sooner come into this world than many of them are taken away again to another, and, it is to be hoped, a better world. They learn that this world is but a vale of tears, a weary wilderness of sorrow, a labyrinth of hopes and fears, a night that has no dawning morrow. And yet how reckless and careless about themselves people seem to be. Knowing that they are mortal and that they are liable at any moment to be called away from their present life, they cast the thought from them and continue so to live and so to abuse themselves as to shorten the few years that are given them, as if life was not short enough already. Life's journey is a good deal as we make it. It is sometimes long and devious, and sometimes very short. We travel over a road in some places full of difficulties and dangers, and in others smooth and pleasant to look upon. But this road has an end. It leads down to the river which flows between time and eternity.

As we speed out of youth's sunny station
The track seems to shine in the light,
And it suddenly shoots over chasms
And sinks into tunnels at night.
And the hearts that were brave in the morning
Are filled with repinings and tears,
As they pause at the city of sorrow
Or pass through the valley of tears.

But the path for this perilous railway
The hand of the Master has made,
With all its discomforts and dangers
We need not be sad or afraid.
Roads leading from dark into darkness

Roads plunging from gloom to despair;
Wind not through the tunnels at midnight,
To the fields that are blooming and fair.

Though the rocks and their shadows surround us—
Though we catch not one gleam of the day,
Above us fair cities are laughing
And dipping white feet by the way.
And always, eternal, forever,
Down over the walls in the west,
The last, final end of our journey—
There lies the great Station of Rest.

'Tis the grand, central point of all railways,
All roads cluster here, where they end;
'Tis the final resort of all tourists,
All lives meet here and blend.
All tickets, or mile books, or passes—
If stolen, or begged for, or bought;
On whatever road or division
Will bring you at last to this spot.

If you pause at the City of Trouble,
Or wait in the Valley of Tears,
Be patient, the train will move onward,
And sweep down the track of the years.
Wherever the place is you seek for,
Whatever your aim or your quest—
You will come at the last, with rejoicing
To the beautiful Station of Rest.

In a lonely but beautiful part of the country might be seen at night the light of a lamp shining through a window. Through that window might be seen the form of a woman lying on a sick bed. She is greatly emaciated, and she has just parted from her children, who are crying and in great sorrow for the expected loss of their mother. The poor mother is crying too, for she knows that her days on earth are few, and she is eagerly talking to her husband, who is watching by her side, about the future of their children, and impressing upon him the necessity of being good and kind to them when she is no more. The night is waning and will soon turn into day, and the fond husband is resting his head upon the bed, trying to secure a little sleep. He is suddenly aroused by the moans of his wife, who thus speaks to him her last message of kindness and love:

Come once, just once, dear love, when my sad life is o'er,
May God forgive me if I wish it might be now, to-night.
And look once more upon the still, white face
That was to you a few years' brief delight.

The silent lips will not entreat you then,
Nor the eyes see you with unwelcome tears.
The low, sad voice will utter no complaint,
Nor the heart trouble with its restless fears.

You will forgive me then
For all I was or failed to be,
Say once "forgive me, dear," for all the pain
The sorrow I have brought into your life.

Methinks e'en then the cold, pale lips must part
And whisper "love, long since have I forgiven,
And every good I ever wished for thee,
God help you, dear one, now and evermore."

Then bend and kiss the lips,
One loving kiss for all the sad gone days.
Say once "God bless you, dear," then go in peace.
No venging Nemesis shall haunt thee in thy ways.

There is no loss like that of a wife or mother. The husband's help-mate is gone and the children are left without a mother's care. They have watched by the sick bed, and they have seen her last remains carried away to the silent tomb. And all that is left them now is to sit together and cry together and to visit mother's grave. The father has to conceal his grief and has to be absent from home attending to his daily toil, and so the children are left alone, and they wander through the lonely house and out into the garden, but they no longer hear their mother's kind voice. And when night comes on and father returns home, they run to meet him, and they tell him they are so lonesome, and he feeds them and puts them to bed and kisses them good night, just as mother used to do. And thus they all pass their weary hours, and day comes and night succeeds the day. Now go with me into another house where the husband and father is lying on a sick bed and his wife sits watching by his side. They both feel that his sands of life are slowly but surely running out. While he is able they talk together about the future, when he is gone, and he tries to encourage the wife to have hope, and to trust in God, who never forsakes the poor and deserving. As his end draws nigh he calls his children to his bed side and he tells them that he is shortly going to leave them, and he asks them to promise him that they will be good children and that they will be kind and good to their mother, and will follow her advice and help her all they can. And now the time has come when they must part. The father says his last word, takes his last look, and his eyes are closed forever. His last words are:—

Dear, faithful helpmate, gentle, kind and true.
Thy vigil by my couch will soon be past.
After long years together I and you
Must say farewell. God calls me home at last.
So darling wife, just for a little space
We must be parted. The stern angel Death,
God's messenger, is here, and in my face.
And, even now, I feel his cold and icy breath.
The tide of life is ebbing fast away.
Kiss me good bye, ere I pass on before
Through the dark vale to realms of endless day,
Where, love, we'll meet again to part no more.
My journey's done, for now the shining gates
Of Paradise are opened wide, and see,
My Saviour at the heavenly portal waits,
While white robed angels softly call to me.
Rest, peace at last. My sight has grown too dim
For things of earth. Bright, heavenly visions rise.
This death! 'Tis life, eternal life, with Him
Who died that I might dwell in Paradise.

None of us properly realise the toils and the pain, and anguish of a sick bed. We look upon our relations and friends lying there, but we cannot feel what they feel, nor understand the long, weary hours which they thus pass. And when we look upon them, as they near the moment of final separation, we know not how lonely they feel nor the sad thoughts at the parting from all they hold dear on earth. And when they are gone their places are soon filled by others and the business of the world goes on as before. Such is death and such is life. All the sad sights and all the sad lessons taught us go for nothing. We have seen a soul pass into eternity, we have seen a body laid away in the grave—but we turn away and in a little while we forget all and go on our way as before. Sooner or later our time comes, sooner or later our time comes, sooner or later every one's time comes, and when it does come how different our feelings. We seldom think of these things as we ought. The lessons which are so often given us do us no good—no good while we enjoy health and strength, but when laid on the sick bed we then know what they mean. Then we have got to think. Then we have got to look at ourselves as we are. To look at ourselves as God sees us. And we wonder what is to be our ultimate fate. We have plenty of time to think now. Our world now is limited by one small room with a bed and sick patient, lying there for long days and nights, fretting and grieving with the near prospect of eternity and the grave. With the near separation from all our earthly relatives and friends. And with the thought too, that when our bodies are laid away in the neighboring church-yard, we shall be uncared-for and forgotten. That the business of the world will go on just as before. That the sun will shine the same as ever, the moon and the stars give their faint light. The birds will sing, the trees bloom and all nature will smile, but our hearts will beat no more, our eyes will see no more, and our spirits will have crossed the stream into the great unknown land.

HAMILTON WILL STICK.

The Ambitious City Remains in the International Baseball Association.

HAMILTON, July 12.—A meeting of the shareholders of the Hamilton Athletic Exhibition Company was held at the City Hall last night. The President, Mr. J. Patterson, occupied the chair and presented a financial statement which showed that the club needed from $2,500 to $3,000 to carry the team through the season, and unless this amount was subscribed it would be impossible to go any further. Messrs. J. Crerar, J. J. Mason and J. M. Lottridge spoke in favor of trying to raise money by subscription, and it was finally decided that a committee consisting of Messrs. Stinson, Skinner and Crerar, along with the directors, call on all the prominent men in the city and see what could be done. On Mr. Lottridge's suggestion it was decided to start the subscription list then and there, himself heading the list with $100 and a promise of another if it was needed. Four hundred dollars was subscribed and things generally present an appearance that the team will go safely through the season. Among those who subscribed were Peter Wood and J. B. Rainey. The directors informed the shareholders that under no condition, if the amount was subscribed, would any of the players be dispensed with.

Enigma Extraordinary.

My first in gardens and wide fields grows,
My second the fact of existence shows:
My third is each one's warmest friend,
My fourth is the middle of the end,
My fifth is the cheer of all old maids' hearts,
My sixth orgies and ends in starts,
My whole of which you have oft had hints,
Is the golden lion's peerless prints.

Badly Burned.

The Carpenters' Meeting.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of contracting carpenter's last night and important business was transacted. Pending the final arrangement of a few matters a report of the proceedings is withheld for the present.

Yesterday's Fire.

The fire Thursday afternoon was in rear of the house occupied by M. LeFevre. The facts as given in yesterday's EXAMINER were correct. The fire brigade deserve a word of praise for the prompt manner in which they turned out. The horses were near the station and quick time was made.

Honored Abroad.

Mr. Wm. Telford, the poet of Smith, has reason to feel highly honored at the flattering reception his book of poems has met with at the hands of the public. And not only at home, but abroad. He has received a letter from Mr. John Kilder, of San Francisco, directing him to send ninety copies to that city.

PUT off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Run Over.

Yesterday afternoon as the hose wagon was rattling down George street on its way to the fire, a little son of Mrs. George Clinton was run over and rather severely injured. He attempted to cross the road near the C.P.R. track in front of the wagon, but stumbled and fell, one of the wheels passing over his right ankle. He had to be carried home, but fortunately no bones were broken.

Cheese Markets.

At the Napanee cheese market Wednesday 2,800 boxes were offered. 180 boxes sold at 10½c., 800 boxes at 10¾c., and 1,600 at 10⅞c.

At the Madoc Board 1,100 were offered, and sold at 9¾c.

At the Belleville Board on Thursday 39 factories boarded 5,208 boxes, 3,342 white and 1,866 colored. 9¾c. was offered for colored, 9¾c. for selections in white and 9¾c. for the Board.

An Unique and Attractive Entertainment

A new and novel entertainment, under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., will be given in Bradburn's opera house on Thursday evening, July 19th. It will consist of a large number of nursery ballads, set and sung to popular music by about fifty children dressed in character. All of us adults will be the better for the hearty enjoyment of a scene that will bring back the days of our childhood in so vividly, while the children will witness the presentation in a realistic and embodied form of "An hour with Mother Goose and her Family." The children have been diligently and carefully trained by Mr. W. H. Dingle, organist of the George-street Methodist church, and from what the EXAMINER has seen of the preliminary singing, the entertainment can be recommended as a most enticing and delightful one of its kind. It will make the elders young and the youngsters happy. Don't fail to pay your respects to "Mother Goose." In connection with the entertainment a debate is being arranged between the orators of the Y.M.C.A. and the Otonabee Canoe Club. Tickets 25c.

The Orangemen's Demonstration.

The Midland District Orangemen Celebrate at Port Hope.

The twelfth of July celebration at Port Hope Thursday was a grand success in every way. Besides the large number of Orangemen in attendance, the town was over-run with thousands of spectators. The Mail's correspondent says:—

"Five or six years ago the counties within the bounds of Ontario East Grand Lodge met here and had a splendid reception, but the local lodges, jealous of the praises lavished upon Peterborough for their successful handling of last year's celebration, held then in that town, set their hearts on making today's event the best on record in the vicinity. The good people of the town entered into the spirit of the resolve, and the result was extensive preparations on a handsome scale." A number of handsome arches were erected but these were blown down by the gale on Wednesday. However, a fatigue party labored all night and a couple of them were re-constructed.

During the forenoon the trains arrived from all direction and about noon the procession started from the market square. It was an imposing parade, but it was generally admitted not to be equal to that held in Peterborough the year before. It is said that by actual count there were 1,703 Orangemen in line, as follows:

The best order prevailed throughout the day. After dinner patriotic speeches were delivered in the town park, in the presence of a large concourse of people, by Bro. Holland, Port Hope, District Master, who acted as chairman, who also introduced several resolutions of the usual character. He was followed by Bro. John White, ex-M.P., P.G.M., of Roslin; Bro. Wm. Johnson, P.G.M. of Belleville; Rev. Dr. Shaw, Toronto; Messrs. H. A. Ward, M.P., and T. D. Craig, M.P.P., and others.

THE RETURN.

The brethren arrived in town about 7:30. They marched through the streets to Ashburnham, where the visiting lodges embarked for home, the local lodges afterwards dispersing. All expressed themselves highly pleased with the demonstration.

The day's proceedings were concluded here by a grand uniform ball in the Orange hall, under the auspices of the 'Prentice Boys. It was a signal success, about forty couples being present. Mr. John Craig supplied the supper.

Local Sports and Pastimes

Willow and Wicket.

The match game of cricket between an eleven of the Peterborough Club and a team selected from the whole of Ontario county was begun on the P. A. A. A. grounds at ten o'clock this morning, and it looks as if Peterborough might win. The County went in first, Rutherford and Day bowling, and they were disposed of for 110 runs; Hatch 45, Hamilton 17, Hemp 13 and Gilpin 13, being the only double figures. After lunch Peterborough went to bat and at three o'clock had scored 63 runs for four wickets. Of these Sam Ray made 31. The match will be a close one in any case.

Aquatic.

It does not appear that Peterborough will be very largely represented at the A.C.A. meet this year. Only two or three turned up at the meeting in Mr. Hatton's office last night, and consequently no arrangements were made for a local representation. A few private parties will, however, attend the meet.

There was no regatta on Little Lake last night, the weather being too cold and the wind high. One of the four-oar boat races was run off, however, to satisfy a little spirit of rivalry. Capt. A. G. Lech acted as starter and referee. The crews were stroked by Messrs. Stevenson and Mercer, respectively, the latter winning by half a length after a close race. The crews were Spots of Sport.

Mr. R. B. Rogers, of Peterborough, is one of the Eastern Ontario Association team who play on Monday and Tuesday.

Peterborough Cricket Club is billed to play at Ottawa August 27th.

The Lindsay Post says:—"The handicap base ball match, Peterborough v. Port Hope-Cobourg, in Peterborough on Wednesday last, resulted in defeat to the "combine" by one run."

The bicycle races and promenade concert, announced to be held in the P. A. A. A. this evening, have been postponed till some night next week, when it is hoped the weather will be warmer.

Personal.

Geo. A. Cox, Esq., is in town to-day.

E. D. Gough, Esq., Toronto's Great Cheap Clothier, is in town to-day.

Mr. Peplow and family, of Port Hope, passed through town this morning en route to Stony Lake.

Mr. J. R. Dundas, of Lindsay, is in town to-day attending a meeting of the directors of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company.

A Four Days' Fight.

Dedication Services of the New Barracks—Scenes May Expect a Hard Time Now.

The dedication services of the new Salvation Army temple will spread over four days. Nearly all the officers of the division will be present, and the occasion will, without doubt, be the biggest in the history of the local corps. Following is the "official programme":—

SATURDAY, July 14.—7.15 p.m., march; 8 p.m., welcome to Commissioner and Staff and dedication of Temple.

SUNDAY, July 15th.—7 a.m., before the Throne, led by staff officers; 10.15 a.m., march; 11 a.m., subject:—"Christianity of Jesus Christ"; 2.15 p.m., march; 3 p.m., Holy Ghost or hell fire; 7 p.m., march and open air on market; 7.30 p.m., roaring torrent. Niagara turned on full. No water rate, when dark, sin polluted souls will dash into the cleansing fountain and emerge white as snow.

MONDAY, July 16th.—"Day of Days." Council in old barracks, Aylmer street, 10 a.m.; 3 p.m. big march through the town. Banquet in basement of new Temple from 5 to 7 30 p.m., tickets 25c.; 7.30 p.m., march; 8 p.m., Tragic Scenes of Life and Death; 11 p.m., all night of prayer, subject:—"Do I eat His flesh and drink His blood." (Christ.)

TUESDAY, July 17th.—1.30 p.m., Council in old barracks, Aylmer street; 5 p.m., Officers' tea in Temple; 7 p.m., march and meeting on market square; 8 p.m., in the Temple. Great Farewell of Staff and Field Officers, and Hallelujah rock-a bye baby meeting, officers and soldiers to their post fifteen minutes before time and start to pray.

Silver collection at all meeting except July 17th, only 10c.

—Dan Burgess and Wm. Kitely, two vagrants, were committed to gaol this morning for six months each.

—Mr. Chas. Brown, who has contributed so many numbers to the programme of different entertainments in town, is now contributing street numbers to all the houses.

—The Lindsay Post says:—"Mr. H. LeBrun, merchant tailor of Peterborough, accompanied by Mr. James Dolan and other friends, passed through town last week for Sturgeon Point hotel, where they remained several days and caught a number of fine fish."

Ennismore.

(Correspondence of the Examiner.)

Last Saturday evening Michael Brick was returning home with a new top buggy. The horse, unaccustomed to such a vehicle, looked around and became frightened at the top. He plunged into a ditch, breaking the shaft of the buggy and spraining Mr. Brick's ankle. A gentleman passing acted the part of the good Samaritan, picked up Mr. Brick, made temporary repairs and sent him on his way to Bridgenorth, where more permanent repairs were made, and he reached home in safety.

Mr. Maurice Thorney, accompanied by a lady, had a narrow escape from a serious runaway on Sunday night, but his presence of mind and prompt action prevented any serious consequences.

It is enquired why the young ladies of Ennismore are suffering several eligible bachelors of this township to grow old in the sin of celibacy. Some of the bachelors should also look alive and make hay while the sun shines, or, rather, make love while the girls smile.

South Ward Sunday School Excursion.

The "Golden Eye" on Thursday morning steamed out from the Wolfe street wharf at eight o'clock with the St. John's South Ward Sunday School excursion, bound for Jubilee Point, to hold its annual picnic. Between children and adults there were about one hundred and forty persons on board. The morning, for the first few miles, was rather cool, but as the sun rose higher the warmth was just right for enjoyment. The trip down the river is a pleasant one—between sinuous shores, crowned, now with the rich verdure of thrifty timber, and again with the fields of waving grain sloping to the water's edge. Jubilee Point was reached about 12 o'clock and dinner at once demanded the attention of the ladies, while the children sought amusement with the swings or plunged into the ferny depths of the grove, to come back crowned with ferns and flowers at the call of the dinner bell. A short distance from the shore Jubilee Point is covered with a wondrously rich carpet woven of the delicate fronds of the maiden hair fern. The ladies of the Sunday school had furnished abundant refreshments for the children, whose appetite seemed to be insatiable; not only on the grounds but on the way home the youngsters were busy stowing away provender. After dinner boating and fishing engaged attention. At four o'clock the return trip began and proceeded without mishap, a very slight detention being caused by logs near the locks. The first two-thirds of the return trip was delightful. The children, whose excursion it was, when not eating were scamping about the boat "up-stairs and down-stairs and in my ladies' chamber," without restraint and with the greatest enjoyment. Without mishap to mar a most delightful day's pic-nic and excursion, the steamer reached the home wharf at about eight o'clock. The ladies of the Sunday school, Mr. A. V. R. Young, superintendent, Mr. Sheffield, ex-superintendent, and Mr. Ruf Stevenson (with a roving commission) did all in their power to make the trip the success which it was in every respect. The Jubilee Point route is in every way deserving the popularity it has acquired this season. The Point boasts a good dancing pavilion and an airy, new hotel, will be open in a few days for guests. The distance from town is not great, and the sail down the river proceeds amidst beautiful scenery, which, if slightly monotonous, is of refreshing greenness—in agreeable contrast to the heat and glare of the town. The Golden Eye is well managed, all connected with her being obliging in every way. The Sunday school excursion of the South Ward was both a pleasurable and financial success, a nice little sum being realised above expenses.

Examiner Bindery.

Merchants and business men, now is the time to call at the EXAMINER bindery and leave your orders for journals, day books, ledgers, invoice books, cheque books, and all blank books used in business. Don't wait till the moment you want to use them. All blank books last longer for not being used immediately after being finished.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

Passing Thoughts.

The sun shone brightly one summer's day in July. The scenery of the beats on the riverside was beyond description, even a poet could not fail to be impressed with the fact that the birds of the air and the flowers of the field were shielded by the bountiful hand of the Creator. 'Twas at eventide. I felt as in a reverie, sitting on board our little craft. The merry sounds of laughter of the children—sounds which only youth can produce—fell calmly on my soul. My thoughts, also, were not here, but far away to a grave of a dear sister, the companion of my youthful years. She, though dead to the world and myself, lives, let us hope, in a mansion prepared by Divine Hands, a mansion that should be the aim of one's life to strive to attain.—(Com.

Taken on the Streets.

HAMILTON, July 13.—Elizabeth Kelly, a 16-year-old girl, was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Bridget Kelly, her mother, who had charged her with being a common vagrant, without home or visible means of support. The mother said that she had tried to induce the girl to stay at home and behave herself, but she would not, but persisted in walking about the streets day and night, and living she knew not how. She wished to have the girl sent where she would be taken care of and taught something. At present the defendant can neither read nor write. She was sent to the Mercer Reformatory for twenty-three months.

Strike at the Hamilton Screw Factory.

HAMILTON, July 13.—About fifteen girls working at the Screw Factory have struck for an advance in their wages of five cents per day. The girls working on the threading machines received five cents a day more than the girls on the shavers, which is considered by the latter an injustice, as the amount of work performed by both is about equal. Their request for equal pay being refused by the manager they struck. The difficulty is not settled yet.

A Cowardly Scoundrel's Work.

PARIS, July 13.—The men engaged in sawing the lumber for Mr. D. A. White, near Canning, Blenheim Township, have had an experience not common to mill men. About two weeks ago they sawed through an iron the size of a barrow tooth, which ruined the saw and occasioned much loss of time. This week they ran on to a file which bent the teeth and stopped the saw under a full head of steam. After replacing the saw, the handle end of a file was grazed in another log. Suspicion rests upon a man who was heard to say that Mr. Disher would have trouble before he finished the work.

The Teacher Paid the Costs.

WATERLOO, July 13.—A 10-year-old lad named Dorst of Wilmot made use of insulting language to his teacher, Mr. Kuntz, the other day in the school room during regular school work. Mr. Kuntz punished the boy, according to the parents' story, very severely. Mr. Dorst had the teacher summoned before J. P. Devitt on a charge of too severely chastising the lad. After a lengthy review of the affair the case was settled by Mr. Kuntz paying the costs of the court.

Russia's Plenty and India's Sufficiency.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 13.—The exports of breadstuffs from Southern Russia during the coming autumn are expected to be enormous. Reports from Odessa indicate a harvest of immense promise.

LONDON, July 13.—Advices from India say the crop prospects are improving. The drought has ceased and a famine is no longer feared.

Beaverton Hotels Closed.

BEAVERTON, July 13.—The hotel keepers have closed up the hotels and will take holidays until further notice. They have come to the conclusion to close up their houses and sheds, and find out how the temperance party will like the move. The action is particularly hard on commercial travellers.

The Knives Went Round.

MARKDALE, July 13.—While two little boys, sons of Geo. Crow of this place, were amusing themselves about a mowing machine in front of one of our implement establishments, the elder turned a wheel to see the knives move while the younger, a lad of two years, put his finger in and had it taken off.

Emperor William's Naval Escort.

BERLIN, July 13.—The fleet which will accompany Emperor William as an escort on his visit to Russia will be the largest that Germany has ever put to sea. It will consist of six ironclads, four despatch ships, four vessels of the training squadron, and a flotilla of torpedo boats.

Gambettists will Demonstrate.

PARIS, July 13.—On the occasion of the inauguration of the monument to Gambetta in the Place du Carrousel the whole of the garrison will parade, and President Carnot will deliver an address. The Gambettists hope that the demonstration will revive the waning prestige of the party.

The 12th in Ulster.

LONDON, July 13.—There were large gatherings of Orangemen in different parts of Ulster yesterday for the celebration. A well attended meeting was held in Glasgow.

A Market for Canadian Butter.

LONDON, July 13.—Mr. Lynch has concluded his enquires into the dairying of England, Scotland and Ireland. What he saw on the Continent convinced him that Canada will find a desirable market for butter here, despite the low prices, if such measures are taken as have raised the Canadian cheese industry.

The Otego Ashore near Pt. Colborne.

PORT COLBORNE, July 13.—The propeller Otego, formerly the City of St. Catharines, is ashore at the second point, about three miles east of here. She is loaded with black stone from Portage to Buffalo. She is not leaking, and expects to be lightened without damage.

Trouble Brewing.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 13.—Serious trouble is brewing between the whites and blacks in Crittenden County, Arkansas.

MARRIED.

VENTRESS—PLAIN.—At St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, by the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Rector, on July the 12th, 1888, Mr. Albert Ventress to Miss Sarah Jane Plain, all of Peterborough.

Constant Advertising in the Examiner Pays.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

DARING SENATOR DOLPH.

HE ISN'T AFRAID OF WAR WITH GREAT BRITAIN.

Principally Because He Thinks There Will be None but Diplomatic Battles—Another Speech on the Fishery Treaty.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senate being in open executive session on the fisheries treaty yesterday, Mr. George continued his speech in favor of ratification, at the conclusion of which Mr. Dolph took the floor and addressed the Senate in opposition to the treaty.

"Under the treaty of 1818," he said, "Great Britain had secured a compromise by which the inshore fishery rights of the United States had been greatly restricted, but no one except the Senator from Alabama (Morgan) was ready to advise or vote for the abrogation of that treaty. The fishermen of the United States were content to abide by it.

"The provisions of the pending treaty were a surrender by the United States of the claims to what were British bays and harbors. The Republican majority in the Senate had been threatened with free Canadian fish if the treaty were not ratified, but he could inform Senators on the other side that that was not the way to secure free Canadian fish.

"The only American battles with Great Britain would be battles of diplomacy. Great Britain would get by diplomacy all the United States was weak enough to yield. He did not fear a war with Great Britain. The sentiment of the two countries in favor of peace and of peaceful means for settling differences was so great as to prevent war. Great Britain would not resort to war with the United States because it was not her interest to do so. At the call of even the present pro-English administration in case of war, armed men would spring into the field from every state and territory to make the conquest of the Canadian provinces, and a few months of hostilities would find an American privateer in every sea.

"While war was brutal and barbarous, there were some things more degraded than war. A nation could emerge from a costly and sanguinary war with its honor unstained, its love of liberty uninterrupted and the foundations of prosperity strengthened, but when it yielded to unjust demands it lost its own self-respect and the respect of other nations."

Mr. Pugh gave notice that he would address the Senate on the Fishery Treaty next Monday.

HATEFUL RUMORS.

The Pall Mall Gazette's Sensational Story—A Spectacle for Nations.

LONDON, July 14.—The following is The Pall Mall Gazette's sensational story from Berlin, which, although it has been denied by other papers, appears to have some basis of truth:

"Very hateful rumors are flying about in Berlin which I hesitate to send without confirmation, but which I equally hesitate to withhold lest they prove to be true. It is well known that, as I saw with my own eyes, the moment Emperor Frederick's breath was out of his body there was a rush of soldiery to all the exits from the castle of Fredrichskron. No one was allowed to leave and no one to enter for hours after the death.

"What was the object of this headlong and indecent blockade. It was more than hinted at the time that the intention was to secure any papers which the dead Emperor had left behind him, and above all the sheets of the diary which he kept for recording his opinion on matters of State. Not a scrap of paper on which the deceased had written the commonest request or remarks (he was for a long time reduced to this means of communication) was allowed to remain in the possession of its recipient. It is even said that the trunks of one doctor were seized at the frontier and sent back to Berlin to be overhauled at the Chancellerie. It is a spectacle for nations, that of Prince Bismarck on his knees turning out the contents of Dr. Hoovell's trunks.

"But it would awaken very different feelings if it were true, as is not unsparingly asserted in Berlin, that a high personage who is near and dear to England, and who was nearest and dearest to the illustrious dead, is weeping to-night at Friedrichskron, a palace which is in all but name a prison. Of course, every one must hope that the story is an abominable fiction, but, whenever I hear on all sides that the Empress Victoria is virtually under arrest in her present residence, I fear that there is little doubt that Her Majesty is receiving very scant consideration at the hands of the men now in power."

Long-Hoarded Venom.

LONDON, July 14.—The elaborate attack by the German doctors on Sir Morrell Mackenzie makes little impression on English opinion—perhaps none. It has long been known that this "long-hoarded venom," to use Macaulay's phrase, would some day spurt out. Sir Morell's reply is brief. He says that the allegations against him are untrue and will in due time be proved untrue. At present he is silent, because the Empress Victoria and the Queen wish him to be silent.

THE "Q." DYNAMITE PLOT.

THE ALLEGED CONSPIRATORS ON TRIAL AT CHICAGO.

United States District Attorney Ewing Outlines the Case of the Government—Some Very Secret Business.

CHICAGO, July 14.—An outline of the case against the members of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen accused of complicity in the dynamite plot against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad was presented in court yesterday by United States District Attorney Ewing. Six of the accused—Chief Bauereisan, Goodring, Wilson, Bowles, Broderick and Smith—were present. The statement made by the District Attorney was apparently based largely on a confession made by one of the six, Alex. Smith. District Attorney Ewing said;

"I think it will appear from the evidence that on or about May 29 last at the town of Eok, four or five miles from Aurora, there was a dynamite cartridge placed upon the track of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road and exploded. The evidence will also show that after the explosion at Eok, Bowles, one of the accused, went into the room of Chairman Hoge of the Brotherhood and showed him a number of dynamite cartridges, and that they talked there about the use of these cartridges. Some three or four days before that explosion, and after the conversation between Bowles and Hoge, Bowles met Smith, one of the defendants, and talked with him about the use of dynamite, told him how it could be used, told him something of its explosive power, and asked him to go with him and they would find some.

"On the night of May 29, somewhere about 9 o'clock, Bowles procured a buggy and a horse, and with Smith drove down to Eok. On the way down Bowles showed Smith the dynamite cartridge, which corresponds with the cartridge found in the possession of the parties. They drove to the town, then 50 or 60 yards from the railroad, when Bowles got out of the buggy, went over to the track, and put the cartridge on the rail, coming back and reporting that he had done so. They drove back to Aurora, and just as they were nearing the town the explosion took place and a part of the engine was wrecked.

"A day or two later Bauereisan met Smith on the street and said Bowles had left a package for him at Peik's Hotel. Smith went to the room of the hotel as directed and found the cartridge and caps. A few days after that Bauereisan met Smith on the street again and asked him if he had sent off any of that stuff yet. This was on June 14, the day of the Brotherhood picnic. Smith told him he had not and Bauereisan replied that that would be a pretty good night to do it. Smith got the cartridge and went down to South Aurora and put the cartridge on the track.

The next day after he did that he met the defendant Bauereisan and the latter again asked him if he had let off any of that stuff. He told him he had and Bauereisan told him he thought so because he had heard the explosion. On that night there was an explosion at that place.

"Between June 16 and July 1 Bowles was away, and there was a correspondence between him and Bauereisan and others concerning his whereabouts and what he was doing. That correspondence in the handwriting of Bauereisan showed that Bowles was doing some business that was very secret, that he must be careful that no one was watching him, that if he believes that the man he suspects is really following him to shoot him."

The District Attorney further stated that on July 5 Gooding gave Smith a letter to his wife, and that on presenting it she gave Smith a package containing cartridges, fuse and caps. Smith put another paper around the bundle and delivered it to the Brotherhood Hall at Aurora. At the hall there he met Broderick, Bowles and Bauereisan, and said to one of them: "That package is out in the ante-room."

The evidence will show that a very little while after that Broderick, Bowles, Bauerisan and Wilson all went out of the hall together, that Broderick had this package in his arm and that they went down to the train together, coming to Chicago and the three, leaving ont Bauerlan, took the train to come here, carried that package to the train, were arrested upon the train, and when that package was examined it was found to contain four half-pound dynamite cartridges, and in Broderick's possession were a number of these fulminating caps that can be used for no other purpose than I know of on earth, but to explode that infernal stuff.

Mr. Kelly, secretary to Chairman Hoge, was placed on the stand and told how Bowles had brought dynamite to Hoge's room. The package was opened in the presence of Hoge.

A Hotel Manager's Suicide.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., July 11.—Fred A. Having to vacate the Webster House and a recent suspicious fire in the premises are supposed to have been the cause.

SERIOUSLY COMPROMISED.

GOVERNMENT LEADER W. H. SMITH'S LATEST BLUNDER.

The Unlucky Lords' Reform Bill—Not yet Quite Certain that there will be an Autumn Session of Parliament.

LONDON, July 14.—It is not quite certain that there will be an autumn session. Mr. Smith has announced it with solemnity, but those behind the scenes don't believe the Ministry mean it. What they do mean is to hurry forward business. There are still, in parliamentary phrase, twenty days "of supply," and four or five weeks at least must be devoted to passing money votes. These votes must be had before the House adjourns. They cannot be had by Aug. 12, the day which Mr. Smith named for adjournment. It is far more likely that the House will sit till the second week in September, and then be prorogued as usual. The Ministerial majority will do anything rather than be compelled to return to work next November. At present they are perfectly docile.

Mr. Smith has compromised himself and his position rather seriously by his cavalier treatment of Lord Salisbury's bill for reforming the House of Lords. Perhaps no leader of the House of Commons ever made such an audacious mistake. Lord Salisbury wanted his bill passed, and expected it to be passed, but Mr. Smith, while debate on the bill was proceeding in the House of Lords, assured the House of Commons that no attempt would be made to pass it. When Lord Salisbury heard what his lieutenant had done, he told the Lords it was needless to discuss the measure further, as Mr. Smith, in a panic, had abandoned it.

Rumors were flying about last night that Mr. Smith would resign. This last blunder had filled the cup to overflowing, and Lord Salisbury's patience was at an end. This, no doubt, is premature, but it was said seriously by a Unionist, deep in the confidence of the Government, that Mr. Smith could not remain much longer. His natural successor would be Lord Randolph Churchill, but the difference between Lord Randolph and Lord Salisbury are still too great for an immediate reconciliation. If Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's health permitted he might be the man. Lord Randolph's health too is a little impaired and he is going to France, perhaps to Spain, in search of a fresh stock.

That unlucky Lords' Reform Bill has served at least one useful purpose. It provoked a debate of a nature seldom heard in the Lords and some valuable truths were told. Lord Rosebery's speech, short, sparkling and easy, is said by those who heard it to have been his best of that kind. The Duke of Argyll cannot be reckoned one of its admirers; he was its victim.

The Ministry have stuck to their guns, and the London clauses of the Local Government bill are being debated and will be passed. The Opposition support the schemes on its general merits, and will do their best to make it more democratic than it is. But even as it stands this bill unites all existing Londons into a single municipality whereof the rulers will, in great part, be elected by the people.

A New Government Measure.

LONDON, July 14.—In the House of Commons Mr. Balfour proposed for the present session of Parliament a measure to prevent the system of land purchase under the Ashbourne Act from lapsing, upon which Mr. Gladstone said that the entire scope of the measure was a subversion of the Government's promises. The Opposition would, therefore, reconsider its entire position.

A Vote of Confidence.

The motion was carried without division.

The Times' Charges.

LONDON, July 14.—The prevailing feeling among the Liberal members of Parliament regarding the Government's proposition to appoint an independent tribunal to inquire into the charges made by The Times is that the language in the terms of the reference should no be too general, and that there should be no hesitancy in accepting the offer, but the inquiry, they maintain, should be strictly confined to specific matters, such as the authenticity of the letters which The Times alleges Mr. Parnell wrote. The Conservatives are highly satisfied with the Government's decision. They assume that the inquiry will be wide enough to admit going into all the bearings of the subject. It is probable, therefore, that the issue will be joined on the question regarding the terms of reference.

The Times says it fails to see why a special tribunal should be constituted to satisfy Mr. Parnell's unwillingness to go into court, but is willing to accept the project for a committee upon condition that it investigates the whole mass of facts involved in the articles on "Parnellism and Crime."

The Dublin Freeman's Journal says the proposed investigation is beset with difficulties.

The Dublin Express (Con.) says it is amazed and perplexed at the Government's proposal to appoint such acommission. "Why," it asks, "should the ordinary tribunals be ousted and judges only be allowed to express a legal opinion upon evidence the legal effect of which would be trifling and the political effect nothing."

BELLIGERENT BOULANGER

HE FIGHTS A SWORD DUEL WITH PREMIER FLOQUET.

Both Combatants Hurt, the General Receiving a Serious Wound in the Neck—The Cause of the Quarrel.

PARIS, July 14—There was a stormy scene in the Chamber of Deputies on Thursday between Gen. Boulanger and M. Floquet. A proposition by the former for the dissolution of the Chamber was rejected, and he immediately tendered his resignation. The scene is thus described:

Premier Floquet reproached General Boulanger for asking support from the Right. [Applause from the Left.] He said it was not for a man like Boulanger, who was always absent from the Chamber, to judge of its legislative powers or criticise hard-working members. What has General Boulanger done?

Gen. Boulanger: "I made an appeal to the country."

M. Floquet: "The country answered you in the Charente election."

M. Span (Bonapartist): "The country unanimously pronounced, through me, for revision."

M. Floquet: "We have never recognized you as one of us. You are a lingerer in sacristies in the ante-chamber of princes. We will celebrate the centenary by proclaiming the supremacy of the civil power. We present universal suffrage. We have rendered more service to the Republic than harm. You demand dissolution. It is in your party that it exists. Your photographers come from Germany, where your interests lie." [Cheers from the Left and uproar from the Right.]

Gen. Boulanger: "M. Floquet's speech is only the utterance of a badly educated school usher. He in no way alludes to the general policy of revision. He merely makes personal attacks. I tell him now, as I tell him amidst the noise, that he impudently lies."

After a scene of excitement the President of the Chamber said before applying censure he would allow Gen. Boulanger to speak.

Gen. Boulanger asked if censure was to be applied to M. Floquet or himself.

The President: "It was you that first attacked the Chamber. The last words you uttered make it necessary to apply a severe rule."

Gen. Boulanger protested against a regime which did not respect the liberty of the tribune. He said that in view of the President's decision he would resign his seat. The General thereupon left the Chamber, followed by his partisans.

The outcome of the quarrel was a duel between Boulanger and Floquet on Count Dillon's estate, a short distance from the city, yesterday morning. At the second encounter Gen. Boulanger was slightly wounded in the leg and M. Floquet received a cut on the right hand. After resting the men renewed the fighting for the third time. Gen. Boulanger made a lunge at M. Floquet's left breast, but only slightly touched the mark. Gen. Boulanger then received a wound in the throat, which put an end to the encounter. The General staggered, clapped his hands to the wound and fell unconscious in the arms of his seconds, MM. Laheriese and Laisant. A doctor who was present put some bandages at once about his throat to stop the flow of blood. The General was immediately carried away. Floquet was seconded by MM. Clemenceau and Perrin.

The duel lasted only four minutes and was fiercely fought. Gen. Boulanger tried hard to kill Floquet and threw himself upon him again and again. When Floquet received the wound in the hand and it began to bleed the seconds proposed that the fight be discontinued, but both combatants refused to stop.

Dr. Monod, who is attending Gen. Boulanger, has issued a bulletin regarding his condition. It says that there is a deep wound in the right side of the General's neck, and that it caused marked difficulty in his respiration. At present the doctor is unable to give an opinion as to what course the case may take.

There was a marked improvement in Gen. Boulanger's condition last night. The doctors still decline to make a prognosis. Several journals assert that M. Floquet's sword penetrated Gen. Boulanger's cheek six centimetres (2 2-5 inches) at a point between the jugular vein and the cariotid artery.

THE ONTARIO TIMBER CASE.

When Sir John Macdonald was beaten in his struggle to seize upon the territory of the Province of Ontario, he set up a claim upon the timber and minerals and distributed thousands of acres of timber land in Ontario territory to his political pets. He has always been opposed to Ontario's interests in this matter, and to show his hostility still more plainly he took up gratuitously the quarrel of the St. Catherines Milling and Lumbering Company, which had been restrained by the Ontario Government from cutting the timber on Ontario territory, granted to the Company by the Dominion Government. A cable dispatch states that the hearing of the case of the Queen vs. the St. Catherines Milling and Lumbering Company was begun before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on Thursday, July 12th. The action, it will be remembered, was brought by Her Majesty on the information of the Attorney-General for Ontario against the St. Catherines Milling and Lumbering Co., to prevent them cutting and carrying away timber on lands in Ontario lying south of Wabigoon Lake, in the District of Algoma. It was claimed by the Attorney-General that the lands in question were public lands of the Province, and that the defendants were trespassers and wrongdoers in cutting the timber. The defendants justified under a special license from the Dominion Government, and they pleaded that the lands and timber were, until recently, claimed by tribes of Indians, which claims were paramount to the claims of the Crown as represented by the Government of Ontario, and that the Government of Canada having acquired the Indian title had the right to deal with the lands. All the Canadian Courts have decided in favor of the contention of the Ontario Government. The last decision was given by the Supreme Court of Canada. The case was opened by the Attorney-General for England, acting on behalf of the Dominion Government. He contended that it had always been admitted in Canada that the title to the soil was in the Indians, and that the title from them had been acquired, not by conquest, but by purchase. The lands in question were at the time of Confederation lands which had not been surrendered by the Indians, and therefore were "lands reserved for Indians" under sub-section 24 of section 91 of the British North America Act. He denied the contention that they were public lands, vested in the Province of Ontario under section 109 of that Act, which provides that all lands, mines, minerals and royalties belonging to the several Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick at the time of the union, and all sums then due or payable for such lands, mines, minerals and royalties, shall belong to the several Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, in which they are situated. He rested this view of the case largely upon the fact that the lands had never been called "public lands" or "Crown lands," but that the Indian, that is, the Dominion title—had always been recognized. The case is still proceeding. It is to be borne in mind that the present case has to do with the property in the lands, timbers and minerals; the last case decided by the Privy Council settled only the political boundary of Ontario.

Fish of One and Fowl of Another.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I see in the reports in the local papers of the celebration of the Twelfth of July, that the "57th Battalion Band" appeared in the parade and, of course, played "party tunes," offensive to a large portion of the citizens of the country who have to contribute their share to the maintenance of the military organization of the country. Personally, I do not so much resent it, but it is certainly not right. On the occasion of Sir John's visit to Peterborough during the last general election, the "57th Battalion Band" appeared in uniform, playing in a partisan procession. When Hon. Mr. Blake came, it was suddenly discovered that it was improper for the band to appear in military uniform in a party procession and the band had to discard their military uniforms or absent themselves. Now it is plainly objectionable for a military band to take part in a party procession and use the sanction of the government authorities to stir up party strife, arousing partisan feeling and animosity. How is it? Will the officers of the 57th Batt. and Sir Adolphe Caron explain this outrage on military procedure and practice.

Yours etc.,
FAIR PLAY.

July 13th, 1888.

[On receipt of the above letter yesterday, we caused inquires to be made and found that about a year and a half ago a battalion order was issued forbidding expressly the wearing of the volunteer uniform on occasions such as "Fair Play" specifies, and that there is also a general order forbidding such practices by military bands An officer of the 57th informs us that the action complained of in the letter was taken by the band on its own responsibility, and contrary to express battalion and general orders.—ED. EXAMINER.]

Passing Thoughts.

The sun shone brightly one summer's day in July. The scenery of the banks on the riverside was beyond description, even a poet could not fail to be impressed with the fact that the birds of the air and the flowers of the field were shielded by the bountiful hand of the Creator. 'Twas at eventide. I felt as in a reverie, sitting on board our little craft. The merry sounds of laughter of the children—sounds which only youth can produce—fell calmly on my soul. My thoughts, alas, were not here, but far away to a grave of a dear sister, the companion of my youthful years. She, though dead to the world and myself, lives, let us hope, in a mansion prepared by Divine Hands, a mansion that should be the aim of one's life to strive to attain.—[COM.

POOR QUEEN NATALIE.

Her Son Taken from Her—Ordered to Leave Germany within 24 Hours.

WIESBADEN, July 14.—An officer attended by twenty policemen entered Queen Natalie's villa at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and shortly afterward reappeared with the young Prince Alexander, the Servian Crown Prince, and a lady of honor of the Queen's suite. The two were bundled into a closed carriage and driven to the railway station, were the Prince was handed over to M. Pratics, Chief of the Servian Police, who placed him in a train. In a minute more Pratics and his charge were on their way to Belgrade.

The German police have ordered Queen Natalie to leave Germany within twenty-four hours. It is said she is completely prostrated.

Destined to a Cycle of Cathay.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The remains of sixteen dead Chinamen, packed in tin boxes, were shipped by the National Express yesterday for Cathay, China. A firm of philanthropists assembled together some time ago and made a tour of the States to collect the bones of their deceased compatriots and shipped them back to China. They have collected in all the remains of 215.

Powder Works Explosion.

READING, Pa., July 13.—The Laflin & Rand powder works at Cressona blew up yesterday afternoon with terrific effect, killing Edward Reed and Geo. Bellman and so badly injuring D. Ranitch that his death is expected.

THE N. A. L. A. TANGLE

Partially Unravelled—Professionals Expelled—Ball Games Yesterday.

MONTREAL, July 14.—The tangle in the N. A. L. A. circles was somewhat unravelled yesterday at an all-day session of the council. The Brockville Club was expelled from the association for employing professionals, but later applied for reinstatement, which was granted. Crown, Clewes, McCarthy and Westbrook, who had been declared professionals by the C. L. A., were also expelled from the National Association. All matches this season played without official referees were ordered to be played over. The Cornwalls were so indignant at this last step, which deprives them of first place in the series, that they threatened to resign.

Practice Economy

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

Valuable Properties for Sale suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—East Half of Lot No 1 in 2nd Concession of the Township of Thorah, County of Ontario. 130 acres all cleared, soil good clay loam, house and barn on farm, which is situated about three and a half miles from Beaverton. Price $4500.

2nd.—The Erskine Homestead, being the North Part of Block "U" Ashburnham, containing about 16 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession street, and 2340 on the Road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be subdivided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "E" Ashburnham, containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for subdivision into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan on the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil first-class, suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The residence of Mrs. F. W. Hamilton, situated on Brock street, Peterborough, on Court House hill, there is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, &c. roll, first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—Erin Cottage being the West half of Park Lot No. 16 in Lot 15 in 15th Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Silas Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1888.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh north to north-west winds; fine weather with a little higher temperature.

The Irish Gentlemen Cricketers.

Next August the Irish Gentlemen Cricketers will play in Peterborough, and it is said the lady friends of the local club will turn out in force to do the honors of the occasion, and it is further said that they will all appear dressed in print purchased at the golden lion, where a splendid lot of imported prints worth 15c. are going for 10c.

Cabmen in Trouble.

Two cabbies got into an altercation at the Midland station this morning, and one struck the other on the nose, epistaxis ensuing. The owner of the injured organ expressed his disapproval by calling bad names and swearing disgracefully. A complaint was lodged against the two, and they will appear in the police court Monday.

Excursion to Stony Lake.

Persons wishing for a pleasant day's outing should not fail to attend the excursion and pic nic in connection with St. John's church Sunday school on Wednesday, July 18th, to Gilchrist's Bay, Stoney Lake. Fare: adults 65c., children 20c. and 30c. Train leaves at 8:35 a.m. per G. T. R. and steamers Cruiser and Mary Ellen. 1d

PUT off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Market Items.

The market this morning was a large one. Fruit and vegetables were abundant. Cherries currants and gooseberries sold at 8c. to 10c. a quart, or $1 per pail. A few new potatoes went at $2 per bushel. Onions, lettuce, radishes, etc., sold in five cent bunches. Butter sold for 20c. and 22c.; eggs, 15c.

Cheese Markets.

TWEED, July 13.—Nine hundred boxes were boarded at the cheese market here yesterday. Mr. Warrington offered 9⅞ for the lot, but the factorymen held off for ten cents and unless they get that figure will consign through Mr. Murphy.

At Madoc—1,000 boxes were sold at 9⅞.

About a thousand boxes at Campbellford were offered to-day; 9⅞ bid; no sales.

A Slight Accident.

Mr. J. Robinson, an old resident of Kinnismore, was run into by Winch's meat cart on the market square this morning, the shaft striking him on the back. He was knocked down and rendered partially unconscious. He soon recovered, however, Dr. Kincaid promptly coming to the rescue, and it is believed no serious results will follow. Drivers should be careful in passing through the crowds on the market square.

Sporting Notes.

A match game of baseball was played on Inverlea Park Friday evening, between the "Eclipse" and "Inverlea" clubs. After seven innings game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 13 to 12 in favor of the "Inverleas." Batteries: Kennedy and Walsh for "Inverleas"; Stanton and Sharp for "Eclipse."

The second eleven of the Port Hope Y. M.C.A. lacrosse club want the second eleven of the Peterborough club to play at that town next Wednesday.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

The Grand Lodge.

The Dominion Oddfellow says:—"The Barrie Celebration Committee have received replies from Toronto, Peterborough, Bowmanville and Newmarket Cantons, accepting the invitation to visit Barrie on the occasion of the Grand Lodge session. Belleville is the only place yet unable to accept. Answers from other Cantons are expected daily. Newmarket brass band will accompany their Canton. It is probable that the Peterborough band will also accompany the Canton from that place. Hamilton has since accepted. Posters with full information will be at once sent to all the lodges in Ontario."

St. Andrew's S. S. Pic-nic.

The annual pic-nic of St. Andrew's church Sunday school will be held on Tuesday, July 17th, per steamer Golden Eye to Jubilee Point. The steamer leaves the wharf at 8:30 a.m. sharp. Tickets, 35c.; children 15c. 2d

A Superior Machine.

Friday evening Mr. J. D. Beptie received from Gelt a new "Lightning" planer and matcher, which has been placed in his factory. The machine cost $700, weighs 4,000 pounds and has a capacity for turning out 25 000 feet of building lumber a day.

Fine Beverage.

J. R. Gard & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 16 lbs. good sugar, $1; tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. 1w W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

The New Temple.

The dedication services of the Salvation Army temple will be held to-night. Commissioner Coombs and a large staff of Majors, field officers, Adjutants, etc., will arrive on the evening train, and after a monster parade the new barracks will be dedicated with all due ceremony. The jubilee will be continued till Tuesday.

A Good Position.

Miss C. Fair, B.A., graduate of Toronto University, who has had experience in teaching in Peterborough and Bishop Strachan's College in Toronto, has been appointed one of the faculty of the Ladies' Moulton College, Toronto, in connection with McMaster University.

Seasonable.

For a beautiful selection of prints in light, dark and muslin patterns, call on J. J. Sheeby, 415 George street.

Oddfellowship.

The Oshawa Reformer says:—"Mr. J. F. Tamblyn, District Deputy Grand Master, has just concluded the installation of the officers of the various Oddfellows Lodges in this District, which comprises Oshawa, Bowmanville, Port Perry, Whitby and Brooklyn. The Order is in a flourishing condition, the combined membership of the Lodges comprising the District being 536, an increase of 41 members during the past six months. The assets of the six Lodges in the District amount to upwards of $20,600. There has been only one death during the term, and that loss was sustained by Beethoven Lodge, Brooklin."

Christening the Barracks.

Satan is shaking in his—hoofs. The vigorous preparations for the three or four days assault on him and his friends, in connection with the opening of the new Salvation Army barracks, Simcoe street, are going forward briskly. The commissariat department is being thoroughly organized and the officers are beginning to assemble. There have arrived, Major Spooner, Montreal; Major Bailey, Toronto; Major Simcoe, Quebec; Major Wooley, Hamilton; Divisional Officer Morris, Toronto; Adjutant Marshall, Ottawa; Capts. Van Allen, Toronto, Philpott and Cook, Kingston, Gage and Piper, Toronto, and others. This evening there will be fresh arrivals and a grand parade and grand reception will be tendered the incoming forces at the C.P.R. station.

The Question Settled.

Small minds may busy themselves with the ins and outs of the Collegiate Institute building, the Trent Valley Canal Commission, the United States presidental elections, the Home Rule Question and other such matters, but all of these are dwarfed into insignificance by the condition of the crops in this county and the difficulty the farmers will be placed in. Money will be mighty scarce with them, but there is one ray of comfort in the fact that it will require very little money to buy an outfit of clothing at gough's. The prices are just right for the hard times—down to the very bottom in men's, boys' and youths' ready-made clothing. There is no place on earth where better value is given. The best goods, the lowest prices.

The Vacant Archbishopric.

The following from the Toronto Evening News, will be interesting reading to many persons:

"Who's going to succeed the late Archbishop Lynch?" a reporter yesterday asked a well-known priest. "Will it be Bishop Walsh, of London?"

"No, I don't think it will be, for Bishop Walsh doesn't want it. He is getting old and would rather stay in London."

"Then who will be the man?"

"Bishop Dowling, of Peterborough, is mentioned. You may smile and say that he's too young and has been consecrated only a little over a year, but his youth is in his favor. He is active and understands Canadians, for he is one himself and has labored all his life among them."

A Narrow Escape.

The Orillia Times says:—"Yesterday two little boys, sons of Mr. Melville Millar (formerly of Peterborough), started out for a row. The heavy wind which sprang up during the forenoon raised a sea which proved to be too strong for the boys, who were carried by the waves far out from land and nearly swamped. They drifted out between Couchiching Point and the Rama shore, yelling their loudest. Fortunately the "Orillia" happened to be coming around the Point about this time, and hearing the noises proceeded to the rescue. She went out her course some distance, and after some trouble managed to reach them and took them aboard. Their escape was one sufficiently narrow to be dangerous, and the boys will be more careful in future when they venture on Couchiching, the "lake of the winds," as the romantic title is said to mean in the aboriginal tongue."

Arms Beer-unque Cane.

Port Hope experienced a busy day last Thursday, especially among the hotels. A gentleman who had occasion to stop over at one of the hotels for a couple of hours on his way to Peterborough Friday afternoon, relates this story. He went into a bar with a friend to have a cigar. The bar-tender was pumping ale (Scott Act town, too!) for a customer with his left hand, his right arm being hung in a sling. On being asked how he got hurt, the mendacious mixer of drinks replied that he had pumped beer all day long, and most of the night, too, on Thursday, and the unwonted strain and exertion had made his arm lame and quite useless, so that it had to be hung up for repairs. Another busy day would have used up his other arm and left him helpless entirely.

An Unique and Attractive Entertainment

A new and novel entertainment, under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., will be given in Bradburn's opera house on Thursday evening, July 19th. It will consist of a large number of nursery ballads, set and sung to popular music by about fifty children dressed in character. All of us adults will be the better for the hearty enjoyment of a scene that will bring back the days of our childhood in so vividly, while the children will witness the presentation in a realistic and embodied form of "An hour with Mother Goose and her Family." The children have been diligently and carefully trained by Mr. W. H. Dingle, organist of the George-street Methodist church, and from what the EXAMINER has seen of the preliminary singing, the entertainment can be recommended as a most exciting and delightful one of its kind. It will make the elders young and the youngsters happy. Don't fail to pay your respects to "Mother Goose." In connection with the entertainment a debate is being arranged between the orators of the Y.M.C.A. and the Otonabee Canoe Club. Tickets 25c.

An Honor to be Proud of.

Mr Jas. Hendry a Prize-Winner in a Keen Competition.

Baldwin's Textile Designer, published at Brocker Falls, N.Y., offered three prizes in the "weave" contest, and Mr. Hendry, designer of the Auburn Woolen Mills, captured the second prize, and the journal adds, though Mr. Hendry contributed the lesser number of "weaves":—"In justice to Mr. Hendry we would say that his weaves were drawn up and arranged in the most systematic manner of all the contestants." The journal also publishes a capital portrait of Mr. Hendry and the following biographical sketch:

"The subject of this sketch, James Hendry, was born Sept. 19th, 1850, in a town north of the river Tweed, called Alva, seven miles from Stirling, Scotland. When very young his parents moved to the south of Scotland, where he was brought up amidst factory smoke and the hum of weavers' shuttles. At eight years of age he was often taken from school to hand in his father's warp. He was so well acquainted with the hand loom that at the age of twelve years, when he could hardly stride over the treadles, he could jump on to a loom and weave quite a bit; sometimes on night harnesses he could be seen striding on tip-toe, for all that he was worth, to get the shed open sufficient to allow the shuttle to pass through. At the age of thirteen years he entered as an apprentice in the employ of Thompson & Sons, Achlington Park, just over the Borders of Scotland. He had to commence with the wool in the grease, and learn to sort it into the different classes. From the wool-sorters' room he went into the card room; from the card room to the spinning room; from the spinning room to the hand loom and designing. The last three years of his apprenticeship he was kept close at the hand loom and designing under the superintendence of his father, who was for that time his apprentice master, and a very strict one too.

"After finishing his apprenticeship, he moved with his parents back to Galashiels, the centre of the tweed trade, where he followed the occupation of hand loom and pattern weaving for a time; in fact he has been more or less engaged in the designing department since he finished his apprenticeship.

Mr. Hendry held the position of Instructor in the South of Scotland Technical Institute, during which time he presented his duties with credit to himself and to the interest and benefit of the pupils under him. In 1883 he divided the second and third prizes in an open competition for the best six designs for worsteds—for ladies' and gents' wear. This same year he was awarded a certificate from the Greesham College, E.C. In 1884 he passed an examination with honors in practical weaving. This same year he won the Bronze Medal in a competition open to the United Kingdom. On Sept. 18th, 1884, he sailed from Liverpool, and landed in Cornwall, Ontario, (Canada) as designer for the Cornwall Manufacturing Co. After being with this company for some time, he accepted the position as designer for the Auburn Woollen Co., Peterborough, Ont., where he is now and has been during the past three years.

Willow and Wicket.

A Decisive Victory for the Peterborough Club.

The cricket match on the grounds Friday afternoon resulted in a defeat for the Ontario county team by nine wickets.

The appended score shows who carried off the honors of the day. Peterborough's bowling was better than the visitors', but in other respects the teams were pretty well matched. W. F. Hamilton made the top score for the Peterboroughs by clean cricket, Sam Ray following close behind. Burnham, Stratton, Rutherford and Parker also contributed double figures. Day's bowling was not effectively solved by the visitors, and he got most of the wickets—five, Stratton taking three.

For the County team Hatch contributed 45, the biggest score of the day. Unfortunately he and Whitla were both hurt and had to be replaced by subs. Hamilton in the second inning carried his bat through till the last man was in, when he was caught out at slip.

Following are the full scores, the game being completed at 6.30:—

In connection with this as other matches the home team deserves a little lecture. The unfortunate delays due largely to the dilatoriness of some players arriving, detract largely from the interest of the game to spectators. For instance, wickets were to be pitched at 9.30 yesterday morning—play really began at eleven; two hours were wasted by luncheon and there was unnecessary wait between innings. This should not occur. It is made a ground of complaint that the public do not patronize cricket matches. The reason is, many who could spare time to see cricket have no time to see cricketers taking protracted lunch or post-luncheon smokes.

Campers En Route.

This morning's train to Lakefield bore its usual load of campers and their goods, bound for Stony Lake. Among those who went north were Mr. D. W. Dumble and part of his family; the family of Mr. W. Loch, and a large party consisting of Mr. D. Breese and family, town; Mr. and Mrs. W. Lowe, Toronto; Mr. F. S. Gould and sister, of Castleton; Miss Wilgar, of Millbrook; Mr. J. Paterson and sister, Miss Goldie and Messrs. A. Mooney, W. F. Green and C. H. Allison. A few of this party waited over till to-night. They will be away about two weeks. On Monday another party, composed of Mr. Charles McClelland sister, mother and Mr. A. Thomas and sister, Miss C. Kincaid, Miss M. Brodie, Miss Lizzie Mercer, Messrs. Dod. Clementi, A. Mercer and W. H. Bradburn, will leave for Stony Lake. They will stop at Pompadour Lodge, the property of Mr. J. McClelland. Mr. H. Dease and family have removed to their lodge at Chemong Park for the summer.

News Nuggets.

—Marriage Thomas was gathered in by the police yesterday while drunk. He was dismissed by Mayor Stevenson this morning.

—Last Saturday night Mr. N. G. Bell, of Bridgenorth, had his arm broken. He is recovering.

—A member of the True Blues called today to state that the ball on the evening of the 12th was under the auspices of the True Blues of the town and in their own hall.

—A case of shop-lifting occurred in a dry goods store this morning. A woman was detected with a large roll of shirting in her basket that she had "cribbed" off the counter. She was let go with a warning.

The Lakefield Chronicle says:—"Several reapers and mowers came into this section on Saturday last. They were purchased in Peterborough. Lakefield would prove a good opening for a good farm implement manufacturer, as the country around us embraces some of the best and wealthiest farmers in the county."

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

MURDERED BY MORMONS.

An Englishwoman's Story of Life in Utah—Four Days Without Food.

CHICAGO, July 16.—A woman giving her name as Elizabeth Turnbull Rutler, formerly from England, was picked up in the street, apparently fainting from hunger. She claimed to have had nothing to eat during a four days' trip from Ogden on her way to England. She told a terrible story of her experience among the Mormons. Her son, she stated, had been induced against the wish of his parents to join a party of emigrants organized by Mormon missionaries in England. Not hearing from him, it was learned he had been prevented by the elders from writing. The father, frantic with anxiety, followed to Utah. He found employment with a Mormon farmer named Joseph Holbert, but was unable to save enough to continue the search until he pretended to join the church. Then Rutler got money and sent some to his wife, but all letters, telling of the condition of affairs in Utah, were intercepted and others substituted urging her to come to Utah with the missionaries. She obeyed, and claimed the women in the party were subjected to fearful indignities en route by the elders.

Rutler was murdered shortly after she joined him. He had inadvertently given a young Mormon an inkling of his plans to find his boy and escape. The Mormons asserted that Rutler's death was accidental. The woman was defrauded out of her husband's savings, but fleeing to Ogden she earned enough money by working in a hotel to pay her passage home. The amount of railroad fares was larger than she expected, but sooner than delay longer she deprived herself of food on the journey to Chicago.

FIREMAN BABY KILLED.

A Smash-up on the Grand Trunk Railway at Mt. Olivet.

DETROIT, July 16.—At an early hour Saturday morning a Grand Trunk train was wrecked at the new Mt. Olivet station, the fireman being killed and a passenger seriously injured. Engineer Renwick saw that something was wrong as the switch lights were out. He says: "I reversed and pulled her wide open and prepared to jump, but the first thing I knew I was flying through the air. I landed on my side, and when I looked up I found the engine on its side in the ditch and my fireman under her dead."

The train consisted of a luggage, smoking, passenger and sleeping car. All but the sleeper ran off the open switch, the engine going about 250 feet, when it turned over and burrowed in the soft ground of the ditch. William Baby, the fireman, was pinioned by the engine and was scalded to death by the escaping steam. He was a fine looking man, about 30 years old, and leaves a widow and infant daughter at Port Huron.

The baggage car was also overturned and the baggageman, David Secord, flung violently against the top of the car, suffering a dislocation of the shoulder. Many of the passengers were severely shaken, but none of them were injured to speak of with the exception of Miss Rose Quirk of Detroit, who was severely hurt about the head and spine.

Milan Weeps His Son at Perth.

PERTH, July 16.—King Milan of Servia came here Saturday and met his son. They started immediately for Belgrade.

BOULANGER'S BAD BREAK.

ABANDONED BY SOME OF HIS LEADING FRIENDS.

The General's Prestige with the Army Lost Because He Allowed Himself to be Worsted by a Civilian.

LONDON, July 16.—The Boulanger-Floquet duel has considerably altered the situation in France. It is clear that Gen. Boulanger has discredited himself; not with reflecting, sensible Frenchmen, for among them he had no credit, but with his own admirers.

When the duel came off it was the civilian who was cool and the soldier who lost his temper. It is not necessary to admire duelling in order to admire the demeanor of this elderly lawyer of 60, who had to face the youngest general in the French army. Prime Ministers ought not to fight, but if they will fight it is best that they should fight well. Beyond question M. Floquet is stronger and more respected to-day in France than if he had not fought. As for General Boulanger, his wound in the neck may or may not be as serious as reported. In either case he has lost prestige with the army, where he never was idolised, by allowing himself to be worsted in a contest with a civilian.

Boulanger Recovering.

PARIS, July 16.—Gen. Boulanger was able to rise and passed a good night on Saturday. Yesterday his neck was somewhat swollen and there was a slight congestion at the base. He has no fever.

Hardly 500 persons assembled in the Place de la Concorde in response to the call for a Boulanger demonstration. Ten of those who did appear were arrested, including Mr. Bernard, the editor of Gen. Boulanger's paper, The Presse.

OPEN TO DOUBT.

What the Wise Berlin Pressmen Say About Emperor William's Journey.

LONDON, July 16.—The visit of the German Emperor to St. Petersburg has no political object, say the wise men of the Berlin and Vienna press, as Prince Bismarck sent him and Count Herbert Bismarck accompanies him. This assertion is open to doubt. What is certain is that while the Austro-German alliance remains unshaken, Prince Bismarck's constant anxiety to keep on good terms with Russia also is again shown by this friendly meeting of the German and Russian sovereigns. That is quite enough to account for the journey. Lord Salisbury looks on suspiciously, even anxiously.

The stories sent from Berlin to London about the imprisonment of the Empress Victoria are pure inventions. There is, however, no cessation of the conflict between her and Prince Bismarck. The quarrel of the moment relates to certain documents touching the question of the Regency during the late reign and other matters. These documents are supposed to have been brought away from Berlin by the Queen of England, which is not probable. The Emperor says they are German state papers, and insists on their return. There is no doubt material for a European scandal of the first magnitude if this quarrel be not appeased.

Emperor William and His Mother.

BERLIN, July 16.—Communications from Emperor William to his mother were transmitted from Spandau and from Kiel. This fact, though insignificant, has a significance in the face of persistent reports regarding the alleged unhappy relations existing between His Majesty and the Dowager Empress. If the messages only referred to the progress of the son's first expedition as Emperor, they still showed that the differences between him and his mother have not approached a rupture. The Dowager Empress Victoria frequently sees Dr. Frederburg and other intimate friends of the late Emperor Frederick.

Disputes continue to exist between herself and the Emperor in regard to the disposal of Emperor Frederick's papers, some of which the Dowager Empress says are personal, against the contention of the Emperor that they are State property and ought to be deposited in the State archives. The court circle believes implicitly that the difference can be arranged in the near future by the Dowager Empress surrendering the documents relating to the regency.

Candidate Streeter Accepts.

NEW WINDSOR, Ill., July 16.—A. J. Streeter, who was nominated for President of the United States by the Union Labor party at its convention at Cincinnati, has written a long letter of acceptance. He says among other things that if it shall be the will of the people to elect him there will be some radical changes made in the administration of affairs. To the extent of his ability and energy the Government will be administered more in the interest of the great common people, but not to the injury of any class of our people, for all should be equally protected in their person and property by the firm hand of the law.

Fined for Not Going to Camp.

HAMILTON, July 16.—J. F. Witherspoon, a member of the Hamilton Field Battery was fined $5 at the Police Court on Saturday for refusing to accompany the battery to camp at Niagara.

Druggist Samuel Chapman is to be prosecuted for a breach of the early closing by-law. The case will likely come up at the Police Court to-day.

Col. Goldie and J. Matthews, V.S., were at the Crystal Palace Saturday morning purchasing horses for the British army. They secured four or five.

President Carnot attended a grand review of troops at Longchamps Saturday. When the review closed there was a noisy demonstration, in which friends and opponents of Gen. Boulanger took sides. A number of arrests were made.

Zachar, the Faster.

RACINE, Wis., July 16.—Reports from John Zachar, the faster, are that all attempts to obtain nourishment from the big food administered to him have proven futile. The milk and other food taken is not retained on the stomach. This has left him in a very weak and exhausted condition, and he will most probably suffer death as the penalty of his fifty-three days' fast.

THE POPE AND THE IRISH.

ANOTHER ENCYCLICAL READ IN THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

His Holiness Reiterates His Former Pronunciations Against Boycotting and the Plan of Campaign.

DUBLIN, July 16.—A papal encyclical letter was read yesterday in all the Catholic churches in the diocese of Dublin. In it the Pope says he has heard with regret that excited meetings have been held at which inconsiderate and dangerous opinions regarding the recent papal decree have been uttered, even the authority of the decree itself being unspared. He has seen with pain forced interpretations put upon the decree and statements made that it was prepared without sufficient inquiry having previously been made. The Pope, strongly denying this assumption, states that the decree was based upon the most complete information.

The bishops, he says, must remove all misconception and leave no room for doubt as to the force of the decree. The whole system of the plan of campaign and boycotting is condemned as unlawful.

A letter from Archbishop Walsh of Dublin, which accompanied the Pope's letter, was also read. The Archbishop says:

"The agitation referred to is now ended under the resolutions recently adopted by the bishops. The hope has arisen within the past few days that before the close of the present session Parliament will provide for the more urgent needs of the hour. The people may await in peace fuller legislation at the next session."

The encyclical letter is dated June 24. It causes intense dissatisfaction. At Bray people left the church during the reading of the letter.

Her Grace of Marlborough's Social Success.

LONDON, July 17.—The social success of the new Duchess of Marborough admits of no doubt; she is all but the idol of the hour in British society. The Dowager Duchess of Marlborough introduces her boy with her. The first introduction of the Duchess to aristocratic circles was at Mrs. Oppenheim's ball. She has been at an incessant round of parties of all sorts at the best houses. One of these was a family tea given by Lady Londonderry, at which most of the members of the family were present. Since that the Duchess of Marlborough has given a crush reception, every leader of fashion in the British social world attending. There is one point that Her Grace cannot reach. The Queen will not receive her because she is married to a divorced man, and Her Majesty's position on the question of divorce admits of no compromise in any circumstance. Nevertheless the position of the Duchess in the highest aristocratic circles is undoubted and secure.

A Conflict in Trafalgar-square.

LONDON, July 16.—There was a conflict between the police and people in Trafalgar-square yesterday arising from the attempts of the people to hold a meeting and those of the police to prevent it. Several ugly rushes were made by the people. One arrest was made.

Graham's Counter Charge.

LONDON, July 15.—Robert Cunningham Graham, who was arrested for complicity in the Trafalgar-square disturbance, applied for a summons against two policemen for throwing him under a cab, which ran over him and injured his leg. The magistrate ordered him to bring evidence of the accusation. Mr. Graham will make reapplication to-day.

A COLONIZATION SCHEME.

Ottawa 6's to be Converted into 4's—The Wimbledon Contest.

LONDON, July 16.—The Canadian Pacific Colonisation Corporation to found the town of Queenstown in the Northwest, has been formed with a capital of £500,000 in £10 shares. At present half of this will be created, applicants for the first £40,000 being entitled to a bonus of one fully paid share for every four shares allotted.

Mr. McLeod Stewart, mayor of Ottawa, has formulated a scheme to convert Ottawa six per cents. into four per cents. He states that, besides giving Ottawa high credit here, the scheme will afford the corporation about $400,000 of available funds. The annual charge, including a sinking fund for extinguishing the total debt in forty years, will be $23,000 less than at present. The mayor wants money to improve the health of the city, and believes the market is favorable for the conversion.

The Canadians have not succeeded in repeating their victory in the Prince of Wales contest, though Captain McMicking, of the 44th Battalion, did well. No Canadians are in the last stage of the Queen's. The weather is miserable.

WHISKY MADE HER MAD.

A Toronto Woman's Determined Attempt at Self-destruction.

TORONTO, July 16.—On Saturday night Mary Graham, who was suffering from delirium tremens, procured a razor and drew it across her left hand, inflicting a terrible gash, with the intention of bleeding to death. Dr. Jame Ross bound up the wound and Policeman Craig arrested her and took her to Headquarters. About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning she tore of the bandages and attempted to widen the cut by puncturing it with a steel from her corset. Sergeant Somerville caught her in the act, and had the woman conveyed to the hospital. She was so frantic that it took two policemen to hold her down in the vehicle all the way to the hospital.

A trunk containing $80 worth of jewelry and $50 of clothes, belonging to Miss Tilli Easton, was stolen from the baggage room at Union Station last week.

Last week's work of the Central Bank liquidators finished with over $300,000 in deposit for the October dividend.

OTTAWA, July 16.—The harvest has been fairly commenced in this section, a good deal of barley having been cut in East Whitby and Darlington on Friday and Saturday. The yield is fair, the heads being heavy.

STRATFORD'S CHIEF COP.

HE SKIPS OUT WITH THE BUXOM WIFE OF A RAG MERCHANT.

The Reigning Sensation in the Little City on the Avon—Mr. Herrington's Love-Making and Dereliction of Duty.

STRATFORD, July 16.—The reigning sensation here at present is the sudden flight of Chief of Police Herrington on Friday afternoon. For a month past reports have been circulated connecting the chief's name with a number of married women and others.

Things at last became so interesting that people did not hesitate to connect his name with that of a comely married woman named Mrs. W. J. Henry, the wife of a city rag merchant, dealer in scrap iron, etc. The chief was warned to beware of the trap he was getting himself into by friends, and cautioned that if he did not mind his "p's" and "q's" there would be an earthquake one of these days. He vowed that he was doing nothing wrong, and that if the people chose to make base and foundationless charges against him he could not help it. He did not consider that it was anybody's business where he went after his duties were over. If he chose to go to a friend's of an evening had he to go and obtain the consent of the City Council? "He wasn't built that way," and when he wanted to go out and spend the evening he did not propose to ask any one if he could or could not do so. He fancied that he had reached the years of discretion.

The woman in the case, Mrs. Henry, resides on David-street. She is rather a fine looking woman, on the shady side of 32. She is dark complexioned, with dark hair and dark flashing eyes. Mrs. Henry always dressed stylish. She leaves two little girls, aged 2 and 6, and a sorrowing husband behind. The chief has been twice married, has a grown up family by his first wife and a little girl of three summers by his present wife. Mrs. Henry left her home Friday afternoon, saying that she would be back in a short time. Mr. Henry states that his wife's bearing before she left was more than usually affectionate toward himself, so much so as to excite his surprise. He is now convinced that her disappearance at the time of the chief's departure is more than a coincidence. Mrs. Henry was seen on the station platform just before the chief took his departure. She boarded the same train that bore away the officer and his trunk.

Mr. Henry denies the report that his wife drew $1300 of his money that had been deposited in the bank, but he states that she has been "fleecing" him for months past. Henry recently endorsed a note for the chief to the value of $60.

Charges had been formulated against Herrington for neglect of duty and Herrington, who was aware that such a charge would be made against him, asked leave of absence until 8 o'clock on Saturday morning to go to London, where, he said, he could procure evidence that would, in case of an investigation, completely exonerate him. The same afternoon he ordered one of the city cabmen to call at his house for a trunk to be taken to the station in time for the west-bound express. He told the cabman that he expected that his wife, who had been on a few days visit to Listowel, would come down on the afternoon train and together they would go to London. The afternoon train failed to bring Mrs. Herrington, and he and his trunk went west on the 4.25 train.

At a meeting of the Market and Police Committee yesterday Policeman William O'Donnell was appointed chief pro tem. R. E. Sprawl was detailed for night work. Stratford has been very unfortunate in choices of chief of police of late years.

Toronto University's New Professor.

J. W Ashley, M.A. (Oxon.), just appointed to the new chair of Political Science in the University of Toronto, is 29 years of age. He was selected for the post out of 34 others. He will sail for Canada about September 1, and be ready for delivering lectures at the opening in October. His lectures will probably form a part of the new department in law. The cut is made from a photograph taken two years ago. He looks to be a bright young man.

The Iron Lockout Practically Over.

PITTSBURG, July 16.—The great iron lock out is practically over, and before the end of this week a general resumption of the mills is expected. There are still fifty firms in the Manufacturers' Association who have not granted the terms of the workmen. A meeting of those firms will be held on Thursday, when it is presumed they will decide to sign the scale. They still claim that the wages demanded by the Amalgamated Association are excessive, and some of the mills will have to close indefinitely.

Skeene River Indians in Revolt.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 16.—The Indians at Skeene River are in revolt. Constables were sent a few days ago to capture an Indian murderer. He resisted, shots were fired and two Indians killed. The Indians are greatly excited and threaten to exterminate the whites. The constables have fortified the Hudson Bay post at Hazleton, where they hope to hold out until reinforcements are sent.

Shot Himself Through the Head.

BOWMANVILLE, July 16.—A man named Overton, a harness maker by trade, who has been working of late in Whitby, committed suicide here Saturday morning by shooting himself through the head. It is reported he had the belief that detectives were after him, so sought to put an end to his troubles.

Another Alleged Counterfeiter Jailed.

LONDON, Ont., July 16.—Supt. Sherwood of the Dominion Police arrested another member of the Johnston counterfeiting gang here Saturday afternoon. The arrested man, Benjamin Mackenzie, was tracked from London to Sault Ste. Marie and back [illegible]

The New S. A. Barracks.

Saturday Night's and Sunday's Successful Opening Services—Crowded Barracks—Animated Meetings—Big Silver Collections—To Night's Banquet.

Saturday afternoon was a busy day among the Salvationists, full of preparation for the grand military operations in connection with the opening of the new barracks. The opening shot was fired on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock by a grand parade of officers and soldiers and an open air meeting on the market square. After knee drill here, the Army marched to the barracks where a glorious meeting was held and a hard battle with Satin fought.

A large crowd had assembled at the barracks before the Army had arrived, and during the meeting many more came in until the large audience hall was filled. The huge platform also bristled with officers and soldiers.

The meeting was in charge of Chief of Staff Bailey, who led the attack with great vigor and enthusiasm. The meeting opened by singing several songs from the special song book, after which followed a season of prayer, during which all took part in some way. Songs were again sung, interspersed by a few remarks from Adjt. Bolton and others.

Chief of Staff Bailey, after a few remarks touching on the dedication of the Temple, directed the force of his remarks to sinners, calling on them to shake loose from the hands of the devil and take up their cross and follow Christ. He also urged the soldiers to do their duty in the present meeting. Capt. Pople was then called upon to give an account of his work. He gave his "experience" in the work for the Saviour and told of the happiness he had met in the good work. He said he was now laboring in Toronto and had met with victory, and he prayed that the opening of this temple might be the opening of hundreds of hearts for the Lord.

Captain Cowan (lady) sang a solo from the special song book, printed for the occasion. In the chorus the whole corps joined with characteristic vim.

Chief Bailey then said he wanted to give every person on the platform, and every one off of it for that matter, a chance to give their experience and as soon as the opportunity was given two or three were on their feet at once. Among others who spoke was Captain Cook. When he rose one of his comrades slapped him on the back and said, "This is my wife." During the songs that interspersed these exercises, Adjt. Bolton and Chief Bailey kept them all warmed up to their work. The platform was the scene of restless animation—hands, handkerchiefs and tambourines keeping time to the lively music of the band.

Major Spooner, of Montreal, testified to the saving power of the Lamb. In continuing his remarks he set forth the offers of mercy to the sinner and urged them to turn from their wicked ways and serve the Lord.

Chief of Staff Bailey then read the programme for the next three days. The programme appeared in the EXAMINER previous to this issue.

A prayer meeting then followed and the services were drawn to a close at about ten o'clock. The Lindsay songsters arrived on the 8.55 p.m. train, but did not take part in the Saturday evening meeting.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

The Sunday exercises began at 7 a.m. with the knee drill in the temple. The house was filled. The subject was "Before the Throne," led by the staff officers. This meeting was particularly enthusiastic, and the vigor with which it began was kept up throughout the whole service. Condemnatory reference was made to bustles, fancy feathers, etc., and the Army's views regarding those articles were plainly apparent, as their remarks showed their disapproval of all such worldly objects.

At a quarter past ten o'clock there was another grand march down George street and on open air meeting on the market square, after which a meeting was held in the barracks, which was again packed with people, the subject being, "Christianity of Jesus Christ." Several officers and soldiers spoke with great fervor and animation. Chief of Staff Bailey preached a short sermon on the subject. The service closed with the usual season of prayer. All the soldiers took part beseeching God to release sinners from the hands of the devil.

In the afternoon, shortly after two o'clock the Army appeared again. The usual march and open air meeting on the market square was followed by another meeting in the barracks. The interest manifested in these meetings did not flag in this one. A large crowd filled the hall, the subject of this meeting being "Holy Ghost or Hell Fire." This service was similar to the previous ones, as all were, involving a special onset against Satan.

At half past seven in the evening another glorious meeting followed the march out. This was the best of the day, and a larger crowd visited the barracks than at any other meeting. The service was opened by prayer, which was continued for some time. Captain Cook followed with a solo song, and then Bro. Stanley, of Toronto, was called on to speak, after which there was another solo by Staff Captain Morris. Divisional Officer Bro. Mason, of Toronto, then spoke. He gave his experience and a sketch of his work. He also told how he was first attracted to the barracks by hearing what a noisy man Captain Bolton was. Capt. Bolton then said there had been a great change in Mason's family since he shook off the devil. Adjt. Marshall told his experience and the experience of several soldiers in a place where he had been stationed. He said that in one night two drunkards, a hotel-keeper and the bartender who sold the liquor, all told their experience.

Chief of Staff Bailey then read a portion of Holy Scripture, and the service was brought to a close. A prayer meeting followed which lasted until late in the evening. At all the services there were silver collections; a couple of soldiers, armed with tin plates, stood at the doors and every one entering paid not less than five cents. The amount collected in this way was considerable, as all the services attracted crowded houses. The band was a combination of the Peterborough and Lindsay bands. Throughout the whole day from 7 o'clock in the morning till 11 at night there was no "let-up" of the enthusiasm of the soldiers or in the vigor of their attacks. This evening a banquet will be given in the basement of the temple, Simcoe street, from 5 to 7:30 o'clock. At 7:30 p.m., grand march out and at 8 o'clock "Tragic Scenes of Life and Death" and at 11 p.m. an "All Night of Prayer" will be begun.

STRAY SHOTS.

The ventilation of the barracks was good, as was shown by the fact that no one suffered from heat though the building was sometimes packed and the enthusiasm always up to fever heat.

A Minden soldier who was present seemed to have a good voice; he said he could not sing but he could pray.

There were four "brought out of the clutches of the devil" on Sunday evening, and as each gave a testimony a volley of "Amens" was fired at them.

Every week the army corps in this town disposes of 600 copies of the War Cry and Little Soldier, the two principal organs of the organization.

A Peterborough officer said that the person who joined the Army for a "snap" got badly left, for the work was very hard. Here in this town there are ten meetings, besides two children's meetings, every week, and from sixty to one hundred families to visit.

A Curious Match.

LONDON, July 14.—The announcement of Miss Agnets Ramsay's engagement to the Master of Trinity is, if true, curious. This young lady, supposed to be about 22, is known to the world as the first scholar of her year at Cambridge, winning a place equivalent to senior classics and beating every competitor, male and female. She is, with all that, young, pretty and attractive. Dr. Butler, who is 56, has been Dean of Gloucester, but resigned the deanery two years ago to accept the mastership of the largest college in Cambridge University.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,123 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are $,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,811 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	33,580 67	196,188 29	1,167,396 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,976 84	263,264 31	2,902,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,677 24	4,029,273 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,604 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate winds, fair weather, stationary or higher temperature.

Beauty and Merit.

Nature deals in compensations. A girl with a plain face, as a compensation has graces of mind and heart, while many a girl with a pretty face often has less mind and a temper not of the sweetest. But both beauty and merit are combined in the golden lion prints, worth fifteen cents, sold for ten cents. The choicest patterns, the best material. Be sure and see them.

The Band in the Park To-night.

The band will play in the park to-night, instead of Tuesday night, the usual occasion. The band accompanies Canton Peterborough to Lindsay to-morrow, decoration day. Mr. Bandmaster Millar requests a full turnout of the members of the band at the park concert to-night.

Belleville Entrance Examination.

The results of the recent entrance examinations will doubtless be a great slaughter of the innocents. The papers were exceedingly stiff and the candidates will be snuffed out, as the small boy would say, "in great shape." In Belleville, out of eighty candidates who wrote only thirteen have passed, and at Oshawa only eight out of sixty-four were successful.

The Late John Glassford.

On Sunday at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. George Minorgan, corner of Sherbrook and Rubidge streets, Mr. John Glassford died at the unusual age of 96 years—only four short of the century. He was born in the county of Cavan, Ireland in the year 1792. He was at one time engaged in farming operations in Mariposa, Victoria county. The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. Minorgan at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Camping Out.

The pleasure-loving population still keep going. This morning no less than six canoes and a large pile of robes, tents, etc., were at the station waiting for the departure of the train. With each canoe there were two or three persons, at least, who were bound for Stony Lake. Last week there were some starting on every morning train.

In Need of Help.

A family on Water street by the name of Muller is in great need of help. Mrs. Muller is left with two small children and a baby about eight months old, all of whom are in great destitution. Mr. Muller left last spring for Toronto in search of work, but it is the opinion of several that he has deserted his family. The baby is in a very precarious condition and not likely to live. Some charitable person ought to look into the matter.

Central Exhibition.

An informal meeting of the directors of the Central Exhibition was held on Saturday evening. The business done was the arranging of the special prize list. The success of the directors has been admirable, the total amount contributed to date in cash and special prizes being $625. Any other persons desirous of contributing are requested to act promptly, as the prize list must be in the printers' hands within a short time. Such persons will be attended to by communicating with the president, Mr. Wm. Rutherford, or the secretary, Mr. Wm. Collins.

A Smash-up.

This morning a runaway and smash-up took place on the market square. Two of Terry Smith's horses are sick and he had to hire a horse to put in with one of his other horses to move the watering cart. No sooner, however, were the two strange horses put together to the cart than the outsider showed his bad manners. A runaway resulted, the team dashed down the passage between China Hall and Flavelle's on Simcoe street and collided with the delivery wagon of the Metropolitan Grocery, which was pretty well wrecked. The town team was caught before any serious damage was done.

Mother Goose.

A full rehearsal of the Mother Goose Combination is requested for to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 p.m. All the followers of Mother Goose must be present.

St. Swithin's Day.

Yesterday was St. Swithin's day, and the superstition goes that if rain falls on that day it will fall on every day thereafter for forty days. If the converse holds good we shall have some pretty dry weather before the first of September.

No Cases.

The change in the weather seems to have affected the police court, or else, perhaps, it was the Salvation Army, but, nevertheless, there were no cases before the police magistrate this morning. Everything and everybody are very quiet.

Camping Out.

This morning a camping party left for Stony Lake, composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sherwood, Miss M. Beck, Miss Ward, Miss Hall, Messrs. Rufus Stevenson, Geo. Schofield and Frank Kingan. They will occupy Mr. E. H. D. Hall's island.

Agreeably Surprised.

The members of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church were very agreeably surprised on Sunday evening. Miss Howden, of Millbrook, who has been visiting at Miss Lundy's, sang a solo at the evening service. The congregation was very much pleased.

Baby Boys.

A town doctor was driving along George street Saturday afternoon when a little fellow playing on the sidewalk shouted, "Oh, doctor, have you got any more baby boys?" "Yes, lots of 'em," was the terse reply. "Well, will you give me one?" the youngster asked, in all earnestness. The doctor drove off laughing.

Hymeneal.

The Napanee Beaver says:—"Mr. George Stevens, son of our esteemed townsman, Charles Stevens, who has had charge of his father's business at Peterborough for the past year, was married on Wednesday to Miss Ashley, daughter of a farmer living north of Stirling. Drowning Accident.

Intelligence has been received in town that on Saturday evening a man named Crowley, of Harvey, an elderly man, accompanied by Mr. John Connors, of Otonabee, was rowing in a skiff from Bobcaygeon, and when at Pigeon Creek the boat upset. Connors managed to cling to it and reached the shore. Crowley was drowned.

Foresters' Excursion.

The Foresters' excursion on Thursday next per steamer Golden Eye to Jubilee Point promises to be a very popular one. A very strong and energetic committee have the matter in hand, and as the Foresters never do things by halves, those attending may expect a very pleasant day's outing. See hangers for particulars.

Hard on the Peterborough Boys.

The editor of the Whitby Chronicle came to Peterborough with the excursion from that town last Tuesday, and in his report he says:—"Arrived at Peterborough, the appetites of the party were worked up to a pretty high pitch, and a foraging party was sent out, consisting of the whole crowd. These things having been brought to a successful issue, all Peterborough's hacks and a number of canoes were brought and used a couple of hours. Peterborough is a great town, spread over any amount of territory, and not cramped up in a heap like most other Canadian towns. There is an acre to spare everywhere for a square, or lawn, or yard, or whatever would be useful or ornamental. They seem to have a taste for fine, large grounds and don't pay so very much attention to big residences. Even the cemetery is surprisingly large, and it will be a long time before the dead will be grumbling for want of elbow room. There are lots of fine drives around the town, and after taking them all in we went over to Ashburnham to see some baseball. We saw Peterborough giving the combined clubs of Port Hope and Cobourg a second drubbing. The play was pretty fair, but it was really painful to witness the grand-stand attitudes of some of the players, and especially the captain and pitcher of the Peterborough team. If these men could only hear of the sarcasms of the gods they would quit attitudanizing. The crowd was small, no doubt owing to the admission fee of twenty-five cents charged for men and fifteen for ladies. Besides being small as a whole, the young men in the crowd from Peterborough were fairly brutish in their vulgarity, the most profane language being indulged in without the least effort being made to stop it. Perhaps this unfortunately characteristic of Peterborough baseball helped to thin out the crowd. The return in the evening was a lovely ride, and the lay-off at Manilla was much enjoyed by the party as a sort of half-way rest." It is to be hoped the Chronicle man does not visit the sins of a few upon the many. All "our boys" are not of that stamp, by any means.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

Black Raspberries.

Black raspberries have made their appearance in market to-day for the first time. In about a week or so the berry picker will not be a stranger.

Decided Not to Go.

The second twelve of the Peterborough Y. M.C.A. lacrosse club have decided not to go to Port Hope on the 18th of this month. The match will probably be played on some other date.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

At the Banquet.

Active preparations are being made at the barracks for the banquet. Early in the forenoon baskets and flowers arrived in great abundance, and at five this afternoon the doors were opened.

A New Walk Wanted.

A new sidewalk is badly needed on Park street, north of Gilmour street. Pedestrians are said to be in danger of broken limbs every time they use this stretch of walk.

The Proceeds.

Although a very large crowd visited the Salvation Army barracks at each meeting still the sum realized at the doors was not as large as might have been expected. On Saturday evening the collection amounted to a little over $19, and on Sunday, about $72; making a total of a little over $90.

Improved Health.

The health of the Salvation Army Captain is greatly improved. He is now able to be around again and at his work though not very strong. He still needs rest and nourishment to build up his constitution as the work is very difficult.

Lawn Tennis.

The semi-monthly meet of the P.A.A.A. Tennis Club will be held on Wednesday afternoon, the 18th inst., at 4.30 p.m. All members and their lady friends are invited to be present. The change of date this week from Thursday to Wednesday is necessitated by the cricket match on Thursday between Toronto and Peterborough on the grounds.

Lacrosse.

The Norwood lacrosse club was to have played the Peterborough Y. M. C. A. team this evening, but it was learned this morning that they could not come. The boys were somewhat disappointed, as the Norwood team is said to be a good one and they wanted to play them. However, they may be here some evening in the near future, at least, it is to be hoped so.

He Was Unsuccessful.

A lad called at a private boarding house just before noon to-day, asked for his dinner and said he wanted to board there. The proprietor asked him if he had any money, to which he answered no, but that he had got work in Peter Hamilton's foundry. The proprietor then said he would go over to the shop with him in the afternoon and see about it. The lad thought matters were getting rather warm for him, got into the street as soon as possible and took to his heels.

"Mother Goose's" At Home.

Unique and entertaining will be the concert to be given under the auspices of the W.C.T.U. in Bradburn's Opera House on Thursday evening next. In addition to the rendering of Mother Goose's rhymes by a chorus of 50 children, dressed in character, there will be a reading by Rev. Marmaduke L. Pearson, pastor of the George street Methodist church, and Miss Annie Howden, of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, Ontario's favorite songstress, will render two songs. Mr. Dingle has the children in training, and they will do full credit to their instruction. Admission, only 25 cents.

Spots of Sport.

The Toronto papers are widely astray in their reports of the cricket match here Friday. No two accounts are alike and all are wrong.

Toronto cricket club plays here next Thursday.

Arrangements are in progress for a grand regatta at Sturgeon Point on or about Tuesday and Wednesday, August 21st and 22nd. Over one thousand dollars will be offered in prizes. There will be prizes of $500 for professional oarsmen, valuable cups for canoe races, one of Rogers' finest Peterborough canoes for a sailing canoe race, and a number of other attractions. Special arrangements are being made with railways for reduced rates in the district between Hamilton and Kingston, and over the Midland division of the G.T.R. W. H. Simpson, manager of the Sturgeon Point hotel, is taking an active interest in the regatta, and will give all information.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Edward Willan, of Cartwright, elder brother of Mr. T. N. Willan, reeve of South Monaghan, came to his end suddenly on Tuesday evening last. He had started for the station at Burkton to meet his daughter, Mrs. R. Casement, Mrs. Willan, her mother, having gone on ahead with the buggy to meet the daughter, the father following with a wagon for the trunks. The mother and daughter, coming from the station, met the father near at hand. As they turned out to pass upon the road, Mr. Willan fell down, smitten with apoplexy. He was at once conveyed away, and, though he was living, he never spoke again, but soon passed away at the age of 67 years. The deceased gentleman leaves behind him a son and daughter and the memory of an honored and respected life. He came to this country with his father in 1832 and settled in South Monaghan. He was superintendent of the English Church Sunday school.

The War Goes On.

The legal fight with dishonest patrons who send diluted milk to cheese factories goes bravely on in this section, notwithstanding the shortage of the hay crop. Ira Pringle was fined at Napanee Wednesday, $40 and costs. He is a partner of Mr. Empey of the factory. Several others on this complaint of the inspectors have acknowledged the offence and settled upon the payment of $25. Among these was a patron of the Napanee factory, the Sillsville factory, the Phœnix factory, Selby factory, and two of the Blairton factories in Peterborough county. Another patron of the Phœnix factory refused to settle and the case will come before a magistrate in a few days. The enforcement of this new act throws an unpleasant duty on the inspectors, but honest factorymen have too long suffered from these "leeches." Like all other avocations this brings the inspectors in contact with strange people sometimes. Calling at a well-to-do farmer's house early one evening, Prof. Whitton was surprised to hear a loud noise emanating from the parlor, and on looking in, saw that a prayer meeting was going on. He seized the opportunity to inspect the cellar, and there found several pans of milk skimmed. At breakfast the good housewife with marked feelings of regret apologized for not having cream for the tea, as they sent all their milk to the factory. The Inspector wanted to know where the cream was that had been taken from the pans in the cellar. She saw that the cat was out of the bag, and she promised never to do it again.—Ontario.

Personal.

Mr. F. G. Cox, of Toronto, is in town.

The Minden Echo says:—"Mr. J. A. Barron, M. P. for North Victoria, has been through this county this week, holding meetings at several places and making himself generally agreeable. Mr. B's friends are all glad to see him.

The Belleville Intelligencer says: "W. L. Hamilton, Kingston, inland revenue inspector, relieves Mr. Morrow, Peterborough. Mr. Hamilton is married to a Peterborough lady, and has been kept busy shaking hands with many friends, who have been congratulating him on his healthy looks."

Mr. Ryerson Ritchie, formerly of Peterborough, now secretary of the Commercial Exchange Club of Kansas City, is in town on a visit to his mother. Mr. Ritchie's friends are pleased to see him looking so well, and to hear of his doing so well.

To Teach in Tokio.

A short time since an advertisement appeared in the public prints asking for a lady missionary teacher to go to Tokio, Japan, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist Church of Canada. Miss Jessie Munro, daughter of Mr. Geo. Munro, Division street, applied, was accepted and engaged. Miss Munro's school in Tokio will open on Sept. 10th, and in order to be on hand at that time she will sail for Victoria, B.C., per steamer Abyssinian, of the C.P.R. line, on Tuesday, August 21st. Previous to her departure, a reception will be tendered Miss Munro in the Metropolitan Methodist church, Toronto. The engagement is for five years.

Literary Notes.

BRYCE'S PUBLICATIONS.—Mr. Wm. Bryce continues sending out periodically excellent Canadian copyright editions of the newest novels. The latest issues are "Diana Barrington," by Mrs. John Croker, and "The Case of Dr. Plemen," by Reve de Pont-Jest. Good stories, good paper, good print, and moderate prices—30 and 35 cents respectively. To be had at all the bookstores.

NEW PARLIAMENTARY BUILDINGS.—Mr. Bryce has also published a splendid lithogram of the new parliament buildings of the Province of Ontario, Queen's Park, Toronto. It makes an artistic picture of a grand building, and the price is only 25 cents. To be had at all the bookstores.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

TIMELY CAPITAL TOPICS.

ANOTHER PARTY OF ICELANDERS EN ROUTE FOR CANADA.

The Indian Outbreak in British Columbia —Major General Cameron's Commission as Commandant of the Kingston Royal Military College Issued.

OTTAWA, July 16.—It is understood that His Excellency has granted a pardon to a young man named Johns of Sasish, B. C., who had been undergoing a sentence for criminal assault. At the trial the question was raised that the charge of Chief Justice Begbee was incorrect in point of law and a writ of error was entered in the Supreme Court of Canada but was dismissed, the judges holding that the writ of error did not bring the point before them. Chief Justice Ritchie, however, expressed the opinion that on the evidence he thought the charge might be incorrect in point of law and he would be prepared to recommend the prisoner's pardon if his opinion was asked by the Government. This view was shared by the majority of the judges. The prisoner's counsel accordingly petitioned for an expression of opinion by the Supreme Court, which was granted, and the result is the prisoner's release.

The schooner H. E. King of Calais, Me., has been seized by the customs authorities at Hillsboro', N.B., for neglecting to report.

The Department of Agriculture has been advised that another party of 250 Icelanders have sailed from Glasgow for Canada. The party would have been twice as large but for the difficulty experienced in approaching the Island through ice obstructions and the inability of intending immigrants to dispose of their products.

The continued drought has injured crops in this vicinity to a considerable extent and one of its effects is seen in the numerous bush fires now burning near the city. A very dangerous one broke out quite close to Hull on Friday, caused by sparks from a locomotive, but it has been checked by the efforts of the fire brigade.

With reference to the alleged calling out of C Battery in British Columbia to suppress an Indian outbreak in that province, Sir Adolphe Caron said this afternoon:

"I have received no information from the commandant of C. Battery. The statement is made that they were called out by the civil authorities, but the department has no knowledge of the matter."

Under the Act the militia can be called out on the requisition of three justices of the peace, and this may have been done. The trouble is understood to be at a place called Hazelton, on the Skeena, where a constable who was trying to arrest an Indian charged with murder was assaulted and shot one of his assailants in self-defence.

Major-General Cameron's commision as commandant of the Kingston Royal Military College was issued to-day.

As the new rifle ranges at Montreal will not be ready for use this year, the Department of Militia has granted permission to the Quebec Provincial Rifle Association to use the Rideau Ranges for this year's prize meeting.

The Department of Customs have been informed of the seizure of a quantity of drugs at Coaticooke which were smuggled in from the United States, also a number of cattle at Hemming, Que.

THE EMPRES VICTORIA.

LIGHT THROWN UPON THE STORY THAT SHE IS A PRISONER.

The Disappearance of Certain State Papers —Emperor William Anxious to Obtain Possession of the Documents.

LONDON, July 16.—A Berlin correspondent throws some light upon the story that the Empress Victoria is virtually a prisoner. Although she is not under lock and key she is so surrounded by officials and soldiers of the court as not to be free. It appears that certain State papers have disappeared. They are reports sent in from St. Petersburg, Vienna and London by the German military attaches there, and these papers were at Friedrichskron on the evening of the Emperor's death. They disappeared, however, on the next day. Besides this a certain political testament of Emperor Frederick has been sent to London, and its return is especially desired. All attempts to recover these papers thus far have been made in vain. Emperor William has sent in turn all of his ministers to his mother for information concerning these papers, but none of them have been received with the exception of Herr Friedborg, Minister of Justice, and a friend of the late Emperor. He was received but obtained no information. It was following his failure that the access to the Empress was strictly guarded and has been so since.

Prince Radalin had been asked to make the last attempt, and in the event of a final failure, it is said that a formal judicial process will be brought against the Dowager Empress to secure the return of the papers. Prince Bismarck has certain plans to carry out. It is known that Emperor Frederick's political testament crosses this, and the publication might check his course. He would not care to be placed before the public in the light of encouraging the son to go directly in opposition to his father's wishes. Hence his anxiety to gain control of those papers, and the scandalous course towards the Dowager Empress.

SUED FOR LIBEL.

The Brother of Defaulter Pitcher Wants $50,000 from The N. Y. World.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 16.—Andrew J. Pitcher, formerly teller in the Merchants' National Bank, has brought a suit against The New York World for libel, putting the damages at $50,000. The suit is based upon a special wired from this city this week, and which by innuendo charged Pitcher with the knowledge of the mysterious disappearance of a package of bills worth $30,000 from the Merchants' Bank a few years ago. The bank people say that there is not a word of truth in the story.

Cashier Lobb of Toronto Missing—World Compositors Locked Out.

TORONTO, July 16.—Stanley M. Lobb, cashier of the London Guarantee and Accident Company, is missing. Professional accountants are examining his books, and up to the present a leakage of over $2500 has been discovered. The deficiency is entirely in the private business of Mr. McCord, manager of the company, and none of the money of the company is missing. Lobb is about 21 years of age, a son of ex-Alderman Lobb, and had a salary of $500. Young Lobb was four years in the employ of the company.

The World, which has always been a staunch Union office, locked out its members yesterday. The trouble originated over a half page "ad." for setting which The World paid $8.07 for three hours' work. On a second insertion two lines were slightly changed by the foreman and the men refused to go to work Sunday night unless another $8.07 was paid them. No trouble was experienced in getting new men and the paper came out as usual this morning.

FOULLY MURDERED.

John Gushannon Killed in His Front Yard in Sight of His Family.

BENNINGTON, Vt., July 16.—This morning at 4 o'clock John Gushannon was murdered in his front yard in sight of his family. James Gushannon, a nephew of the deceased, John Keenan, James Costigan and Geo. Gavin had been carousing all night and called on John Gushannon, asking for drinks. Being refused they began stoning the house. When two windows had been broken Gushannon went out, caught his nephew and was shaking him when Keenan struck him on the head with his crutch and killed him. All four are now in jail. Gushannon leaves a widow and nine children. He was a carpenter by trade and was suspected of selling liquor.

Arrival of the French Minister to Japan— A Cow-Boy Murderer at Large.

QUEBEC, July 16.—Mr. Scinkiewiez, minister plenipotentiary of France at Japan, and his family have arrived here, en route from Europe, where the minister has been spending his vacation. He goes to the Pacific coast on his way to Japan by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Morrison, the ex-cowboy who murdered Bailiff Warren, has not gone to the States as supposed, but is still in Megantic, breathing threatenings against someone who, he says, has offended him. Sherbrooke, high constable is still after him, but so far he has eluded pursuit. Four hundred dollars is offered for him.

Canadian Notes.

Premier Mercier went on Saturday for a few weeks' rest to Carleton, Bale des Chaleurs.

It is expected that Attorney-General Mowat and Hon. Edward Blake will return almost immediately from England after the argument in the St. Catharines Milling Company's case.

A fatal accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Railway the night before last, the victim being a fireman named Achille Thorne, who fell between two cars and was instantly killed.

Mr. Joseph Bean of North Hatley, an old gentleman of 75 years of age, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself to a tree in the woods about two miles from his home.

Montreal's Lawsuits.

MONTREAL, July 16.—There are over 225 actions now pending against the city, among the most important being those of Messrs. Lemoine and Allan, claiming compensation for property on the Mountain. About $400,000 is involved in these two claims alone. There are also the Abbattoir cases for not carrying out the slaughtering and market by-laws, involving something between $40,000 and $50,000. About $200,000 is being adjudicated upon for the expropriation of Victoria-square and the widening of portions of certain streets.

British Columbia Indians Rising.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 16.—There is great excitement over the reports from Skeene River. The steamer Caribou Fly arrived yesterday and her officers say that when the steamer left Skeene River it was reported that Mr. Clifford, in charge of the Hudson's Bay Company at Hazleton, and one of the special constables sent from here had been murdered by the Indians. The Indians are thoroughly excited, and threaten to exterminate all the whites in that part of the country. H. B. Roger, of the Provincial police, will leave to-day for the scene of the trouble with a force of special policemen. H. M. S. Caroline arrived last night and will probably convey the force and "C" Battery to the mouth of the Skeene River. It will be impossible for her to ascend the Skeene owing to low water and the rapids. The only way the troops can go up is in canoes and it is estimated this will occupy three weeks, as it is 90 miles up river to the scene of the trouble. The Indians who are causing the trouble are the worst on the coast.

The Erie Canal Break.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 16.—When the water was let into the canal after the break at Adams' Basin had been repaired on Saturday afternoon, another part of the bank gave way. The break is about 15 feet wide and extends to the bottom of the canal. It is expected that this break will be repaired by Wednesday night. Over 400 boats are lying between the Brighton lock and Syracuse, and 100 between Adams' Basin and Buffalo.

A Young Girl Drowned.

MONTREAL, July 16.—Miss Maggie Mackenzie, the 8 year-old daughter of Mr. Gilbert Mackenzie, went on a visit on Saturday to Mr. Willett who resides at Chambly. While bathing with some other children she was carried off by the current and before assistance could be obtained she was drowned. When the body was recovered it still showed some signs of vitality, but she expired immediately afterwards.

Uncle Sam's Tariff.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Mr. Mills is well-pleased with the unexpected progress made with the Tariff Bill to-day. He now believes that its consideration can be finished within the next two days, but as many members who wish to go on record are absent, it is the present intention to defer taking the final vote on the passage of the bill until Saturday.

All Quiet on the Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 16.—All is reported quiet by the lumbermen at the Chaudiere Mills this morning, the men having resumed work at the rise demanded.

The various towers on the Parliament Buildings are being stripped of their slate and zinc is put on instead. This has been done to prevent accidents from slates falling off the roof. During the recent storm here they were flying about in all directions.

The Famous Fourteenth.

MONTREAL, July 16.—The French fete in commemoration of the taking of the Bastille is being celebrated by a three days' picnic in a field near Maisonneuve. There were all kinds of amusements and a display of fireworks at night. On Saturday and Sunday there were thousands of parties present. The fete was continued to-day. The funds are for the French House of Refuge.

THE MANITOBA RAILWAYS

ARRANGEMENT WITH THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

Public Analyst John Wright Drowned While Sailing—The Grasshopper Plague in Dakota—Fifty Miles of the Northwest Central Graded.

WINNIPEG, July 16.—It is now said the railway scheme is that the Northern Pacific is to purchase the Red River Valley Railroad outright for $700,000, less $300,000, which they would have received as Government aid had they constructed the road themselves. The Northern Pacific refuse to allow running powers to other roads but allow the Government to fix rates.

The Government want the company to agree to a maximum rate which is lower than the C.P.R to Duluth on wheat, etc., but the company are not inclined to make this concession. It is generally believed the arrangements will be reached before long.

John Wright, public analyst, was drowned in the Red River this afternoon while sailing a canoe in a high wind. His body has been recovered.

THE DEAD EMPEROR'S PROJECT

For the Improvement of Alsace-Lorraine— But it Was Not to Be.

NEW YORK, July 16.—A Berlin dispatch to the Herald says a private letter of the dead Kaiser which has just come to light, reveals that he had two objects uppermost in his heart. The first was the settlement of the Alsace-Lorraine question, and the second the marriage of his daughter Victoria. For months, perhaps years, his whole mind was given to the Alsace-Lorraine problem. Had he lived he would have tried the experiment of giving Alsace-Lorraine virtual home rule with Prince Alexander of Battenberg as governor. Then maybe we might have seen the realization of a grand dream. "Germany," he wrote, "would have been delivered from the cancer which has been eating away her life since 1870, even as I shall perhaps be freed from the cancer which is eating into my throat." With Germany and Alsace-Lorraine independent there would be an end of the deadly feud between the Gaul and the Teuton. Europe would disarm and peace and good-will reign on earth.

The Doctor's Controversy.

BERLIN, July 16.—Ex-Empress Victoria has requested Dr. Mackenzie to prepare for her a true history of the late Emperor Frederick's illness, in order to correct the German doctors' assertions.

SMALLPOX AT BUFFALO.

The Bison City Threatened with an Epidemic of the Dread Disease.

BUFFALO, July 16.—Buffalo is promised another repetition of the great smallpox epidemic of 1872, if the efforts of Health Physician Clark and the Board of Health are not successful. This morning Dr. Bussman reported to the Board of Health that he had what he thought was a case of smallpox on Townsend-street. Dr. Clark at once went to the place which turned out to be the house of Jos. Kazeamustak, at 235 Townsend-street, where he found two children ill with the disease. Neighbors were passing in and out and it was learned that one of the children had been ill for a week before the doctor was called. The neighbors who were passing in and out were apparently oblivious of the fact that the disease had made its appearance.

The Troublesome Chinamen.

TACOMA, W.I., July 16.—Chinamen are still coming over the Canadian border illegally. Deputy-Marshal Winslow captured ten Mongolians on Saturday crossing toward Edison, near the Whatcom County line. While bringing them along the road two of them slipped down a steep bank and disappeared. The remaining eight were brought to Seattle. When taken before U.S. Commissioner Emery the Chinamen claimed they had been on the Sound for some time. The Commissioner issued writs of deportation, which means that they will be sent to McNeil Island penitentiary for an indefinite period.

Murdered His Shipmates.

NEW YORK, July 16.—Capt. Tyson of the steamer Erin from London, reports that on July 9, at 7.20 a. m., Patrick Kelly, a seaman aged 36 years, murdered two of his shipmates, John Parry and John Chapman, while they were asleep in their bunks. He stabbed them both to the heart with a sheath knife killing them instantly. The only cause assigned for the crime is that Kelly had a slight quarrel with one of the murdered men the evening before. The murderer was manacled and confined. He will be turned over to the British consul.

Queen Natalie's Demand.

VIENNA, July 16.—Queen Natalie has sent to the Servian Premier a letter in which she says: "I now insist upon being told of what crime I have been guilty. I have no reason to be afraid of the fullest light being thrown upon both my political and private life."

The New S. A Temple

Monday's Services—Officers' Council in the Afternoon—The Grand Parade in the Evening.

The dedication services of the new Salvation Army Temple were resumed on Monday. An officers' council in the old barracks was the first meeting of the day. At about half-past one they met. The subject was "Day of Days," but as the proceedings were private we are unable to give a report.

The opening march was timed for three o'clock in the afternoon, but it was nearly half-past three when they started. After marching through the principal streets, they "drew up" and held a glorious open-air meeting on the market square. A rig drawn by four horses was one of the principal features of the march. There were several in the rig and two men on the backs of the two forward horses. During the meeting, one of the men on the horses stood up in his stirrups to speak, but the horse not liking this began to prance round and caused much excitement. However, he was at last quieted, and the cortege proceeded. After the open-air meeting the Army marched to the barracks, where the banquet was to be held.

The basement of the building was used for the tea room; long tables extending from one end of the hall to the other, were set with large quantities of "goodies." There were four of these tables, and all the seats were crowded. The tables were made by placing two rows of seats close together with their backs outward. The short pieces of boards were put from the back of one seat to the back of the other, and long boards were then put on top of these, making a very substantial table, although a little high for comfort. The boards were covered with white paper. After everybody had partaken of a sumptuous repast, they ascended to the main audience hall above, where another service was held.

At half past seven the Army again turned out for a march. This time their parade went over several new streets which they had not visited before. The band was preceded by an old wagon containing four "bums," who sat on a table playing cards and drinking. They were dressed in rags and their noses were blushing considerably. This wagon was labeled, "Before I joined the Army." At the rear of the ranks was a horse and carriage containing three officers, all of whom were good looking fellows. On the back of the carriage were the words, "After I joined the Army." The two teams made a good representation of the subject for the evening's service, which was, "Tragic Scenes of Life and Death."

After the usual open air meeting on the market square, they marched to the barracks, where the jubilee service was to be held, and at eight o'clock Chief of Staff Bailey started the first song, after which Adjt. Philpot sang a solo, the soldiers joining in the chorus. The Chief spoke a few words and then Mr. Wm. Gooderham, of Toronto, spoke for some length of time. He gave due account of the work done by the Army, and the experience of several soldiers and officers whom he knew. He said the Salvation Army extended over thirty-one countries of the globe, and twenty-seven different languages were spoken. He also said he was at the first meeting the Army ever held in Canada and that was in Toronto. At that time there were only a very few of them and they were very poor. Now there are no less than thirteen barracks in Toronto, and some of them very nice ones at that. Then the Army has grown and spread in other places. Mr. Gooderham also said he was only giving a brief outline of what he knew of the Army. He said he was here to help raise the money to pay for the barracks, there being $6,000 needed yet. He headed the list with $100. Several officers then passed through the audience with small slips of paper containing printed forms to be filled out and signed. These are called "canaries" in some places, and the cry was, "Fill out the canary and hear it whistle!" Mr. Gooderham, continuing his remarks, said there was more money spent in the United States in one year for ostrich feathers to trim the ladies' bonnets than was given to missions in the same length of time. He said the plainer a person dressed the better she looked, for if a person was good-looking she did not need to adorn herself to improve her appearance. A large number of the slips were signed and returned to the Chief, who handed them to Mr. Gooderham and he read the names with the amounts. There were one or two $20 slips and several $5's, besides the smaller amounts. From the number read, one would judge that a good sum was realized. The Jubilee service was brought to a close by singing and prayer. It took some time for the large crowd to get out, and at eleven o'clock the officers' and soldiers' meeting commenced. It was an "All Night of Prayer," the subject being "Do I Eat His Flesh and Drink His Blood (Christ)?" No outsiders were allowed in this meeting, except those who were directly interested and had come to help.

This afternoon there will be another council at 1:30 in the old barracks on Aylmer-street. At five o'clock an officers' tea will be given, and at seven another march and meeting on the market square. At the Temple at 8 o'clock there will be a "Great Farewell of Staff and Field Officers, and a Hallelujah Rock-a-bye Baby meeting." A silver collection will be taken at the door.

STRAY SHOTS.

Gabriel "mit his ram's horn," from Lakefield was present yesterday, and made his presence known by an occasional "blast."

Mr. Gooderham said he had heard that the worst man in Peterborough had been converted by the Salvation Army.

The barracks was filled with people at all the meetings yesterday.

To-day will be the last day and the "largest shots" will be fired.

An Offensive Breath

is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases in thousands can testify. b

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

IN THE TOILS OF THE LAW.

Geo. J. Jarvis and Mrs. Allen Campbell Arrested.

CLEVELAND, July 16.—Four weeks ago a stylishly-dressed man and an equally well-dressed woman came to Cleveland and secured apartments on Franklin-avenue, the fashionable street of West Side aristocracy. They lived there quietly as man and wife and conducted themselves in a refined manner. On Saturday night just before midnight a police detective and two officers aroused the inmates of the house and searched it. They had a warrant for Geo. J. Jarvis and Mrs. Magdalene Campbell. The officers waited patiently till they had dressed themselves, then they were taken to the Central Station in a hack and locked up on a charge of adultery. They remained in prison until Monday morning, when they revealed their identity to the police and caused a big sensation at the same time. Mrs. Campbell was discovered to be the wife of Allen Campbell. George J. Jarvis, her companion, is a son of the late sheriff of Toronto, and both were taken into the judge's private office, where they told their stories. Jarvis announced that he was married and had two children. About a year ago he left his wife and settled $35,000 on her. He had been intimate with Mrs. Campbell, who is the daughter of a deceased army officer, and was living in Toronto with her mother. Jarvis a short time ago went to Europe, first arranging that she should marry Allen Campbell. This scheme was successfully carried out, and when Jarvis came back he found his former mistress living quietly as Mrs. Campbell. Things went on until Jarvis, who has lots of money, got on a spree, and then he immediately hunted up Mrs. Campbell and persuaded her to run away with him, and she consented apparently without much hesitation, and they at once came to this city. Mrs. Campbell was finely attired, and her diamonds sparkled strangely in the dark prison. "Of course I lived with George as his wife," she said. "It was wrong, but I love him as I never have, never can, love Allen. When Gorge came for me I could not resist." She states that she married Campbell in April last and Jarvis announced that they were in this State with the ultimate object of procuring respective divorces and then being married. The couple were released on bail until Wednesday. The aristocratic people who received Jarvis and Mrs. Campbell in society are badly shocked.

THE FISHERIES TREATY.

Mr. Pugh Addresses the Senate in Favor of its Ratification.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Fishery Treaty in open executive session and was addressed by Mr. Pugh in favor of its ratification. He said that the people of Canada were naturally citizens of the United States and could be made so by practice, so that it would be the best policy of the people of the States to be liberal and forbearing with that neighboring people. The reason for the opposition to the treaty was found in the fifteenth article, which, it was feared, would give the American market to Canada.

He referred to a statement made by Mr. Sherman in secret session that he intended to offer an amendment to strike out the fifteenth article under the general understanding that amendments were to be offered and said it was not until Republican Senators had determined that no amendments would be offered that they agreed to bring the treaty into open discussion.

In conclusion he said that the President had discharged his duty with due care to the rights of American fishermen and free from any partisan consideration. It was for the people to decide whether the President or the Senate was most to blame for keeping up the disturbed condition which was full of ruinous consequences.

Mr. Chandler addressed the Senate in opposition to the Treaty.

TOO MUCH FUN, PERHAPS.

Alleged Bad Effects of Co-Education at the Capital.

OTTAWA, July 16.—For a long time the rules at the Ottawa Normal School to prevent the commingling of the sexes were of the strictest kind. The were not even allowed to recognize each other on the street. Last year the rules were relaxed so far as to permit the young men to call on the young ladies and keep their company in the evenings. This conclusion was thought wise in view of the fact that the privilege was already enjoyed by some disobedient students. Just here the significant results engaged the attention of the faculty. Last year no student was awarded the Governor-General's medal at the annual examinations. There was a good deal of typhoid prevalent then among the students and the failure of any one to qualify as a medalist did not, therefore, attract much attention. This year, however, at the examinations recently held not a single student qualified for the medal, and moreover, there were no honor students, an extraordinary result, which members of the faculty attribute to the association of the sexes in the evenings, which under other circumstances more favorable to study were formerly devoted to the acquirement of knowledge. Here is a problem for those who consider cause and effect to ponder.

MONTREAL MARAUDERS.

A $2000 Burglary—An Immigrant Robbed on Notre Dame Street.

MONTREAL, July 16.—A. St. Jean, who resides on Roy Street, had his house burglarised yesterday and jewelry, wine, etc., to the value of $2000 were stolen.

A well dressed London immigrant named Sheppard after arriving in port, by the steamship Vancouver, had his purse taken from his pocket. He claims that he had $1000 in it, with which he had intended to go into business here. He says that he had been taken into a respectable looking place on Notre Dame Street and there had been drugged and robbed.

How the Log Raft Must be Navigated.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 16.—The log raft at Joggins is almost ready to launch, and the Government has as yet taken no steps to prevent it. The Minister of Marine told Parliament last session that the Government would during the recess consider measures to prevent such rafts going to sea, as they endanger shipping. The only law on the subject now is one providing that rafts while drifting or at anchor, shall show a bright fire from sunset to sunrise, and that they shall be so navigated as to cause no unnecessary obstruction to vessels in Canadian waters. The owner is liable for damages if these rules are broken.

Cholera at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 16.—"Asiatic cholera" were the startling words which fell from the lips of Dr. McCandless shortly after noon, Thursday, as he stood at the death-bed of Peter Mack, a foundryman living at 76 Clark-street. The patient was taken ill very suddenly on Wednesday and grew rapidly worse all the time, dying in just forty-eight hours from the moment he became ill. There was every symptom of the cholera. After death yellow spots broke out all over his body. It cannot be learned how Mack took the disease.

Have you Neuralgia!

If you are suffering the agonies of neuralgia, and have failed to get a remedy that will afford relief, we want you to try Polson's Nerviline. No remedy in the market has given any thing like the same degree of satisfaction. Its action on nerve pain is simply marvellous, and as it is put up in 10 cent sample bottles no great expense is involved in giving it a trial. Polson's Nerviline is the most pleasant, powerful, and certain pain remedy in the world. Sold by all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 6dw29

Many cures caused by B. B. B. have been those of chronic sufferers known throughout the district through the very fact of their having been afflicted for years. This naturally creates a strong impression in favor of this valuable family medicine. 2w29d

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marivelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensable.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377 69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$180,482 60	$1,140,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	28,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,336 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	393,284 31	2,966,934 90

That our Clearing Sale is now going on.

We move to other quarters in one month.

Do we wish to carry much goods with us?

Not if we can avoid it.

The present prices at which we are selling are framed on the resolve to carry nothing with us that low prices will induce buyers to select.

Remember the opportunity is worth taking advantage of.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Northeast and southeast winds, fair, followed by cloudy weather, local rains or thunder storms tonight and to-morrow; not much change in temperature.

He's "All the Go" Now.

Lord Stanley, of Preston, our new Governor-General, is all the go now. He's enjoying a sudden popularity and catching salmon. Hats, corsets, collars, lacrosse and baseball clubs are being named after him, and babies will be christened in his honor as fast as circumstances bring them on the stage. Lord Stanley is indeed all the go now, but there's not half the go there is in the golden lion's prints. There's a veritable rush for them and it's no wonder. Splendid imported goods worth fifteen cents going for ten cents.

Officers' Council.

The Council of the Salvation Army in the old barracks, Aylmer-street, this afternoon, was attended by about sixty officers. The meeting was led by Chief of Staff Bailey, who gave instruction in conducting meetings and other general information, which would be found useful in their labors of the Army. These councils are found to be a great help to the officers, as they get suggestions which assist them a great deal in their work.

Band Reunion.

The Fire Brigade Band has received an invitation to a band reunion, a novel entertainment projected by the Pembroke band. The reunion will be held at Pembroke on August 8th and 9th, and the bands invited are the Peterborough, the 43rd of Ottawa, Perth, Smith's Falls, Almonte, Arnprior and Renfrew. These bands will be the guests of the Pembroke band. The secretary of the local band has been instructed to acknowledge the invitation. In case the boys accept the Pembroke people will be treated to some of the best music they ever heard.

Lindsay's Decoration Day.

To-day is the Lindsay Oddfellows' Decoration Day. Our northern brethren sent an invitation, coupled with the offer of aspecial train, to Canton No. 10, Peterborough, and both were accepted. At two o'clock the special left the Midland station, having on board twenty-six chevaliers and officers, including Tommy the "Coon." Several other Oddfellows went up with the Canton. Standard bearer Morris accompanied the Canton to-day.

Masonic Notes.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada meets in Toronto to-morrow and the representatives are beginning to gather. Last night R.W. Bro. Shortly, D.D.G.M., and R.W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall went to the city. Corinthian Lodge will be represented by W. Bro. Adam Dawson; and Peterborough Lodge by W. Bro. H. Rush, both of whom leave this evening. Peterborough holds high rank as one of the principal centres of Freemasonry in Canada, and is not at all presumptious in looking forward to having the Grand Lodge session held here, within a year or two. If a town like Brockville, can, as it did last year, successfully entertain the Grand Lodge, there can arise no question of Peterborough's ability in this respect. The local members of the fraternity have been honored with a liberal share of representation on the roll of Grand Lodge officers, and there is a probability of their being similarly honored this year.

Among the names in the sub-committees of the Board of General Purpose which met on Monday, the following will be of interest to Peterborough:—Grievances and Appeals, R. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall; Jurisprudence, R. W. Bro. B. Shortly.

It is surprising to know the number of Americans that visit our beautiful town. Scarcely a day passes when there are not at least four or five who have registered at some of our hotels, and often there are more than that. Poison Ivy.

The season of camping suggests a warning to tourists and campers to be ware of the evil effects of poison ivy (Rhus Toxicodendron). It will be a precaution to observe that poison ivy has only three leaves radiating from a common stem, and that the harmless ivy has five. Don't touch the three-leaved vine. Dry wood ashes or some alkaline application is stated to be a sure cure for poisoning by ivy.

Hymeneal.

At St. Peter's Cathedral church, on Tuesday morning, Mr. Peter Henry, of Mr. Stevenson's office, and Miss Mary Cook, of Peterborough, recently of Montreal, were united in matrimony by Rev. Father McEvay at 6 o'clock mass. Dr. Brennan was groomsman, and Miss Annie Henry, sister of the groom, bridesmaid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Henry took the 6:30 G. T. R. express en route to the summer resorts of the St. Lawrence on their wedding tour. Both parties are well known and highly respected, and they enter upon their new life relation accompanied by the warmest wishes of their many friends.

The Bush Fires.

The bush fires are quite numerous around us, more especially in the north and northwest than in any other direction. Some farmers are thoughtless enough to set their swamps on fire in this dry weather. One man in Emily township set fire to his swamp just after the rain of a few weeks ago, and the neighbors' houses have been in danger of being burned ever since. Several very large fires were noticed near Lindsay last evening. There are also a large number of them round Coboconk.

Facts Worth Noting.

It has long been a matter of surprise to the public that Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, can sell such excellent goods at such low prices. A few facts will explain. They buy all their goods for cash. This means a very liberal reduction in prices these hard times. They carry an immense stock, and, turning over goods rapidly, they make the best use of their money and in the end the customer gets the benefit. One of the firm is charged with the specific duty of watching the wholesale markets, and the big bargains that offer are at once snapped up. A big wholesale clothing house collapses. Gough Bros. get the goods at a few cents on the dollar and thus the public get big bargains. These are a few of the reasons why Gough Bros. sell worsted suits worth $13.00 for $8.90; why they sell all wool Waterloo tweed suits for $3.80, worth $6; why they sell boys' suits as low as 56 cents and men's working pants as low as 17c. At this season great drives are given in gents' furnishings and summer goods. Cool coats and vests, camping shirts and hats, etc. Customers to Goughs' will save 50 per cent. on every purchase. That's what everybody says and it must be true.

Tourist Travel

Summer Sojourners in the Lake Region.

No busier railway station platform than that of the Midland station these days is to be found in Ontario. Every day, three times per day, it is crowded with tourists and travellers. This morning there was another large exodus of tourists seeking the coolness of the back lakes. The following parties with their impedimenta went north:

W. Brownecombe and wife, Mrs. F. Brownecombe, Mr. Borland and family, and Mr. MacWhinnie and children.

Mr. W. H. McElwain and family.

Mr. H. Lebrun, Mrs. J. Hackett and child, Miss Eloise LeMay, Watertown, N.Y., and Mr. James Dolan.

Mr. E. B. Stone and family, Mr. Allingham, Toronto, and Miss Mix, Warkworth.

From Port Hope—Mr. G. B. Salter and family, Robs. Walker, Frank Nicholson (Toronto), Alf. Badge, Hi' Williamson, Mrs. E. Peplow, Miss Lala Saunders, Miss Edie Wallace and Mr. Charles A. Peplow. This party occupies Peplow's Island, near Julian's Landing.

The following party goes to Burleigh Falls:

T. Ward, H. Read, Eddie Read, Jas. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, Miss Smith, Miss Chisholm, Mrs. Wellington, Miss Sanders, Miss Holland and Miss Seymour.

Carpenters and Contractors

Come in Conflict With the Bricklayers' Union—Resolutions Adopted.

At the meeting of the contracting carpenters held on last Thursday evening, the following resolutions were adopted:

Moved by T. Rutherford and seconded by D. Gamble, that we, the undersigned carpenters contractors of the town of Peterborough, hereby resolve:

That we will not take any joint contract with any member of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union No. 12, and that we will take whole or sub contracts from any person or persons except members of the above-named union, from whom we will take no sub-contracts until said named union withdraw the advertisement now going on in our daily papers, or that portion of it that pertains to us, which we consider an insult and a libel, and requiring an apology.

[Signed]

ANDREW DOUGLAS, J. L. HUGHES,
WM. FITZGERALD, H. CARVETH,
A. RUTHERFORD, GEORGE ELLIOTT,
DAVID GAMBLE, WM. LANGFORD,
THOS. RUTHERFORD, ALEX. RUTHERFORD,
THOS. IRWIN, G. MCWILLIAMS,
W. H. ROBERTS, THOMAS MCKEE,
W. H. MCELWAIN, J. D. BAPTIE.

Moved by James L. Hughes, seconded by A Douglas, that we, the contracting carpenters of the town of Peterborough, deplore the line of action taken by the Bricklayers and Stonemasons of this town, as it tends to destroy the confidence of the public in not only the Masons themselves, but all other crafts in the building line.

Moved by Mr. George Elliott, seconded by H. Carveth, that in the opinion of this meeting, the charges made by the Bricklayers and Stonemasons, and published in the newspapers, that the carpenters in supplying material use a poor article to clear themselves from any loss, is wholly false and without foundation. We prove the fact by the signature of the following Brickmakers:

We, the undersigned Brick manufacturers of the town of Peterborough, hereby certify that the carpenter contractors have bought from us the best materials and always the same [kinds of] material as we have sold the Bricklayers.

A Dry Goods Revolution.

Mr. T. Kelly, the Revolutionist.

The merchant who makes no sensational announcements, which his shelves cannot back up, and who retains public confidence year after year by keeping faith with the public—this merchant commands respect when he has some special announcement to make. Mr. T. Kelly, the proprietor of the only one price store, has been bidding for public favor for several years, and by virtue of doing a square business—furnishing the choicest goods at the closest margins—always supplying the best goods the markets afford, has made him a name in this district which everywhere commands respect. In this issue there will be found an extraordinary business announcement, full of interest to every person who wishes to secure real bargains in reliable goods. Mr. Kelly's summer stock must be cleared out, and the next thirty days' inducements, which will be found hard to resist, will be presented. When Mr. Kelly announces that he will not be undersold, the public know very well what that means. It means that a fresh, well-assorted stock of first-class goods are thrown on the market at marvellous reductions in prices. It is not his practice to carry over goods from one season to another, and therefore the goods offered at this great thirty days' clearing sale are of a quality unsurpassed in any shop in the district. In silks and dress goods, the house of T. Kelly has always held a leading place, and the prices at which they are now offered defy competition. The reader is respectfully referred to Mr. Kelly's advertisement, and a perusal of it will convince him that never before have such splendid values in such splendid goods been offered in Peterborough. In every department the reductions have been made, and those who fail to take advantage of T. Kelly's "sale of the season" will have everything to regret. These prices only hold good for one month. Therefore be wise in time and seize the opportunity when it offers.

Band in the Park.

To the Editor of the Examiner :—

DEAR SIR,—I see by our daily papers the question asked: "Why don't the band give us a sacred concert on Sabbath afternoon?" Now, sir, I, for one, would very much like to hear our band play such a fine programme as they played last evening, next Sabbath afternoon. What is grander than the "Kyrie", and "Gloria" from Mozart's 12th Mass, and other sacred selections they played last evening. These selections are sung in every Christian church in town. Surely no reasonable person can object to such music. Now, sir, would it not be better for the general public, than what I was compelled to listen to last Sabbath afternoon. Two gentlemen were on the band stand giving every one a lecture on things that didn't seem to take well with the people, judging from the groans and hisses they received. I say let us have the band on Sabbath afternoons, instead of such twaddle as we got last Sabbath.

Yours truly,
FREEDOM.

Mother Goose and Her Goslings.

Mother Goose and her flock, be it remembered, will give an entertainment in Bradburn's Opera House on Thursday evening next (19th July). Her little flock will appear in their gayest plumage and render the nursery ballads in all the keys to the airs of popular songs. The little folks have been thoroughly drilled by Mr. Dingle. Everybody who was ever young should see this delightful performance. The little folks are not jealous and will allow Miss Annie Howden to sing two of her beautiful songs and Rev. M. L. Pearson to give a reading. Tickets, 25 cents. God bless the children. 1d

Band Night in the Park.

The popularity of the band concerts seems to be increasing every week. Last evening there was a large attendance at the park and the band rendered some very fine numbers composed almost exclusively of sacred selections, which seemed to give great delight to listeners, and woo the expressed approval of three or four of the leading organists of the town who were present. Mozart's 12th Mass and Kyrie were among the selections. The noisy boys were out in full force, unfortunately, last night.

ANOTHER DYNAMITE PLOT.

CHIC GO ANARCHISTS PLAN A REIGN OF TERROR.

The Conspiracy Contemplated the Assassination of Judges Gary and Grinnell, Inspector Bonfield and others—The Scheme Frustrated by the Police.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A dynamite bomb factory was discovered by the police this morning in a small frame building at Ashland-avenue and Thirty-Third-street. The owner of the place, an old anarchist, was arrested with two accomplices. A conspiracy of long standing, the object of which was the murder of Judge Gary, Judge Grinnell and Police Inspector Bonfield, was about to be put into execution. Twelve dynamite bombs, a revolver and a dagger were found in the den.

Inspector Bonfield is reported to have said that the plot was a well-arranged one. About twenty determined murderers were in the conspiracy and they were to be at a certain hour to-night at the houses of Judge Grinnell, Judge Gary, Inspector Bonfield, Assistant State's Attorney Frank Walker, Gen. Stiles and others prominent in the prosecution of the anarchists. Dynamite was to be placed beneath the houses of these and the explosive was to be touched off simultaneously. The Board of Trade was to be blown up at the same time and a wholesale reign of terror inaugurated.

Before making the first arrest, Inspector Bonfield had the house surrounded by five picked officers. Just as day light was breaking the Inspector was joined in the vicinity by a stranger and a few minutes later a man emerged from the house. The stranger nudged Bonfield and an order was given to the men who closed on the man. He made a desperate fight but was quickly overpowered and placed in charge of two of the officers. Bonfield and the other officers then rushed into the house. They were met on the stairs by a woman, the wife of the man who had been captured, but she was brushed aside and the police, guided by the stranger, entered a hall-bedroom where, hidden in a corner, the Inspector found a dozen dynamite cartridges wrapped in brown paper. A further search of the room disclosed hidden in the bed a dagger and revolver. Some bundles of letters and other papers, which were also taken care of by the police, were found. Then a patrol wagon was called and the prisoner taken to the station.

The officers next went to a house some distance away. Here two other arrests were made and all three captives were taken to the Central Station.

ENGLAND'S BOLD POLICY.

UNCLE SAM AGREES TO BRITAIN'S PROPOSITION.

A Mixed Commission to be Appointed to Adjust the Claims for Damages Made by the Owners of Canadian Sealers in Behring Sea.

OTTAWA, July 17.—There was a meeting of Council to-day, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell presiding and Hon. Messrs. Carling, Caron and Costigan being present. It is understood that only routine business was transacted.

It is said that the United States executive has intimated a willingness to agree to England's proposition, made nearly a year ago, for the appointment of a mixed commission to adjust the claims for damages made by the owners of Canadian sealers in Behring Sea. H.M.S. Caroline arrived at Victoria nearly two months ago under instructions to repair, coal and provision for Behring Sea during the sealing season. Everything was got ready but within a week of her time for sailing fresh orders from the Imperial authorities arrived cancelling the original orders, and the trip has been abandoned. Two weeks later a United States cutter left for Behring Sea with instructions from Washington for the United States officials of Alaska. The policy of England, it is alleged, was to have been a bold one. Every attempted exercise of jurisdiction by the United States beyond the three mile limit was to be met by actual resistance and every British vessel captured outside that limit by the U. S. cutters was to be recaptured by the Caroline. England has been consulting Canada in all things respecting claims, but the question of jurisdiction she will settle herself.

The work of printing the evidence taken before the Royal Labor Commission is being rapidly pushed forward under the superintendence of Mr. George Johnson, Dominion Statistician, who is compiling a complete index to the evidence. The official translators of the House of Commons have commenced translating the report into French. This work will be superintended by Mr Hellbronner, one of the Commissioners.

The trouble in the Guards still continues unsettled. None of the officers attended the meeting called by Lieut.-Col. McPherson last night, The Colonel had an interview with the Adjutant-General to-day, and it is said he will accept all the resignations, forward them to headquarters and endeavor to get a new lot of officers for the battalion.

Sir Adolphe Caron, Minister of Militia, has received a telegram from Victoria, B.C., stating that C. Battery of Royal Canadian Infantry were to leave there yesterday at noon, on board H. M. S. Caroline, for the scene of the trouble on the Skeena river. He was previously notified by Col. Holmes, Acting Deputy Adjutant-General for the province and commandant of the corps, that the latter had been requisitioned to quell the disturbance.

John Lowe was sworn in Deputy Minister of Agriculture to-day.

An order-in-council has passed placing the following articles on the free list:

Wire of iron or steel, No. 13 and 14 wire guage, flattened and corrugated, used in connection with a machine known as the wire grip machine, for the manufacture of boots and shoes and leather belting, when imported by the manufacturers of boots and shoes and leather belting, to be used for these purposes only in their own factories.

Yarns made of wool or worated, the same being genapped, dyed and finished, when imported by manufacturers of braids, cords, tassels and fringes.

Blanketing and lapping and discs or mills for engraving copper rollers when imported by cotton manufacturers, calico printers and wall paper manufacturers.

Two ply cotton twiner yarns in cops only, made from single cotton yarns finer than number forty, used by the manufacturers of Italian cloths, cashmeres and cotton cloths for the selvages of said cloths, to be used for these purposes only, in their own factories.

The foregoing is to be in force until the end of next session of Parliament, unless sooner repealed.

MRS. MORLEY'S CATS.

The Widow Again in Trouble Over Her Pets—The Ayer Case Appealed.

MONTREAL, July 17.—A deputation from the Society for the Protection of Women and Children waited on the Recorder to-day and called his attention to the disparity between the sentences on men and women. His Honor said he generally dealt with them leniently for the first time, but when he found they were lost he sent them for longer periods to cure them of their evil habits, if possible. However, he would, in some cases, remand them for eight days to allow the society to take action.

Widow Morley who had some trouble with the court last year, her neighbors taking exception to the large number of cats which she kept in her residence on St. Hubert-street, has again come to grief on account of these pets. After leaving the city she had her colony transported to St. Laurent but the residents there also took a dislike to so large a feline population, so much so, that they caused the Municipal Council to notify her landlord that the nuisance must be abated. The landlord has in consequence instituted proceedings against the widow to expel her from the premises. When the court bailiff went to seize the cats he only caught 30 out of some 70.

The Crown to-day served notice of appeal to the Supreme Court upon one of the counsel for J. C. Ayer and Co., in the recent Customs cases decided by Chief Justice Ritchie.

Another Niagara Falls Crank.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 17.—Supt. Welch, of the Niagara Reservation, recently received a letter from Arthur Stanley, dated Buffalo, in which that gentleman asserted that he had an improved parachute with which he had leaped from the Clifton suspension bridge in England, and which he desired to exhibit at the Falls, in conjunction with a patent suit of rubber and cork. He intended to float down to the brink of the falls, and then hoist his parachute and drop gently down to the water below, and continue his voyage on to Lewiston. Stanley wanted permission to exhibit three times a week during the summer. The request was refused.

MURDER AND ROBBERY.

An Inoffensive Old Man Killed for His Money.

TILBURY CENTRE, July 17.—A murder and robbery was committed three miles from this village at about 10 o'clock last night. Some unknown parties broke open the door of a house belonging to a quiet and inoffensive old man by the name of Wilson Houghton, who lived alone, having never been married. Robbery seems to have been the motive. Houghton was shot in the abdomen, and died from the effects of the wound at 5 a.m. Before dying he made a statement to the effect that two men broke open his door and shot him. He stated that the robbers secured about five hundred dollars which were on his person at the time. An inquest is in progress.

No Compromise.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Burlington officials say that they will not compromise any of the pending criminal proceedings against the alleged dynamiters.

On the Retired List.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Senate has passed the bill to place John C. Fremont on the retired list of the army as Major-General.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE STRATFORD ELOPEMENT.

Ex-Chief of Police Herrington Seen in Detroit—One of His Cronies.

STRATFORD, July 17.—Society is still in a twitter over ex-Chief of Police Herrington's escapade. All sorts of stories are in circulation regarding his whereabouts and the woman, Mrs. Henry. At a meeting of the City Council Monday evening he was dismissed from the force. The ex-Chief was an excellent officer and was held in high esteem until a few months before his departure. He was seen recently in Detroit, but his lady-love was not with him. He left a large number of mourning friends behind him—principally those he owed bills to, who would like to gaze upon his benign countenance one more. Your readers will remember the sudden flight of Mr. H. A. Jamieson, wheat buyer of this city, last summer, with $13,000 of funds of the Bank of Montreal. Jamieson and the ex-Chief were old cronies at St. Mary's and it was partly owing to Jamieson that he received the appointment on the force here. They used to "hunt in couples," and many a good story is related of their midnight prowling in the back streets here.

The notorious "Doc" Ford of St. Mary's, who was arrested a few years ago and accused of poisoning a young man of that town, named Robert Guest, was an uncle of the ex-Chief's.

A new Chief of Police will likely be appointed at the next meeting of the City Council.

TROUBLE IN THE ARMY.

A Niagara Falls Salvationist Empties His Revolver at an unwelcome Visitor.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 17.—A. Delone, color bearer of the local Salvation Army corps, found a carpenter named Frank Charman in his wife's room when he returned from the barracks last night. Charman fled, pursued by Delone who fired five shots from his revolver at the fugitive, the bullets going wide of the mark.

Mrs. Delone stated to her husband that Charman pushed her into the room forcibly, but she refused to swear out a warrant for assault against him, whereupon Mr. Delone took his two children from his home and left this afternoon for Stratford where he has a married son by a former wife.

Mrs. Delone was considerably her husband's junior. She was also a Salvationist.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Foolish Young Man from Oshawa—Striking Plumbers Arrested.

TORONTO, July 18.—A young man from Oshawa took a girl from that town to the Island yesterday and after trying to fill her up with beer attempted to assault her. She beat him off, but in the struggle dropped her purse. He started off with it, but a policeman interfered. The girl refused to enter a complaint.

The London City Council and their friends to the number of 50, are on a visit to the city to-day.

Two of the striking plumbers have been arrested on a charge of intimidating men who came on from New York to fill their places.

The Knights Templars elected Sovereign Great Priory officers and the Cryptic Masons Grand Council officers yesterday. The visiting brethen will enjoy a moonlight excursion to-night on the Cibola.

The B.M.E. Conference came to a close last evening.

There is nothing particularly new in the World lockout. The vacant "frames" are nearly all filled. The Typographical Union held a meeting last night to consider the situation and determined to support the compositors.

The boy William Murphy who was injured at St. Catharines on Monday afternoon, on the occasion of the excursion of St. Patrick's Conference, St. Vincent de Paul Society, to that city, died in the hospital there yesterday morning. Rev. Father Smith of St. Patrick's Church remained with the injured lad all night. His sister arrived late in the evening and is seriously ill in Hyne's Hotel. The remains were sent on to Toronto to the deceased's late residence, 138½ William-street last evening.

STONED BY A MOB.

Religious Intolerance in Quebec—Salvationists Defend themselves with Revolvers.

QUEBEC, July 17.—The Salvation Army went to St. Foye last evening to hold an outdoor meeting. They were attacked by a mob who threw stones at them, seriously injuring several of the female soldiers. Some of the Salvationists drew revolvers and fired several times at the crowd, but none of the shots took effect.

A Notorious Tough Escapes.

HAWTREY, July 17.—A notorious tough of this vicinity named G. C. Henderson has left for the United States. A short time ago a warrant was issued for his arrest on a charge of forgery. He becoming aware of this fact, left on Friday last and quietly went to Detroit. He has a large family here in destitute circumstances.

Pitcher Arraigned.

MONTREAL, July 17.—Chas. A. Pitcher, late teller of the Union Bank of Providence was arraigned this morning on a charge of bringing stolen money into Canada. He pleaded not guilty, and preferred a jury trial. Judge Desmoyers committed him to the court of Queen's bench, which will sit on Sept. 1. The only proof against Pitcher is the indentification of the wrappers on the bills. The bank evidently thinks this weak, as they have taken proceedings for extradition on the charge of forgery before Judge Davidson of the Supreme Court.

Pilgrims to Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

MONTREAL, July 17.—One hundred and twenty pilgrims from St. Jean Baptiste ward to Ste. Anne de Beaupre have returned. Some of the pilgrims state that two miracles took place. Madame Joubert, residing in St. Jean Baptiste ward, recovered the use of her limbs, which she had lost for years. A young girl named Vaillincourt, aged 15, residing on St. Lawrence-street, was also, it is said, cured of a similar infirmity, she having been obliged to use crutches for the past six years.

HIGH LIFE IN ENGLAND.

EDMUND YATES' GOSSIP ON THE DOINGS OF SOCIETY IN ENGLAND.

The Duchess of Marlborough the Observed of all Observers—Anglican Bishops Seated in Orchestra Chairs—The Parnell Letters Again.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Edmund Yates cables to The Tribune, as follows: If it had not been for the announcement in the Court Circular the Queen's visit to London last week might almost have escaped notice. A closed brougham was used in going to and from Paddington, and Her Majesty was accompanied only by Lady Ely and Miss Cadogan. Those who saw the Queen for a moment in the ambassadors' court at St James' Palace thought she had aged considerably since the Jubilee, and she seemed to experience some difficulty in getting into her carriage. She found her venerable aunt, the Duchess of Cambridge, very weak, but quite as much interested in passing events and anxious to talk about them as ever.

Princess Mary Adelaide of Teck put in an appearance at the silver fete on Saturday evening, while Prince Adolph and his sister were enjoying the pleasure of the switch-back railway, and soon disposed of all that was left on the stalls of the Princess Louise and the Duchess of of Manchester. The crush around the two stalls was tremendous, and selling went on with astonishing business. The charity has every reason to be grateful to H. R. H. Her Grace of Manchester did not return in the evening, but Lady Randolph Churchill, in her cream-colored dress, stuck to her guns and dispensed cooling drinks as fast as they could be asked for. The silver fete should make the fortune of Victoria Hospital. Many smart people visited it on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Oppenheim and Lady Guinness have both made good their titles to share with Lady Livenhouse the credit of having given the smartest parties of a season which is already mortbund and will expire with Goodwood. The hospitalities of Brutonstreet have acquired the cachet which comes only with the presence of Royalty itself and on Monday the enforced absence of H. R. H. was almost atoned for by the arrival of the reigning Duchess of Marlborough, whose honeymoon ended with a voyage across the Atlantic and who was in no way disconcerted, if appearances may be trusted, at the extraordinary amount of attention which she excited, as she stood perfectly unmoved in her robe of white satin, with necklace of pearls, at the top of Mrs. Oppenheim's staircase. The brilliancy of the electric light was tempered by a judicious arrangement of pink shades. The hostess did the honors in a robe of cream-colored satin. The latest recruit to the ranks of a duchess soon found herself surrounded by their graces of Manchester, Athole, Leinster, St. Albans, Roxburgh, Hamilton and Marchionesses of Bath, Bristol, Abergavenney, Londonderry and Roxburgh, Caroline, Duchess of Montrose, in a bright scarlet, compared first impressions with Lady A., Lady Dudley, Mrs. Algy Mills with Lady Hastings were much admired. The Duke of Marlborough discovered something pleasant to say to everybody. The red satin wall furnished an excellent background to the whole scene, the music and flowers were both good. The duchess of the evening took the criticisms of the mobbing and staring people most good humoredly and chiefly talked to her new relatives, but the marshalling of relays of fifty for supper was a matter of some difficulty, for the crowd round the doors was tremendous.

Lord and Lady Salisbury gave a large dinner for the Duke and Duchess of Teck on Wednesday, with a small and very smart dance to follow. The inevitable American contingent was, for once, forgotten. Lady Granby wore all her diamonds for the first time, and although only 250 guests were present the wealth and influence of the Tories were completely represented.

The Pan-Anglican Bishops are beginning to find their weekly program somewhat wearisome. They are even reported to regard with a little envy such innocuous diversion as the Pan-Presbyterian picnic at Dollis Hill. At the S. P. G. Conclave, on Tuesday, when the right rev. prelates occupied seats in the orchestra, St. James' Hall was very dull, very hot and very close. It really seemed as if the eight addresses would never end. There was a Temperance breakfast at Westminster Town Hall, on Wednesday morning, a conversazione of the C.M.S., with tea and talk, in the dingy precincts of Salisbury-square on Thursday afternoon. Dean Bradley was At Home with light refreshments, in Jerusalem Chamber, when the voyagers had departed and personally conducted his Episcopal visitors over the Abbey from crypt to leads. The Bishop of London and Mrs. Temple were At Home at Fulham on Saturday afternoon. Lords Fortescue and Beauchamp and Marquis Wyndford and Winmerleigh and other peers interested in matters ecclesiastical mustered in force. America and the Colonies were represented by the Bishops of Brisbane, Iowa, Antigua, Sydney, Bombay and Calcutta.

Cardinal Manning, on his eightieth birthday, this dripping St. Swithin's Day, looked and felt at least as strong as he did ten years ago. He preached at Brook Green on behalf of the House of Rest, and besides the usual Sunday routine saw a number of friends. Sheafs of telegrams of congratulations and good wishes arrived during the day.

With regard to Mr. Parnell's letters, the statement of The Daily News that these documents were hawked about in newspaper offices for sale before The Times got hold of them, is absolutely devoid of foundation. The letters in question were never at any time offered to The Daily News or to any other newspaper. I will not gratify Mr. Parnell's very natural desire to know how they got to The Times, but the channel through which they reached Printing House-square afforded a very definite guarantee of their authenticity.

Berlin is beginning to grow curious over the anti-Bismarckian volume which a son of Count Arnio is seeing through the press. The volume, I am told, has been judiciously edited, and this was necessary.

COUNCIL MEETING.

There was no regular meeting of the council on Monday evening. The Roads and Sidewalks Committee being the only members present. A special meeting was therefore held on the following Wednesday evening to dispose of the business on hand.

Reeve in the chair, all present. Minutes of last regular meeting read and confirmed.

On motion of Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Nelson, the village clerk was directed to advertise in the Chronicle for one week for cleaning and lighting the street lamps to the end of 1888, and the Road and Sidewalk Committee given power to accept tender.

On motion the communications of T. J. Bird, John O'Niel and the Foresters' Band were received.

Moved by Mr. Hall, seconded by Mr. Moore, that the band be granted the use of the council chamber, as requested in their communication.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Nelson, that an order be drawn on the treasurer for the sum of $6, in favor of John O'Neil, to be placed in the hands of Mr. Hall to pay for wood delivered to him, and hand him the balance, if any.—Carried.

The Finance Committee handed in their report, which, on motion, was received, and the following accounts ordered to be paid :—

B. Morrow, copy of by-law	$ 1 50
Isaac Watson, wages, etc	34 49
J. Griffin, work	60
Lakefield Lumber Co., plank	105 76
G. Fitzgerald, repairs	2 25
Mrs. J. R. Rogers, horse hire	2 00
Jas. Jackman, work	7 50
Peter Baptie, lamp posts	6 25
Village Clerk, postage, etc	2 52
Village Clerk, contingent account	10 45
Total	$186 82

Mrs. J. R. Rogers addressed the council in reference to the remit of part of her livery license money, when on motion of Mr. Hull, seconded by Mr. Henderson, the sum of $7.44 was ordered to be returned to her.

A committee of the whole council was required to discuss the question of more lamps, when the motion to adjourn was carried.

SCHOOL BOARD.

The school board held their regular meeting in the council chamber last Monday evening. Present : Mr. Gordon, in the chair ; and Messrs. Smith, Graham and Dench. Minutes of former meeting were read and confirmed. On motion, the report of Mr. Neily, head master, for June was received. Total roll for June, 266, average attendance, 176. The low average attendance was due to an epidemic of measles, now prevailing in the village.

The following accounts were reported as correct by the Finance Committee, and, on motion, were ordered to be paid :

Chas. Grylls, wood	$ 3 00
W. H. Casement, supplies	6 49
Wm. Podger, drilling well	26 50
Total	$35 99

The tender of Mr. George Scringer of $50 for painting inside of school was, on motion, accepted.

Moved by Mr. Graham, seconded by Mr. Graham, that Mr. Podger receive $6 for filling up old well, and levelling the ground round the new one.—Carried.

A motion passed at the last meeting in regard to throwing ashes over the school grounds was amended by adding the words, "except what are used in the water closets."

The board then adjourned.

STREET LAMPS.

The lamps placed by the council on Queen street having given such good satisfaction, it has been decided to add five more, which will be placed in position as soon as they arrive from Toronto, and will add to the appearance of the streets and comfort of our ratepayers.

ORANGE SERMON.

The members of Berresford L. O. L. No. 122 attended the Methodist church last Sunday evening to listen to a sermon preached on their behalf by Rev. Mr. Johnston, which was much appreciated, and for which a suitable vote of thanks was returned.

ACCIDENT.

Mr. George Bell, while working in his mill at Bridgenorth, had the misfortune to get injured by a piece of edging flying back from the saw. He was brought over to Lakefield when it was found the large bone of the arm was fractured, and one of the pieces driven through the flesh, making an ugly wound. He is doing well.

"MUSIC HAS CHARMS, ETC."

The Foresters' band, who were in full force at the council chamber at the last meeting, treated the members of the council to a selection of Orange airs, after the sitting was over. The "Protestant Boys" so worked up the feelings of one of the members that, when he went home, he hunted up his long unused sash and turned out to Port Hope the next day feeling "as young as he used to be, some twenty years ago."

HOME.

Mr. Clarence Bell, son of Dr. Bell, and now of the Attorney-General's office, Toronto, is home and up the lakes spending his summer holidays.

OUR BACK LAKES.

Travel up our back lakes seem to be larger this year than ever. For the past ten days, the popular steamer "Cruiser" had had her full complement of passengers, her old friends being delighted at the change made in her last winter, while the new patrons speak in the highest terms of the attention shown to them by the worthy Captain and his crew. This morning she was unable to take up all who wished to take passage, and had to run down after landing her first load and make a second trip up with those left behind, over sixty in number. Every island and point in the lake seems to have its happy occupants, and the cry is still they come, proving the growing popularity of Stony Lake, as a summer resort for health and amusement.

BUSH FIRES.

The heavy gale last week was the means of starting up numerous bush fires and spreading them over a large extent of country. Fires which were supposed to be out for weeks past were kindled into renewed vigor by the gale, and are now sweeping everything before them. To the north and east of the village, the red glow of fire can be seen in all directions every night, while the smoke penetrates everywhere, and many farmers have had to leave their haying to save their own and their neighbors' crops and buildings. Payne's new mill in Dummer had a narrow escape, and was only saved by the people turning out in force and fighting the fire back. G. W. Fitzgerald, 7th con. Smith, lost over 100 cords of wood, besides rails, etc., last week. Unless we soon get rain, the danger done will be untold, as everything is so dry and we have so much wind.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

In former years when a drive of logs was to be sent over the dam here, they were only allowed to leave the booms in the lake as they could go through the slide. This year, immense booms of logs have been cut loose at once, filling the river from the dam up to the piers in the lake, so that the steamers could not get up or down. Last Saturday evening and again Monday night such was the case, while the steamers had to lay at their wharves with passengers anxious to get to camp at a reasonable hour, until the logs were sent over the dam and they could venture out. There is supposed to be a superintendent of these waters, who looks after such matters, but owing to the constant complaints of one kind or another there might as well be none and everything is "go happy, go lucky."

WHERE IS IT?

Last winter we were pleased to learn from your down town contemporary that the sum of $4,500 was down in the estimates to be spent on wharfs or docks at Lakefield, and we have since been assured by the Dominion member for West Peterborough that the contracts would be let and the work gone on with this season. The summer is fast passing away, and as yet we have seen no signs of work, no contract asked for, or have we heard of any plans being prepared. Many would like to know where the money is, or where in the estimates such a grant is to be found? Perhaps we will have a commission appointed to visit Lakefield and report on the advisibility and cost of the wharf, etc. Editors are supposed to know everything, can you enlighten us in the backwoods?

Yes, he loves you now, 'tis true,
Lass with eyes of violet hue,
Lips as sweet as honey-dew,
Bonny little bride!
Will he love you as to-day,
When your blooms has fled away,
When your golden locks are grey,—
Will his love abide?

Yes, if it is the true kind it will survive all the inevitable wastes and changes of life. But, it is every woman's desire and duty to retain, as long as she can, the attractions that made her charming and beloved in youth. No one can keep her youthful bloom or equable temper if weighed down and suffering from female weakness and disorders. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy for these troubles. Sold by druggists. o

A Pathetic Story.

From Virginia comes a pretty, half-pathetic story of two little lads of three and six, who were lost for two days and nights in the Shenandoah Mountains, though the whole valley was out looking for them. They were found at last cuddled in dry leaves in the shelter of some big rocks, and the little one's clothes, to the practised mother's eye, were wofully awry. Asking the reason, she was told that upon their first night out the baby had utterly refused to sleep in his clothes; so the elder undressed him, spread his little skirts upon the rock that served for a bed, put the bonnet under his curly head, and at morning put on the clothes again as best his tiny fingers could. Throughout their wanderings, which extended four miles, the little fellows had kept the tin bucket with which they had been sent to the spring for water.

HAMILTON'S NEW CITY HALL.

The Corner Stone to be Laid To-morrow—Two 11-Year-Old Burglars.

HAMILTON, July 17.—Mayor Doran will lay the corner stone of the new City Hall at noon on Thursday. Lunch will be served to invited guests at the Royal Hotel at 3 o'clock. There are sixteen toasts on the list and a good flood of oratory is expected.

There was a largely attended meeting at Stoney Creek last night to consider the by-law for raising $180,000 for the purchase of the toll roads of the county. The sentiment of those present was largely in favor of the measure.

At the meeting of Hamilton Presbytery to-day, a call from St. Paul's Church, Carluke, in favor of Rev. Albert E. Doherty, was sustained and put into Mr. Doherty's hands for consideration. He asked for time to consider it.

The steamer Celtic started on her annual lighthouse trip at midnight last night.

Yesterday afternoon Colin McLeod's house was entered and a pair of trousers, a vest and a gold chain were stolen.

At the Police Court to-day Charles Johnston and William Pearson, both of them 11 years old, were charged with entering H. J. McAllister's store and stealing $5. Both of them pleaded guilty. They also admitted stealing money from the store on several other occasions. They will be sentenced on Saturday.

Sentence was deferred until Tuesday in the case of Andrew Mortimer and John Folland, the young rascals who were found in McGregor & Parke's drug store Friday night.

FINERTY'S FULMINATION.

The ex-Congressman Denounces Papal Interference in Irish Affairs.

CHICAGO, July 17.—The letter of the Pope, explaining the rescript on the Irish question, has caused an unusual stir among the Irish citizens of Chicago. Ex-Congressman John F. Finerty said: "The issue is made at last. For the last 700 years the Irish people have been suffering the tortures of the damned because of Papal interference in Irish affairs. Next to England Rome has been Ireland's greatest political enemy, and it is on questions of politics now alone and not on matters of faith that I am speaking. To have the homes of Ireland leveled to the ground, the fathers and the brothers and the sons butchered, the wives, sisters and daughters outraged, the infants piked or bayoneted, and all promiscuously starved, is a combination of horrors before which the Devil himself must stand appalled. If that is a legitimate Government, and Pope Leo XIII. maintains that it is, then legitimate government springs from the Devil and not from God, and it should be opposed whether the Premier of England or the Pope of Rome is its mouthpiece."

The Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1888.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Southeast to southwest winds; mostly fair weather, with local showers or thunderstorms; higher temperatures.

Is Camping Healthful.

Camping is generally regarded as conducive to health, but the fact is, that it tends to consumption. Local grocerymen are daily sending away large supplies for consumption in the camps. The young ladies dressed in the golden lion prints are more spirituelle and etherial and show less tendency to consumption than those otherwise attired. Fifteen cent imported prints going for ten cents at fair's.

Drowned at Gore's Landing.

On Sunday morning a young Englishman named James Donegan while sweeping the decks of the steamer "Beaver," as she was lying at the wharf at Gore's Landing, fell overboard and was drowned. He never rose to the surface after he once sank, and it is supposed he was overcome by a fit of some kind. The accident occurred at 6 o'clock in the morning. Capt. Harris, of the "Beaver," in whose employ he was, thinks the unfortunate lad, who was about 28 years of age, had no relatives in this country.

WANTED.

The Trustees of the Charlotte Street Methodist Church want to buy a Comfortable Dwelling for a Parsonage, for which cash will be paid. Apply immediately to Mr. Cluxton. 5d

Market Items.

There was a very small attendance at the market this morning owing to the rain. However, there was considerable quantity of fruit, considering everything. Gooseberries brought from 8 to 10c. per quart, red currants 8c., black currants 12½c. and cherries 10c. per quart. Butter was worth 21c. and eggs 15c. There were a few pails of raspberries at $1.25 per pail, and new potatoes at $1.80 per bushel.

Mother Goose.

A representative of the EXAMINER dropped into the hall where Mr. Dingle was giving a full rehearsal for the "Mother Goose" entertainment to-morrow night. The children all went through their parts well, and as they take such an interest in all that is required of them, there is no doubt but that they will make a success of it. "Old Mother Goose with her brood" will be sure to interest all who attend the entertainment Thursday evening. Admission, only 25 cents.

Fine Beverage.

J. H. Gurd & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 18 lbs. good sugar, $1; tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. 1w W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

The Little World.

The "Little World" opened here last evening in the store on the corner of George and Charlotte streets. It is owned by Messrs. Smith & Geddes, two enterprising young men, who, no doubt, will do a rushing business in this town. The "Little World" was invented and made by Mr. W. H. Robertson, of Hamilton, a railroad blacksmith by trade. He spent his evenings constructing this elegant piece of workmanship. It runs by machinery, which is driven by a small engine. It is almost impossible to give a description of the "Little World," it can be better understood by viewing it. It is well worth seeing—go and see it. Tickets only 10 cents.

A Modern Methuselah.

Last night a man named Brown arrived at the Queen's Hotel, and he is represented as having reached the remarkable age of 106 years. He has been residing with a son near Tamworth, Lennox county, and the son having died, a grand-son was taking the old gentleman to another son about four miles from Lindsay. He has the frame work of a man of 250 lbs. but is now merely skin and bones perfectly toothless, cannot speak, has not walked for ten years, and is every way answers Shakspere's description of the last stage of the seven ages of man—"sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything." He went off on the morning train to Lindsay.

Look out for closing and clearing sale of Alexander's bankrupt stock, commencing next Saturday at Dawson Bros'. old stand, Hunter street. 5d165

Little World.

The genuine Little World, now on exhibition for a few days, corner of George and Charlotte streets, was visited last night by a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen. As this is the most elaborate work of mechanical art in existence every person should go and see it.

St. John's Sunday School Excursion.

This morning was an unfortunate one for this excursion to Stony Lake. Just as the excursionists started for the station the rain came down by bucketsfull and drove scores to their homes again. About 125 reached the station before the rain, and these boarded the train and left town at 9 o'clock.

Seasonable.

For a beautiful selection of prints in light, dark and muslin patterns, call on J. J. Sheehy, 415 George street.

A Shaper Accident.

Yesterday morning Master Richard Parnell, while working a shaper in Baptie's planing mill, had the third finger of his left hand caught and badly torn. Dr. King attended to the injury.

A $1,000 policy in the Manufacturers Accident Insurance Company (Wilson & Morrison, agents) would bring $5 a week daring disablement for accidents similar to the above.

"Hazel Brae" Pic-nic.

On Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Dr. Barnardo's birthday, the Home staff arranged an excursion for the children to Crawford's Grove. The usual run of children's games were played and the good things provided by the sub-matron were fully appreciated, the drive there and back and the boating provided by Capt. Annesley and Mr. Harold Fife contributing largely to the general enjoyment. Mrs. Annesley remained at home in charge. The united thanks of the staff are hereby gratefully tendered to Mr. T. Fitzgerald, who kindly granted his pic-nic 'bus for the occasion.

Willow and Wicket.

The Toronto club eleven, a strong team, will arrive to-morrow morning or to-night, the home club has a good team to meet them and a fine display of cricket may be expected. It is to be hoped that the members of the home team will be on hand in time, so that wickets may be pitched at the time advertised—9.30. In a one day match with a time limit, only a few minutes at the last may permit both innings to be finished and an unfavorable result in the first innings to be retrieved. Spectators do not like to be bored with weary waits, therefore, gentlemen, please be on time.

The Ontario County Eleven write asking for the return match at Whitby on Friday or Monday. Friday is an impossible date and the match will probably be played on Monday.

T. V. Canal Commission.

The Trent Valley Canal Commission, having completed their tour of inspection of the northern waters of the system, will go out on commission for a short time, but on the 31st July will set out for a visit to the southern waters of the system. On their trip north they made a thorough inspection of the immense expanse of water tributary to the proposed canal, going as far north as Midland. Throughout the route they met with the most courteous treatment and warmest assistance in the accomplishment of the objects of their mission. Judge Weller was, of course, familiar with the waters of the district explored, but to the other members of the Commission, the new experience will be a valuable aid in the intelligent prosecution of farther inquiries. The Commission will begin taking evidence at different points along the route of the proposed canal in September.

BUYERS are bewildered by our bewitching bargains biscuits, baking powders, etc., at The Pantry

A Genuine Sensation.

Chester, Novia Scotia, has had during the past week a genuine sensation. About six weeks ago there arrived from parts unknown a white-hairedd old batriarch and three very vivacious young ladies. One was introduced as his better half, the others as his wife's sisters. The ladies were invited everywhere and when not accompanied by the old man had a good time. About a week ago the youngest became infatuated with one of our young men, and in a moment of confidence disclosed the fact that the old patriarch was a Mormon Bishop, a refugee from Salt Lake, Utah, and that all the women were, according to the rites of the Mormon church, his wives. The next thing to an impossibility as to keep a thing a secret in Chester, so the whole matter leaked out. The "bishop" got wind of the affair, and with his three wives skipped out on Saturday night at 10 o'clock for Windsor.

St. Andrew's Sunday School Excursion

The annual excursion and picnic of St. Andrew's Sunday school on Tuesday, added another to the long list of this season's delightful outings to Jubilee Point. There were about 300 persons on board the Golden Eye, which made the voyage to the Point in good time. Here the pleasure was continued by animated enjoyment of the various pleasures the place afforded—swinging, boating, rambling, fern-gathering and refreshments, of which there was an excellent abundance. During the afternoon the children were delighted by the sports and games, conducted by Messrs. John Bell and Cassie Beale. The youngsters were delighted with the handsome prizes awarded. The ladies and officials of the Sunday school exerted themselves with marked success in promoting the pleasure of the party. The return trip was made in fairly good time, very slight detention being caused by the logs, the works at Locks bridge and by the boom in the lake. The net outcome of the excursion was an untold amount of pleasure and $19 in cash to be added to the funds of the school.

High School Entrance Examinations.

Four Candidates out of 36 Pass—Two Recommended.

The following are the names, with their marks, of the successful candidates at the High School entrance examination held recently in Peterborough:—

Fairbairn, Isabella	412 out of 700
Beattie, Martha E	372 out of 700
McGill, Vernon C	366 out of 700
Wood, Annie L	366 out of 700

Maud Allin and Minnie A. Hamilton, have been recommended to the Education Department, which may or may not pass them, as it sees fit.

The sub-examiners regret that so few candidates have been successful. In their opinion some of the question-papers were exceptionally difficult. No option, however, is allowed the examiners; strict injunctions being given by the Education Department that no candidate shall be passed who has not obtained 33 per cent. in each subject and 50 per cent. of the total number of marks.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, July 18th.

At the police court this morning Patrick Cane pleaded guilty to dumping night soil on the bank of the river near the goose pond. He was fined $10 and allowed ten days to pay it.

To hackmen were charged with acting disorderly in public places. They pleaded guilty and were fined $2 each.

The two west end women who had the quarrel over the well appeared this morning. The defendent told her story and then the plaintiff told hers. A light fine of $2 was imposed.

Rev. V. Clementi laid an information against several boys for damaging his shade trees. The boys have troubled him before and he thought it would be an example to the rest of them to have these punished. They will appear to-morrow morning.

Personal

Mr. D. A. McFarlane, formerly of Otonabee, representing J. & J. Taylor's safe works, is in town to-day.

Mr. John H. Morley, Canadian Passenger Agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, was in town to-day.

The many friend of Mr. O. C. Rowse, merchant, will be pleased to know that he has so far recovered from his recent severe illness as to be able to be about.

Mr. Thos. S. Rubidge, C.E., and family left town, bag and baggage, for Cornwall on Tuesday. Mr. Rubidge left few friends behind him. Mrs. Rubridge, an estemable lady will be much missed in the local circle in which she moved.

Our old friend, Captain Bridgewater, who has been connected with the York Tribune, a spicy paper published in West Toronto Junction, has, we are glad to hear, secured a more lucrative appointment in connection with the Dominion Illustrated, published in Montreal by G. E. Desbarats, Esq. The Captain was with Mr. Desbarats before for two years and will shortly start on a tour west to secure local agents in every town west of Toronto. The Tribune gives him in this week's issue a most favorable and complimentary "send off."

Lacrosse.

A game of lacrosse between the Norwood team and a team of the Y.M.C.A. Club will be played in the P.A.A.A. grounds on Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Chance of the Season.

The chance of the season for solid enjoyment and exhilarating pleasure will be the excursion of the Foresters to Jubilee Point by steamer Golden Eye, to-morrow. The most complete arrangements have been made for ensuring the comfort of passengers. An excellent committee of arrangement will anticipate every want and try to satisfy every wish. A palace barge for dancing, with an excellent quadrille band, will be provided, and every facility which can contribute to the pleasure of an excursion will be afforded. Picnickers, on arrival at Jubilee Point, will be furnished by the committee with hot water, tea and sugar. In fact the most complete preparations for the comfort of excursionists. There is an elegant dancing pavilion, safe swings, a good hotel and every other adjunct pleasure seekers may require. Parties living in the south part of the town can save considerable distance by going to the locks, where the steamer will remain long enough for them to get aboard. Tickets, 50 cents; children, 25—to be had from members of the committee or at the stores of Harry Long and John Nugent.

PUT off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

What About "Mother Goose?"

An alliterative asser may be given to this pertinent query by pointing out that for picturesque perfection of appointment; for absolute appositeness of apparel; for essential and exquisite elaboration of effective entertainment; for immensity in the matter of music, melodiously and melodramatically mirthful and rythmically ridiculous—equally eloquent in apt appeal to infant intellects and grown-up gumption; for genuine and ingenious grotesqueness; for champion cheapness for the minute amount of money mentioned for admission; for unique ingenuity in the decorous development of humorous usufruct; for nice and novel innovations in nursery naivete; for the Daly Dingle of delightful ditties; for the Howdenesque and harmonious hymning of charming chansons; for rapt rendering of rhetorical rhapsodies, yclept readings, rehearsed by Parson Pearson; for all these things "Mother Goose and her goslings" capture the confectionery. That is to say, on Thursday night next the "Mother Goose" entertainment, contributed by fifty little children, who know their parts to perfection, (under the training of Mr. Dingle) assisted by Miss Howden, Mrs. Daly and Rev. M. L. Pearson, under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., will be the most unique and delightful entertainment ever given in Bradburn's Opera House. Children in costume. Admission, 25 cents; children half price. Thursday night.

Lindsay's Decoration Day.

Decoration Day in Lindsay passed off with great success, and the Peterborough Canton of Patriarchs Militant was one of the most prominent features. On the arrival of the special train, the chevaliers were met at the station, bouquets were distributed to the chevaliers and the visiting brethren and the Lindsay band played them to the market square. Here the procession was formed, the band leading, followed by the chevaliers with Standard-Bearer Morris bearing aloft the magnificent banner; the visiting brethren from Peterborough came next, and, behind, the whole Oddfellow strength of Lindsay followed. The march to the cemetary was as long as it was dusty. Arrived at the cemetery, the graves of Oddfellows to the number of eight or ten were decorated according to the prescribed ritual. The people joined heartily in the events of the day, half holiday had been proclaimed, the town was en fete and everybody seemed to be keeping festival. The chevaliers of the Canton attracted universal attention, as their fine, trim appearance and martial bearing made them heartily deserving of. They were very handsomely treated by the Lindsay Oddfellows, being their guests at the Benson house, where they were entertained at supper. It is not unlikely that the visit of the Canton will result in the formation of a similar organization in Lindsay. After tea the chevaliers were escorted to the station by the band, the Millbrook Band joining in en route, it seemed as if the whole town were at the station to see them off, so great was the crowd. The party came home on the regular train in company with the Millbrook Sunday school excursion.

The New S. A. Temple.

Closing Session at the Barracks—Promotion of Officers—One Hundred and Twenty-Eight Pounds of Salvation.

At five o'clock yesterday afternoon the Army officers assembled in the basement of the new barracks for tea. The tables were constructed the same as the day before. Between sixty and seventy officers were present, and a glorious time was spent.

In the evening there was a grand parade and an open air meeting on the market square. They then marched to the Temple where a "Great Farewell" to officers took place and a "Hallelujah Rock-a-Bye Baby" meeting followed. A large number of staff officers took part in leading the meeting. Capt. Marshall gave out the first song from the special song books which were being offered to the people, two for five cents, and Adjt. Bolton said if any body was too poor to pay that they would give them one for each member of the family. After the singing a season of prayer followed and then Capt. Leonard, of Lindsay, took the meeting. During the singing Capt. Marshall handled the tambourine with great enthusiasm. Capt. Addie then spoke for a few minutes, and Capt. Cowan followed by singing a solo. Captain Carrie was also called upon to sing a solo. She complied and when the Army joined in the chorus she led it with great vigor. After singing three or four verses and stepping around the stage lively, she spoke for a short time. She said she had 128 pounds of salvation, and also that freedom was worth something. She exhibited her freedom by a few good jumps and some lively movements around the stage during the singing, always keeping time to the music. The Lindsay Soogsters, three in number, then sang a piece entitled "The Drum." The Soogsters are all ladies; one sang a verse alone and they all joined in the chorus. After the singing of each verse and chorus, one of them played the small drum and another the large drum. The piece was a good one and was sung well. There were numerous testimonials from different officers and soldiers which are too numerous to mention. When Cadet McKee spoke, she was asked to take the front part of the platform, which she did, and when she concluded her remarks Chief of Staff Bailey pleasantly surprised her by promoting her to the rank of Captain. There were two others promoted, whose names we did not get. Adjt. Philpot then spoke. His remarks took up some length of time as compared with the others. He gave his experience and spoke a few words to the sinners. After a few remarks from Staff Capt. Banks the meeting was brought to a close by the usual devotional exercises which always follow their meetings.

There were not as many present at this meeting as at the others. The weather betokened rain and that kept some away Several stayed to the "after meeting."

Northern Division A. C. A.

The A. C. A. and its different divisions have held their camps at many beautiful places, but the spot chosen by the Northern division at Lake Couchiching would be hard to equal as far as scenic beauty or civilized accommodation are concerned. Lakes Simcoe, Couchiching, and the network of lakes and rivers to the northward have been the paradise of the canoeist before Columbus was born; and the white race that is gradually usurping the place of the aborigine in this healthful pastime is equally as much alive to these advantages as the son of the forest who, centuries ago, broke the calm of these blue waters with a paddle. The Northern division of the A. C. A. has just issued its programme, whose very appearance bespeaks a pleasant camp. The date of the camp is, from July 23rd, to August 4th inclusive. The site of the Northern division camp is on "Horse Island," Lake Couchiching, about four miles from the town of Orillia. The island is well wooded and sheltered, and will afford an ideal camping ground. On the south of the island, about a quarter of a mile from the main camp, the shores of a delightful sandy bay have been set apart for a ladies' camp, or, in the argot of a canoeist "squaw camp." The courses could not be better, and were laid out last winter. The Grand Trunk railway has kindly agreed to carry passengers to and from the camp at single fare, canoe and kit free, from almost every point in Ontario. A leading feature in the camp will be a post-office, to be designated "A. C. A. Camp, Orillia." It is expected that two or three short cruises will be made during the camp to the beautiful lakes in the neighborhood.

Colonization Roads.

The work on the South Burleigh and South Buckhorn colonization roads has been finished. A good job has been made, the men employed (in the neighborhood) have been paid and everything is satisfactory to the people of the vicinity, to whom the improved roads will be an immense convenience.

"The Maiden's Prayer"—Give me one more cup of fine tea from The Pantry.

Correction.

In the last paragraph of the report of the contracting carpenters' meeting published yesterday, the name of Mr. W. Fitzgerald as mover of the resolution should have been printed instead of Mr. Geo. Elliott.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Good wife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

THE WRIT FOR COLCHESTER ELECTION ISSUED.

Nominations to Take Place on Aug. 8 and Polling on Aug. 15—An Interesting Liquor Case—Quebec Provincial Rifle Matches.

OTTAWA, July 18.—The writ for Colchester, to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Hon. A. W. McLelan to the Lieutenant Governorship of Nova Scotia, has been issued. Nominations will take place on Aug. 8 and polling on Aug. 15.

Col. Herchmer, Commissioner of the Northwest Mounted Police, who is in the city, reports that there is a very considerable migration of the Metis taking place, not only from Batouche but from many other sections of the Northwest to the Peace River District.

He says that everything is prosperous in the Northwest, crop prospects are splendid and the yield promises to be much greater than last year. The Indians are perfectly quiet, the ranchmen are doing well and in every way the country is prosperous.

The Inland Revenue Department has issued a circular that methylated spirits will be sold by druggists in two grades: No. 1, at $1.40 per gallon, will contain 25 per cent. of wood naphtha and be supplied under special regulations only to varnish and other manufacturers. No. 2, at $1.60 per gallon, will contain 50 per cent. of wood naphtha and be sold to anybody.

There was another meeting of Council this afternoon but it is understood that only routine business was transacted.

Major Blaiklock of the Fifth Royal Scots of Montreal was here to-day with reference to the forthcoming matches of the Quebec Rifle Association at the Rideau Ranges. An interesting case was commenced in the Police Court this morning to test the liability of brewers' agents under the Crooks Act, and enlarged until Tuesday. The License Inspector made a charge of selling liquor without a license against John O'Neill, agent for Bowie & Bale, brewers of Brockville. The ale is brought here in bulk, bottled here and sold. O'Neill claims that he is only an agent, is paid a salary, that office rents, etc., are paid by the brewers and that he is therefore not responsible.

Two Women Burnt to Death.

BUFFALO, July 17. Mrs. John G. Floss visited her husband's sister, Mrs. Mary Willet, yesterday, and while they were conversing in the kitchen an oil lamp on the table exploded, scattering the burning oil on the floor. Mrs. Floss and Mrs. Willet endeavored to quench the flames and in doing so their clothes caught fire and they were so badly burned that they both died this morning. Three of the neighbors were seriously injured while trying to assist the unfortunates.

WILLIAM AND BISMARCK.

THE CHANCELLOR'S RESTRAINING INFLUENCE.

Queen Victoria Indignant at the Treatment Accorded the Ex-Empress—A Sensation in the House of Lords—Henry Labouchere's London Gossip.

LONDON, July 18.—The intended visit to England of the Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia has been postponed till September, when they will be the guests of the Queen at Balmoral.

The Pall Mall Gazette contained last week a sensational announcement to the effect that the Empress Victoria had been put almost under arrest on the death of her husband. I am told on authority that these are the facts, but I cannot absolutely vouch for them. They are, however, openly stated in Berlin. The Empress was supposed to have obtained certain documents. These, it is said, she handed over to her mother when the latter came to Berlin, and the Queen carried them off with her. When the Prince of Wales was in Berlin for the funeral of the late Emperor he tried to arrange matters but failed, for he was not empowered to return the documents. It is further said, but this seems improbable, that certain securities are missing and that the will of the late Emperor is to be contested.

One thing is certain, namely, that there is a bitter feud between the Empress and her son, and our Queen is in a high state of indignation. If the Queen has been so reprehensibly indiscreet as to bring Prussian State or family papers from Germany or to accept the custody of such, Lord Salisbury had better make it his business to see that they are returned at once, as it is certain that in the end Her Majesty will be forced to give them up. Any dispute or scandal on such a subject would be mortifying, discreditable and dangerous to the country.

On the other hand, if the story which has been current at Berlin for the last month is untrue, let a public and peremptory contradiction appear without further delay. The story of the Empress having been put under arrest arose, no doubt, from the fact that on the death of the sovereign the sentinels are always doubled around the palace in which his remains are lying and that the new Emperor ordered a cordon to be drawn in order to find out what newspaper reporters were within the palace or what ones asked for admission, as he wished to prevent any detailed information of what had occurred being prematurely published.

It is probable that the German Emperor will not commit any particular act of folly so long as Prince Bismarck, for whom he has great respect, remains to the fore. But when the Prince has disappeared from public affairs it is very likely that Germany will have troubles both at home and abroad. The Emperor is far more of a feudalist than he Prince. On the other hand, the short reign of the late Emperor has greatly conduced to strengthen the Liberal party. Herr Von Puttkamer had for long done Prince Bismarck's dirty work. He had converted the elections in many districts into a mere farce by the official pressure that he exercised over them. His dismissal will render it almost impossible to revert to this system; and the Liberal party will be henceforward more largely represented in the Chamber. This, together with the Emperor's autocratic notions, will sooner or later lead to collision, and knowing this, it is possible that the Emperor will try to avert it by plunging the country into a foreign war. In the meanwhile he will draw closer to Russia, and thus Lord Salisbury's absurd folly of promising our aid to Italy on condition that she would join the triple alliance and thus inflict a blow on Russia, has proved, as might have been anticipated, a dismal failure.

Whatever good qualities the German Emperor may have good taste can hardly be said to be one of them. Almost immediately after Dr. von Bergmann ceased to be one of Emperor Frederick's medical attendants the Crown Prince, as he was then, ostentatiously asked him to dinner. He also entertained the rabid Jew-baiting court chaplain, Stoeker, who openly insulted his dying father. Now, by way of reward (and, I suppose, for still grosser insult to his mother) he has decorated Drs. von Bergmann and Gerhardt, the two ringleaders of the attack against her and Dr. Mackenzie. He evidently thinks that he owes duty only to his ancestors. Living relatives have no claims.

There was quite a sensation in the House of Lords before the Duke of Argyll commenced his speech on Thursday, in consequence of the appearance of an individual clad in a horsy-looking light coat and white hat who had appropriated a seat on the Episcopal bench which is usually occupied by the Primate. His face could not be seen by half the people in the House, and they were apprehensive that the worries of the Lambeth Conference had so far deprived the Archbishop of Canterbury of his wits as to lead him to come to the House of Lords in a costume which would have done credit to the smartest habitue of Sandown or Kempton. At last the individual who had excited so much speculation turned his head, when it was discovered that he was neither the Most Rev. Dr. Benson, gone crazy, nor any other disordered and disorderly prelate, but only Earl Latham, the Lord Chamberlain, who was presently obliged to give up his comfortable place to its usual occupant.

Two superb state railroad carriages have just been built in Paris for the Emperor and Empress of China. They are splendidly ornamented, and on the panels are dragons in gilt bronze, with most elaborate decorations. The principal saloon is furnished in cerasse and yellow satin, and the carriage appropriated to the exclusive use of the Empress in sky-blue plush and silver.

It is now said that negotiations are in progress with a view to the betrothal of the Prince of Naples, the only son of the King and Queen of Italy, to Princess Clementine, of Belgium, the youngest of the three daughters of the King and Queen of the Belgians. INVADED BY CHINESE.

Since May 1, 2854 Chinese Said to Have Arrived in British Columbia.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The United States Consul at Victoria, B. C., reports to the State Department that there has been a renewed influx of Chinese into British Columbia, the arrivals from May to July 8 numbering 2854 persons. Most of the immigrants, he says, are provided with return certificates issued by United States Customs officers and are on their way to San Francisco. Many of these certificates, he says, are fraudulent and the holders have made several attempts to cross the line.

SWEPT BY FLAMES.

The Village of Grafton Almost Completely Wiped Out.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 18.—The village of Grafton, opposite Woodstock, N.B., was swept by fire to-day and almost completely wiped out. Twelve dwellings with their outbuildings and a great deal of stock were destroyed. Loss between $30,000 and $50,000. Insurance light.

A $25,000 Fire at St. Marys.

ST. MARYS, July 19.—A fire started on Main-street at 10.30 last night, in a frame building owned by Joseph Stafford and occupied by Mrs. B. Henry with fancy goods and Mr. Stafford as a saddler's shop. The building with most of its contents were burned. Gilpin's block adjoining was also burned but nearly all of the stock was saved. At one time there was a strong appearance that the fire would spread to other buildings but by the united efforts of the firemen and citizens the fire was confined to the blocks already mentioned. The stores burned are Mrs. B. Henry, fancy goods, small insurance; Joseph Stafford, saddlery, partly insured, loss about $2000; H. L. Davis, barber shop, goods saved. R. T. Gilpin, boots and shoes, insured, loss about $3000; Jno. C. Gilpin, general hardware, furniture and tin shop, loss $10,000

TAMPERING WITH BONDED CARS.

Two Torontonians in Limbo for Taking a Free Excursion.

BELLEVILLE, July 18.—Jas. Smith and Jos. Johnston, two youths who hail from Toronto, were before Acting Magistrate Anderson to-day, charged with breaking into a Grand Trunk bonded car. G. T. R. Constable Wm. Cummings said he found the young men in the car between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning. It was a bonded car, but the seal on the north side had been broken. The prisoners admitted getting into the car at Kingston, but claimed that the seal was broken, and when they tried the door it opened. The conductor of the train in his evidence stated that the seal was all right at Gananoque when he examined it. The prisoners were committed for trial. They claim to be sons of respectable parents in Toronto. Smith says his father keeps a confectionery and fruit store on Yonge-street, but would not give the number.

THE "Q" DYNAMITERS.

Held for Trial—One of the Defendants Discovered to be a Detective.

John Wilson, one of the prisoners who was arrested with Broderick and Bowles as an anarchist and conspirator and a Brotherhood engineer, left his seat in the group of which Broderick and Bauerstan are members and walked to where the prosecuting attorneys were seated and began to chat with them, when it was developed that Wilson was not an engineer and not a Brotherhood man, but that he was John Mulligan, a Pinkerton detective. He had the confidence of all the prisoners and their attorneys.

LONDON, July 16.—The London Corporation prize for Indian and Colonial volunteers was competed for by Canada alone, in the grand aggregate competition, with the following results: Staff-Sergt. Wilson, 33rd Batt., 320, 30 guineas and cup; Sergt. Short, G.G.F.G., 315, £20; Pte. Duncan, 2nd Q.O.R., 310, £15; Lieut. Chamberlain, 43rd Batt., 304, £15; Lieut. Dover, 78th Batt., 303, £10; Lieut, Smith, St. John Rifle Co., 302, £10; Capt. McMicking, 44th Batt., 302, £10; Lieut. Vaughan, 5th Royal Scots, 300, £10; Staff-Sergt. Ashall, 2nd Q.O.R., 299, £6; Lieut Gray, G.G.F.G., 294, £5; Sergt. Miner, 71st Batt., 295, £5; Gunner Campbell, Halifax G. A., 287, £5; Sergt. Adams, 62nd Battalion, 286, £5; Capt. Zealand, 13th Battalion, 285, £5; Sergt. Case, Halifax G. A., 284, £5. In the grand aggregate, to which the Canadian Challenge Trophy is attached, Staff-Sergt. Wilson earned £5 with his score of 320, and Sergt. Short £2 with 316.

The Captain's Explanation.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Regarding the report which has been put in circulation by some of the passengers of the steamer Fulda, that in a fog off the banks of Newfoundland on Saturday she ran down an unknown fishing schooner, the agent of the line said to-day that the story was grossly exaggerated. Capt. Ringk made a report of the accident, stating that his vessel struck the schooner in a dense fog, carrying away her bowsprit. This was all the damage that was done, the captain states, and the hull was not touched. The passengers on the deck of the steamer at the time grew excited and threw a number of life-preservers overboard; but this was unnecessary. The cause of the accident was the neglect of the fishermen to sound bells during the fog.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION

FULL TEXT OF THE BILL FOR ITS APPOINTMENT.

Three Persons to Constitute the Court—Their Names Omitted from the Draft—To have the same Powers as the High Court of Justice.

LONDON, July 18.—The following is the text of the Government Bill for the appointment of a Special Commission to inquire into The Times' charges against Irish members of Parliament:

"Whereas charges and allegations have been made against certain members of the House of Commons and others by the defendants in the action of O'Donnell v. Walter and another, it is expedient that a Special Commission be appointed to inquire into the truth of the charges and allegations, and that it should have such powers as may be necessary for the effectual conducting of the inquiry:

"Be it therefore enacted, First That the three persons hereinafter mentioned (names not given) are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purpose of this Act. The Commissioners shall inquire into and report upon the charges and allegations against certain members of the House of Commons and others in said action.

"Secondly—That the Commission shall for the purposes of the inquiry have all such powers, rights and privileges as are vested in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice or any judge thereof on the occasion of any action, including all the powers, rights and privileges in respect of the following matters: enforcing the attendance of witnesses, examining them under oath, affirmation or otherwise, compelling the production of documents and punishing persons guilty of contempt.

"Thirdly—That the persons implicated in said charges and allegations, the parties to said action, and any persons authorized by the Commissioners may appear at the inquiry, and any persons so appearing may be represented by counsel or solicitor.

"Fourthly—That every person who on examination on oath or affirmation, wilfully gives false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties for perjury.

"Fifthly—That any witness may be cross-examined on behalf of any other person appearing before the Commissioners. A witness shall not be excused from answering any questions put to him on the ground of any privileges or on the ground that the answer may criminate or tend to criminate himself. Evidence taken under this act shall be admissible against any person in any civil or criminal proceedings, except in case the witness shall be deemed to have given false evidence in the enquiry under this act.

"Sixthly—That every person examined as a witness, who in the opinion of the Commissioners shall make a full and true disclosure touching all matters in respect of which he is examined, shall be entitled to secure a certificate signed by the Commissioners stating that he has made a full and true disclosure, and if any civil or criminal proceeding shall at any time thereafter be instituted against such witness in respect to any matter wherein he shall be examined, the court having cognizance of the case shall on proof of the certificate stay proceedings and may in its discretion award the witness such costs as he may be put to by reason of the proceedings.

OBJECTIONS TO THE PLAN.

A Violent Scene in the House of Commons—Needless Delay.

LONDON, July 18.—The scene in the House over the Parnell Commission Bill was a violent one. "Mr. Parnell," says one of his friends, "has not for ten years past shown so much passion." "He was in a towering rage," says another. There will be more hot words when the bill is taken up on Monday next, which seems a needless delay.

Two difficulties are at the bottom of all this skirmishing—the selection of the judges and the determination of the issue to be submitted. There are two judges whom the Parnellites particularly dislike, Mr. Justice Stephen and Mr. Justice Grantham. Mr. Justice Stephen is the ablest lawyer on the Bench, but is reckoned a strong partisan on the Irish question. Mr. Justice Grantham is not a strong judge; the Parnellites say his appointment was a Tory job. Neither is likely to be named in the commission. Mr. Justice Day is said to be their candidate for a place on this singular tribunal, and rumor points to Lord Justice Bowen as president of it. There is no word to be said against him, and though the youngest, he ranks as the ablest man on the Bench.

The other difficulty is even more serious. The Commission, under the terms of the proposed bill, may try almost anything. "The bill," says Mr. O'Connor, this evening, "is framed in terms which would open the whole history of ten years' agitation." I suppose it would; but so did the series of articles known as "Parnellism and Crime." Mr. Parnell will not consent, if he can help it, to try any issue but the genuineness of the letters published by The Times and read by the Attorney-General in Court. Matters, however, have now gone so far that if the Irish leader recedes for any reason whatever, the English public will shake its wise head.

If Mr. Parnell goes before the Commission, he will go as a client of Mr. George Lewis, that is the most important fact of the situation to-day. Mr. Lewis is the most skilful of solicitors, a man of genius in difficult cases, with experience in handling delicate subjects twenty times greater than any other English lawyer; he has, I understand accepted a retainer for Mr. Parnell and it may almost be said that the whole Irish cause is for the time being committed to Mr. Lewis' hands.

Questions for Workmen.

Some Points Regarding Free Trade in Labor and High Tariffs on Products.

Robert H. Cowdrey, the candidate of the Labor party for President, asks the following plain questions:—

1. Have you ever seen a laborer who cared a nickel whether he worked for a protected or an unprotected employer?

2. Have you ever seen a laborer who expected to receive more wages from a protected than an unprotected employer?

3. Have you ever seen a protected manufacturer pay higher wages than he was compelled to?

4. Have you ever seen a very wealthy firm pay more wages than a moderately wealthy one?

5. Have you ever given more for anything than you were required to?

No; and furthermore, if you should, you should call yourself a fool.

6. If, then, the unprotected manufacturer pays just as high wages, and still is able to make a profit, by what method of reasoning do you arrive at the conclusion that the protected manufacturer pays higher wages because of protection?

7. And if the protected manufacturer does not pay more than the unprotected one, what becomes of your protection theories?

8. Is it your answer that protection raises all classes of wages in all occupations?

9. If that is it, then, as labor is not protected from foreign immigration, you must of course include the rising of all wages in all countries. Now, if that is true, then how about the pauper wages of Europe?

10. If you say capital will not be invested unless it is protected, how do you explain the fact that it is being invested in unprotected industries?

11. If protection prevents us from selling in foreign markets, does not protection make less work instead of more?

12. If there is free trade in labor, and high protective prices for those things which laborers must buy, is not the laborer being robbed instead of benefitted?

13. If protectionists desire to pay high wages, why do they always employ the cheapest labor they can find?

14. If wages are increased by protection, why do these protected manufacturers indorse protection and spend large sums of money to uphold it?

15. If unprotected industries pay the same wages as those that are protected, are they not as valuable, and if so, why burden them by making them pay heavy taxes to the protected ones?

Literary Notes.

THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.—The first number of this beautiful magazine failed to come to hand till it came in company with the second. Both numbers are magnificent specimens of pictorial art, the reproductions, counting out other illustrations and the letter press, being certainly with much more than the whole price charged for the work. The current number contains an admirable full-page portrait of Lord Stanley, of Preston, our new Governor-General, as well as a splendid reproduction from original photograms of "The Albany River," Winnipeg City Hall, "The Great Glacier of the Selkirks," a river view of the Parliament buildings, etc. The copy of Von Bodenhausen's "Nydia," the heroine of the "Last Days of Pompeii," is a veritable gem. The literary contributions are of a quality in keeping with the magnificent typography of The Dominion Illustrated. Montreal—G. E. Desbarrats & Son; $4 per year, 10 cents per weekly number.

On Tuesday afternoon a pleasant hour w spent at our public school by a number o friends. After readings, recitations, songs, etc., by the pupils, Master Hugh Lancaster read a clever address to Mr. Beavis, Headmaster, and Miss Maud Fleming presented him with a handsome dressing-case and a volume of Shakespeare's poems, on the occasion of his resigning his position. Mr. Beavis made an eloquent and suitable reply. The Rev. Mr. Wright then addressed them, after which Rev. Mr. Campbell spoke. Mr. Beavis will be missed not only in school, but in church, Sunday school, and in a large circle of friends. He intends leaving for British Columbia in a short time.

A Calculation of the Time and Money Saved by the Use of Railways.

One may get some idea of what railways mean in the saving of time and money to passengers, by taking the case of London. It is estimated that about 500,000 persons, or about one-tenth of the the population of the entire area of the metropolis, require to travel to and from their business every day all the year round. If we remember the distances, it is not too much to assume that the railways will economize for each at least two hours in the week—or, say, five days per annum each. This over 500,000 of people means 2,500,000 days—or an economy of 8,300 years of 300 working days each! Suppose the average earnings of these 500,000 people to be £100 per annum each—not too high an average when we remember the number of millionaires included in the total—we shall see a total money saving—in the sense of time being money, of equal to £830,000 per annum. And this in London alone. —Chamber's Journal.

GREAT WAS THE FALL OF IT.

One of Hamilton's Tall Chimneys Takes a Tumble.

HAMILTON, July 18.—The brick chimney of Humphrey & Newberry's tannery, corner of Jackson and Spring-streets, 80 feet high, crashed through the roof of the building shortly after 12 o'clock to-day. Two years ago the chimney began to lean towards the north, and an immense pole was propped against that side of it. Gradually the pole thrust it back until latterly it has leaned southward, over the roof. One of the men noticed this morning that bits of brick were chipping off and pattering on the roof, but he did not think the catastrophe was so near. A very few minutes after the workmen had left the building and gone home for dinner, the great square shaft was seen to totter, and suddenly it collapsed and disappeared. About fifty feet of it fell. This immense mass of brick crashed through the roof, through the second floor, through the first floor, and down into the vats on the ground floor.

Between the roof and the second floor was a large quantity of fine wool: this was nearly all ruined. A valuable machine for cleaning wool was on the first floor; it was completely demolished. In the vats a large number of skins were soaking; they are now buried beneath the debris. The floors are cut away as clearly as if the boards had been sawn. Part of the chimney toppled over to the east and went through the sweat-house, where 250 skins were stored. These will be injured, but probably not destroyed.

If the chimney had fallen half-an-hour earlier one life would certainly, and several lives would probably, have been lost. One of the workmen was working all morning in the vats, into which the great mass of debris fell. The loss is estimated at between $2000 and $2500.

SENT ON TO ROME.

The Three Nominations for the Archdiocese of Toronto.

LONDON, July 18.—All Friday and Saturday their Lordships Bishop Walsh of London, Bishop Cleary of Kingston and Bishop Dowling of Peterboro', were in secret session considering the nominations of suitable successors to the Archdiocese of Toronto. The session's unusual length has given rise to the impression in Catholic circles here that the selection of names caused considerable trouble, recognizing as their Lordships did the importance of the vacant archsee, and the special need there was of fixing on nominees who would be able to face the difficulties of the position. At a late hour on Saturday night, the names of three were finally agreed upon. This much is known, that of the three nominees, one at least is a simple priest, and it is shrewdly surmised that the other two are the Bishops of London and Kingston. The nominations were mailed to Rome to the Sacred College yesterday morning.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Found Floating in the Don—Troubles of the Trades.

TORONTO, July 19.—Since Monday last James Mitchell, an employee of the Dominion Express Company, has been missing from his home at No. 179 Gerrard-street east. Yesterday afternoon his body was found floating in the Don.

Robt. Bell and H. Smith were fined $20 each and costs or 20 days yesterday for intimidating the plumbers who had been imported to take the place of the strikers. The evidence was to the effect that the two men were among the number of those who followed the imported hands on the street on Tuesday. Said the magistrate, "I just want to intimate to these people that if I have any more of this sort of thing I will increase the fine to $100."

The World appears to have suffered little by reason of the lock-out of its compositors. They have had no difficulty in getting type-setters. The proprietor has taken legal advice and will enter actions against the Globe, Mail and Empire for inserting an advertisement warning printers to keep away from Toronto as there was a lock-out in the World office. The magistrate's sentence in regard to the two intimidating plumbers has had the effect of driving the pickets from the vicinity of the World office.

The thirty-third annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A. F. and A. M., G. R. C., opened yesterday afternoon with a large attendance. An address was read by the Grand Master which stated that the craft was in a flourishing condition. The Finance Committee report showed a balance in hand at the close of the fiscal year of $9,243. The accumulated funds are $69,243.

A number of interesting papers were read at the Dentists' Convention yesterday.

MAY GO TO JAIL.

The Probable Fate of George Jarvis and Mrs. Madeline Campbell.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—The centre of attraction in the Police Court yesterday was Mrs. Madeline Campbell, the pretty Canadian who eloped with George Jarvis and shocked the residents of Franklin-avenue by living with him when they were not married.

Attorney Skells, who appears for Mrs. Campbell and Jarvis, changed the pleas of his clients to not guilty, and demanded a jury trial. This was granted, and the trial was set for next Wednesday. Efforts will be made to secure some settlement of the case, but if these fail and the judge keeps in his present frame of mind, the prospects of escaping a term in the workhouse are exceedingly dubious for George Jarvis and Madaline Campbell.

ROCHESTER, July 17.—The Hotelmen's Association convened here this morning. Their sessions are largely attended.

Have you Neuralgia?

If you are suffering the agonies of neuralgia, and have failed to get a remedy that will afford relief, we want you to try Polson's Nerviline. No remedy in the market has given any thing like the same degree of satisfaction. Its action or nerve pain is simply marvellous, and as it is put up in 10 cent sample bottles no great expense is involved in giving it a trial. Polson's Nerviline is the most pleasant, powerful, and certain pain remedy in the world. Sold by all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 6d w29

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marivelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensible.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont. 5w29d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be misled into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh southwest and west winds; mostly fair, warm weather, with showers in some places.

Court House Park.

We in Peterborough cannot sympathise with the wails of the Montreal papers over the dry dusty and ill kept squares and parks of that city. When we look at our trim, tidy and neat Court House park we are satisfied. It is almost as neat and fresh as a pretty girl dressed in the golden lion's exquisite prints. A big stock worth fifteen cents being sold for ten cents. Imported goods—lastest patterns—newest styles.

Foresters' Pic-nic.

The Golden-Eye started out this morning with her decks loaded with excursionists. Besides those already on the boat, a large number had to walk to the locks where they could take the scow. Her progress would likely be rather slow, owing to the heavy load. They went to Jubilee Point where, no doubt, a very pleasant day was spent. They will probably be home about 8 o'clock this evening.

East Riding Special Prizes.

At the East Riding Exhibition to be held in Norwood on the 9th and 10th of October, the following extra special prizes will be offered by the gentlemen named below; under "Class 1—Horses." Thos. Blezard, Esq., M.P.P., offers for best stallion and three of his "gets," a first prize of $10, and the Society supplements the grant by a second prize of $5. Jas. Moore, Esq., Deputy-Reeve of Asphodel, offers $15 for the best "gets" of Young Lothair, divided as follows:—the best two-year-old, $5; best yearling, $5; best foal of 1888, $5. John Simpson, Esq., offers a $5 prize for the best colt sired by Lapidist Chief.

Bad Boys.

Some of the small boys of the town are the pests of their elders. Mr. Clementi is not the only one who has complained of the bad conduct of some boys who seem to take delight in troubling other people. Mr. Clementi had about five bushels of carrots pulled up in his garden. Several who live in the same neighborhood complain of boys robbing birds' nests, barking trees, and troubling their gardens. Those brought before the P. M. this morning will likely mend their conduct in the future and at the same time it will be a warning to the others.

Burglary at Burleigh.

There seems to be some extremely bad management in the regulation of the water supply at Burleigh. On Monday the steam yacht Irene, formerly belonging to Mr. Goodwin, contractor, but now owned by Mr. Charles Wynne, grounded in the canal a short distance above the dam at Burleigh, and she was drawing only 2½ feet of water. The following day the Mary Ellen, with an excursion on board, was unable to pass the same point. There is, it is said, an abundance of water for navigation purposes if there were only common prudence and attention devoted to economising it. It is a pity that the carelessness or indifference of government officials should interfere with the convenience of the public, in whose interests the canal works have been constructed and are maintained.

The Little World.

This wonderfully ingenious piece of mechanism, so cunningly contrived as to make the figures composing it seem endowed with life, is attracting considerable attention, as it fully deserves to do. We see tiny figures taking part in the active duties of life—carpenters putting up a building; woodmen chopping wood; blacksmiths and their helpers at work; railway trains running in connection with a steamboat in an adjoining lake. The train stops at the station and the conductor comes out on the platform, waves his signal, and off the train goes; a full minstrel troupe gives a continuous performance, and the whole "Little World" of tiny figures is in natural, life-like motion. Be sure to go and see the "Little World" in the Cox block, market square; this afternoon and evening.

Opinions of Farmers.

Some of our farmers are afraid that broken weather will follow the dry season. They say that rainy weather would spoil the barley although it might do good to the other crops. One farmer states that there are many poor heads of wheat in the fall crop.

Results.

The rains of yesterday and last night were of great benefit to the crops of berries that are just ripening, and a damper on bush fires, although it may not put them all out, yet it will aid in keeping them from spreading.

Accident.

Mr. Bailiff Griffin tied his horse yesterday morning in Dr. Stephenson's shed; by some means the animal became loosened, and in endeavoring to get out of the shed upset the buggy and threw itself. Damages to buggy about $10.

Baptist Church.

During the absence of Rev. P. Clifton Parker, the church services will be divided between Mr. Duff, Peterborough, and Rev. D. Reddick, of Port Hope. Mr. Parker will be away two Sundays. He goes to the seashore for his holidays.

I have prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Logs in the River.

There are large quantities of logs floating down the river at present. They are so thick that canoeists and boatmen have considerable trouble in evading them. The steamers, too, have trouble sometimes, and there are many who wish the logs were out entirely.

Building Progress.

E. Webb & Son, bricklayers, have started the brickwork on Snowden's new hotel on Charlotte street. The work will go ahead now just as fast as it can be pushed. The brickwork on the block next the post office is about complete and the carpenters will soon have the building in charge.

The Little World.

The genuine "Little World," corner of George and Charlotte streets, is drawing large crowds of interested spectators, both ladies and gentlemen. No doubt thousands of our citizens will visit this ingenious piece of mechanism. Open afternoon and evening for a few days. Only 10 cents; children under 10 years, 5 cents.

Willow and Wicket.

The match between Toronto and Peterborough began at 10 o'clock. Toronto went to the bat and the last wicket went down for 133 runs to which Fleury contributed 32, Shanly 28, Guthrie 22 and Collins 11. Peterborough followed with only 71, of which Stratton, not out, made 33 and Hamilton, W., 14. Peterborough had to follow on and at the close of this report had 16 runs for 3 wickets. The last over netted nine runs, of which Ray made two four hits (out of the grounds) off Jones' trundling.

Baptist Church Improvements.

Improvements have been in progress at the Baptist church. The fence that stood close to the walk has been moved back in a line with the front of the building. The three small steeples have had new tops on them and a crest put on the centre one, Mr. Geo. Hutchison doing the job. The corners of the church need something on them, to complete the design. The road in front has been lowered nearly two feet and there will be about another eighteen inches taken off yet. When that is done the ground in front of the church will be graded off and sodded. When that is done the appearance of the place will be wonderfully improved.

The Rain.

The rain which fell so copiously for half an hour yesterday morning in town was not widely distributed. It just about reached Downer's corner in Otonabee and did not reach further into Otonabee. In Belleville at the same time the rain fell all the forenoon copiously, as well as the previous night. It was very timely as wells and cisterns were drying up, and a shower was needed to quench bush fires. Roots are about the only class of crops that are likely to be benefitted. One feature of the shower was that it did not extend over three miles north of the city. But during the day rain fell all along the line of the G.T.R. At Stony Lake yesterday the rain fell all day.

Serious Result of a Slight Accident.

Mr. M. Tierney, of the firm of Elliott & Tierney, is suffering severely and is seriously ill from the results of an apparently very trifling accident. On Monday he received a slight scratch—so slight that it was not noticed at the time—upon the fore finger of the right hand. But it seems that blood-poisoning supervened and great pain and swelling resulted. Mr. Tierney has been deprived of sleep by pain for several nights. Under Dr. King's treatment it is hoped that the disease will soon be overcome. Mr. Tierney is prudent in having secured policies in accident insurance companies which entitle him to draw $45 a week during disablement. One of these policies for $2000 is in the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company, of which Wilson & Morrison are agents.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, July 19th.

A Douro drunk was directed to the delinquents' den last evening by Officer McGinty. This morning he was dismissed by the Magistrate with a warning, and the Chief told him where his team could be found.

Three small boys, whose heads came just above the P. M.'s desk, were charged with cutting the bark on shade trees belonging to Rev. Vincent Clementi. They pleaded guilty, and the Magistrate told them they would have to be imprisoned. They took it very seriously, and as each was locked in a cell by himself, he soon found there was not much fun in it. However, it will be a good lesson to them and do them more good than a dozen whippings. They were confined six hours.

Personal.

Miss Tillie Walton, of Winnipeg, after a considerable absence, has returned to Peterborough on a visit.

Mr. W. Cardwell, of Lanark, of the celebrated Cardwell lumbering firm, was in town to-day.

Mr. W. G. Brown, Inspector of the Glasgow & London Insurance Company, is in town, the guest of Mr. W. H. Hill

Rev. O. G. Langford, formerly a resident of Peterborough, but now of Hartford Ont., is in town. His many friends are glad to see him again.

A cablegram from England informs the Port Hope Times that Mr. T. H. Ambrose sailed for Canada on the 11th inst. Mrs. Ambrose has recovered from her illness but will not return for some little time yet.

Mr. John Edgar Croly, M.A. (brother of Mr. T. M. D. Croly), teacher of history and geography in the Stratford Collegiate Institute, gave us a call last evening. Mr. Croly intends rusticating during the summer months on our back waters.

Dr. and Mrs. Race, of Brooklyn, N.Y., arrived in town this morning. They will proceed north this evening to his cottage, near Boschink, having chartered a steamer to convey their baggage, etc., north from Lakefield.

The EXAMINER has great pleasure in welcoming Councillor Cahill home, after his two months' tour across the continent and back. He went out by the C. P. R. to British Columbia, passed southward through Oregon and Washington territories to San Francisco. Then across country through Colorado and Utah to Nebraska, and so on home. He is in excellent health and is greatly benefitted by his trip, but he thinks there is no place like Peterborough.

Carrying Out Contracts.

A parallel to the case of the market square site for the post office in Peterborough has cropped up in London, England. The heirs of Wm. Penn in London have entered a claim for the possession of one of the public squares in Philadelphia. The square was deeded to the trustees of Northampton County by Thomas and Richard Penn for the erection thereon of a court-house. This was not done, and the square was laid out in a park and beautified at the public expense. This will not let out the city government of Philidelphia, which seems to think with the Dominion Government that it can ride roughshod over private parties and fail to carry out contracts. But gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, never have failed to carry out a contract made with the public, through our advertising columns. They have invariably told the truth and lived up to their promises in every respect, giving not only full value, but more than full value for all money taken for goods. Individual garments, suits, heaps, cords, pyramids, hills, mountains and mountain ranges of ready-made clothing of the best quality at sea-bottom prices.

St. John's S. S. Excursion.

The elements conspired against the excursion, but in spite of that fact the programme was carried out and a pleasant day was spent. A considerable number left the Midland station and others got on board at Ashburnham and others at Auburn, so that Lakefield was reached with about two hundred excursionists. Here the party divided and boarded the steamers Cruiser and Mary Ellen for the steam up the lake. The Cruiser arrived at St. Julian's Landing in good time, but the Mary Ellen met with an accident to her steering gear and put in to Mr. Lech's island, and it was half-past three before her party joined the Cruiser's party at Julian's. The rain began to fall at about ten o'clock and continued throughout the day with small intermission. The party could not but accept the rain resignedly if they regarded it as an answer to the prayer for rain offered in the church on Sunday. However, the best was made of the situation. The proprietor of the hotel threw open his house to the excursionists to shelter them from the rain. During the afternoon the people enjoyed themselves variously in boating, fishing, etc., while a programme of races, sports and games gave delight to the young people. These were conducted by Mr. Brundrette, superintendent of the school, who also acted as custodian of the party, assisted by Mrs. Beck and the teachers, during the trip, which ended by the arrival of the train at the Midland station at 8.45 without accident. Considering the circumstances the excursion was a good success. But for the down-pour of rain just about train time the numbers would have been much larger. The Ladies' Guild, encouraged by the success of this venture, propose holding another excursion to Stony Lake in August.

A Proposed Gymnasium.

There is great need felt by the athletically inclined of a good gymnasium, and Sergt.-Major Rundle has been repeatedly approached with suggestions that he establish and take charge of a well-equipped gymnasium. He has been considering the subject and looking about. He thinks he can secure the old Salvation Army barracks on Aylmer street. The main room of the proposed gymnasium, if the idea is carried out, is excellently adapted for amply accommodating the necessary appliances requisite in a first-rate establishment of the kind, while the annex formerly used as a Sunday school room, will be fitted up for fencing, sword exercises, dumb-bells, Indian Clubs, etc., etc., and the whole building will be fitted up with every appliance and facility that the idea of a complete gymnasium implies. Arrangements can be made by which the whole series of calisthenics can be provided for ladies at hours other than the classes for gentlemen. It will be the Sergt.-Major's aim to make the proposed gymnasium a model in every respect, both in the excellence and completeness of the appliances for gymnastic pursuits, and in the character of the membership, which will be regulated in the same manner as the admission to an ordinary club of the highest respectability. There will be no exclusiveness, but respectability and good character will be conditions which will be insisted on. This fact considered, the superior qualifications of Major Rundle as an instructor, together with the urgent need of a good gymnastic establishment, lead to the inference that such an institution conducted as the proposed one will be carried on will be a success in every respect. Persons desirous of getting the benefit which connection with a gymnasium involves, and who desire to promote its establishment, can communicate with Major Rundle at the drill shed.

Indian River.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Our village narrowly escaped a fire scare. At the 5.28 express train was leaving the station last Friday evening, a spark from the smoke stack ignited the swamp just west of the village. The swamp was full of brush and the high wind which then prevailed would soon have made a big blaze, had it not been seen in the nick of time and quickly quenched.

A big bush fire is raging about a mile north of the village.

It is with feelings of regret that we record the death of Mrs. John O'Grady, sr. The deceased lady was in her usual health up to within forty-eight hours of her death, which occurred on the 11th of July. She came from Ireland 63 years ago, and settled on the farm on which she died. She lived to a good old age, being 72 years old at the time of her death. She reaped the fruits of her labors by seeing her family all settled and doing well, save one who died a few years ago. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. O'Grady in his declining years for the loss of his help-mate, for she was a faithful wife and mother.

The young people, especially the young ladies, will be pleased to see the smiling face of Mr. John Brockenridge again in our midst.

The Crowley Drowning Case.

A day or two ago the EXAMINER recorded the bare fact of the drowning of Mr. Crowley, of Harvey, in Pigeon Creek. Two gentlemen from Ennismore called this morning and supplied details. It appears that Mr. James Crowley, custodian of Oak Orchard Pigeon Lake, the property of a Peterborough syndicate, accompanied by one John Connors, known as "Black Jack Connors," who was or had been in Mr. Crowley's employ, went to Bobcaygeon in Dr. Boucher's large skiff for some supplies. On their return, about 10:30 o'clock at night, at Sandy Point, Pigeon Creek, the boat capsized, though how this could have happened is inexplicable, as the skiff was large and very steady, and experiments made since the accident show the difficulty of capsizing the skiff with great exertion. Connors' story is that after the capsize the two clung to the boat from 10.30 to about three o'clock, and that he (Connors) had tied a sash (such as river-drivers use) and supported Crowley by it. Towards the last, Crowley told Connors to leave him to his fate and save himself. Shortly after Connors spoke to Crowley and received no answer, and he says he found Crowley's head hanging over his shoulder under the water, and life was extinct. Connors held on to the boat till eight o'clock next morning when he was rescued. He is not a native of that section, but has been about for five or six years working as a laborer at different places. Diligent search has been made for Crowley's body, but up to-day without success. The lake in the vicinity has been dragged and the sack of flour, which formed part of the cargo of the boat, found about two miles from the place where Connors' hat was found, with a cut in the crown of it about four inches long. A new maple paddle belonging to the skiff was also found, split, as though by violence. The search for Crowley's body will be continued while there is reasonable hope of finding it. Mr. R. E. Wood, County Attorney, who is at present staying at Oak Orchard, is interesting himself in the search and the investigation of the circumstances of the alleged accident.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

THE MINISTER OF MARINE ENTERS UPON HIS DUTIES.

No Particulars of the Skeena River Troubles Received by the Militia Department—The Senate Committee's Report on the Sawdust Nuisance.

OTTAWA, July 19.—Hon. C. H. Tupper arrived in the city to day and entered upon his duties as Minister of Marine and Fisheries. This afternoon he paid his first visit to his department.

Appendix 29 of the annual report of the Department of Public Works has been distributed. It contains a large amount of valuable information relating to the public works of Canada, cost of construction, etc., carefully compiled by Mr. G. T. Baillairge, Deputy Minister, and will be an exceedingly useful book of reference.

The outport of Kentville, N. S., has been raised to a Customs port on account of increased business and F. C. Naud appointed collector.

On account of decrease of business the port of Cornwallis has been reduced to an outport.

The bush fires in the timber limits on the north shore of the Ottawa, covering an area of 300 square miles, were extinguished by yesterday's rain.

The Department of Militia has not received any particulars touching the Skeena River troubles in British Columbia. The scene of the outbreak is 500 miles beyond the reach of telegraphic communication. The Department expects, however, to receive by Saturday's mail official papers from the officer in command of C battery.

The plans of the new iron bridge at the Chaudiere to take the place of the present suspension bridge between Ottawa and Hull are ready and tenders will shortly be invited. The bridge will be 235 feet long and 45 feet wide.

The report of the Senate committee on the sawdust nuisance has been published. It makes a pamphlet of 77 pages.

Information was received yesterday that the action brought by Mr. Conmee, M.P.P., to recover a deposit of $4000 placed by him in the Ontario Bank to the credit of the receiver-general had been decided in favor of the bank. It is alleged that Mr. Conmee who was a contractor on the C.P.R. had two vessels which he used for bringing supplies into the country in violation of the customs laws. These were seized by the customs and only released on a deposit being given as before stated. The Department of Customs on enquiry confiscated the deposit in spite of the declaration of Mr. Conmee that he had only made it on the understanding that an agent was to hold until a decision had been given. The bank declined to admit that it was a stake holder and an action for the recovery of the bond was brought with the result mentioned.

It is most probable that the official translators of the House of Commons and Hansard will be formed into a branch of the Department of Public Printing and Stationery so as to bring the whole business of publishing in both languages the Department and Parliamentary reports under one department.

William Carr, a farmer of Fitzroy Township, celebrated the twelfth of July at Carleton Place, and on his way home fired a revolver at William Smith's house, making a hole through a window, for which amusement he was yesterday fined $30.

At the Police Court this morning Napoleon Clouthier was fined $5 for taking down a diphtheria card which the Health Officer had placed on his house where there was a case of the disease.

The people of Hull are a good deal divided about rebuilding the Roman Catholic Church destroyed by the recent fire. The greater portion of them are advocating the building of two small churches in different parts of the city instead of one large one in the centre. The Oblat fathers say they have no right to build more than one church. The matter will be referred to Archbishop Duhamel on his return here on July 17.

THE SKEENA INDIANS.

Origin of the Trouble the British Columbia Militia Have Gone to Quell.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 19.—The Skeena river flows into Hecate strait, not far from the Alaska boundary, and about 90 miles south of Fort Simpson, the well-known Hudson's Bay post. Hazelton or Hazelton, where the Indian troubles have occurred, is a small settlement on the river about ten miles from its mouth, near what are known as the forks of the Skeena. The origin of the troubles is thus narrated:

Mr. Borland, a well-known packer, arrived from Hazelton on the steamer Boscowitz to confer with the Attorney-General regarding the state of affairs at Hazelton on the Skeena river. Last year an Indian named Kitwon Cool Jim murdered an Indian doctor at the forks of the Skeena. A posse of specials under Mr. Washburne was sent from this city to arrest the murderer. When they arrived at Hazelton it was discovered that Jim had gone to the mountains to elude the officers. The party consisted of Washburne, Loring, Greene, Holmes and Parker. They encamped at Hazelton and awaited the return of the murderer.

Early in June they received information that Jim was at a place called Kitangar, about fifteen miles below the Forks. On June 19 an Indian brought news that Jim was in a house at Kitangar. Early in the morning three of the party walked down to the house, which was occupied by twenty Indians. Jim was among the number and was called upon to surrender. He made a break for the door and ran towards the bush. Holmes fired a revolver over his head after calling upon him to surrender, but he still kept on. Green then raised a Winchester rifle and fired, striking him in the back, the bullet going clear through his body. Jim fell and expired in a short time. Washburne and Loring came to the scene of the tragedy an hour after the shooting and handed the body over to an Indian, who is acting as missionary. The latter told Washburne to take his specials to a place of safety on account of the threats made by Jim's friends to massacre the party. The specials then returned to Hazelton, where they are at present hemmed in by the hostile Indians. They have erected bastions of timber and bags of sand, and can hold out for a month if the Indians can be prevented from burning the place.

Borland is engaged in packing goods for the Hudson's Bay Company between Hazelton and Babine's Lake or Fort Babine. His freight train with five men are above Hazelton, and no freight can be carried up. He had great difficulty in coming down. His canoe was stopped by one party of Indians, and the occupants ordered to return. Borland was determined to get through, and at last convinced the natives that he was not connected with the specials. At every encampment his four Indians went ashore and held a conference with their brethren. Amongst the whites in the locality where the shooting took place are: Mr. Clifford and wife (in charge of the Hudson's Bay store,) Rev. Mr. Fields and wife, and Mrs. Haukin and family. They are very much troubled over the state of affairs.

The Indians demand Green to be handed over to them and one thousand dollars paid them. If the specials refuse to accept their demands they threaten to burn down the houses and murder every white person in the locality. An Indian trapper is still out in the mountains and a number of their men at work in the canneries. Indian women are calling on their warriors to avenge the death of Jim.

Borland says prompt steps should be taken by the Government. Should an uprising take place the lives of all will be sacrificed. The Indians will not allow another white person to come down the river, and unless a large party proceeds to Hazelton without a moment's delay the result will be the massacre of the specials. The river is not navigable for a man-of-war and the Government will probably send a small stern wheel steamer and a large force of specials up from here.

AN ANARCHIST'S CONFESSION.

Full Particulars of the Plot to Murder the Chicago Judges.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Frank Chleboun, the anarchist who with John Hroneck and Frank Chepak schemed to murder Judges Gary and Grinnell and Inspector Bonfield, has made a full confession. His statement is to the effect that Hroneck unfolded his plans for revenge and told of a bomb which he had invented. It was no larger than a base ball and was to be loaded with dynamite and broken glass. It was denied by Chleboun that the plot was to murder the judges and Inspector, that is, he heard of no such scheme. They were talked of as was Capt. Schaack, and he understood that he was to pay more attention to the captain than to any one else. There was no concerted plan of action, but it was agreed that when all preparations were made he and two others were to be informed by Hroneck just what they were to do in the way of avenging the death of the martyrs.

He was visited by Hroneck who brought him two bombs of the broken glass variety and two sticks of dynamite from which he was to make bombs of gas pipe after the usual pattern. The other two men were also supplied with bombs and dynamite. He had the stuff in his house for about a week and then grew so afraid that it would be discovered that he made away with it by throwing it in a vault.

THE GRAVENHURST STRIKE.

Mill Hands Arrested, Charged with Trespass and Conspiracy.

GRAVENHURST, July 19.—Yesterday a considerable force of the striking mill hands visited the mills of Mickle, Tait and Chewa. At the two latter a breach of the peace was committed and some of the employes were carried out in a rough manner.

Warrants were issued against eight or nine of the strikers on charges of trespass and conspiracy and the examination was begun this evening.

Fire at Formosa.

TEESWATER, July 19.—At Formosa, yesterday afternoon, J. H. Brick's grist and saw mills, with a large quantity of lumber, were completely destroyed by fire, which originated in the engine room. Loss about $10,000, insured for $2,000.

Another at Alisa Craig.

ALISA CRAIG, July 19.—The grist mill owned by J. East and a private dwelling owned by Robt. Scafe were burned here this morning about 4 o'clock. The mill was fully insured.

Shooting at Wimbledon.

LONDON, July 19.—The shooting contest for the Elcho shield at Wimbledon resulted in favor of the Irish team. The scores were: Ireland 1652, England 1642, Scotland 1568.

The Canadian marksmen held a parting reception this evening. The Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne were present.

THE TIMES' CHARGES.

A BATCH OF QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY MR. SMITH.

The Government Leader Responds to a Number of Interrogations Respecting Attorney-General Webster's Connection with the O'Donnell Case.

LONDON, July 20.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. W. H. Smith, the Government leader, replying to questions said:

The Government's offer of 1887 was that if members desired to take proceedings against The Times they could be taken in the name of the Attorney-General and could be conducted by any counsel the members might name. The offer was made with the Attorney-General's consent. It was not with the Government's assent or dissent that the Attorney-General was retained by The Times to defend the suit brought by O'Donnell. He was retained by The Times in his private character as counsel. The Government did not supply him with any material for his speech. I decline to make any statement of the course the Government will pursue in regard to consulting the Attorney-General. It will be in the power of The Times to engage the Attorney-General to attend the enquiries of the Commission in its behalf if it thinks best.

The Attorney-General had no information whatever from the Home Office.

Replying to Mr. Parnell, Mr. Smith said he was prepared to take the question on the bill between 8 and 10 o'clock Monday evening.

McKenna's Move.

LONDON, July 19.—Mr. Joseph Neal McKenna, the Liberal member for South Monaghan, has placed upon the paper in the House of Commons a notice that he will introduce a motion in opposition to the proposed appointment of a Judicial Commission to enquire into The Times' charges against the Irish members in Parliament. It is believed that he takes this action on his own responsibility and without the advice of the Liberal leader.

The Liberals will move an amendment to the commission with the object of obtaining a definition of the phrase, "other persons."

The Local Government Bill.

LONDON, July 19.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone described the Local Government Bill as an outline which it would be the duty of the Liberals hereafter to fill up. He thought that great credit was due to the Parnellites for not placing any obstacles in the way of its passage. He further thought the House would not permit the Commission to apply to any other persons than members of the House of Commons.

Fighting Eviction.

DUBLIN, July 19.—The work of the bailiffs engaged in making eviction at Kilrush, County Clare, is being obstructed by the population, who have cut all the bridges between Kilrush and Kilkenny and taken other measures to delay the progress of eviction. The chapel bells are tolling to warn the people of the approach of the officers. The plan of campaign has been adopted by the tenants on the Murphy estate at Tralee, County Kerry.

Dillon's Release to be Applied For.

LONDON, July 19.—It is understood that as a result of a visit of Mr. Healy to Mr. Dillon a motion will be made for a writ of habeas corpus for Mr. Dillon's release.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Cooper Arrested on a Charge of Perjury—Dr. Whiting Flogged.

TORONTO, July 20.—J. T. Cooper, whose evidence in the Board of Works investigation created such a sensation, has been arrested on a charge of perjury, the information being sworn to by Ald. Baxter.

The Grand Lodge of Canada, A. F. and A. M., concluded its work yesterday.

There are no new features in the plumbers and cigar makers' strikes or the World lockout. The World comes out in good shape this morning. The sympathy of the public is entirely with the paper.

Mrs. Lee, who was so brutally assaulted by her husband on the 12th, is now in the General Hospital. The medical staff is in hopes of her ultimate recovery.

Dr. Whiting of London, who was recently sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Central Prison, and 50 lashes for a criminal assault on his niece, a child of only eleven years of age, received his first instalment of 25 lashes this morning in that institution. Since his conviction it has been discovered that Whiting is a bigamist, and as soon as his present sentence expires, he will be re-arrested and charged with bigamy.

Reuben S. Wilson, who has been in jail for some time pending an investigation into the charge of counterfeiting preferred against him, was up again at the Police Court yesterday. Evidence was forthcoming to show that the $5 bill uttered by him was a counterfeit United States note. Dominion Superintendent Sherwood gave evidence respecting compromising letters written by Wilson to W. H. Parsons at Sarnia. Parsons is now under arrest at Sarnia. Wilson was committed for trial and bail refused.

Railway Accident in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 19.—An accident occurred this morning on the Duluth and Iron Range Railroad at Wissakode, by which a young lady named Raymer was seriously injured, and a baby of the same name was so badly hurt that it may die. Engineer Tom Martin was seriously injured.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

East Elgin Reformers will hold a convention on July 27 to select a candidate to contest the coming election for the local.

There are now four vacant seats in the House of Commons—Colchester, Cardwell, Halton and Provencher.

The trial of the Shelburne election protest is proceeding at Halifax.

The chairmen of the grievance committees of the various railroads at their meeting at Chicago yesterday asked the public to suspend judgment with regard to the dynamite cases.

IN THE DARK CONTINENT.

IT IS THOUGHT THAT STANLEY'S ALL RIGHT.

An Artist of Surprises and Catastrophes—The Prince of Explorers—Mohammedanism and Christianity—Religiosity in the Few and Hypocrisy in the Many.

PARIS, July 19.—I do not despair of Stanley, even if the mysterious white pasha of the Bahr El Ghazel should turn out to be Emin, which is probable. Stanley is an artist in the surprises, catastrophes and proportion of a drama, as well as in its denouement. He is, in fact, a sort of a geographical Sardou and when the world pulls out its cambric handkerchief he will probably come up smiling and ask, "What the deuce is the matter?" I am a great admirer of Stanley. He is simply the prince of African explorers of this day or of any day. But as an administrator I rank him as below par, and the best proof of this is that of all the new stations he has founded on the Congo, at a cruel expense and waste of life and labor, as well as of gold, there is hardly one that has not been abandoned and left to fall in ruin.

On the present occasion his avowed object was the rescue of Emin Pasha, who was distinctly and determinedly declined to be rescued, but Stanley's real object was to divert the ivory trade from the long and expensive Zanzibar line to the cheap and safe waterway of the Congo. The idea is excellent. By this means Belgium recoups the millions wasted upon expeditions and stations. Zanzibar, also, under the unprejudiced annexionist, our cousins-german, can have the sole profit of the slave exportation; nor would a Teuton of them all raise a hand against what brings grist to their mills. Stanley has thus by one touch of his magic wand converted the Congo Free State, the happy hunting ground of Tippoo Tib and his merry Sawahili men—absurdly named Arabs—into a Congo Slave State par excellence. The great slave mines are now transferred from the Unyamwesi Country, the old Mountains of the Moon, to the Upper Congo. These fresh diggings remain to be exploited. Tippoo Tib is made Governor (God save the mark!) of those new slave reserves at a salary of £300 a year, where he can easily make £30,000 a year, and woe's his followers are pretty sure to shoot him if he talks any nonsense about the abolition of slavery.

You must not expect to hear any truths of this kind in England, where the imperious and tyrannical opinion of society subdues even the boldest spirit. A well-known administrator was sent to the Congo, and after a careful inquiry found Mohammedanism a grand and saving fact, and set down the Christian missionary as an utter humbug in all except being a doughty explorer, a laborious and useful linguist and an able collector of other men's money.

The administrator goes home fully resolved to state the facts uncompromisingly before the public of Great Britain; but, although the administrator is an honest man, the influence and association of old ideas trooping back into his brain so act upon him that so far from stating the facts he states clean to the contrary. He stands up and declares that missionaries are the cream of creation, and that the Gospels are overspreading the land, while, if he mentions Islam, it is in a patronising tone, as if Mohammed were a mere courier to the founder of Christianity.

All this is utterly unfair. It allows the unfortunate public no chance of learning the truth. The narrator may be honest and honorable, but he dare not state the facts, nor has he the courage of his own opinions. If he did, society would turn upon him with the usual "Oh, no, we never mentioned him!" and his name never would be heard unless accompanied by a snarl or sneer. The fact is, England's chronic disease is religiosity in the few and hypocrisy in the many. RICHARD F. BURTON.

Arranging an Attack on the Mahdi.

LONDON, July 19.—A despatch to The Times says: Parties of pilgrims who arrived at Suakim on Tuesday declared that while passing through Dorofour they heard that a large force of foreigners and others, not natives of the Soudan, headed by an English pasha, were in the marshes of Bahr-el-Gahzelle. The Dorofour tribes were friendly, and were arranging with the strangers an attack upon the Mahdi.

The Report Ridiculed.

PARIS, July 19.—The Journal des Debats states that the Government has no information that the Emperor William will request the Czar's adhesion while at St. Petersburg to an agreement to impose disarmament upon France. The request will find no response in France. French political circles ridicule the report.

Milan and Natalie.

BELGRADE, July 19—It is stated that King Milan is preparing an answer to Queen Natalie's statements for submittal to the Powers, and that in it he will deny that he has any intention of re-marrying, and will say that his main object in seeking a divorce is to remove his son from the influence of Queen Natalie.

Ismael Pasha Virtually a Prisoner.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 19.—The Sultan refuses permission to Ismael Pasha to go to Germany, which country he desires to visit on the plea of ill health. Ismael finds himself almost a prisoner, and his old friends have the greatest difficulty in gaining access to him.

A Fatal Explosion.

ROUEN, July 19.—Fire broke out to-day on the Spanish steamer Osturiano at this port from New York and caused a tremendous explosion, there being on board a cargo of 8840 barrels of petroleum. Eight of the crew were killed.

A Boston Sensation.

BOSTON, July 19.—A sensation to-day in medical circles was caused by the arrest of Dr. George R. Williams for malpractice on Mrs. Josephine W. Alden. The physician is at the head of the profession in Boston and Mrs. Alden is wealthy and highly connected.

WHAT HAS THE CHURCH DONE FOR THE WORLD?

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for the Examiner.)

From the time of Christ's death until the present day, one may fairly ask, what has the Church done for the world? Our Saviour, during his life, set the example of what his followers had to do, but no sooner was he gone than man's ambition and selfishness led him to discard the simplicity of the gospel, and to set up in its stead a system of pretended religion, which instead of elevating and ennobling people's minds, darkened and graded them. And, worse than this, he compelled the people to worship the man instead of the Creator, and he enforced his slavish doctrines by means of the worst kinds of oppression and tyranny. And henceforth man-worship took the place of the worship of the Deity. It is a pity that everyone is not acquainted with the history of the world for the last eighteen hundred years. If he were he would see, beyond contradiction, how completely the simplicity of the gospel has been prevented, and how all the teachings of the Saviour have been over-ridden by the ambitious machinations of those who have set up a new and a different standard of religious worship from that which Christ taught, and by means of which, through long years of oppression, mankind has been bound hand and foot, and his intellect dwarfed, and his self-respect and self-control been nearly crushed out. It was not very difficult, during the early days of Christianity, when men were poor and ignorant, for these conspirators against the human race who aimed at raising up a huge system of ecclesiastical tyranny, to accomplish their purpose by allying themselves with the political leaders of the day and each agreeing to support the other. And thus we have it that from that time forth these two parties in the state rule the people with an iron hand, and the least sign of resistance was met with bursings and torture, and that terrible instrument, the inquisition was set up to frighten and to crush out the last spark of manhood and the least appearance of personal independence or thought. And powerful were the means employed by those two allied powers, and so dense was the mental and spiritual darkness of those early times that men ceased to even think and dared not to claim the least right on their part to the exercise of any of those principles of justice and equality which formed the character of the Saviour and which He so vigiantly taught the people to follow and to obey. And so, through all the subsequent ages, for more than fifteen hundred years, this huge system of spiritual power in the hands of selfish and ambitious men became more and more consolidated and established. And these were but too truly called the dark ages. The ages when men were denied their spiritual rights and where all the people were slaves. But at length some faint signs of human energy began to show themselves, and after many trials and persecutions the human intellect became expanded and men began to demand their right to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences. Wycliffe and Luther and Calvin and Wm. Knox led the way and through them the people began gradually to see the light and realize that the Bible was God's book and that it was given them for their own good, and that God intended they should read it and obey it. But the struggle for even this much freedom has been great, and is not yet ended. And now the people see that they who would be free must themselves strike the first blow. And they also realise that in pulling down a false system they do not build up another in its place. They find that human nature is the same with all persons and under all circumstances. They look round and they see their spiritual teachers leaning upon the world instead of upon Christ, and they in vain look for men, denying themselves any of the enjoyments and powers of the world for the sake of bringing men to repentance and pardon. And that they who say they are the shepherds of the sheep look not after the sheep but let them stay far away from the fold and become lost, rather than go out into the storm to look after them and bring them back again. And is it any wonder then if people ask the question, What has the church done for the world? It is worse than folly for these would-be-religious teachers to say that they have been called of God to instruct and save the people. If they were called of God to do his work they would follow the example set by Christ and live as he lived and do as he did and deny themselves here on earth in order to perform other work set before them. The Shepherds would not be above their flocks. Would not dwell in fine houses, where their flocks would not dare to come. Would not keep aloof from the world and let the world take care of itself. And would not despise the poor and the needy, and treat them as if they had no souls to save, or as if their business was only to go among the high-born and the rich. They would do as their Lord and Master did—dress humbly, live humbly and visit the outcast and the lowly, as He did, and not to feel it a disgrace to do as the apostles and disciples did, and would set the example of humility and kindness as they did. And they would not take the pride they do take in the possession of fine churches and in administering religious consolation through so much pride and parade and with so much formality that their hearers go away uninstructed and with souls empty and uncomforted, as too often they have to do now. And they would show by their actions that they knew their mission was to the outcast and poor. To visit and help the sick and the dying and to point them to their Saviour as their only salvation. And as the church to day the world will not be made much better in a spiritual sense. And if there is to be any improvement in the people the church must first improve, and people, rich and poor alike outcast and sinner alike, must be first made to feel that the religion of Jesus Christ is a vital saving religion, and that those who minister in His name, and take upon themselves His authority, must become humble, self-denying, men like He was, men who please Christ before all else and who are willing to give up all for Christ.

THE MILLS BILL.

Great Tariff Debate of 1888—The Free Wool Feature of the Measure.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—In the House today Mr. O'Neill (Mo.,) offered a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Rules assigning July 31 for the consideration of the Labor Bill, the pending amendment being that offered by Mr. Mills restoring the present rate of duty on tobacco.

Mr. Lofollette (Wis.) thought that the motion made by Mr. Mills was not actuated by any sympathy for the domestic tobacco industry. The amendment was offered not because of any consideration for the industry or because the farmers wanted protection, but because the amendment was necessary to help the Democratic party to carry Connecticut.

Mr. Baker (Ill.) made a brief argument against the bill in its entirety.

Mr. Mills' amendment was agreed to without a discussion

On motion of Mr. Spinal, the present rate of duty was stayed on lob pipes, pipe bowls and all smoker's articles not otherwise provided for.

The next paragraph taken up was that imposing a duty of 30 per cent. ad valorem on bonnets, hats and hoods composed of hair, whalebones or any vegetable material.

Mr. Lehlbach, (N.J.) moved to increase the duty to 50 per cent. The amendment was lost, 72 to 84.

Mr. Lehlbach offered an amendment fixing the rate of duty on pearl buttons at 4 cents per line, per gross English measurement.. Rejected, 67 to 83.

Mr. Springer (Ill.) having called Mr. Dockery to the chair, addressed the committee in regard to the bill. He stated for the information of members that 23 day and 8 evening sessions had been consumed in general debate, 151 speeches having been made. The debate under the 5-minute rule consumed up to to-day, 8 days or 120 hours. The debate would be remembered as the most remarkable which had ever occurred in Parliamentary history. It had awakened a lively interest not only in our own country but throughout the civilized world, and henceforth as long as our Government should endure, it would be known as the great Tariff Debate of 1888. He then proceeded to argue in support of the free wool feature of the bill. The high tariff on wool had restricted the wool growers to the home market. They could not ship their wool to other countries and the restricted market placed their products at the mercy of woolen manufacturers. The president was justified in departing from the usual custom of sending to Congress a message upon home and foreign affairs, and devoting the whole of his paper to a discussion of the tariff and the surplus. His recommendation as to the placing of wool upon the free list was clear, forcible and convincing and should be followed by Congress.

The Mills Bill Reported Favorably.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The debates on the Tariff Bill closed this afternoon after an animated political discussion, when the Committee rose, and amid applause on the Democratic side of the House the bill was reported favorably. Its consideration was then postponed till Saturday at 10.30 a.m.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

WELL AND TRULY LAID.

The Corner Stone of Hamilton's New City Hall in Place.

HAMILTON, July 19.—The corner stone of the new City Hall was laid at noon to-day. Addresses were made by Mayor Doran, Alex. McKay, M.P., Adam Brown, M.P., J. M. Gibson, M.P.P., Warden Flatt and Ald. Moore. A lunch was given at the Royal Hotel, at which the usual toasts were responded to.

J. E. P. Aldous, the well-known musician, and Miss Mary G. Allen were married yesterday afternoon, Rev. G. A. Forneret, rector of All Saints', officiating.

The adjourned case against Joseph Thompson for taking about $50 worth of tools belonging to the late Mat Thompson was disposed of this morning. The magistrate dismissed the case.

Wm. Waldhoff was charged by James Waldhoff with appropriating a horse. About four months ago the complainant gave his brother $15 to purchase a horse for him. The latter bought the horse with the money, got a receipt for $14 in his own name, and gave Jas. Waldhoff the $1 change. He would not give up possession of the horse, and has been using it ever since then. The case was enlarged until Monday. The magistrate advised the brothers to settle the matter among themselves in the meantime.

Robert Davis, 14 years old, was arrested this morning by Detective Mackenzie for committing an indecent assault on a couple of daughters of John Jackson.

William Loftus, Benjamin Scratch, James Loftus and Albert Whitney, the boys who were arrested for entering George M. Holmes' house on the beach road on Saturday last and stealing a bottle of whisky, besides a number of other articles, were tried by the police magistrate this morning. Scratch and William Loftus, were found guilty and each fined $3 or 30 days. The other two boys were acquitted.

PROBABLE MURDER.

Napoleon Michell of Wolfstown Shot by His Brother-in-Law.

SHERBROOKE, Que., July 19.—Napoleon Michell of Wolfstown, Que., near Disraeli, on the Quebec Central Railway, was visited last night by his brother-in-law, Jerry Lamontagne, who fired three revolver shots at him, all three lodging in Michell's neck. Thinking then that he was dead Lamontagne removed him to a bed, placed over him a mattress and setting fire to this left the room at once.

Michell, however, recovered consciousness and made his way to the first neighbor's where he made his declaration before a priest. It is not thought possible that he can recover.

SUN

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,123 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,432 69	$1,140,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,186 29	1,167,336 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 80	475,697 24	4,902,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,604 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

At 5.30 this morning, a timber train pitched into a freight train near Birdsall's. Both were specials. The leading train got stuck at the grade and though the coming special was flagged the curves are so sharp at this point and the grade down, so that the timber special could not stop in time. The engine was only slightly damaged and only one freight car broken up on the freight train. Nobody is to blame for the accident.

He expressed himself as being well satisfied with the manner in which the books were kept, and commended Mr. Fraser for his efficiency. On Saturday, in company with Mr. Fraser, he visited Trent Bridge and spent a portion of the day in fishing. They captured four fine maskinonge and a number of bass. Mr. Dickey left on the 5:12 p.m. express for Toronto.

"Mother Goose" Morality and Music.

A Charming Entertainment at the Opera House—Under W. C. T. U. Auspices.

The entertainment given at the Opera House on Thursday evening by that widely known and highly respected old lady, Mother Goose, assisted by her brood and other ladies and gentlemen, was a unique success. The house was fairly well filled. The evening's programme was inaugurated by a prologue, presented by Mr. A. Clegg and Miss Saunders, after which followed the procession of the full strength of the nursery chorus, consisting of fifty children. The chief characters were costumed in a manner befitting the character assumed. "Mother Goose," Miss Mary Fife, filled her part excellently, and, one after the other, introduced her children, each one repeating or singing a verse of the old nursery rhyme with a temperance moral tacked on or woven through, the full "family" joining in the chorus with fine effect. The nursery romances selected (with personations of characters) to point a moral, were:—

Mother Goose	Miss Mary Fife
Jack and Jill	Master Percy Owens and Miss Annie Bellegheem
Red Ridinghood	Miss Gerty Kendry
Old Woman who lives in a shoe	Miss Helen Hilliard
King Coal	Master Eddie Walton
Humpty Dumpty	Herbie King
Little Boy Blue	Willie Stubbs
Goody Two-shoes	Miss Jennie Moyse
Blue Beard	Master Thompson Lee
Bopeep	Miss Alice Fife
Mother Hubbard	Miss Abbie Robinson
Jack Horner	Master Ery Hall
Jack the Giant Killer	Master Robby Irwin

While all the characters were well taken, there were two or three particularly well done. "The old woman who lived in a shoe" was very attractive, and great was the delight of the youngsters as the children came pouring out of the huge shoe erected on the stage, and, in their night gear gathered round the mother singing a lullaby, and with capital effect too. "Old King Coal," Master Eddie Walton, recited his lines admirably and gave the best example of elocution the evening afforded. "Goody Two-shoes," Miss Jennie Moyse, was also capitally taken. Her singing was exceedingly well done, and this little lady with proper training will make a fine vocalist. "Jack the Giant Killer," Robby Irwin, made an emphatic application of the temperance sermon of the evening, and brought the programme to a close by slaying the giant, "Ram" in a most unmistakable manner. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., who acted in the capacity of chairman, with a few appropriate remarks, brought on the second part of the entertainment. Miss Howden and Mrs. W. Daly gave songs. The former rendered, in her well known finished style, "Day Dreams" and "When the Sparrows Build," and both called forth encores. To the first she responded with "The Reason Why," and to the second with Arditi's "Il Bacio," a selection best suited in brilliancy and style to Miss Howden's well-cultured voice. Mrs. Daly sang with the sweetness and admirable distinctness of enunciation, characteristic of her vocal performances, the ballad, "My Sailor Love." She modestly bowed her acknowledgement to the very hearty encore with which she was honored. Miss Lizzie Sanderson recited with great feeling the pathetic poem, "The Maiden Martyr of Scotland." Rev. M. L. Pearson substituted for the reading for which he was put down, a warm eulogy upon the entertainment and a vote of thanks to Mr. Dingle, the ladies of the Union and all who assisted in promoting the success of a delightful entertainment, which was enthusiastically carried, and the audience dispersed, the performance having been opened with "God Save the Queen."

Creditable to Mr. Rooney.

The EXAMINER is informed that of the four pupils passed and recommended for entrance to the Collegiate Institute at the last examinations, three were prepared by Mr. J. J. Rooney, head-master of the Ashburnham public school. They were, Martha E. Beattie, Annie L. Wood, and (recommended) Minnie A. Hamilton. This is highly creditable to Mr. Rooney.

A Curious "Bird."

Mr. John Wilson, of the Royal Oak Hotel, invited a reporter of the EXAMINER into the back yard of his hotel to show him a curious "bird." It was a horned toad burrowed in a bed of sand. This toad has four distinct horns about half an inch long, sloping backward and ranged in a semi-circular row at the back of the head. Its body is of the color of an ordinary toad, but covered with little horns or spines. The margin of the body between the abdominal and dorsal surfaces is marked by a closely set row of little horns. The belly is yellowish dotted with blackish spots. This toad is precisely like the horned toad supposed to be found only in tropical regions, and how it found its way to the garden of Mr. Halpin, south ward, is a mystery. Mrs. Halpin presented the toad to her father, Mr. Wilson. Will some scientist investigate and report?

Willow and Wicket.

Toronto vs. Peterborough.

The match on the home grounds between the Torontos and the Peterboroughs, resulted in a sound drubbing of the home team—nine wickets in a team of twelve, which each side played. The visitors were fresh from their victory at Ottawa, and they maintained their ascendancy here. Peterborough suffered a straight defeat, the only redeeming feature of which is, that Toronto did only half the beating, the borough boys contributing the other half handsomely. The start was made in good time the visitors going to the bat, Winslow and Jones facing the bowling of Day and Logan, who were retired for only 7. Fleury, who made the big 99 at Ottawa, scored 32, after three or four innings put together, for he was palpably muffed three or four times. In fact a strong prejudice against holding the ball contributed in no small degree to the visitors piling up, before the last man was retired, 133 runs, instead of about 80, at which it would have stood if good chances had not been refused. Collins with 11. Guthrie with 22 and Shanly with a good 28, were the other double figures. The home team followed, but with indifferent success. The total run up was only seventy, several of the home batsmen—who, on the average, are able, against yesterday's bowling, to each run up as good a total—only contributing ducks and other such small game. Stratton put in a magnificent innings of 36, more than half of the total score. A score was never better earned; his bat did the whole business. He did not give a single chance, no field in the world could have reduced his score a single run, and the bowling was unable by the most patent investigation and change to find the location of his wickets, for he carried his bat, as he did in the second innings, for an equally faultless 32. The home team had a follow on and did somewhat better, though it was a decidedly blue lookout in the first half when the telegraph showed 6 wickets down for 20 runs. But Sam Ray got his eye on the ball and set his muscle to work to raise the score. In one over he put in 9 runs, eight of which were composed of two magnificent drives for four outside the grounds. In the next over he repeated this performance, but Collins took him sharply in the slips with the catch of a lifetime and a score of 20. Parker and Stratton were the only other bats to make a stand, the latter with 32 already referred to and Parker with 20, but he was handsomely taken by Brown at long field, the latter following with a magnificent capture of a drive of Minore to on, and the scoring was done, with 87, of which 72 were contributed by Stratton, Ray and Parker. The visitors succeeded in putting up the 26 to tie, with the fall of two wickets. Fleury with his usual good luck got 21 of these. The bowling of the visitors was medium and its novelty to our boys, accustomed to rapid delivery, may to some extent explain the game of yesterday. The bowling of the Peterboroughs was good, in fact it did about all the work, and if the field had backed Logan and Day the former would not have had need to clean bowl six men in the first innings of the visitors. Below is the score:—

As was remarked above, the home team, by their failure in the field, aided their own defeat. When a team which scored 289 against Ottawa the day before, was retired here for a total of 133, the majority of the men having to be put out twice, some of them more than that, through the indifferent fielding, leaving the bowlers to do all the work, it is certainly time that the home team should try to get a little practice in fielding and running between wickets. Cricket is not a game of specialties, but all round work. Not a single man can be supposed, during a match, to have a sinecure position. A number of practice matches should be organized, and some beneficial all-'round practice secured. The home club has the stuff in them, and it only requires intelligent and well-directed practice to bring them up to the level of any club in Canada.

Police Court.

FRIDAY, July 20th.

A vagrant who has just finished a thirty days term in jail appeared this morning before Police Magistrate Dumble, for being drunk in public places. He was allowed to go on condition that he leave town immediately, but if found in town to-morrow he would be arrested and not let off so easy next time.

Another disorderly drunk who hailed from Vermont was discharged on condition that he leave town also, or the same steps would be taken against him.

One man, who is not a stranger at the police court, was fined $5 or ten days in jail for being drunk and acting disorderly in public places. He was heard to use exceedingly rough language on the street. He was allowed ten days to pay the fine.

Personal.

Mr. Peter Clark, of the Northern line, now occupies the position of assistant-mechanical superintendant of the Midland Division, rendered vacant by the promotion of Mr. J. D. Barnett to the Stratford Division.

At the Masonic Grand Lodge, R.W. Bro. B. Shortly was re-elected district Deputy Grand Master for the Ontario district. The EXAMINER heartily congratulates Mr. Shortly upon the confidence of the Grand Lodge in his fitness for the position, and its endorsation of the work done by him during the past year, as implied by his re-election.

The Rev. J. McEwen left for Niagara on Thursday where he will spend two or three weeks. After which he will proceed to Chautauqua to take charge of the biblical department of the Chautauqua Circle. During Mr. McEwen's absence, the Rev. Orr Bennett, of Queen's University, Kingston, will take charge of the Presbyterian congregation at Lakefield.

The Foresters' Success.

The Annual Excursion to Jubilee Point—A Splendid Success in Every Sense—A Big Passenger List.

The annual outing of Court Peterborough, No. 29, Canadian Order Foresters on Thursday to Jubilee Point was of the usual successful character which attaches to all their excursions—in every way a splendid success. The steamer "Golden Eye" left her wharf at 7.30, with a large number on board, about 150 of the men walking on to the locks where they went on board and the steamer was relieved by the palace scow, which was attached at the locks, being immediately filled. Here dancing was at once began and kept up persistently all the way down to the excellent music of the Fire Brigade Orchestra. The voyage down the river was without special incident till within two miles of the Point, where the tail end of Rathbun's drive gave some trouble and delay. In spite of this, however, the steamer with her company of between five and six hundred reached the Point at 12.15. Those who had baskets at once set to work preparing for dinner, which was much facilitated by the sub-committee having prepared the tea for the party on the way down, and on arrival all there was to do was to serve it out. A large number got excellent meals on the boat, and those who got access to the first two tables at the Hotel de Calcutt, fared well, but these two tables pretty well exhausted the victualling resources of the hotel, which, not knowing how Foresters do things, had not provided for so large a crowd. Those who were disappointed at the hotel went to the boat, were well served, and in a short time, like the others, well fed and happy. After dinner, the other kinds of enjoyment began, swinging, boating, fishing and dancing in the pavilion. A very nice programme of

SPORTS AND GAMES

was conducted by the committee. The following are the prize winners:—

100 YDS. RACE—Entries: A. Moore, —, Clark, J. Rose. Moore 1st, Clarke 2nd.

BOYS' RACE, 100 yds.—Entries: B Rickey, W. Walsh, H. Stenton and A. Potvin. Potvin 1st, Rickey 2nd.

BOYS' BOOT RACE—Entries: B. Rickey, W. Walsh and J. Preston. Preston 1st, Walsh 2nd.

FORESTERS' RACE—Entries: J. Brooks, G. H. Martin and W. Robinson. Martin 1st, Brooks 2nd.

TUG-OF-WAR—Foresters vs. Outsiders—drawn.

The steamer left for home at 4:15 and had a better voyage home, the logs had obligingly ranged themselves along the shore, and it was all smooth sailing. A halt was made at Campbelltown where tea was partaken of. On the return the locks were reached at 9:45 and the home wharf at 10:30, not a single mishap, accident, untoward event, disorderly act or unpleasantness marring the pleasure of the day. The respectable character of the passengers was largely to blame for this but the committee and the several sub-committees deserve great credit for the excellence and completeness of all details of arrangement—and the hands of the veterans of excursion life were visible in the resulting smoothness.

NOTES.

This excursion was the largest that ever went down the river, and one of the pleasantest, too.

The Hotel de Calcutt at the Point is well built (by Mr. Erskine) and equipped, and well conducted by Mr. M. Greer.

The courtesy and kindness of the Captain and crew of the Golden-Eye won the gratitude of the whole party.

The young folks who kept up dancing so continuously should present Mr. James Coughlin, master of ceremonies, with a testimonial for his services.

The manufacturing establishments of the town made large contributions to the party numerically.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

We have a cheese factory here, it was not started till the 16th May. There were 23 cheese made in May. There are not many patrons and not many cows to put in the factory. There were 73 cheese made in June and sold for 9⅞ cents per lb.

We have very dry weather here and drying winds; we want rain very much; the grain is loosing for want of rain.

The battle of the Boyne was celebrated here on the 12th. Deer Lake L.O.L., No. 74, 27 members, and Bancroft L.O.L., No. 624, 35 members. The day was hot but pleasant. After satisfying the inner man with the good things provided by mine host Mrs. W. Ogilve, and speeches from the Worthy Master, T. McInroy and lay and clerical brethren, the visitors started for home apparantly pleased with their visit.

Letting the Contract for the Water Power Canal—Its Effects on the Milling Business.

SAULT STE. MARIE, July 18.—The contract for the water power canal was let today to Messrs. MacArthur Bros., of Chicago. The canal when completed will be three miles long, and have a capacity of 800,000 horse power. It is to cost about $750,000, and will likely cause the milling centre of the North-West to move from Minneapolis to this point. There is great rejoicing here over the event, as the future growth of the city depended to a great extent upon the construction of the canal, which will make the Soo an important manufacturing centre.

C. P. Telegraph Co.

The new C. P. telegraph office that was opened in Lindsay recently is now in good good working order. The scores of the baseball games in the International league are received by innings and posted up for the benefit of the public. This advertises the office and no doubt they will soon do a good business.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

DOMINION NEWS NOTES

MRS. DONALDSON'S FATAL FALL AT OTTAWA.

Drowning Accident at Hamilton—Another Meeting at Montreal Enters a Protest Against Pauper Immigration—Telegraphic Extension in New Brunswick.

OTTAWA, July 22.—A sad accident occurred here this morning which resulted in the death of Mrs. Donaldson, wife of the late Major Donaldson. The deceased lady whilst walking along the edge of the cliff at the end of Sparks-street fell over and was almost instantly killed. The cliff at this place is about sixty feet high. The deceased lady was about 60 years of age and highly respected. Her son-in-law, Barrister E. P. Remon who has been ill for some time past, expired a few hours afterwards.

Drowning Accident at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, July 22.—A yount man named Walter Lawrence, employed in Knox, Morgan & Co's wholesale dry goods establishment, in company with three other young men, hired the yacht Volunteer to-day and went across the bay to bathe. Near the powder magazine on the north shore of the bay, while the yacht was still under way, Lawrence began undressing, when he fell overboard. He could not swim and before his companions could turn the yacht to rescue him he was drowned. The body has not been recovered.

Against Pauper Immigration.

MONTREAL, July 22.—A mass meeting under the auspices of the Central Trades and Labor Council was held at Papineau-square last evening to protest against pauper immigration. Several labor representatives addressed the meeting and similar resolutions to those adopted at the meeting held a week ago were carried with an additional one protesting against alien contract labor and demanding that the Government should put a stop to it at once by legislation, the same as in the United States.

Telegraphic Extension.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 22.—The Canadian Pacific is now getting out a large quantity of telegraph poles for the short line through Maine and New Brunswick. These for this province are chiefly cut on the lands of the New Brunswick Railway. The intention of the Canadian Pacific is, not only to construct their telegraph line over the new road but to extend it along all their connecting lines in this province which will include such points as Fredericton and St. John, and may take in Chatham by the new railway. The extension of facilities for telegraphing, especially with the upper provinces, will be hailed with considerable satisfaction by a great many persons in New Brunswick.

BELLEVILLE, July 22.—John Wallace, an employe of John Irvine, of Sidney, was instantly killed in the hayfield yesterday morning by falling from the top of a waggon-load of hay.

While a young girl named Kennedy was on her way to market with a companion she was seized by a man who attempted to gag her. The girl's screams, however, frightened her assailant away.

The Bay Bridge Bylaw was adopted by the people of Amelasburg yesterday by 21 majority.

RENEWED ATTACKS AT BERLIN ON RUSSIAN AGGRESSION.

The French Press Excited by the Rumour that France is to be Disarmed—The Pope's Protest Against Emperor William's Projected Visit to Rome.

BERLIN, July 22.—The political results of the Emperor's visit to the Czar remain absolutely unknown. The disposition of official circles is toward a disbelief that the interviews have determined anything. The immediate effect has been to lessen the strain of the relations between the Berlin and St. Petersburg foreign offices, but it is noteworthy that while M. de Giers and Count Herbert Bismarck exchange confidences at Peterhof The North German Gazette and other inspired organs renew their attacks against the Russian spirit of aggression. An article in The North German Gazette on Thursday denouncing pan-Slavism as a menace to the peace of Europe was worthy of the warmest period of the anti-Russian campaign. It checked operations on the bourse and caused a slight fall in roubles. The obvious aim was to show that the policy of Prince Bismarck is not changed by the courtesy of the visit of Emperor William to the Czar. The Cologne Gazette also treats the interview as simply a friendly manifestation toward the Czar, implying no deviation from German projects or a sacrifice of German interests. The Cologne Gazette explicitly denies that any special question has been resolved at Peterhof, or that anything has been done affecting existing treaties. Diplomatic circles are convinced to the same effect and regard the interview with indifference.

Emperor William's tour of the leading courts of Europe is certainly in the interest of peace for the time being, prolonging as it does the period of truce; but it is now recognised as a purely social function, the new monarch paying his first visit to the heads of States with whom he desires to cultivate amity. The foreign press gets absurd rumors that France is to be overpowered and disarmed; that the Czar joins the central alliance; that a congress will revise the Berlin treaty; that the Emperors have agreed to combine to uproot anarchists, whether German socialists or Russian nihilists, and so forth. All alike are fictions.

The French papers are especially excited over the rumor that France is to be disarmed, associated as it is with an increase of military activities in Alsace-Lorraine. The movement of troops from the interior towards the frontier and the reinforcing of the garrisons at Strasbourg and Metz are regarded as suggestive of a scheme to surprise France. The real object of these movements is to prepare for extensive manœuvres around Metz during the Emperor's visit to Alsace-Lorraine about the middle of August. The manœuvres will certainly be on a gigantic scale, engaging 120,000 troops, and will be a significant demonstration for French Chauvinism to ponder over. They should also tend to help the malcontents to accept the appropriation of Alsace-Lorraine by Germany as inevitable.

The Emperor's projected meeting with King Humbert is definitely fixed for October. Under the instigation of Prime Minister Crispi King Humbert has asked the Emperor to visit Rome, and the latter has assented. The Pope being apprised of this has sent a vigorous protest to Prince Bismarck, declaring that the Emperor's presence at Rome would be an act of hostility towards the Vatican, especially during the pending crisis with the Italian Goverment. Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State, has also sent circulars to the nuncios at Bavaria and Austria, asking them to use their influence with those governments to induce them to advise Emperor William that his interview with King Humbert must be at a place remote from Rome.

Mgr. Galimberti sought a conference with Prince Henry of Reuss, the German Ambassador at Vienna, and made an urgent representation, declaring that an interview with King Humbert in Rome would render the Pope's position intolerable and probably precipitate his departure. Signor Crispi holds that there has been no arrangement hitherto that the German sovereign should be received in Rome.

In deference to Catholic sentiment, monarchs meeting or visiting Emanuel or Humbert have avoided sanctioning by their presence at the Quirinal, the Pope's dispossession, and the Vatican has not failed to draw advantage from this fact, using it as proof that the Italian Government's occupation of the Pope's territory was not definitive, even in the eyes of Italy's allies. Signor Crispi, it is understood, attaches the greatest significance to the matter.

Queen Natalie, of Servia, who arrived at The Hague to-night, has further cause for complaint against the Berlin Government. She accuses Count von Bray-Steinberg, the German Minister at Belgrade, of urging King Milan to contract a marriage with one of the Saxe-Altenbourg princesses. The Servian Premier approves the project. Nothing will be done openly until a divorce has been obtained. The proceedings move slowly. A powerful section of the higher Servian clergy opposes a divorce and denies the competence of the synod to interfere. The attitude of the clergy being likely to prevent the granting of a divorce, the friends of Queen Natalie have renewed negotiations for a separation under the terms offered her at Wiesbaden.

CHEERED BY THE RUSSIAN TROOPS.

A Hearty Welcome for Emperor William—An Exchange of Honors.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—Emperor William reviewed the troops at Krasno-Selo Friday evening. On the Emperor's arrival, in company with the Czar, the bands played the Prussian National Hymn and the troops cheered. Later the Emperor joined the Russian Imperial family and Prince Henry of Prussia at the pavilion, where the bands played selections from German and Russian airs.

Emperor William has conferred the decoration of the Order of the Black Eagle upon Duke Alexander of Oldenburg, Commander of the Russian Guards Corps. In bestowing the decoration the Emperor extolled the perfection of the corps.

Prince Henry of Prussia has been appointed Honorary Commander of the 33rd Regiment of Russian Dragoons. Emperor William has appointed the Czarewitch Chief of the First Westphalian Regiment of Hussars.

The German Imperial visitors attended a Lutheran service this morning. Afterwards they accompanied the Czar and Czarina to the Castle chapel, where services were held according to the Russian liturgy. Splendid chorals were rendered by the Court singers. The departure of the German Imperial party has been postponed until Tuesday morning.

The Official Messenger says that in proposing the health of Emperor William at Krasnoe-Selo the Czar included the toast "His glorious army."

Emperor William visited the Queen of the Hellenes on Saturday.

Uncle Sam's Crops.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The weather during the week has been favorable for the growing crops in the wheat and corn regions of the Northwest.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 22.—John Goggin, who lives on the South Branch of the Oromocto, was assisting a neighbor to pull down a barn when the beats of the building gave way and fell on him, crushing him to the ground. He was got out from under the heavy beams as quickly as possible, but he gave a few gasps and dropped dead. He was about 40 years of age and leaves a large family.

TELLER TAKES THE FLOOR.

Address of the Colorado Senator on the Fisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—In the Senate to-day in open executive session Mr. Teller (Rep.) continued the discussion of the Fisheries Treaty. He said that if the treaty had come from a Republican administration he did not believe there was a Republican Senator who would have supported it and there was not a Democratic Senator who would have supported it if it had not come from a Democratic administration. He knew that there was not any considerable number of Democratic Senators who would have supported it but for the fact that the power of the administration had been brought to bear upon them to compel their support. If any Senators desired proof that the administration was the active propagandist of the treaty he would furnish it.

Proceeding to discuss the treaty on its merits he declared that the American rights to the fisheries were inherent and were no more conferred by treaties than were the boundaries of the Republic itself. The American people were not to be intimidated by threats of war or by the suggestion of the difficulty which might occur in the maintenance of that which rightfully belonged to them.

Mr. Teller spoke of the alleged insults offered the American flag by Canadian cruisers and said no decent apology had been made for these acts, but this was in keeping with the whole course of the administration in dealing with the British Government. If there was a disgraceful chapter in American history it was in connection with that negotiation by which it was undertaken through the Secretary of State to assist the Democratic party by allying it with the Canadian party and with the British party. It was folly to talk of war, but if war should come America would be just as well prepared as Great Britain.

The Vote on the Mills Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—An analysis of the vote on the Mills Tariff Bill, which was passed by the House yesterday, shows that of the 162 voting for the measure 156 were Democrats, three—Brower (N. C.), Fitch (N. Y.) and Nelson (Minn.)—were Republicans, and three—Anderson (Ia.), Hopkins (Va.) and Smith (Wis.)—were Independent, the two last named being Labor representatives. Of the 149 votes against the measure 144 were Republicans and 4—Bliss (N. Y.), Greenman (N. Y.), Merriman (N. Y.) and Sawden (Pa.) were Democratic.

BAUEREISN AGAIN ARRAIGNED.

Bowles Repeats His Story and the Accused is Held For Trial.

CHICAGO, July 22.—The trial of the charges against John A. Bauereisn, accused under the State laws of procuring dynamite to be brought into the State for illegal purposes, came up before Justice Lyon on Saturday.

Bowles was the first witness and he succeeded in making out a complete case against the defendant. He said that after a secret meeting of the brotherhood Bauereisn told him that dynamite could be used with good effect and he asked witness if he could get some. The latter replied in the affirmative. The witness then said: "Bauereisn gave me $7.50 with which to purchase it. I then came to Chicago, but could not get any here and I went to Logansville, Ind., where I got a pound and a half and brought it back to Chicago. I brought it to the Grand Pacific and left it in room No. 34. Down stairs I met Bauereisn and told him that I had it. He wanted me to take it to Aurora, but I would not and he then asked me to take it to George Clark at Galesburg and gave me $10. I took it to Clark and returning to Aurora told Bauereisn that I had delivered it. He then asked me to get some more.

"I told him," continued Bowles, "that Clark had used it, and he gave me $9 to get more. I went to Indiana, got more dynamite and brought it back. I showed it to Mr. Hoge—"

Attorney David was unable to catch his breath sufficiently to shout an objection, but his wildly waving arms brought the witness to a standstill and he was told not to mind what he had showed to Hoge. This was the only sensational feature of the trial.

Smith was then called and he substantially repeated his testimony given before Commissioner Hoyne.

Bauereisn was held to the Criminal Court under bonds of $3,500 which he readily furnished.

Another Striker Placed Under Arrest.

AURORA, Ill., July 22.—Ex-Engineer August Koegel, a prominent brotherhood man and striker, was awakened by a deputy sheriff this morning and escorted before a justice on the charge of assisting Bauereisn, Bowles, and the remaining alleged conspirators, in procuring, storing, and distributing dynamite, knowing at the time that the explosives were to be used for the purposes of injuring the property and business of the Burlington road. Koegel was not a whit surprised, pleasantly acknowledging that he rather expected a visit from the officer and cheerfully accompanied him to the Justice's office, where he furnished bonds of $5,000 for his appearance Wednesday next. Bowles was a former roommate of Koegel's, and the testimony of the former, that he had left some dynamite in his room at Heck's Hotel, was probably the cause of the arrest. Koegel denies all knowledge of the dynamite said to have been in his room.

Carbolic Acid Poured Down His Throat.

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 21.—Oscar W. Doran, an engineer, died here this morning under circumstances that cause the belief that he was killed by his wife. They had been living apart for several months, although not divorced, she remaining in Indianapolis. Last night she came down to see him, and they occupied a room together at the hotel. Early this morning screams were heard there and he was found in a dying condition, carbolic acid having been poured down his throat and over his face and breast. He died in a few minutes and she was arrested for the murder. She claims he committed suicide.

Drowned While Boating.

BROOKFIELD, Mass, July 22.—Mrs. W. B. Jones, her daughter and two small grandchildren were drowned here yesterday afternoon by the capsising of the boat in which they were rowing on Podunk Pond.

ENDANGERED BY GREED.

THE SALMON FISHERIES IN PERIL FROM THE CANNERS.

A Petition Forwarded to the Government by the British Columbia Board of Trade Asking for the Adoption of Restrictive Measures.

OTTAWA, July 22.—The gradual killing off of the lobsters in the Maritime Provinces owing to the reckless destruction by the canners has opened the eyes of British Columbians to the fact that the splendid salmon fisheries of that province are liable to partial if not complete extinction from the same greed of the canning companies, and a petition has been forwarded by the British Columbia Board of Trade praying that restrictive measures be adopted.

The Fisheries Department has concluded the payment of bounty claims to Canadian fishermen who number over 45,000. Forty thousand checks involving an expenditure of $150,000 were issued.

The Government steamer Newfield will leave Halifax in a few days to repair the breaks in the Magdalen Island and Bird Rocks cables. Telegraphic communication has been interrupted since April last. The Newfield was undergoing repairs and could not be sooner obtained by the Public Works Department.

Mr. F. N. Gisborne, Superintendent of Government Telegraphs, will visit the Northwest and British Columbia on official business this fall. Before doing so he will lay three Government cables, one between Kingston and Howe Island and a second from Howe Island to Wolf Island. The third cable will connect Pelee Island in Lake Erie with the mainland. The latter cable will weigh over twenty tons.

John Page, Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, has gone to St. Catharines on a tour of inspection of the Welland Canal.

Little Madawaska depot, one of Perley and Patte's stations at Pettewawa River, was burned last Tuesday, about $10,000 worth of provisions, stock, etc., being destroyed.

The bush fires in the section are very heavy. On Wednesday 100 men from the drives, who were fighting the fire near Little Rapids depot, were surrounded by flames and would undoubtedly have perished had it not been for heavy rains which quenched but did not extinguish the fires. All the men escaped.

THE MANDEVILLE INQUEST.

Sensational Evidence Given by an ex-Warden of Tullamore Jail.

DUBLIN, July 22.—The Mandeville inquest was continued yesterday. A great sensation was caused by the evidence of Daniel Goulding, who was formerly a warden in Tullamore Jail. Goulding deposed that on the evening of Nov. 22 the Governor of the Jail said that he had received orders to strip Mr. Mandeville, that he (witness) and the other five warders entered the prisoner's cell and found him sleeping soundly, that they shook him rudely and aroused him, that Mr. Mandeville resisted but was stripped naked, in which condition he remained during the night. Witness said he was aware that Mr. Mandeville had been punished for periods never before recorded. The inquest was adjourned.

O'Brien at Edinburgh.

EDINBURGH, July 22.—Mr. William O'Brien addressing a meeting here last night said he believed that deep in the British heart there was a feeling of sickness and loathing for the endless misery and bloodguiltiness in Ireland. It was the deepest desire of the Irish, he said, to forgive and forget the miserable past and enter into a brighter and better time.

THE YANKEE LIAR.

A New York Herald Correspondent's Story Denied—Winnipeg Notes.

WINNIPEG, July 22.—Prominent citizens of St. Boniface deny that the appeal for aid from the Metis of the Northwest, which was wired to The New York Herald, was ever received at St. Boniface.

Mayor Jonas' resignation will probably not be accepted.

Governor Royal left for Ottawa to-night.

Deputy Registrar-General Chenier's appointment has been cancelled.

The Early Closing Association is taking steps to put the Act recently passed by the Legislature into operation.

THE BOHEMIAN PLOTTERS.

Consternation Among Chicago Anarchists—Sensational Developments Promised.

CHICAGO, July 22.—"This is only a prelude," said a Central Station detective, speaking of the arrest of the Bohemian dynamiters Developments far more important and sensational will soon follow and at least six more Anarchists, all Germans and prominently identified with the Haymarket riot, will be placed under arrest."

It appears that since the Northwest side group, of which Fischer and Engel were members, was disbanded about a year and a half ago, a number of small Anarchist groups have been formed in various parts of the city. The group is organized on a plan suggested by Johann Most and his associates in New York. Each group is composed of but three or four members and is entirely independent in its actions. Whatever a group undertakes it does on its own responsibility. In case its existence is discovered only its own members are affected, and these can furnish the police information but about themselves. The members of one group know nothing about those of another, and the only way they communicate is through ciphers in Johann Most's New York paper, The Freiheit.

The arrest of the Bohemian plotters has caused great consternation among the Anarchists. They lay all the blame on the police, of course, and characterize the arrest of Hronek and comrades as a farce.

OSHAWA, July 22.—An attempt at robbery was made last night about 11 o'clock on one of the back streets, but the thieves were scared and left.

The Tariff and the Drouth.

Mr. Allen Pringle, of Selby, Lennox county, where the drouth is particularly severe, has been moved to send the following letter to the Mail:—

My report in the Mail a few days ago, of the terrible drought prevailing in this and contiguous counties, has since been fully corroborated in your columns by several correspondents. And the worst has hardly yet been told. In some portions of the townships of Fredericksburg and Adolphustown there is almost nothing in the shape of vegetation. The case is very serious, as, from the combined effects of two adverse seasons in succession, many mortgaged farmers will undoubtedly go under. Indeed, many succumbed from the effects of last year, and the number will be increased this.

What is to be done? That is the question. I cannot agree with the suggestions made by some of your correspondents, that direct government assistance in loans or bonuses ought to be invoked and granted. The principle is entirely wrong, and I regret to see such suggestions coming from the farmers. As two wrongs fail to make a right, when the Government chooses to extend special favors to one class of citizens, that is no good reason why another class should seek and obtain special favors. When the Government bonuses ("protects") a few of its citizens, the manufacturers, who do not really need the gratuity, that is no reason why it should distribute the public money amongst the many who, however, really do need assistance at such a juncture. The farmer wants no special favors from the Government. He only wants justice, but that is denied him. He only wants an equal chance with his fellow-citizens, but he has not got that. He only claims his economic rights—nothing more. These he demands, and these he must get in the end.

No; he asks no special favours from the Government even in such an extremity. Nor has he any right to do so, any more than the mechanic, the artisan, the labourer, or any other humble worker. When the farmer loses his farm, he must remember he is still as well off as hundreds of mechanics and day laborers who are unable to get five shillings ahead from month to month. If he has a right to go to the Government under such circumstances for a bonus, they have an equal right. Neither has the right. What right then has the "protected" class to go to the Government for a bonus of the people's money? And what right has the Government to discriminate against the other classes and grant it? Even though the Government made no discrimination it has no right to give to any. The proper function of government is to give each citizen an equal chance with every other citizen, and give special favor or protection to none. Of course every citizen will not succeed as well as every other citizen in the "struggle for existence," because of natural inequalities and other circumstances. But if he has the same chance to succeed, so far as the "powers that be" dispense the chances, he can find no fault with the "powers."

Now, what are the facts in this country and under this Government? Have all citizens equal civil and commercial rights? No. There is fish and there is flesh. Has the farmer the same chance to succeed—the same privileges under the law—as every other class? No; he is the small fish to be swallowed by the larger gudgeons. He is legally fleeced to enrich a smaller and less useful class. So also is the mechanic and labouring man. One of the natural rights of man—especially of the producer—is to sell the fruit of his labor where he likes without let or hindrance, and to buy of his fellow what he needs without let or hindrance. No Government has any right to interfere with such privilege, especially when such interference amounts to a discrimination in favour of one citizen and against another.

What is the Ontario farmer's position now in the dried up district? It is this:—He finds that he has but very little on his farm as the fruit of his season's labour. He is not to blame for this; he has worked faithfully. The Government is not to blame for it. He also finds that he must procure feed for his stock, and food for his family, or they will starve. Failing to raise them himself in the face of nature's withering frown, he must have hay, and oats, and corn, and other necessaries, but he cannot get them at a reasonable price. For this the Government is to blame. The drought is not universal. The famine is local. The necessaries of life for man and beast exist in abundance near our doors, with our neighbors, who would be glad to sell to us, but we are not permitted to buy, unless we consent with every purchase we make to also drop a contribution into the coffers of some protege of the Government who has no claim upon us, and who needs it a hundred times less than we. We must either pay these pensions and tariff prices or dispose of the stock at other ruinous tariff prices. Thus it is that the Ontario farmer is at present "between the devil and the deep sea," and he asks the Government to roast the tariff-devil. He must have hay, oats, and corn to winter his stock, and he asks the Government to take the duty from these articles, and thus assist him in reaching them. And this is not asking a favour; it is simply claiming a right.

Crop Prospects.

The Outlook in the Midland District.

The following report of the state of the crops in the Midland district has been compiled:—

SIMCOE.

BARRIE, July 20.—The crops in this vicinity are very poor, owing to the continued drought. Fall wheat is a pretty good crop, except where winter-killed. Spring wheat is short. Barley in some localities is pretty fair, but as a rule light. Oats are very short and in many places will be difficult to cut. Roots are almost a failure, and if not favored with plenty of rain potatoes will not be worth digging up.

ONTARIO.

OSHAWA, July 20.—The crops in this vicinity are well up to expectations. Barley and peas will be about an average yield; wheat below the average. Corn is looking well, and potatoes have a fine growth, but the yield promised to be light. Oats will be a fair average crop. The hay crop, which has been harvested, is very light, not averaging more than half a crop. Mangels, carrots and turnips promise fairly. The apple crop will be almost the same as last year.

VICTORIA.

LINDSAY, July 20.—Wheat and barley in this section will be a much better crop than anticipated. The straw is short, but the grain heads are large and heavy. A good deal of the fall wheat was winter-killed and replaced with barley. The barley crop in consequence will be larger than usual in extent and of good quality. Hay is on the light side, but low lands show a good return. All root crops have suffered a great deal from the drought and will give a light yield. The two fine rains this week have done great good.

DURHAM.

PORT HOPE, July 20.—Hay is light but well-saved—about two-thirds of a crop. Fall wheat, where not winter-killed, fair average. Spring wheat will be an average yield. The straw is short but the head exceptionally well filled. The sample will be A 1. Barley is inclined to be light, but the late rains have wonderfully helped to fill out the head—probably an average yield. Oats good. Peas have suffered severely, more particularly the early varieties. In some localities the grub has almost destroyed the crop. The field or coarser varieties that are late will be a fair average crop. Corn and potatoes first class. The root crops will doubtless be over an average—the late rains have saved them.

NORTHUMBERLAND.

COBOURG, July 20.—On account of the severe drought in this district the hay crop was almost a failure, and was in many pieces not worth hauling. From the same cause barley and spring wheat are short in the straw, but the cool weather prevailing the past two weeks has developed the ears and filled the grains, thus saving the farmers from the famine that threatened them. Fall wheat is an average crop, but the acreage in the country is small. The rain this week has resuscitated fields of oats and peas sown late, and also the root crops, which were dying last week. Farmers are in despair to know where to get fodder for their live stock in the winter months, and say they will petition the Dominion Government to place American coarse grains on the free list. The pea crop was either destroyed by an insect pest or cut green for feed. The fruit crop promises well if the country is blessed with a few more showers.

HALTON REFORMERS.

Mr. John Waldie of Toronto Chosen as Candidate for the Dominion House.

MILTON, July 12.—At the Reform convention for the county of Halton, held here to-day, Mr. John Waldie of Toronto was selected to contest the coming election for the House of Commons in the Reform interest. Dr. Robertson presided. It was decided that the selection of a candidate should be according to American usage. Ballots were therefore cast, there being no nomination made and Mr. Waldie secured 84 out of 110 on the first ballot.

Mr. Waldie carried the county by 9 majority the general election of 1887, but the election being protested he voluntarily resigned his seat. David Henderson, Conservative, was elected by 147 over Wm. McLeod, but he has been unseated for bribery by an agent. It is probable that Mr. Henderson will be again chosen as the Conservative candidate by the convention to be held shortly, and a hard contest is looked for.

A Good Corn Shelter for 25 cents.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy, and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—safe, sure and painless. Sold at druggists. 6dw30

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel-complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 3w29d

Testimonials.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. It allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

Dandruff, Baldness, Thin or Grey Hair

Everybody knows how disagreeable it looks to see Dandruff falling from the head to the shoulders of either lady or gentlemen. The head may be washed ever so often, but it will not clean out this evil. The only sure way to get rid of it is to use

DR. DORENWEND'S

HAIR MAGIC

It keeps the Hair and scalp in a healthy condition, prevents premature grayness, and stops all falling out of the hair. A person may be bald, but the roots may only be dormant and simply require stimulating to encourage a luxuriant growth of hair. "Hair Magic" will be found invaluable in these cases.

Do not delay, but get a bottle at once while there is a chance of successful results. All Druggists sell it.

SUN

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377 69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1875, four years	$ 54,611 21	$189,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	383,264 31	2,902,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,607 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

MONDAY, JULY 23, 1888.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate winds, fine and warmer to-day, fair and very warm to-morrow, with a few local thunderstorms.

Feminine Jealousy.

Every lady seems to delight to cast every other lady in the shade, especially in the matter of dress, but hereafter hundreds of ladies will desire to cast themselves in the shade—when they read that at the golden lion a grand collection of cream lace parasols, worth from $2 to $2.50, are now being sold to clear at $1. If carried over another season the price would have to be reduced. Now the reduction is made while the goods are fresh and seasonable.

St. Paul's Church S. S. Pic-nic.

The annual pic-nic of St. Paul's church Sunday school will be held at Stony Lake to-morrow. The pupils and friends will make an excursion to the lake on that date by Midland railway and steamer. Fares:—Infant class, free; general Sunday School, 25 cents; Bible class, 60 cents: adults, 75 cents.

For Competition.

Mr. Robert Henderson, proprietor of the shooting gallery on Simcoe-street, offers a silver medal for the best score out of ten shots; the shooting to be done at his gallery between Monday and Saturday of this week. The medal is a fine one, about the size of a half dollar piece, engraved on both sides, and will also have the winner's name on one side of it. It is valued at $5.

A Dog Concert.

The residents of Hunter-street, near Aylmer, have been treated to several "dog concerts" in the "dead of the night,' but they do not appreciate them very much. There seems to be two or three complete quartette clubs and the "howling music" does not seem to have any of the "sleep inducing tones" so often spoken of.

Kingston Cheese Market.

On Tuesday the regular meeting of the Kingston cheese board was held, Mr. G. S. Gallagher, the president, in the chair. There were offered 1,658 boxes, of which 1,173 were white, and 485 colored. The board opened with an offer of 9 cents for the board by Clerihew. Madden offered 9 1/16. No higher bids were made. Salesmen would not accept the price and no sales were made. Sellers are holding out for 10 cents. The market is dull, with a downward tendency.

Northwest Freight Rates.

It costs something to build a fence in the Northwest. The Calgary Herald states that the C.P.R. have just issued a new tariff on rates on cedar posts from Donald, Beaver, Rogers' Pass, Illecillewaet, and Revelstoke to Calgary in carload lots of 30,000 lbs. and over. They are 17, 17½, 18½, 19½ and 20½ respectively per hundred lbs. Thus a carload of cedar posts from Donald to Calgary would just cost $51, other points east in proportion.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

A Y. M. C. A. Camp Conference is to be held at Long Branch on July 26th, 27th and 28th. It will be an informal gathering of young men, secretaries and Christian workers for Ontario. It is expected that some of the speakers attending the Believers' Conference at Niagara will be in attendance. Mr. John B. Elliott, General Y.M.C.A. Secretary, Minneapolis, has promised to attend. Long Branch is a wooded summer resort on the shore of Lake Ontario, about eight miles from Toronto.

The Eclipse.

The astronomers were out for once. There are ten thousand persons in Peterborough willing to take affidavit (on the agnostic principle) that there was no eclipse of the moon on Sunday night—because they didn't see it. The moon was obscured by clouds during the whole performance, and at 10.15 o'clock the rain began to fall industriously and continued till eleven. One amateur astronomer awoke about three o'clock and from his window facing north saw clear sky and arose to view the conclusion of the eclipse. When he went out he found that the whole sky was cloudless, except a patch of about an acre directly over the moon, which concealed the eclipsed luminary.

The Boat leaves the Wharf

North Again.

Notwithstanding the overcast sky this morning and the rain Sunday evening, several persons left on the morning train for the different camping grounds north. Our Charlotte street Izak Walton, with a tank of minnows, a stack of tackle and a protege in tow, was among the number.

Brightening Up.

The grass on the hill in the Court House park, which has for some time past been looking very dry, has been brightened up by the recent rains. The front of the park has been kept green with the aid of two sprinklers, which were kept in use all the time.

The New Bridge.

The work on the new bridge on King street has been pushed lately. Already the large heavy frames have been laid in place and before long it will show what kind of a place it is going to be. There is a large gang of men at work there now.

Fire in Lindsay.

Last Saturday morning at about 4 o'clock fire broke out in Dundas & Flavelle Bros.' storehouse in Lindsay. Touchburn's buildings also caught and all were entirely consumed. The loss will be heavy as there were about 10,000 bushels of wheat in the buildings, all of which was burned. After the fire started it made rapid progress and soon became unmanageable.

Belleville's Baseball "Bust."

The management of the Belleville baseball club is financially embarrassed, and an appeal is made to the public for assistance. The Ontario says "it would be a disgrace to the city if such a thing (collapse) should occur, yet the lack of funds can no longer be disguised."

Tickets, 25c. and 35c.

Orillia's Decoration Day.

The Decoration Day at Orillia of the I.O. O.F. will be on July 30th. The Waubaushese lodge will be present and will be met at the train by the Orillia lodge and the Citizens' Band. A large turnout is anticipated, and the graves of departed brothers will be decorated.

The Law of Weeds.

Chapter 202 of the Revised Ontario Statutes, Sec. 2, which applies to town authorities as well as rural "pathmasters," says: "I shall be the duty of every owner of land or occupant thereof to cut down or destroy all the Canada thistles, oxeye daisy, wild oats, ragweed and burdock growing on his land so often each and every year as is sufficient to prevent the ripening of their seed." Sec. 9 extends the act to the highways of any municipality and Sec. 10 makes an owner liable to a fine of not less than $5 for violation of the act, and an overseer of a highway to a fine of not less than $10 for neglect.

A Sunday at St. Paul's

Sermons by Rev. Prof. F. H. Wallace.

On Sunday Rev. Prof. Wallace, of Cobourg formerly pastor of the Charlotte street church, Peterborough, conducted the services, morning and evening, in St. Paul's church, preaching eloquent sermons on both occasions to well filled pews. In the morning his subject was the efficacy of prayer, with particular reference, to the effects of prayer for specific objects, such as rain. In the evening the reverend gentleman took for his text, Jeremiah XXXVI. v. 23. After announcing his text he began his discourse by pointing out that the prophet Jehoiakim was not the only prince who had attempted to destroy the word of God or a portion. From the year 300 a persistent and continuous attempt had been made to destroy the Bible and the Christianity that had sprung from it, but all attempts had failed. The day of Bible-burning was past, but still the assaults on it continued, though they took a more insidious form. There was one question that arose when we were asked to give up the Bible, and that was, what substitute could humanity find? Take away the Bible, and the sacredness of home, the brightness of all true home life disappeared. The best educator would be removed, the medium of the transmission of God's will would be gone. The preacher urged the importance of impressing the truths of the Bible upon the minds of children both in the home and the school. The world has never produced by any code of morals a character equal to the Christian type. Banish the Christian morality of the Bible and there was nothing to prevent the stronger nations from enforcing the doctrine that might was right. Banish the Bible and the fatherhood of God—the tie that binds the world in brotherhood, disappeared. There was no separating the theology and morality of the Bible. Take away the Bible and the key to the solution of the most tremendous questions affecting humanity would be lost. Reason asks those question, and, without the Bible, forever without answer But God's word gave a full and sufficent answer. Belief in the Bible restored man to his true relation to God, brightened life in its darkest aspects, gave comfort in the hour of death, and certain hope for an eternal future of happiness.

Literary Notes.

OUR LITTLE MEN AND WOMEN.—This delightful little publication for August comes to hand like a flower laden breeze across the "muggy" heat of the dogdays. It is full of pretty pictures and interesting reading for the little folks. It will brighten any home where there are children to delight in its visits. Just take the August number home to the children and you wont know what peace is till you bring the next. A cheap and effective means for giving happiness and instruction. 10 cents per number, only $1.00 per year. Boston, D. Lothrop Company.

TORONTO CONSERVATORY CALENDAR.—The new calendar of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, is received. It is a beautiful piece of typography and contains the announcement of many new features, which will, doubtless, effect an improvement the coming season upon the remarkable success of the Conservatory the past year. New departments, new facilities, new teachers. Any person desirous of seeing what work can be done should send for a calendar, addressing Toronto Conservatory of Music, corner Yonge street and Wilton Avenue, Toronto.

Gas Company's Improvements.

Mr. Wm. Drury, the solid man of gas, is busy putting in important new machinery at the Company's works, Simcoe-street. This consists of a pair of condensers and a scrubbing machine. The former consist each of two concentric or rather angular cylenders, the outer one three feet in diameter and each 12 feet in height. These new appliances will immensely facilitate the cooling or condensation of the gas, and improve its quality. From the second one of these the condensed gas passes through the connected scrubber, which is of the same height and dimensions as the condensers. The gas passes through a water spray which removes all tarry impurities. This machinery, which is of the most improved and of the best made anywhere, is from the factory of Mr. George Bower, St. Neots, Huntingdonshire, England. Mr. Bower holds a leading place in his line. The new machines, which will be ready for work in a few days, are placed to the north of the gas building, and will be enclosed and roofed in. They will be a valuable addition to the facilities of the gas works.

The Danger of Drowning Accidents.

The season of camping and boating results in the usual number of drowning accidents, and too much care cannot be exercised. Above all, every attempt at "fooling," trifling or playing practical jokes should be avoided like death, for there is too often death in them. The other day—Thursday—in Muskoka Lake a young man named Hoff of Pittsburg, Pa., laid a trap for ducking a companion and he himself was drowned. He upset a canoe on purpose within a few feet of shore and was drowned before help came. This is foolishness, but it is the height of wisdom to go to gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, for marvellous bargains in all kinds of ready-made clothing and gents' furnishings. Here the tourist can fish for clothing with a small-sized silver bait and be sure of hooking a maskinonge in the way of bargains every time. At gough's you take no chances; you are sure to get double value for your money every trip. Take a trial trip if you have never before had the inexpressible delight of buying goods at gough bros.

Milk Adulterators Punished.

The milk adulteration act passed the last session of the legislature, works. The honest farmer is getting the benefit of his honesty, and the rogue is getting his deserts. Three more milk cases have been settled in the Napanee section. A patron of the Selby factory and another of Wilton settled with the inspector by paying $15 each. A patron of the Phœnix factory, charged with withholding strippings, settled before the case was called. He paid $10 and costs, $1.75. A case against a patron of Phœnix factory is called before Mr. Doller. Another against a woman for sending milk to Wilton factory, has been settled. She confessed to the magistrate and paid $25 and $2 costs.

A High Compliment.

During a recent visit Mr. Burton, of the legal firm of Bruce, Burton & Calham, Hamilton, who does the searching of titles throughout the province, stated to a local legal gentleman, after a business visit to the Peterborough registry office, (B. Morrow, registrar, Harry Grundy, deputy), that he had visited no office in Ontario anywhere—and his business had called him to the most of them—in which the books were kept with as much order and system, and in a manner to so greatly facilitate the transaction of business. He also spoke highly of the courtesy he received on his visit and of valuable assistance beyond the mere production of the books.

Killed in the Harvest Field.

Whilst Mr. John Irvine, on lot 28, 2nd con. of Sidney, was loading grain on a waggon Saturday, a man in his employ named Jas. Wallace, was on the load building, when the horses moved forward and the wheel of the wagon struck a stone throwing Wallace forward off the load. He fell to the ground, not over eight feet, striking on his side and shoulder, killing him almost instantly. The deceased has two brothers, well-to do farmers, in Huntingdon.

Merchants and business men, now is the time to call at the EXAMINER bindery and leave your orders for journals, day books, ledgers, invoice books, cheque books, and all blank books used in business. Losses by Fire.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette says:—There have been, we hear, numerous, and in some cases serious, losses by fire in the surrounding country during the past few days, but it is difficult to obtain the particulars. On Sunday morning, 14th instant, about 10 o'clock fire crept, like a snake, into the hay on McDougall & Brandon's farm in the 3rd con. of Somerville, and destroyed twenty-five acres of it—some uncut, some just cut, and some stacked; and a large cedar swamp was burnt over. Next day the house and barn went the same way; but they were insured and nearly all their contents were saved. Mr. Samuel Carew, the tenant, and his wife had their clothes nearly burned off their backs while fighting the fire. Mr. Jones, near Burnt River, lost his house, barn and their contents, while he was away from home trying to save a neighbor's property; and on Tuesday the Pulp Mill Co. lost nearly six hundred cords of wood that was piled at Rettie's bridge. The wood was insured, but we are unable to say whether Mr. Jones had any insurance or not.

BUYERS are bewildered by our bewitching bargains in biscuits, baking powders, etc., at The Pantry.

A Wife Lost and Found.

A Chicago correspondent of the New York World writes as follows: When Frederick Wilks, a tall, good-looking young man went home last night he found a note from his pretty little wife, Annie, that told him she had run away. The young man spent last night and to-day looking for Annie, with the aid of the police force, but she has probably gone far enough to be able to elude him. They had only been married a few months. They are from Nottingham England, where Annie was the prettiest slip of a girl in town. Frederick fell in love with her when she was 17 and he 19 years old. He got a day set for their marriage, but just before it came Annie ran away to America. Her lover followed her, found her in New York city, and a marriage ceremony was again arranged for, when the girl disappeared again. This time she slipped back to England. He followed her, and, after tramping up and down the country several weeks, found she had gone to the Continent. To the Continent went the constant lover, and for months she led him a will-o'-the-wisp chase from city to city. Finally she got back to Nottingham, and before she could get away again they were married. She made it conditional that they should go at once to America. They sailed for New York and thence drifted to Chicago, where Frederick has been employed as bookkeeper. He says he has trampled 10,000 miles for his wife, and is ready to tramp 10,000 more if necessary.

Canadian Press Association.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association, for the election of officers and transaction of general Association business, will be held in the city of Toronto, on Tuesday, July 31st, 1888, at 2 o'clock p. m., in the Rossin House. Every member of the Association is requested to attend. Railway arrangements for the annual meeting via Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railways, are as follows:—At starting point, on presentation of regular membership certificate at railway ticket offices, tickets to Toronto and return will be issued to members and ladies accompanying them at single fare for the double journey. Good going from the 27th to 31st July, and to return until the 25th August. Meetings of the Association, for the reading of papers and the discussion of matters connected with practical journalism, will be held at the seaside, on call of the President. The excursion this year will be to Portland, Maine, where seabreezes may be enjoyed, and rest or recreation indulged in as may be desired by those participating. The party will leave Toronto at 8:30 p.m. on the 31st, by Grand Trunk railway—two Pullman cars having been chartered for the occasion—and will go through to Portland, arriving at the latter city at 5.48 p.m. on the 1st of August This arrangement gives daylight for the charming run from Montreal to Portland, that the picturesque mountain and river scenery which skirts the route for the greater part of the way may be thoroughly enjoyed.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL

THE BARK MARIE WRECKED IN THE GULF OF ST. LAWRENCE

Major Anderson of the 43rd to be Promoted —The Contract Let for the Pembroke Public Building—An Immense Output of Lumber.

OTTAWA, July 23.—The Department of Marine to-day received intelligence of the wreck on Bird Rocks, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, of the bark Marie of St. Johns, Newfoundland. The crew were saved and landed at North Sydney, the collector of customs at which place has asked assistance for the crew to send them home. This will be granted by the Department.

It seems to be definitely settled that Major Anderson of the 43rd will succeed Lt.-Col. White, Senior Major Welch being obliged to decline promotion on account of press of business.

The contract for the public building at Pembroke has been let by the Public Works Department to Munro, Beatty & Grieve of Pembroke. The building will be of local sandstone.

The output of lumber from the Chaudiere mills this season will probably be the largest ever known in the history of lumbering operations in this section. Including Gilmour's mill at Chelsea and Edwards' mill at Rockland the cut will be fully 500,000,000 feet, an increase of about 25 per cent. over last year. The low water last year "hung up" a large portion of the drive and there was practically no reserve left to commence this year's cut with. The water this spring, however, has been high for an unusually long period and not only was all the lumber which was stuck last fall got down early, but the immense out of last winter is all in a fair way to reach the booms. Many of the firms greatly increased the capacity of their mills during the winter and all have been working night and day since the middle of May, but the drive is coming down so fast that the booms are kept pretty nearly full all the time. Shipments are being very freely made, prices keep fair and everything indicates a big year for lumbermen.

Kaiser and Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23.—At the dinner in the Peterhof Palace last evening the Czarina had Emperor William on her right and the Czar on her left. The minister of the Court sat opposite, with the German guests on the right and the Russian on the left. All the Ministers were present, as well as Count Schonvaloff, Gen. Von Schwernitz, the foreign suites, the Admirals of the German squadron and Capt. McKellar of the U.S. steamer Enterprise. The silver dinner service was used. In the floral decoration were 5000 roses and a quantity of blue lobelia, Emperor William's favorite flower. The proposed luncheon on board the yacht Hohenzollern was abandoned. The Czar instead will inspect the vessel on Tuesday. Count Herbert Bismarck and M. de Giers conferred with Emperor William during the day. Emperor William has conferred the Order of the Red Eagle upon Gen. Gresser, prefect of St. Petersburg. Russian officers are much impressed with Emperor William's martial spirit and bearing and his amiability and thoughtfulness.

THE FISHERIES TREATY.

CONTINUATION OF THE DEBATE IN THE U.S. SENATE.

Mr. Dawes of Massachusetts Makes a Long Address Opposing Ratification—Mr. Evarts of New York to Close the Discussion on Monday.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—After routine the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Fisheries Treaty in open executive session, and was addressed by Mr. Dawes (Rep., Mass.) in opposition to its ratification. He said that the declaration of independence entitled the United States to the fisheries, and that the treaty of 1873 was but the recital of the bill. When that treaty was adopted the rights of the United States in those waters were precisely the same as the rights of the British Crown in them.

Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) asked Mr. Dawes whether his opinion of the colonial right in respect to the fisheries was that the Canadienne, prior to the revolutionary war, had the same fishing rights on all of the American coast down to Georgia as the Americans had in Canadian waters. Were there mutual colonial rights?

Mr. Dawes declined to be drawn from the line of his argument, but expressed his willingness (whenever he had leisure) to sit at the feet of the Senator from Alabama and learn all about the subject. He went on to say that if to-day the title of the United States to fishery rights in those waters fell short one particle of its title when the treaty of 1873 was signed it was the result of diplomacy. The first departure, the first surrender of rights was in the treaty of 1818 and out of that treaty had come all the American woes.

The present treaty was an experiment of the administration in that field where so few laurels had been gathered heretofore by the diplomacy of the United States. It would have been well worthy the attention of any administration to consider whether it was not in its power to restore the ground lost, and if not absolutely as near as possible the condition of things which the fathers of the Republic had delivered our to their sons. If the administration had entered upon the negotiations with any such purpose and had given notice that it did not propose to make further concessions but to observe the mutual obligations of the two countries a far different result would have been attained than the treaty before the Senate.

The idea as to the terrible consequences that would result if the United States longer persisted in contending against the unjustifiable claims of Great Britain had but one parallel and that was when the navy yard at Pensacola was surrendered by the Secretary of the Navy in January, 1861, in order to preserve the peace.

As a treaty of peace he declared the treaty to be an utter failure. Those who negotiated on the one side and the other would find that if it were ratified that the occasions for strife would multiply and twelve months would not pass after its ratification before the United States would wish it were in its power to retract its steps.

Mr. Dawes quoted from the speech of Sir Charles Tupper in the Canadian Commons to show that the concessions were made not by Great Britain but by the United States, and said that he returned his thanks to Sir Charles for the obligation he had put the American people under in furnishing them with materials to form a proper judgment of the treaty, which materials had been withheld from them by the Crown negotiators.

Mr. Morgan asked him whether he was under any obligation not to offer an amendment to the treaty and suggested that any supposed obscurity in its language might thus be corrected.

Mr. Dawes replied that not under any circumstances was it a treaty of peace but full of strife and disturbance. Great Britain never had that power to interfere with the free passage of the Straits of Canso by any vessel of the United States. As a security the treaty was not worth the paper on which it was written because its conditions were subject to all the caprices and hostilities of local legislatures and of local courts. This was one reason why it was not a treaty of peace.

The Canadians themselves had utterly failed in obtaining that for which they had entered the negotiation. It had come to be understood that this was Canada's opportunity for obtaining freer commercial relations with the United States. Mr. Ambrose Shea, an officer of the Government of Newfoundland, and Mr. Wiman, a Canadian whose residence was in Brooklyn, had come to Washington immediately after the inauguration with that object in view. Was there any doubt that Canada had failed in her paramount purpose in entering into the negotiations?

Mr. Stewart (Rep., Cal.), then made an argument against the ratification of the treaty.

Mr. Stewart said among other things that England should name the sum to be paid for the Dominion of Canada, the Dominion should name the conditions of union and the United States should respond in a spirit of concession and generosity.

Mr. Evarts (N. Y.) stated that it had been arranged on the Republican side that he should close the debate against the treaty but that he did not expect that the conclusion of the discussion would be reached before next Monday.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Mr. Smith Moves the Second Reading of the Bill.

LONDON, July 23.—In the House of Commons to-day Philip Stanhope called the attention of the Government to the threatening language used by the Crown counsel before the coroner at Mitchellstown and to his charging the court with preventing the inquiry in the Mandeville case. Mr. Stanhope asked whether the counsel acted so in pursuance of instructions from Dublin Castle and whether the Government would order the counsel to assume a more respectful attitude toward the coroner.

Mr. Balfour replied that he had no information on the subject, but he believed the Crown counsel did not need any instructions from himself or from Mr. Stanhope.

Mr. Smith moved the second reading of the bill dealing with the charges and allegations against members of Parliament. He supported the measure in a speech in which he announced that Sir James Hannen would be the President and Justices Day and Smith would be the other members of the Commission.

Mr. Parnell said that it was evident that the case as regarded the forged letter was going to be a breakdown and demanded that the Government limit the scope of the Commission to the charges against himself and the other Irish members. He would vote for the second reading but the issues raised must be considered at a later stage.

Mr. Gladstone, after a pause during which there were calls for the Attorney-General, expressed surprise that the Government did not answer Mr. Parnell. There ought to be no skulking.

Mr. Matthews repudiated the idea that the Government had in any sense made themselves a party to the charges. The Commission surely could be trusted to deal impartially.

A Thankless Child.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 23.—D. Engler, merchant tailor of this town, was robbed of $1,780 Saturday afternoon by his son Master Engler, a young man of 18 years, who had been a clerk in his store. The money was in a bureau drawer at the family residence where Mr. Engler had put it but a few hours before with the intention of purchasing the stock of E. Viger to start his son in business

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

Two Warehouses at Lindsay Completely Destroyed—Serious Accident.

LINDSAY, July 23.—A most disastrous fire occurred here on Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, destroying the large store-houses owned and occupied by the firms of Dundas and Flavell Bros. and Sadler, Dundas & Co., situated on King-street, near the track of the Midland Railway. One of the buildings was partially occupied by R. Touchburn, grain and produce merchant. There were contained in the buildings 15,000 bushels of wheat, 30,000 pounds of wool and a large quantity of butter and eggs. The water works were soon brought into operation, but the fire spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save either building.

Occurring at this season of the year the indirect loss to the firms will be very serious, more especially as the wheat destroyed was held in store to meet the requirements of their large flour mills. The insurances, however, will barely cover the losses, as the policy held in the North British and Mercantile was a blanket policy which covered not only the property destroyed but a large number of other warehouses situated along the line of the Midland Railway. The other insurances are $5000 in the Royal Canadian, $3000 in the Liverpool, London and Globe, and $1100 in the British American, the last amount being on Touchburn's grain. The total loss will reach $25,000.

During the progress of the fire a serious, and what may prove a fatal, accident occurred. Mr. M. O'Leary, a barber at the Central House, raised a window on the third story, presumably to look out at the fire, and by some means fell out, alighting on the sidewalk below. He sustained injuries which may result in his death. At the present moment he is in a precarious condition.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Arrest of a Batch of Suspected Crooks—Taken In by a Swindler.

TORONTO, July 23.—Henry Myers, a laborer engaged in piling stone on Sylvester's wharf, fell into the bay this morning with the best part of the pile, which had been built loosely and slipped. Fortunately the man was on the top of the pile and he escaped with a ducking.

A short man wearing a light suit, a gray moustache and a seductive smile has been calling upon several large business houses here soliciting subscribers for an American mercantile agency, which he alleged was about to open in Canada. The name on the card presented by him was Gustave S. Marston. Two or three local merchants were induced to subscribe, and now one of the orders which were signed has turned up in the shape of a promissory note, which Gustave had discounted. Mr. Marston cannot be found in Toronto.

From out of a respectable boarding-house on Simcoe-street the police, this morning, produced nine young men who arrived in the city on Saturday night, and who are suspected by the authorities of being part of an extensive organization of crooks. They gave names supposed to be fictitious and one only told where he came from, when he recorded himself as Thos. McLaughlin, Pittsburg.

Premier Greenway was at the Queen's this morning, looking healthier, stouter, better dressed and more aggressive than ever. The Manitoba chieftan bids fair, if he keeps on, to become a rival of President Cleveland in the matter of avoirdupois. To your correspondent he said: "We are going to have a much more extensive exhibit of all the products of the country at the exhibition than we ever had before. Lately we have had excellent growing weather, and this year there is the greatest crop outlook in the history of the country. Wheat and the other cereals are doing splendidly, and in fact all crops are. As to prices I decline prophesy. Twenty miles of track of the Red River Valley Railway were down when I left home, and the road will be in Winnipeg next month. I think Winnipeg is bound to become a great city. It is pretty well recovering from the injurious effects of the boom of 1882. Politically I have not anything to say. Everything that I could say is pretty well known already."

A sub-committee of the Board of Works presented yesterday a scheme for the complete reorganization of that body.

James Lindsay, aged 21, disappeared from his house, 604 King-street west, on Saturday and has not been seen since.

Suicide of a Stanley Farmer.

ZURICH, Ont., July 23.—Joseph Templeton, of Stanley township, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn on Saturday morning. He was about 30 years of age and not married. He had a good farm and was working it successfully with a hired man, his mother keeping house for him. He appeared perfectly sane on the previous evening. No one can tell the cause of his rash act. An inquest was held and a verdict was rendered accordingly.

Sudden Death at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 23.—John Ogilvie, brother of Hon. Senator Ogilvie, was found dead in his bed this morning. Heart disease is supposed to be the cause of his death. He was out for a long walk yesterday, and appeared to be quite well when he retired last night.

Crooks Arrested at Wesley Park.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 23.—Chief McDougall of the Ontario Police arrested two apparent crooks in Wesley Park grounds this morning, one of them slightly intoxicated. They gave their names as Harold Evans of Pittsburg and H. E. Penny of Buffalo. Upon Evans' person was found nearly $800. One package containing $500 had a band around it, marked German National Bank, Pittsburg. Evans had registered as Fred T. Clark, Buffalo, N.Y., as well as Penny.

The Toronto Markets.

TORONTO, July 24.—The market was poorly attended yesterday. Meat by the carcase dropped one cent in price all round. Choice spring lambs sold at 10c. to 12c.

On the hay market $18 was the price for new hay, while the old article sold at $22.

On the street market two loads of fall wheat sold for 96c per bushel.

Butter was firm at 23c. for pound rolls, and 20c. for large rolls.

Canadian cucumbers and tomatoes will be offered to-day.

LONDON CHARMED BY MRS SHAW'S ECSTATIC TRILLS.

The Mysterious Woman in the Parnell Case —Another Theory Touching Stanley - The Marquis of Lorne's Appearance as a Poet —Phyllis' Broken Heart.

LONDON, July 23.—Mrs. Alice Shaw, who brings with her a new art from the land of novelties, the United States, has the merit of great courage in facing a new world by no means favorable to whistling of any kind. It is true that the tendencies of the times are allies of most innovations, especially when the innovators are undowered daughters who display the true dash of independence. If some should say that whistling for a livelihood is what a large section of the community does already, and to whistle for want of thought is what the listless majority has always indulged in, it is none the less a fine art, though it has never attained to the enviable popularity even of the banjo, triangle or big drum. Indeed this ideal whistler combines the strength of an opera singer with the sweetness of a nightingale, and a diva's mastery in diminuendo, such as was displayed by Estadiantina Figaro at the famous garden party last year. Many people in London have been asked out to hear Mrs. Shaw, regarding the whole thing as a joke, and have come away in simple wonder at the unlooked-for display of her powers. They have found her a sound musician and a subtle mistress of her particular art. They have found that through her special medium she could fill Covent Garden with ecstatic trills or stray into softest whispered notes, the execution of which only years of rehearsal could achieve. It may be difficult to conceive of a whistling prima donna, but the fact is that whistling as a fine art is worthy of attentive study. Vocal chords which act as vibrating reeds form, in conjunction with the mouth, a resonatern, or hollow reverberating sphere, the only musical apparatus that can boast perfection, and it is certain that this instrument so sweet and effective in expressing emotion through the voice in speech and singing can be made equally so when its sounds are made to issue from self-adjusting lips. Those who have once heard Mrs. Alice Shaw cannot fail to realize that if whistling were cultivated as a fine art by those who, in addition to musical endowment, have strength of vocal chord and a high-roofed palate, they might be trained to take part in concert with effects more thrilling than the most exquisite instrumental music has ever conjured up, and which from its novelty alone would be more surprising than any concert hitherto heard, whether instrumental or vocal.

The interesting question being asked in political circles is, "Who is she?" It is rumored, and seems to be generally believed, that a woman is at the bottom of the Parnell prosecution, and that she is the main source from which The Times obtained the material on which it based its charges. Not only is the woman known to the initiated few, but it is said that the line inserted in the bill making any and all persons who testify before the commission free from any injury which might otherwise accrue from their testimony refers particularly to her, and was put in to get her into the witness-box. If she has forged the letter she will naturally keep out of the way, but should she appear some very interesting proceedings may be looked for. The whereabouts and personality of the woman are shrouded in mystery, but as rumor has often declared that Parnell is not entirely callous to the influence of the fair sex, and as the most rigid research has failed to fix treachery on any attaches of the League organization, the story obtains general credence.

Sir Francis de Winton, honorary secretary of the Emin Pasha Relief Committee, advances the theory that it is not at all unlikely that Stanley and Emin Pasha have been together for the last four months. He said that Stanley would not advance on Khartoum under any circumstances, considering his outfit, and that he would certainly stick to his original purpose of relieving Emin Pasha. He regards the reports concerning the White Pasha as magnified and unreliable, such being usually the case with reports passing from one African tribe to another.

The autumn session of Parliament, which is now unavoidable, will be a serious inconvenience to Joseph Chamberlain, who contemplated a visit to the Endicotts in America this fall. Gossips here have it that a wedding will take place in January.

The Marquis of Lorne is about to appear as a poet. He has written a number of books, but has never published any of his poems. His publisher has just published "Love Idyll" by him, which is handsomely illustrated.

It is said that Phyllis Broughton's breach of promise case will be settled out of Court. She asks £20,000 damages, but may accept half that amount, as did Miss Fortescue.

St. Stephen's says in the report of the week:—"The ball of the evening was Miss Adaire's," in Curzon street, in the house which formerly belonged to Lord Bantry. Here six duchesses and all the elite of the inner circle of what is known as the Marlboro House set put in an appearance. The new Duchess of Marlboro was again the centre of interest, and having recruited from the fatigue and unpleasantness of her recent journey across the ocean, her beauty was more pronounced and more widely recognised than it even was on the famous night of her debut last week at Mrs. Oppenheim's ball in Bruton-street."

The ancestral house of the Washington family is to be sold on Aug. 7. This is the Sulgrove estate in Northamptonshire. Henry VIII, it is said, gave part of the property, which extends over 220 acres, to Lawrence Washington, Mayor of Northampton in 1545. There is a memorial brass of this gentleman in the parish church dated 1545. His two sons, Lawrence and Robert, sold their inheritance and the son of the younger Lawrence, of whom George Washington was himself a descendant, emigrated to Virginia.

HAMILTON, July 24.—On Saturday some of the members of the Victoria Rifle Association fired some of the new Snider ammunition on the issue of 1888, made at the Government factory in Quebec, and they found the quality to be most excellent.

OUR CIVIC SIRES

Sit in Special Session Two Hours.

The Examiner Directory Endorsed — Lears and Light Claim Attention — Finance Report — Extended Electric Lighting — Miscellaneous and Minor Matters.

A special meeting of the town council was attended by, His Worship the Mayor, in the chair, and Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Kelly, Hall, Yelland, Douglass, Moore, Kendry and Hartley, Winch and E. M. D. Hall.

After routine

COMMUNICATIONS

we received.

From J. B. Knowlson, town clerk, Lindsay in reference to Civic Holiday, requesting that the day appointed by Peterborough do not conflict with August 16th, Lindsay's Civic Holiday.

From W. Gooderham, of Toronto, in reference to the admission of Wm. Course to the House of Incurables, stating that he could be received by the town paying the expense of his maintenance there.

Rev. Mr. Beck was heard on the subject and said the man Course was in a dangerous and incurable condition. He (Rev. Mr. Beck) had tried to get him into the Hospital here, but the case was refused, and he had written to Mr. Gooderham and his letter had been read. Admission was refused to the hospital for sanitary reasons, and the same reasons would apply to his detention in the jail. Rev. Mr. Beck had no idea what would be the cost.—Referred to the Charity Committee with power to act.

A TOWN DIRECTORY.

Mr. J. R. Stratton addressed the Council with reference to a directory and descriptive volume relating to Peterborough, which it was proposed to issue from the Examiner office, in case sufficient encouragement were given. The proposed directory would embrace the names of all householders and business men in the town and also all the male members of families and all occupants of boarding houses over eighteen years of age. The directory would also contain a full and graphic description of the town, its railway connections, its commercial advantages, its manufacturing facilities, its desirability as a place of residence, its church and educational facilities and its general adaptability for furnishing a desirable place for residence or business enterprise. The book would also contain a complete and comprehensive lithographic map of the town, including the latest opened streets and the plots included therein, the exact location by numbers of every business place and residence. He pointed out how this directory could be made the medium of making known the merits of the town. It would be placed in hotels and on steamboats, throughout the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and readers of it would have the commercial and manufacturing advantages placed strikingly and prominently before them. The book would be subject to the approval, before publication, of any committee the town council might see fit to appoint, and in typographical excellence, completeness of matter and general appearance, would be worthy of the town which it assumed to represent.

From Mr. Pearce, on behalf of the Town Commissioners, making a demand for $7,540. —Finance Committee.

From Mr. Law, asking for a walk on Dalhousie street.—Street and Bridge Committee.

The following

ACCOUNTS

were presented and referred to appropriate committees:—

CLERK AND TREASURER.

The Mayor reported that Mr. Clerk McDonald was still in ill health, and that a holiday would be of advantage to him. Leave of absence for one month was granted.

RAILWAY WHISTLING.

The Mayor stated that he had received assurance from the railway authorities that the whistling nuisance would be abated.

THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF STREETS.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that Mr. Langford continue to remain chairman of the street committee the balance of the year.—Carried.

Mr. Moore introduced a by-law to amend the by-law relating to the discharge of fire-arms, making the penalty imprisonment for twenty-one days instead of thirty days, as in the original by-law.

DEBENTURES.

The Mayor stated that the Finance Committee had been as yet unable to negotiate the town's four per cent. debentures at par. The town commissioners if they took the debentures, would have to realise on them in 1893. There had been offers of 97c. on the dollar.

Mr. Davidson said the debentures had better be advertised, a proposition with which several councillors agreed.

The whole matter was referred to the Finance Committee, to report at the next meeting of the council.

The Mayor pointed out that there was $72,000 due in '93, and the Commissioners were anxious to have the money ready to the last cent. There were about $48,000 in hand and about $10,000 were due from the Midland railway, and the accruing interest would amount to sufficient to admit of the $72,000 being paid off on maturity.

FINANCE.

Mr. Davidson, chairman, reported recommending the payment of the following accounts:—

Times Printing Co	$ 75 00
J. D. Ripple	2 00
Geo. Barham	41 00
A. Comstock	30 00
Water Company	740 00
Water Company	20 00

Kingan & Co	20 05
Fortye & Phelan	23 20
T. Mearles	7 75
R. H. Adams	21 25
J. Weinstenhome	2 00
Gas Company	8 00
Gas Company	22 15
Lock Company	65 00

[T. Dolan & Co.'s account and W. Loch's account were not entertained as the police are by law obliged to furnish their own uniforms. With reference to the Blythe Woolen Mills by-law, the Committee would recommend that it be further considered.]

THE DIRECTORY MATTER.

Mr. Hartley moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the town agree to take at least one hundred and fifty copies at $1 per copy of the directory about to be issued by Mr. J. R. Stratton, the directory to be first approved of by the Finance Committee.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. Hall, that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Hall (E. H. D.) thought the directory would be a most useful and desirable one, but he did not feel so sure of the wisdom of the town taking so many copies.

Mr. Kendry strongly favored the purchase of the copies, and spoke warmly of the utility of the work.

Mr. Hartley said his resolution virtually referred the matter to the Finance Committee. After some further discussion his motion carried.

SMITH STREET GRADING.

Mr. Langford said that he and Mr. Hartley had been accused of opposing the grading of Smith-street, but the railway authorities had got earth cheaper elsewhere.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

Mr. Hall moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the offer of Mr. Hazlitt to supply thirty-five electric lights, or more, at twenty cents each to burn three hundred nights yearly, be accepted, and that the distribution be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Mr. Kelly thought the town paid too much for light, and he would favor no increase at present.

Mr. Hall (A.) said that the Committee had considered the matter thoroughly and that the adoption of the resolution would be an economy.

Mr. Kelly rejoined that the electric lamps now in use had resulted in no saving.

The Mayor asserted that the gas lamps it was proposed to replace had been only down a year or so, and it was not fair to now put them out.

Mr. Hall said that he had found some thirteen gas lamps burning for some three months after they were ordered to be cancelled.

The Mayor explained that the lamps in question had not all been charged for.

Mr. Douglass favored the placing of electric lights in the outskirts of the town where there was no light, although there the ratepayers were paying for the lighting of the town.

Mr. Kendry said the proposed lights would be placed where they were needed.

Mr. Davidson said it was intended that these lights should form an outside circle, and would give light to outside places and only involve an additional cost of some $300.

Mr. Cahill thought the charge was more reasonable than that enjoyed by other towns but he would favor the matter being referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee, to furnish further details, which on motion was done.

The council adjourned.

In Love's Harness.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, have an unfailing specific in Dr. Pierce's Favorit Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarentee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. b

Causing An Impression.

Many cures caused by B. B. B. have been those of chronic sufferers known throughout the district through the very fact of their having been afflicted for years. This naturally creates a strong impression in favor of this valuable family medicine. 2w29d

A Brutal Clergyman.

LONDON, July 23.—The Rev. John Moulson, son-in-law of the Bishop of Lahore, has just been up at the Westminister Police court for cruelty to his infant daughter. The child, which is 16 months old, cried in teething until the reverend gentleman lost his temper. The evidence proved that he took it from its nurse, went into a room with it, and slapped it for a quarter of an hour. The child was black and blue, terribly swollen, and could not bear to be touched for days. It did not die, however, and the court dismissed Rev. Mr. Moulson with 27 shillings cost and a reprimand for giving corporal punishment to a child of such tender years. A great many ladies and clergymen were present in court, and it is a comfort to know that the brutal father suffered in their estimation.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$159,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	33,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,286 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,982,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,977 34	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate winds, fine and warmer to-day, fair and very warm to-morrow, with a few local thunderstorms.

Seasonable Hint.

There are numerous remedies suggested just now for the removal of freckles, sunburn, etc., from ladies faces, but none are half so effective as one of the $1 cream lace parasols in fair's window. Imported goods only $1, worth $2 and $2.50.

Four Generations.

The arrival to-day of a lady aged 93 years at a residence on Charlotte street, completed the complement of representatives of four generations enjoying family hospitality under one roof—from the great-grand-mother of 93 years to the infant of a quarter of a year. It is not often that such a family party is gathered together.

Off For the Races.

This morning "Sleepy Dan" and "Gray Ned" were shipped by the Midland for the Cannington races. Sleepy Dan enters the 2-50 and 2-40 trots and Gray Ned the open trot. No doubt the Peterborough ponies will out-out a pace and show an example the other horses will follow—at a respectful distance.

A Dangerous Gap.

Monday evening a young man, accompanied by two ladies, was driving across the bridge at the Red Mills, when the wheel of the buggy ran into the space between the planking where the planks should join at an angle, but did not do so. The axle of the buggy was bent and the occupants thrown out, sustaining painful if not serious injuries.

To Jubilee Point.

A large crowd of the Sabbath School teachers and scholars of the Charlotte street Methodist church embarked on the Golden Eye this morning for Jubilee Point on their annual pic-nic. They are expected home at about 8 o'clock this evening and as the day has been a pleasant one they probably had a pleasant outing.

Oleomia.

The best 5c. cigar in town, at C. LeGros' cigar store and barber shop. d

St. Paul's S. S. Picnic.

The St. Paul's Presbyterian S.S. picnic left this morning at about half past eight. There were four or five coaches fairly well filled and, as they stopped at Ashburnham, Smith street, Auburn and Nassau, it is supposed they received substantial re-inforcements at these places. They went to Lakefield where the steamers "Mary Ellen," "Dawn" and "Cruiser" were in waiting to carry them over the lake to their destination. No doubt this large party will have a pleasant day enjoying the beautiful scenery on the lake.

Superb Pictures.

Mr. G. B. Sproule has furnished us with some superb pictures, including a fine view of the beautiful church, St. John's, a view of George street from Brock-street, south, and several beautiful views of Court House Park—different aspects. These pictures are finished in the remarkably fine manner characteristic of Mr. Sproule's work, and the selection of a view point has been made with real artistic perception of the conditions necessary to secure the greatest scenic beauty.

The Blunder of Barrie Oddfellows.

Information has been received from the Barrie Oddfellows Demonstration Committee by Canton No. 10, that they need not bring the Fire Brigade Band with them, as the local committee have made their arrangements for the presence of bands. This is a grievious mistake on the part of the Barrie Oddfellows. They don't know what they are missing when they dispense with the services of one of the finest bands in Ontario and ask the Canton to march after the primitive brass bands of Waubaushene, Brechin, Uhthoff or Schaepler. Better reconsider the matter and have at least one good band in your procession on August 9th. Don't give the outside world a chance to call you Barriebarians. Throw some enterprise into your arrangements.

Off for the A. C. A. Camp.

This morning a Peterborough party started by the Toronto Midland express for the A. C. A. Camp at Lake Couchiching. The party is composed as follows: Messrs. H. C. Rogers, ex-Vice Commodore, G. W. Hatton, member of committee, Dr. Hatton, Master Guy Rogers, L. M. Hayes, E. B. Edwards, J. Z. Rogers, Mr. A. I. Wright (Lakefield) and Harry Roper. A ladies' party for the ladies' camp, consisted of Mrs. G. W. Hatton, chaperone, Mrs. Donald Edwards, Miss Edwards and Miss Roper. The whole of the party, however, did not take the train this morning, but those who did not will follow in a day or two. A Lakefield party for the Camp is composed of Dr. Douglass, Mr. Wm. Graham, Mr. Percy Strickland, jr., and others.

A Pleasant Picnic Party.

The year 1888 is exactly divisible by four, and perhaps the young ladies connected with Mr. J. C. Tarabull's mercantile establishment had this in mind when they invited the other employ'es, together with a number of personal friends, to a picnic party held Monday night at the quarry grove in the northwestern part of the town. About fifty were present and enjoyed the unusually excellent refreshments provided by the young ladies—which afforded as complete a vindication of their culinary capabilities in this respect as their graceful dispensation of hospitality, kindness, good nature and good looks furnished guarantees of their success in a more permanent sphere of social usefulness. A most pleasant evening was spent in the manner usual on such occasions, the threatening rain, however, bringing on a rather premature adjournment. The entire affair passed off most pleasantly and successfully.

Smith's Bright Grain Prospects

The prospects of the farmers in the township of Smith are far better than the dry weather would warrant anticipating. A gentleman from that township says that the fall wheat is being cut and the crop is an excellent one. The heads are well filled out and the berry bright and plump, and the yield will be good. This applies to the township generally. The spring crops are looking better than could have been expected. Oats especially will be a better crop than usual, and roots and potatoes give excellent promise. Wherever good tillage and careful farming exist there are good crops. It is only the poor farmer, as a rule, that has suffered.

Peterborough's Progress, Prospects and Resources.

As Estimated on the "Examiner's" Forthcoming Directory of Peterborough—Informal Prospectus of the Proposed Work.

There have from time to time been issued so called directories of the town of Peterborough, but they have merely aimed to supply a catalogue of the residents and failed to give that full and complete information which would give outsiders an indication of the commercial importance, manufacturing and other facilities, possessed in so phenomenal a manner by this town. Recognizing the want of a complete and reliable directory of the town, the proprietor of the EXAMINER has entered upon the work of preparing such a work, and has received the endorsation of the Town Council, which has agreed to take 150 copies.

It is not intended in this place to present a formal prospectus of the proposed directory, but to indicate merely the salient points of it. It will not be a mere dull catalogue of names, but it will be filled with a brief historical sketch of the town of Peterborough, its manufacturing industries, and a complete and graphic description of its railway facilities, unrivalled by any town in the Dominion; its water ways; its commercial advantages; its unbounded manufacturing facilities; its inexhaustible water power, admitting of practically unlimited application to industrial development; its educational facilities; its complete and comprehensive church advantages; its unrivalled resources: its possibilities and probabilities of future growth; its excellent system of water works; its electric light system; its fire system; in fine, every information which can give the person seeking investment for capital, a live business place or a pleasant home amidst the most advanced surroundings, a full idea of the manner in which the town of Peterborough can answer these conditions. The directory will, besides, contain a complete and comprehensive lithographic map of the town, showing all the streets in a clear and intelligible manner, including all the new streets, and showing all the parks and places of resort. It will also contain in alphabetical order the names of all the business men and householders in the town, giving street and number, as well as the names of all male members of every household and the occupants of boarding houses, over eighteen years of age. Every institution of importance will receive just attention and no one interest will be committed which if passed might fail to convey a complete impression of the importance of Peterborough commercially and industrially and its desirability as a place of residence or scene of business enterprise. The advantages Peterborough possesses in all these respects have never yet been placed before the country in a complete, compact and comprehensive form as it will be the aim of the proposed publication to do. It will be distributed among the hotels of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and on the steamers of our inland waters, so that it will appeal to the attention of travellers of every class, and this cannot fail to bring the town into that prominence which will command an understanding of all the advantages it possesses. The capitalist, the investor of money and the manufacturer thus appealed to will come to have an interest in the town which a lack of information upon the points dealt with above, has hitherto prevented him from experiencing. In view of all these facts, the publisher of the proposed work confidently counts upon the sympathy, co-operation and assistance of every citizen who desires to contribute to the progress of the town and to the realization of future growth and development, of which it possesses in abundance all the essential elements.

Peterborough's Prime Cheese.

TUESDAY, July 24.

At the Peterborough Cheese Board this morning there were 3,220 boxes boarded. The market was well attended, the following buyers being present:—Messrs. Hodgson, Flavelle, Wrighton, Cook, Fitzgerald, Cluxton, McCargar, O'Leary and Bird. The following is the distribution of the boxes:

PETERBOROUGH.

Keene	195	Warminster	185
Lakefield	170	Shearer	186
N. Smith	225	Central Smith	109
Cherry Grove	120	Warsaw	86

Fenelon Falls	80	Mariposa	90
Cambray	90	Reaboro	80
Starr	142	W. Ops	52
Minden	40	Little Britain	60

The Liverpool quotation was 46s.

A dispute arose over the way in which the boxes were sold last meeting, and Mr. Wrighton said the board ought to have some rules and stick to them. The Chairman said they had rules and the secretary was instructed to go over the books and prepare the rules for the next meeting.

Most of the time was spent in discussing the question of rules, and only a few minutes were left in which to bid. However, none of the buyers seemed disposed to bid anything and the board was adjourned for one week.

Personal.

Mr. M. J. Tierney is almost recovered from his attack of blood-poisoning.

This morning Mr. Cluxton received a telegram from Mr. Ambrose, Port Hope, stating that the latter had arrived safely from England. Mrs. Ambrose has recovered from her recent illness. She and the child will remain for some time in London.

Mr. Geo. B. Sproule left this morning for Orillia, on his way to Lake Couchiching, where on one of the islands for the remainder of the week he takes charge of a gospel tent and conducts evangelistic meetings.

Dummer.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met in T. and A. Hall, Warsaw; all members present. Minutes of last Council read and confirmed. Moved by Mr. Crowe, seconded by Mr. Webster, that the appointment of J. A. Couch M.D. as Medical Health Officer, and Jacob White as Sanitary Inspector, made temporarily by the Reeve, be confirmed by this Council, and that the seal of the Corporation be attached to this resolution to give it the force of a By-law.—Carried. Orders granted, John Lloyd, for road labor done under Joseph Nixon, $10.42; James Drain, for ditto, $5.73; James Robb, timber for Bridge, $16.45; John Miles, repairing Bridge, $69 00; Wm. John Little, provisions furnished John Elliot, $46.49. A By-law to make road appropriations, and to appoint Road Commissioners for expending the same.—Passed. Council adjourned to 25th August next.

United States Crops.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The weather during the week has been favorable for the growing crops in the wheat and corn regions of the Northwest. The recent heavy rains, followed by an excess of sunshine, have greatly improved the condition of corn and oats, which are generally reported in excellent condition, but more rain is needed in portions of Michigan for these crops. Reports from Kansas indicate that the crops have been considerably damaged by hail. Reports from Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi show that the crop conditions have been improved by the favorable weather during the past week. More rain is needed in North Carolina, although in the latter State the weather is favorable to cotton. In New Jersey and Pennsylvania the wheat, rye and hay harvests have been almost completed during the favorable weather of the past week. The weather conditions in these two States have been unusually favorable for staple crops.

The Mills Bill Passed.

Though the surplus revenue of the United States Government from Customs duties amounts to over $120,000,000, and though the Mills Bill proposes to reduce Customs taxation by only about $70,000,000, it is declared by the New York Tribune to be "a Free Trade measure," because it places wool on the free list. That a bill which replaces a tariff averaging 47 per cent. on imports by one averaging 42½ per cent. should be called a Free Trade measure seems rather absurd. But that its passage through the House of Representatives by a majority of 13, including 3 Republicans and 3 Independents, is a long step toward Free Trade is, nevertheless true, and true for the very reason that the Tribune points out. The wool tax has been one of the keystones of the Protectant arch, the lumber tax another. When these shall have been pulled out the persons interested in the retention will augment the forces making for further reduction of Customs taxation.

It is said by some American papers that the passage of the bill, and its probable rejection by the Senate, will serve to define more clearly that the issue between the Republicans and Democrats is Free Trade. More likely the effect will be the contrary. Instead of a straight fight on principle the controversy will rage about the clauses of the bill, and the fainter-hearted Democrats will be likely to damage their cause by alleging that it isn't really a Free Trade measure. There was, in the speech with which Mr. Mills closed the debate, a note of weakness, inasmuch as he again and again flouted the Republican assertions that the measure is one of Free Trade. It does not stand to experience in any democratically-ruled country that a political party can gain anything by minimising its devotion to a great principle to which it is certainly bound. No Protectionist can be conciliated by the allegation of tariff reducers that they are not moving toward Free Trade, but their trimming is likely to cost them the enthusiastic support of the good fighters who love an out-and-out struggle. Were it not for the eagerness of the apparent Democratic wish to dodge the issue that the President's Message clearly evoked, we should have no doubt of their success in September.—Globe.

Benafort.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Harvesting was commenced about the 11th. Owing to damp weather and beautiful showers, nousing the grain, so far, has been slow, but fresh growth more than makes up for any loss by rains. One report we notice says, "There is a good deal of short grain." It would be all right if there were quantity, but the bushels might possibly be slightly short, too. Green crops, however, are taking a different appearance since the rains, and will likely yield the average or more.

Mr. J. Wood, formerly a resident, did the district around recently. He looks spry, and gives glowing accounts of the prairies and prairie life He renewed many acquaintances, not the least amongst the fair, some of whom, it is said, conjectured that his mission was to cage a Canadian bird for his new home amongst the Dakotas. How do they know?

Current reports concerning the entrance examinations are that No. 3 stands again pre-eminently at the front. Three wrote from No. 2 at Peterborough, one wrote from No. 4 at Millbrook and four wrote from No. 3 at Millbrook. Comparing the result with general ones, it seems that Mr. Stephens, teacher of No. 3, knows just how to do it. At a similar examination last year, five out of six of his pupils were successful, and this time eighty per cent. of the total number who succeeded in passing at Millbrook, were sent up by him. It is said also that there has been unusual sifting by the kind of papers set, and by close examining with a view to admitting the best-prepared only to High School privileges.

The Land Boom in Australia.

The real estate speculation craze seems to have jumped across the Pacific Ocean and hit Australia hard. Lots in Melbourne, the largest city of that island continent, have more than doubled in price in the last four months, and some extraordinary figures have been reached. In the best part of Collins steeet $10,000 a foot has been refused. If this sort of land booming goes on in the antipodes, the coral reefs of unhabited speeks on the surface of the vast sea may be laid out in town lots as winter resorts.

THE MEGANTIC MURDER.

A New Version of the Affray—The Chicoutimi Waterworks Tenders.

QUEBEC, July 24.—Tenders have been received for the construction of the Chicoutimi waterworks. They range from $17,200 to $28,200.

A visitor to Megantic gives a new version of the murder there, to this effect: The country people had the idea that the warrant for arson issued against Morrison expired in ten days, and that the bailiffship of Warren expired with it. Some one told Morrison this, and also warned him that the American, Warren, who was believed to be a fugitive from justice, was threatening to shoot him. Warren had been publicly practicing with a pistol so that he would not miss. On the date of the shooting Morrison was passing through the village and saw Warren, who had been sitting outside Leets' Hotel, get up and go indoors, and it flashed across him that Warren had gone for his pistol. He came out in a few minutes, and approached Morrison, who had three times told him to "stand clear," three times trying to pass him. Then Warren drew on Morrison, but the latter was to quick and fired first, Warren being instantly killed. The opinion appears to prevail in Megantic, according to the information already referred to, that Morrison will not be captured.

THE FIRST GUN.

Fired in a Big Party Fight in Manitoba—A Wolseley Elopement.

WINNIPEG, July 24.—The Free Press attacks the Government this morning fiercely for its treatment of the capitalists who came here in the interests of the Hudson Bay Railway. It says the Government's action was anything but creditable to them and enters an earnest and indignant protest. The article has created a great sensation as it is believed that this is the first shot in what may be a fierce party fight.

Governor Schultz will extend an inquiry into the resources of Keewatin similar to that of the Mackenzie basin.

Permits are being granted in the Northwest to hotels with certain accommodations to sell beer containing 4 per cent. of alcohol. Permits to druggists to sell brandy on doctor's certificates are also granted temporarily.

After Horsethieves.

HAMILTON, July 24.—Yesterday afternoon there was considerable excitement in the vicinity of Mount Albion. Charles Vosper and a couple of more men were out searching for the theives who stole the trotter Ned Hanlon Sunday morning. They came upon two men well known to the police here, and it struck Vosper that they were the persons who had taken his horse. The men decamped before the searching party reached the spot where they were. Vosper and his friends pursued them into the woods. One of the men had a gun and he fired a couple of shots at the suspected horsethieves. It is thought that one of the tramps was shot in the leg. They both disappeared, however.

THE LATE KAISER'S DIARY.

EDMUND YATES' STORY TOUCHING THE MISSING JOURNAL.

Society Welcomed at Lambeth—A General Desire among Conservatives to see "Randy" again in the Ministry—Scenes at the Irish Banner.

LONDON, July 24.—There has been a great deal of gossip of the wildest and most scandalous kind about Prussian State papers alleged to have been found missing at Potsdam after the death of Emperor Frederick. It is stated that they were handed by Empress Victoria to the Queen when Her Majesty was at Charlottenburg, and are now in England. These stories culminated in the malevolent inventions of an evening paper about the virtual imprisonment of Empress Victoria, which, however, were such palpable fictions that they excited no attention either at home or abroad. The real truth, however, which reaches me from a trustworthy correspondent in Germany is that the diary of Emperor Frederick cannot be found. The Emperor had kept a journal during more than thirty years—ever since his marriage—which was not a mere record of his movements and occupations, but an elaborate, running commentary upon public affairs, both political and social, very much in the style of Greville's memoirs. This diary was contained in thirty immense volumes, each secured by a lock. Directly after the Emperor's death, his successor, at the request of Prince Bismarck, demanded that the whole of them should at once be given up in order that His Majesty a reminiscences might be placed among the Prussian State archives at Berlin. The Empress refused to surrender the volumes. When a second and more peremptory application was made after the Emperor's funeral, Her Majesty announced that the diary had been taken to England by the Queen and she would probably publish it, as it had been her husband's particular wish that it should be published after suitable revision and that he had requested her to act as literary executrix. The Empress, I hear, added that justice to the late Emperor's memory requires this publication.

On Saturday afternoon the Primate of all England, standing on a square of Turkey carpet, welcomed society to Lambeth. Many visitors wandered off to see the chapel, which, since Archbishop Tait's time, has become resplendent with gold and gorgeous coloring. Mr. Gladstone seemed much more at home at Lambeth than among Nonconformists. The agility which Dr. Benson displayed in running to wish him good-by caused much pride and pleasure to Mrs. Gladstone, who followed her husband's movements with watchful eye. Archimandrite Plaisis, in his robes and breastplate, caused more excitement than the whole Colonial Episcopate.

The gathering of the Garters at King's Cross exceeded in magnitude anything remembered by the oldest employes of the Great Northern. There was even a brisk demand for smoking carriages, and the sight of three Bishops on their way to Cambridge, indulging without let or hindrance in the fragrant weed, reminded more than one of the spectators of the excellent story of Archbishop Tait discovering two of his American visitors kneeling piously on their bedroom hearth rugs, puffing the smoke carefully up the chimney during the last Lambeth Conference. Things have somewhat improved since then, but it was an American, Dr. Waldstein, who provided for his compatriots the eagerly sought after opportunity of the pipe of peace during their brief stay at the Varsity.

There can be no doubt that the desire is now general in the Conservative party to see Lord Randolph Churchill back in the Ministry. His great readiness in debate, his decision and firmness in dealing with the Opposition are qualities which would again enable him to be of great service to the party, as they enabled him in the autumn session of 1886. It is universally admitted that he led the House at that time with signal ability. The success of his intervention in the Channel Tunnel debate, and his rapid movement upon Mr. Conybeare in vindication of the Speaker of the House of Commons are more recent examples of his promptness in every emergency. It is not surprising that even those most incensed at his resignation should be anxious to see him once more in the Ministry before the perils of the new session are encountered. There appear to be no great difficulties in the way of managing this. Lord Randolph's colleagues are, as a general rule, quite prepared to welcome him back. Hard terms and conditions ought not to be imposed on either side. It certainly does seem unfortunate that one of the ablest and most popular leaders the Conservatives ever had should at a time like this be stranded on the back benches. The party will yet need all its strength to cope with its enemies. The sooner its ranks are closed up again the better for all concerned.

The most attractive and interesting incident at the Chester Church Congress in October will be the appearance of Mr. Balfour, who is selected as reader or speaker on "The Needs of Human Nature and their Supply in Christianity" his colleagues being Archbishop Work, the Bishop of Ripon, the Dean of Armagh and Canon Knox Little on "Positivism, its Truth and its Fallacies."

Wimbledon has at last passed into history as far as the great annual meeting of riflemen is concerned. There was sunshine and the semblance of fine weather on Saturday, when the Princess of Wales came down to distribute the prizes. Her Royal Highness looked all the better for her recent rest. The Princess and her daughters were in deep mourning. The Maxim gun proved a great attraction. After luncheon the prize-giving occupied exactly one hour. The royal party was vociferously cheered on leaving after the Prince and Princess had reviewed the prize winners drawn up in line. Lord and Lady Wolseley, Lord and Lady Brownlow, and Sir Merell and Lady Mackenzie were among Lady Montague's guests, but the uncertainty of the weather seemed to have prevented a return to summer attire.

The Irish bazaar at the Olympia has been the afternoon amusement par excellence of the week. It was delightful to see Lady Salisbury in black and jet selling fruit and flowers for dear life, while Mrs. Gladstone wrote autographs till she was tired. Lady Charles Beresford's argument, that if she did not display her strawberries she must eat them was, of course, unanswerable. Lady Aberdeen, clad in Irish white foulard with necklace, broach and bracelets reproduced from Celtic models, did a thriving trade with the aid of her sons in Irish costume. The result is that £2000 have been added to the Industrial Fund. The competition between the Primrose League dames and the Radical ladies was acute, the former being triumphant. EDMUND YATES

The Battle of Flowers.

VIENNA, July 24.—There was a brilliant regatta on Lake Gmunden yesterday, the occasion being the "Battle of Flowers." The Queen of Hanover, Princess Mary, the Duke of Wurtemburg and the Duke of Montpensier were present. Many archdukes and members of the aristocracy attired in allegorical costumes were in boats. Madame Pauline Lucca was one of the jury of ladies.

LABBY'S KEEN CRITICISM.

A VIGOROUS PROTEST AGAINST THE PROPOSED COMMISSION

He Wants to Know about Mitchelltown and the "Murder" of Mandeville—Mr. Chamberlain Defends the Measure—Lively Speeches in the Commons.

LONDON, July 24.—In the House of Commons last night, Mr. Matthews having stated that Mr. Parnell objected to the scope of the inquiry because it embodied the action of the League, Mr. Parnell said that he had no objection to an inquiry into the League's affairs, but the inquiry ought to be by a separate commission. Mr. Matthews argued that the charges were inseparable. Doubtless when seeking to inflict punishment charges against the accused should be most specific and defined, but when the object was limited to the discovery of the truth, such a defining was unnecessary. The charges had now been public some months. The Parnellites themselves had demanded an inquiry before a committee of the House. Their present attitude caused suspicion that they wished to evade an inquiry or hamper the commission. The inquiry would be a farce unless it dealt with such men as Sheridan, Byrne and Egan. The Government thought, therefore, they could not consent to limit the inquiry. They cheerfully consented, however, to let Mr. Parnell have every facility, and to appear by council or otherwise to conduct his defence. [Cheers.] Mr. Gladstone now treated the charges as ancient history. Why did he, in April last, demand a Parliamentary inquiry? It was impossible to settle this dispute without investigation.

Sir Charles Russell said Mr. Matthews contended that the Parnellites were not entitled to the protection extended to the meanest criminal of having charges defined. For his own part he would prefer a libel action before the most bigoted jury in London to trial by a tribunal constituted like the unfavorable commission appointed by the Government, the object of which appeared to be not to bring guilt home to individuals, but to discredit a party.

After a speech by Mr. T. P. O'Connor the debate, on motion of Mr. Labouchere, was adjourned.

Mr. Labouchere resumed the debate tonight. He said he had as low an opinion of The Times as most people could have, but that it was not so low as that of Mr. Matthews who seemed to think The Times would plead the right of privilege respecting a certain letter on the ground that the letter had not been published in The Times but only read by Mr. Webster in the court during the trial of O'Donnell. The commission, he said, was not as good a tribunal upon these matters as Parliament.

It was a fishing commission intended to evade the real issue to be decided. Mr. Matthews had said the widened scope of the inquiry might reveal some undiscovered murder. Did that mean that the members of Parliament against whom the bill was directed were murderers? [Hear, hear.]

The commission bill was actually framed by The Times and promoted by the Government in order to divert attention from the mischievous proceedings in Ireland. They wanted to know about the murders at Mitchellstown and about the murder of Mr. Mandeville. [Hear! hear!]

He had proposed moving the second reading of the bill this day six months but that Mr. Parnell, anxious to bring about the investigation, had urged him not to do so.

Mr. Chamberlain said that Mr. Labouchere was, as usual, cynical in imputing to his political opponents mean and unworthy motives. He (Chamberlain) had a high opinion of Mr, Parnell's character, had aided in securing his release from Kilmainham and would be slow to accept the charges made against him. The only thing that could shake his confidence was Mr. Parnell's reluctance to face them. [Cheers and shouts of "no."]

Sir William Harcourt and Mr. T. M. Healey also spoke against the bill and Mr. G. P. B. Robertson, Solicitor-General for Scotland, defended it. Sir R. E. Webster said the part he had taken in the O'Donnell action prevented his participating in the debate, but he would say that he had acted on the advice of Sir Henry James.

LECTURER JACQUES' TOUR AFTER FRESH MATERIAL.

The Militia Authorities Annoyed—The Lundy's Lane Memorial—No News from the Sheena—Customs Seizures.

OTTAWA, July 24.—Mr. John Jacques of Liverpool, agent for the Canadian Government in England, and Mr. Alfred Cooper, emigration agent at Macclesfield, arrived in the city this morning and after a brief conference with the officers of the Department of Agriculture, went west this afternoon. They will go as far as Vancouver. Mr. Jacques is after fresh material for his lectures. He delivered forty-six last winter, illustrated by dissolving views of Canadian scenery, and has been the means of attracting a large number of most desirable settlers. He blames the so-called philanthropic persons and immigration aid societies for the undesirable class of settlers sometimes sent out. These people know nothing about the class of settlers needed for Canada and often sent out undesirable persons from a mistaken notion of charity. Mr. Jacques has made proposals to the Canadian Pacific Railway with a view to bringing over a number of picked men from the best agricultural counties in England, and settling them on sections in the Northwest, providing them with machinery, etc., and giving them a stated period of time to work off the incumbrance. The proposition is still under consideration by the Canadian Pacific.

It is understood that Mr. Frewan, professor of natural history in the College of Agriculture at Salisbury and consulting botanist to the British Dairy Farmers' Association will leave England by the next steamer for the purpose of making a study of the agricultural resources of Canada. He will be accompanied by Professor Sheldon and Mr. Henry Mcne, correspondent of Bell's Messenger. Professor Frewan, who has written several works on Canada, will make a sojourn of some weeks in the Northwest.

The Militia authorities are a little annoyed at the charge made by the Montreal civic authorities that Bonsecours Market Hall has been badly damaged during its occupation by the local militia force. The hall is claimed to have been left in fairly good condition and the damage, if any, is slight.

Grasshoppers are more plentiful in Carleton, Russell and Ottawa counties than they have been for ten years past and are doing considerable damage on high-lying farms to grass crops and also to oats and barley. Unless there is a wet spell their ravages may be serious.

The quantity of square timber cut and prepared in the woods last winter and now on its way to market will aggregate 2,500,000 cubic feet, of which about 380,000 is red pine, the remainder being white pine. This is the largest cut in five years and is worth about $700,000. Prospects look good and the lumbermen say that inside of two months not a foot of square timber will be for sale, as all the old timber which was stuck and held back last season has this year been disposed of for good prices.

The trial of the Ottawa County local election protest will commence before Judge Wurtelle at Aylmer on Aug. 12.

Col. Otter of Toronto has forwarded his report on the subject of the Lundy's Lane memorial. It is understood that he recommends the erection of a monument or obelisk on which should be inscribed the particulars of the engagement.

The $10,000 lightship of the Marine Department sunk in Lower Traverse, St. Lawrence, has been raised by Patterson & Co., the contractors, and now lies at St. Joan, Point Joly, from whence she will be taken to Quebec for repairs. It cost about $7,000 to raise her.

It is understood that the papers connected with the case of Convict Roberts, who is represented to be dying in Kingston Penitentiary, have been forwarded to Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, at Antigonish.

The Department of Public Works will receive tenders up to Aug. 6, for supplying heating apparatus for the new Department Building at Ottawa.

Hon. Messrs. Tupper, and Bowell returned to-day from their short trip on the Cruiser.

Sir Hector Langevin is expected to return to the city early next week.

Several small seizures have been reported to the Department of Customs from Sarnia.

The Department of Militia has not yet received any information from British Columbia with reference to the Skeena troubles.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Starving in a Strange City—A Bogus Check Cashed by a Doctor.

TORONTO, July 24.—W. J. MacDonell, French Consul, is dangerously ill at the hospital, and his recovery is doubtful owing to his advanced age.

The Master Plumbers' Association state that a gentleman in the city has offered, if necessary, to subscribe $1,000 to assist in bringing the strikers to terms. They say some of the strikers are returning to work, as they do not like their places being supplied by alien workmen. The New York Master Plumbers' Association offer them as many men as they require.

John Armstrong, a young man who formerly lived in Streetsville, but now resides at 153 Muter-street was arrested last evening on a charge of forgery. Armstrong brought a check for $12 to Dr. Woods, with whom he was acquainted, after banking hours on Monday, and the Doctor let him have $9 as Armstrong said that he wished to use the money at once. The check was subsequently found to be a forgery.

The fifty Italians brought up from Cornwall by Alphonso Bastini on Saturday last, are still in the city, starving and neglected. Your correspondent saw ten of the unfortunates camped on the Yonge street wharf, exposed to the cool breezes of the lake without shelter and without food. What makes the matter worse, is the charge preferred by the men against Balastini, that on leaving Cornwall he drew all their money from the Grand Trunk people and has it still. The men want it to get back to New York, but Balastini hangs on to the money and refuses to let them have a cent.

Farming by Steam.

Mr. Robert Romaine's Latest Invention—The one Machine Ploughs, Cultivates, Covers, Reaps, Gathers and Threshes the Grain—"The Hired Man" Counted Out.

A large number of our readers will be interested in reading the following description of the "Steam Farmer," invented by Mr. Robert Romaine, a former resident of Peterborough. It will be seen that Mr. Romaine has enlarged the area of his invention operations since he was a citizen of this town. Then he was content to plough by steam; now he insists on doing all farming operations by the aid of steam power and machinery. The following is reprinted from the Farmers' Advocate, London:—

Your correspondent had the pleasure the other day of inspecting a model of the "Romaine Steam Farmer." The public are, perhaps, not generally aware that Mr. Romaine has been diligently working out an idea for the past thirty-six years, which now, if ultimately successful, promises to revolutionise farming. It is a machine that is to perform all the work on the farm. It is to till the soil, sow the grain, reap and thresh the harvest; and all without the use of horses. I was rather staggered when I heard of a machine that was to do all that. Of course, I am not yet prepared to say that it will do all that, nor could anyone, not a machinist, give an opinion as to its merits, but practical machinists have given it as their opinion that there is no mechanical reason why it should not succeed. The peculiar feature of the machine is that it does not "plow," that is, it does not overturn or invert the soil. Mr. Romaine went to a good deal of trouble to explain his invention. It will be a large machine, of some twelve or thirteen tons, and the probable cost will be $10,000. It will travel over the land at the rate of between one and two miles an hour, taking a "swath" of about twenty feet. It is supported by large wheels at the sides, fifteen inches wide. A track the width of the wheel will not be plowed, so that it will travel over the same beaten track every time. The plows, or rather the cultivating apparatus—for it has no plows—are arranged in the centre, between the driving wheels, and consist of a series of vertical, rotating spindles, to which are attached sharp steel points, which penetrate the soil to the depth of fifteen or even twenty inches, if required. These pulverizers rotate very rapidly, and so effectually stir up and pulverize the soil as to leave it in a far better condition to receive the seed than can possibly be done by the present method. In the fall the sod is to be broken up by a different set of teeth, and in the spring, by going only once over the ground, the land will be cultivated and the seed sown and left in a better condition than by going over it any number of times by plow and harrow. But the inventor was not satisfied with that, and the machine has been made so that the crops can be cultivated while growing, keeping down weeds at the same time. When the crop is ripe the harvesting gear is attached, and the crop cut and bound, and thus all done without a man or beast having set a foot upon the land, the workmen riding on the machine. The threshing will also be done by the machine. Mr. Romaine says the machine will cultivate 2,000 acres of crop each year, and the expenses will be only $3.00 an acre. The principle of pulverizing or stirring the soil instead of turning it over, is the great advantage of the system. He thoroughly satisfied himself that this was the true method of cultivation, and secured opinions to this effect from eminent agriculturists in the Old Country. Of course, the Western prairies will be the best field for the machine. Whether it will fulfil its mission remains to be seen. All whom I have talked with on the subject seem to agree that if it will do all that he claims for it, it will be one of the greatest inventions of the age, certainly the greatest in the way of agricultural implements.

Mr. Romaine goes to the Glasgow Exhibition in a few days, where he will exhibit it, and endeavor while there to raise capital for its manufacture.

Care of Infants.

What is Beneficial for the Little ones in These Summer Months.

From the Canada Health Journal.

We are much pleased to have found that a large number of leading daily papers in both the United States and Canada gave to their readers our article in last month issue on the prevention of infantile summer diseases, and that consequently it must have reached hundreds of thousands of readers. As that article was lengthy, and many papers, if disposed, could not well give the space to it, we propose to touch here briefly upon a few points which may be of practical use to many more interested parents, and serve as a reminder to all.

Nearly everything in the summer care of "little ones," is in pure air and a suitable diet. Find some spot where the child can breathe only pure air, and such, too, as will not contaminate its food; germ-contaminated food being the most common cause of summer complaints. During the infant's first summer, next to good mother's milk, or that of a wet-nurse whose history is will known, and above suspicion, according to the latest and best authorities, such as the Committee on Diseases of Children of the American Medical Association, is milk from a healthy, well-fed cow; given to the child directly it has been milked and properly diluted, diluted little or much according to age. If not given immediately, while yet warm from the cow, as for the most part of course it cannot be, it must always be boiled. A thin decoction, long boiled, of fine barley meal, is much better than water for diluting the milk, as it renders the caseine less liable to coagulate in lumps or "curd" in the stomach. For the newly born, four parts of barley water should be added to one of milk, while for the baby of six months, equal parts of each may be given, alway with a trace of salt and a little sugar. Milk sugar, obtained from a reliable druggist, is the best. A good baby food, nearly of the composition of human milk, and highly recommended, may be prepared as follows:—To one-fourth of a pint of fresh cream add three-fourths of a pint of warm water, half an ounce of MILK sugar and from one-eighth to one-half pint, according to the age of the child, of good new cow's milk.

Regularity in feeding is of much consequence. Every three or four hours is often enough. To nurse or feed a child every time it cries is a most injurious practice. Change the diet as little as possible. When a food seems to agree with it, give it not a taste of anything more. A teaspoonful of pure cold water, in the warm weather especially, should be given as often as the little one seems to like it or take it freely. A cool sponge bath should be given it daily, and this soft flannel is best to put on next its skin. Be sure that its legs and arms are kept warm during the cool nights. Use a feeding bottle with only a rubber mouthpiece and no tube, and see that all the food vessels are frequently and thoroughly scalded with boiling hot water. Never on any account give any astringents or preparations of opium—paregoric, "soothing syrups" and the like, nor any medicine except under the advice of a competent physician.

Brain Disorders.

As eminent authority as Dr. William A. Hammond, of New York, is reported as affirming that anxiety causes more brain disorders than any other agency he knows of, unless it be love. Dr. Hammond says:—It is well for us to know that the emotions cause more unhappiness and crime than any other function of the brain. Human beings are governed by their emotions, and it is well that they should be, though it is the emotions that wear away the brain, and not honest intellectual work. Very few people suffer from intellectual work, and if my memory serves me I do not recollect ever having a mathematician for a patient. It is not the intellectual work that causes nervous dyspepsia, but the emotions, such as anxiety, fear, sorrow and love. I consider that eight hours are sufficient for a man to use his brain, because if he exceeds that time he becomes nervous and fretful, and an exhausted brain is an irritable brain. You may not feel the evil effects of the stress of brain work at the time, but you will sooner or later, when it is too late. The men that work at night with their brains are the ones that expose themselves to danger and death, which will surely come unless the strain on the mind is lightened.

PYRAMIDS OF FACTS

Why COUGH BROS., the Wonderful Cheap Men, are on TOP OF THE HEAP!

Why the Giant Clothiers Knock the Sox off the Combined 12 Trifflers with the Clothing Trade.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

FIRST.—Buying for Spot Cash, thereby convincing the Wholesale Men that we command the Market.

SECOND.—Selling Goods Cheaper Retail than the Handicap Dealers who are under the Thumb of Wholesale Men can buy for.

THIRD.—Carrying the LARGEST Stock of CLOTHING of any house between Montreal & Toronto thereby giving the Customer the benefit of buying largely.

FOURTH.—Goughs sell FINE WORSTEDS for $6.90, worth $13.00. Tweed Suits for $3.80 worth $8.00. "They sell Boys' Suits for 58c., Elegant Goods. They sell Boy's Coats for 19c. A customer remarked the Goods, well, really gentle men, you are without doubt, the Kings of original Wonderful Cheap Men."

FIFTH.—Men's Working Pants 17c.

SIXTH.—Do we offer Baits? Some Dealers say our Prices are only Baits thrown out to catch! Why bless them! GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of small Profits Goods are all Baits. They don't Fish with a bare hook. They know the value of good value. Their offers touch bottom in Clothing Prices, and that's what makes all the High Priced Clothing Sharks wriggle and squirm

OFF FOR STOCKHOLM

Emperor William Leaves St. Petersburg on His Northern Tour.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—Emperor William yesterday conferred the order of the Black Eagle upon M. de Giers, Russian Foreign Minister and the order of the Red Eagle upon M. Vangoli, Under Secretary of the Foreign Office. At Krasnoe-Selo yesterday, the German Emperor witnessed the cavalry manœuvres and the review of Cossacks directed by the Grand Duke Nicholas. Fifty-one squadrons and five mounted batteries in two divisions engaged in a sham fight. There were several spirited attacks and repulses. The effect was marred by clouds of dust. The captain of the American man-of-war, Enterprise, was invited to be present.

This morning the Czar and Czarina took breakfast with Emperor William on board the yacht Hohenzollern. When they had departed the yacht with Emperor William on board started for Stockholm.

The Journal de St. Petersburg says:—The extension of the German Emperor's visit testifies to the cordial relations that have been established between the Russian Imperial family and their august guests. Truly good can arise from intercourse between the two nations.

IT MUST BE AT ROME.

Emperor William's Proposed Visit to King Humbert.

BERLIN, July 24.—Negotiations are in progress with Italy regarding the proposed visit of Emperor William to King Humbert. The Italian Government persists that if there is to be any meeting it must be in Rome.

The North German Gazette, referring to rumors of disarmament published in French papers, says:—"Such childish and absurd lucubrations could never be ventured upon among reading people in Germany. The idea is so silly that the inventor must have supposed himself writing for the veriest tyros in politics."

Stuttgart admirers have presented Prince Bismarck with a fine yacht.

Astie Asked in Vain.

PARIS, July 24.—Mme. Astie de Valayre, a lady equally famous for her hostility to M. Pasteur, her love of duelling and her audacity has just vainly petitioned a parliamentary committee to do her the favor of granting the right of women to dress in male attire. The privilege has been tacitly conceded in exceptional cases, in those of George Sand, Rosa Bonheur and Mme. Dieulafoy, the celebrated Parisian explorer, for instance, but even radicals hesitate to go further and Mme. Astie de Valayre has been rudely informed that the matter does not concern politicians, but the police.

Many Fugitives Drowned.

CAIRO, July 24.—A despatch from Wady Halfa says that three boats loaded with native fugitives, who left that place during the attack of the Dervishes on June 26, sank in the river, and that 150 persons were drowned.

Preparing to Oppose the White Pacha.

CAIRO, July 24.—A messenger from Omdurman reports that the Mahdi is preparing to oppose the White Pacha supposed to be Emin Bey.

A Good Corn Sheller for 25 cents.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy, and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—safe, sure and painless. Sold at druggists. 6dw30

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensible.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont. 5w29d

A Sad Loss.

Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dulness and debility, are of very frequent occurrence. Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digestion by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present. 2w29d

By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Valuable Properties for Sale suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—East Half of Lot No. 1 in 2nd Concession of the Township of Thorah, County of Ontario. 120 acres all cleared, soil good clay loam, house and barn on farm, which is situated about three and a half miles from Beaverton. Price $4500.

2nd.—The Erskine Homestead, being the North Part of Block "U" Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 262 feet on Concession street, and 2340 on the Road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be subdivided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "E" Ashburnham, containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan on the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town with brick dwelling house 26x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil first-class, suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The residence of Mrs. F. W. Hamilton, situated on Brock street, Peterborough, on Court House hill, there is about ½ of an acre of land. Well stocked with fruit trees, &c., soil, first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—Erin Cottage being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13 in 13th Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 3 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and any further particulars may be obtained from them.

Prevention Better Than Cure.

It is said that the juice of cucumbers, just now coming into season, will remove sunburn and tan from the complexion of ladies under thirty. But an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and one of the golden lion's cream lace parasols is worth a garden of cucumbers to prevent tan and freckles. Only $1; former price $2 and $2.50. Imported goods. Must be cleared this season.

The Shift of the Bell.

Yesterday Mr. Street Inspector Pope removed the ward fire bell from its old position, corner of George and Dublin streets, to upper George-street on the east side, opposite the opening of Cemetery-street. The bell is ready to ring, but it is to be hoped no occasion will arrive to make it necessary to depend upon the unwieldy piece of pot metal to give an alarm—that is, a fire alarm—for any sound of it is alarming enough.

Market Mems.

The Wednesday morning market was about as well attended as it has been for some time. Potatoes were quite plentiful and the price asked was 40c. per peck. Raspberries were offered at $1.25 per pail, peas 10c. per quart, black currants 12c. per quart, red currants 7 and 8c. per quart, and cherries 9c. Butter from 20 to 22c. per lb and eggs 15 and 16c. per dozen. Carrots, onions, etc., sold for 5c. per bunch as usual.

Wild Jim Again.

Wild Jim is making a tour through Ontario. He was in Port Hope not many days ago and now we have heard of him again, this time in Bowmanville. The Statesman has the following:—"Wild Jim," the Indian Scout and Texan Cowboy, will not strike the pockets of our citizens so accurately again, should he ever return to town. His exhibition was a grand sell. He gets out of performing his big acts by complaining that the funds contributed do not warrant it. He would make a boss canvasser for a missionary society.

The "Dominion Illustrated."

The third number of this fine-art publication is full of interest both in text and pictures. It contains splendid photographic reproductions—including Gorge of Nicolet River, Eastern Townships, views of coal docks at Fort William, views of the post office and Parliament buildings at Winnepeg, Banff Hotel, National Park with its grand background of mountains, and the Kananaskis Falls on the Bow River, fed by the glaciers of the Rockies. There is also a splendid portrait of Hon. Wilfred Laurier, and the art reproductions are gems—a copy of Thuman's "Roman Beauty" and of Perraults "Love and Innocence—both full page. The letter press consists of about twenty columns of excellent literary matter, poetical, fiction and general. The Dominion Illustrated has a great future before it if it maintains its present high artistic literary and patriatic standard. Montreal, Desbarrats & Son, $4.00 per year or ten cents per number. At all the bookstores.

A Good Word for "Elm Grove."

Mr. W. M. Fair has recently visited the best stock farms of eastern and western Ontario. Among these was the "Elm Grove" stock farm of Mr. Joseph Redmond, Otonabee, and amongst them all Mr. Fair did not find one on which the Durham stock surpassed, if it equalled that of Mr. Redmond, his stock of thoroughbred Durhams imported from Scotland being particularly worthy of admiration. This is testimony of which Mr. Redmond may be proud, for no better judge could be found than Mr. Fair, whose long experience and habits of close observation fit him for passing a judgment on stock, either horned or hoofed, which can be depended on. The farmers of this county are also to be congratulated on having amongst them an enterprising breeder, who brings to their very doors access to the best bred stock in the world, for his herd contains the cream of imported stock.

Curious Incidents of War.

Some interesting information with reference to a very curious incident which occured during the Franco-German war has just come to hand. In 1870 three French visitors established themselves at a hotel in a well-known German town, where they remained several months. Being then in want of funds and unable to pay their bill, they were compelled to leave a package which they had brought from France, in the hands of the landlord in satisfaction of his claim. This, upon examination, was found to contain a sumptuously designed state chair. The name of Napoleon was embroidered upon the silk covering of the back and seat, and, on the occupant pressing his hands upon the finely carved gilt arms, a musical air was played by an instrument concealed within the upholstery. The care of this remarkable piece of furniture seemed the only occupation of the strangers, who are supposed to have been awaiting the advance of the French army, and, in the event of its proving victorious, would doubtless have conveyed the chair to Berlin, where, it is presumed, it was to have been used as a throne by the Emperor Napoleon. The chair remains in the possession of the widow of the Frenchman's host.—Letter to the London Times.

Personal.

Mr. S. O'Brien, Mrs. and Miss O'Brien, of Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard went north to Stony Lake this morning.

The EXAMINER regrets to learn that the illness of Mr. C. D. McDonald, clerk and treasurer of the town, has taken a considerable turn for the worse.

Mrs. Robert Moffatt, of New York City, returned home this morning after a three weeks' visit to town, the guest of her brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Cumming.

Mr. John Jaques, travelling agent of the Allan Line in England, and father of Mr. J. E. Jaques, town, organist of St. Luke's Church, in company with Mr. Cooper, of Macclesfield, England, general steamship emigration agent, is in town for a few days. From Peterborough, both gentlemen will make a tour across continent to Vancouver, B.C., in the interests of the trusts they represent.

Charlotte Street Church Picnic

The Successful Annual Picnic and Excursion—A Happy Day—Sports and Games—The One "Fly in the Ointment," the Low Water in Little Lake.

The annual excursion and picnic of the Charlotte street Methodist church was made and held to Jubilee Point on Tuesday. The "Golden Eye," with palace barge attached, took down the river about three hundred persons. The down trip was made without particular incident, refreshments in the shape of ice cream, lemonade, etc., being liberally sold. The arrival was made in good time. Of course, the demands of the appetite demanded and received ample attention, and various forms of amusement abundantly afforded by Jubilee Point were taken advantage of. A lengthy programme of keenly contested sports and games was conducted by Dr. Stephenson, starter, and Messrs. W. J. Green, R. B. McKee and S. R. Armstrong, judges. At the conclusion of the contests, Mrs. W. J. Green, Rev. Mr. Shorey and Mr. O. C. Rowse presented the prizes won in the following contests:

BOYS' RACE 100 YDS.—1st Ab. Saunders, 2nd Henry McClure, 3rd Geo. Curtis.

GIRLS RACE—free to all.—1st Nellie Eastland, 2nd Annie Sutherland, 3rd Hattie Richardson.

BOYS' RACE—open—1st Howard Hughes, 2nd E. Walton, 3rd A. Jones.

GIRLS' RACE—free to all.—1st L. Eastland, 2nd Maud Steen, 3rd Lou Redmond.

BOYS' CONSOLATION RACE.—1st F. Follis, 2nd H. McClure, 3rd Bert Guy.

GIRLS' CONSOLATION RACE.—1st Jessie Steen, 2nd Eliza Eastland, 3rd Edie Lyle.

Two other boys' races took place, won by 1st Albert Frost, 2nd Henry Froude, 3rd C. Campbell; and 1st Silas Benton, 2nd C. Whitfield and 3rd Fred. Cox.

The superintendent, Mr. Rowse, the teachers and the ladies of the congregation made special and successful efforts to contribute especially to the enjoyment of the little folks. The return trip began about four o'clock and all was smooth sailing till the locks were reached at about 8:30. The trip through Little Lake was a weary, disheartening, disgusting drag over beds of saw dust, the water being so low that navigation was almost impossible. It is a great pity that those who have charge of the water should allow Little Lake to be so thoroughly drained, when it was known that a heavily-laden excursion steamer would require to pass through it after dark. Over two hours were consumed in passing from the Locks to the wharf—less than a mile, and it was after eleven o'clock when a landing, which should have been made before nine o'clock, was accomplished. However, in spite of this little draw-back, the day's outing was unanimously voted a great success.

Juvenile Jubilee at Juniper.

St. Paul's Pleasant Outing.

The annual outing of St. Paul's congregation and Sunday school on Tuesday was a delightful success. The party arrived home about 8.40 o'clock, and one and all were unanimous and enthusiastic in pronouncing the excursion and picnic a phenomenal success. By the time the party reached Lakefield, it had grown to between 400 and 500. These were distributed among the "Cruiser," "Mary Ellen" and "Dawn." Juniper Island, the rendezvous, was reached about noon, and at once the preparation for dinner, one of the most important features of the day, was "begun, continued and ended" in complete satisfaction, and the party sought various kinds of amusement—boating, bathing and roaming delightedly about this fine and (for Stony Lake) well wooded island. The rather stiff breeze which prevailed resulted in the sacrifice of a few straw hats. Everything passed off with the greatest degree of harmony and enjoyment. Mr. Sheriff Hall, superintendent, and Mr. Geo. M. Roger exercised a paternal oversight, and the lady teachers did their full share in making the children regard the day as a delightful memory. Several of the party remained over to extend the holiday to several days. About four o'clock the start home was made the "Cruiser" and "Mary Ellen" being able to bring down the whole party which arrived safely at Lakefield and safely at the Midland station at about 8.40 o'clock, nothing having occurred to mar the course of a perfect day of pleasure and recreation, a circumstance indicating reassuring carefulness on the part of the train employes, the crews of the steamers and the gentlemen in charge of the excursion party—and good behaviour upon the party of the children—especially the boys—who are hardly happy unless they are in some danger or, generally, harmless mischief.

A gentleman who accompanied this excursion contributes a lengthy and well-written report, but it unfortunately arrived after the above was in type. However the following extracts from it are worthy of reproducing. * * * Juniper Island was found already well occupied with campers, &c. In a short time after the boats had landed their passengers, the canoes were in commission, paddles being plied vigorously by the delighted occupants on the beautiful sheet of water directly fronting the other excursionists on shore, some of whom were dining, others getting dinner ready. The scene thus presented to the view, especially to that of the inexperienced of such healthy exercises, was really grand; the day being beautiful, just warm enough and nothing more, made everything all the more enjoyable. The Island and Lake was literally swarming with men, women and children. * * Moral—Never trouble about the ways and means of getting to expensive watering places or summer resorts; just decide at once and go for a few days, or weeks, as may be convenient, to Stony Lake, where pure air will be found, and the result, in a healthy point of view, will be thoroughly satisfactory.

Willow and Wicket.

Peterborough vs. County of Ontario.

Yesterday our club journeyed to Whitby to play the above return match. Wickets were pitched at ten o'clock, the Whitby club going to the bat. Under the gentle persuasion of Logan, who trundled splendidly at one end, the score was kept delicately small, the whole team being retired for some 37 runs. Peterborough then took the willow, and each batter confidently anticipated an increase in the general and particular average. Unfortunately, the bowling was very accurate, and the crease correspondingly bumpy and treacherous, and large scores were both rare and exceptional. Stratton's well earned 32 runs looked large amid the little archipelago of cyphers and ones and twos of the total, and helped to add robustness to the team's aggregate. The second innings of the Whitby eleven yielded 43 runs, the home eleven still being unable to solve the mystery of Logan's twisters. Peterborough, having 24 runs to win, then took the bat, and, after several wickets had been ungracefully laid low, Sam Ray became heated to his work and compiled sufficient runs to win the match, he being very ably seconded by Montgomery, whose careful batting recalled former days. Logan laid low in the two innings, 14 wickets for 32 runs.

Our club was very handsomely treated, and feel pleased with their visit. Both clubs were entertained most hospitably at lunch at the residence of Judge Dartnell. Following is the score:

Revised List of Fixtures—Visit of the Irish Gentlemen.

The secretary of the cricket club, Mr. W. J. Munro, has been able to furnish a revised list of cricketing fixtures for August:

Belleville	August 3rd
Seabright	August 10th
Hamilton	August 13th
Toronto (at Toronto)	August 16th
Irish Gentlemen	August 25th and 28th

In consequence of the visit of the Irish Gentlemen, the fixture for Ottawa (27th) has to be cancelled.

A letter received this morning from Mr. G. G. S. Lindsey, who is arranging the match with the Irish Gentlemen, states that the match will be a two days' one against 15 of Peterborough club and district, and that a guarantee of $200 will be required. A guarantee list will be in circulation tomorrow, and from the large number who have voluntarily offered subscriptions to the guarantee, there is no doubt that a sufficient sum can be secured to warrant bringing the distinguished Hibernian cricketers here. It is to be hoped that all cricket loving citizens and all interested in the good name of the town which is the leading one of its size in the Dominion in cricket matters, will give substantial aid to the club in its endeavor to afford to the public of the town the finest exhibition of cricket ever presented here. The members of the local club must remember that in justice to themselves, to the public of Peterborough and the visitors, they must not fail in the most diligent practice between now and the 28th. If they may not hope to defeat the visitors they may hope to give them a good match and not permit them to have a walk-over. By bringing the fielding up to the highest point and playing steadily in front of the wickets, the home fifteen should make a good stand against any visiting team. It must be remembered (remembering Toronto) that once is enough to put out a member of a team like the Irish Gentlemen.

Seabright Cricket Club.

The secretary of the local cricket club this morning received from Mr. McGregor, the secretary of the Seabright cricket club, New York, a letter fixing the date of the match with that club in Peterborough on August 10th. This eleven is a strong one, and the cricketers at home would do well to keep up the practice fielding they have done for the past few days, and also get up a practice match or two. The visitors are brisk fielders, and the home team should put in such practice as will insure them against the danger of making an exhibition of themselves, as they did in the Toronto match. They can give a good account of themselves if they try, but they can't afford to miss persistent practice.

Lawn Tennis.

The semi-monthly meet of the P. A. A. A. Tennis Club will be held to-morrow afternoon. All members and their lady friends are invited to be present.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

CANADIAN CANAL TOLLS.

THE CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION DENIED.

The Minister of Customs' Explanation of the Matter—The Canadian Pacific Railway and the Interstate Commerce Bill. The Price Has Dropped.

OTTAWA, July 25.—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, denies that there is any ground for the charge made at Washington of discrimination against American vessels using Canadian canals. There is no discrimination at all. All vessels going from the same ports to the same ports are charged the same rates; all vessels bound east, whether Canadian or American or any other nationality, using the Welland Canal are charged the same rate—20 cents per ton. If they pass down Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence canals to Montreal they are allowed a rebate of 18 cents per ton, but if they seek the seaboard by the American instead of the Canadian route no rebate is allowed; that is all there is to it.

The rebate is intended to encourage shipments from the west to Europe by way of the St. Lawrence and Canadian ports instead of by American ports, and the rebate of 18 cents per ton on grain landed at Montreal is made to American vessels equally with Canadian.

Referred to Another Committee.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—In the House, to-day, the communication received yesterday from the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the use of the Welland Canal and referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, was referred to the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, with authority to that committee to report thereon at any time.

The C. P. R. and the Interstate Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—In the Senate today, Mr. Cullom, (Rep., Ill.) filed a preamble and resolution reciting the published statements that the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway and the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway have passed into the control of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, that these two railways control all the approaches to the bridge over the St. Mary's River on the boundary line between the United States and Canada, that the ownership of that bridge is also in the Canadian Pacific and that by virtue of this monopoly the Canadian Pacific road operated in the interest of a foreign Government, is able to ignore and defeat the operation of the Interstate Commerce Bill, directing the Committee on Interstate Commerce to inquire into these matters and whether any legislation is necessary to protect the interests of the people of the United States and to prevent the diversion of commerce from its legitimate and natural channels and to prevent the monopolizing of traffic by a foreign corporation.

Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) asked that the resolution go over to to-morrow as he desired to offer an amendment to it and it was so ordered.

A Russian refugee en route to Winnipeg has been arrested at Duluth as an accessory to the murder of the governor of a Russian province.

REWARDED FOR BRAVERY

THE MINISTER OF MARINE'S AWARD TO ITALIAN SAILORS.

The Proposed Infantry School Transferred—A Nova Scotia Syndicate's Extensive Horse-Breeding Scheme—Canadian Fishermen Making a Good Catch.

OTTAWA, July 25.—The Minister of Marine has awarded a gold watch to the master, a silver watch to the chief officer and a gratuity to each of the crew of the Italian bark Savina for bravery and humanity in rescuing the officers and crew of the barkentine Harriet Ughan of Londonderry, N. S., on Feb. 7 while the latter was on a voyage from Montevideo to Aroegos, Brazil.

Sir Adolphe Caron, on being asked to-day whether it was true that A School of Infantry was to be transferred from Fredericton to Toronto and C School sent from the latter place to Fredericton, said the matter had not yet been decided, but it was probable that the change would be made in the course of time, as it was intended to move the infantry schools about periodically in the same manner as batteries of artillery were moved.

Justice Burbidge of the Exchequer Court will go to Halifax after vacation to try several cases there in connection with the expropriation of lands on branches of the Intercolonial and will afterwards proceed to British Columbia, where there are several cases waiting trial.

The Department of Marine was to-day advised that the crew of the Atlantic, wrecked on St. Paul's Island, had arrived at Port Sydney.

The members of Trinity Church Guild of Archville last night presented Mr. John Lowe with a handsome address on the occasion of his promotion to be Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

Two more boilers for the lighthouses at Cape Race have been purchased by the Marine Department from Geo. Fleming & Son of St. John, N. B., and will be shipped to their destination by the Government steamer Newfield in the course of a few days.

It is understood that a Nova Scotia syndicate has intimated its intention of applying to the Federal Government for a lease of Sable Island. Their scheme includes horse breeding on an extensive scale, there being a large number of horses in a semi-wild state on the island.

While the fish are scarce outside the three-mile limit on the Atlantic coast it is understood the catch is fairly good by our own fishermen. In fact the Canadian shore fishermen are doing better than ever. On some parts of the coast the mackerel are not schooling this year.

The black cod exploratory party that were to have left Victoria, B.C., on board the Government steamer, cannot operate this season, the Department of Fisheries having given instructions to postpone it until next summer. The reason assigned is that the Government vessel was required for special service in connection with the Indian Department and she is the only available boat to be had on the Pacific coast.

The Hydrographic survey of the lower St. Lawrence undertaken jointly by the Imperial and Canadian Governments has been laid over until next season. The Quebec Board of Trade were anxious that the work should be continued nearer to Quebec and the channel between the harbor of Montreal and that city surveyed. This would involve considerable expense for which no provision has been made and it has of course to stand over.

MANITOBA'S PROLIFIC CROPS.

Surplus of 20,000,000 Bushels of Wheat—Other Grains in Proportion.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—Nothing that could be said regarding the prolific crops in the Prairie Province would be exaggerated. It is estimated that the surplus of wheat will be about 20,000,000 bushels and other grains in proportion.

It is stated on the best authority that the Indians at Skeena are honest and inoffensive and the stories from there are doubtless largely exaggerated.

The city newsboys excurted down the river this afternoon.

A Pembina man named Leighton has been captured at Morden for stealing a horse and buggy from Pembina.

The body of Anderson, one of the six drowned in Bow River, was found to-night.

Calgary will shortly ship 300 cattle to Montreal.

ARE THEY CAPTIVES?

Two White Children Discovered in an Indian Camp at Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—At the annual sun dance of the Blackfeet at the reserve at Gleichen just concluded nearly three thousand braves were in attendance. Objects of interest to the visitors at the reserve were a couple of pretty little white children, who are kept by one of the squaws as members of her family. The squaws of Crow Foot's tribe keep several stories in circulation as to the origin of these strange little youngsters. It is said the children were stolen some time ago from Fort Assinaboine, Mont, and that their father is an American officer quartered there. Some people who have become interested in the two little ones have attempted to induce the squaw to allow them to be sent to the Indian school at High River, but she refuses to separate herself from them.

COUNTERFEITERS COMMITTED.

The Examination of Johnston and His Pals at Sarnia.

SARNIA, July 25.—At the examination of Chas. Johnston, W. O. Parsons and Benjamin Mackenzie on the charge of counterfeiting was taken up here to-day. Knight, the party who has been committed for trial for passing counterfeit money at Kingston, testified that he got $500 in counterfeits of the Bank of British North America from a man named Coultis at Port Edward last April and that Johnston was in the company of Coultis. Knight went to Kingston a couple of days afterwards and in a couple of hours passed $300 of it.

Alexander Brownley of Ailsa Craig also gave evidence to the effect that he has obtained counterfeit money from both Parsons and Mackenzie and that Johnston told him he was dealing in the money and would get 15 for him.

Chief Sherwood and Inspector O'Leary of the secret service, who had been engaged on the case and who made the arrests, also testified. The three prisoners were committed for trial.

Trying to Collect a Big Judgment.

MONTREAL, July 25.—Seizure after judgment on behalf of the Ontario Car Co., in their actions against the trustees of the South Eastern Railway Company, was taken out to-day. The original action was brought to recover the cost of fifty cars supplied to the line and judgment was given in favor of the plaintiffs for the full amount which, with interest, amounts to some $45,000. The seizure issued also included the traffic receipts of the line which are now in the hands of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Chinese and Pacific Trade.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 25.—The Canadian Pacific steamship Aberdeen has arrived. She left Yokohama July 10 and brings 20 passengers and 534 Chinese, of whom 427 are for San Francisco. The cargo consists of 3,425 tons, of which 102 tons tea and 835 tons merchandise are for San Francisco; 1,034 tons for Canada, the remainder for New York and the East.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

ANOTHER M. P. ARRESTED.

Mr. Gladstone's Golden wedding.—"The League is Not Dead."

LONDON, July 25.—James J. O'Kelly, the well-known journalist and member of Parliament for the north division of Roscommon, was arrested in London last evening for offences under the Crimes Act. The warrant for his arrest charges him with making speeches in Ireland, inciting to intimidation and boycott. Mr. O'Kelly, under an escort of police, left for Dublin on an early train this morning. The charges against him are based on utterances in a speech at the recent election in the south division of Longford, which resulted in the return of Mr. Fitzgerald (Parnellite) to the House of Commons. It is expected Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Leamy, the newly-elected members of Parliament for South Sligo, will also be arrested.

Their Golden Wedding.

LONDON, July 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone celebrated their golden wedding today. Testimonials in shape of letters, telegrams and presents poured in upon them by hundreds. The couple were given a reception at the residence of Earl Spencer this afternoon and were presented with portraits of themselves painted by Frank Holland and Hubert Herkomer and also with three large silver cups and an address signed by 150 members of Parliament. Lord Granville made the speech of presentation.

The League is Not Dead.

DETROIT, July 25.—The following cable was sent from here last evening:

"DETROIT, JULY 23, 1888.

"TO SIR GRATTON ESMOND, HOUSE OF COMMONS, LONDON, ENG.:—Tell Bigger and Kenny I am drafting each £1,000. Tell murderers of Mandeville the League is not dead. CHARLES O'REILLEY, Treasurer."

A FUGITIVE BRIDE.

Peculiar Adventure of a Staten Island Chorus Girl.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Miss Maud Frances Reilly, of Brooklyn, has learned something of the vicissitudes of life in the last few days. A week ago she was rolling cigars in a factory on First avenue. Five days ago she was a ballet girl in Kilralfy's "Fall of Rome," in Staten Island. Last Sunday she was engaged, yesterday she was married, and now she is unfaithful Mrs. Abel J. Hayes, fleeing from her husband of a few hours. Young Hayes and his father of Rampo, N.J., drank in the gorgeousness of the "Nero" ballet together last Friday evening. The son became enamored of Miss Reilly, who danced in the first row of the chorus, made an appointment after the performance to meet her the next morning, engaged himself to her during the meeting, and yesterday presented his wife to Hayes, senior. The father stormed and threatened to disown his son. The new daughter-in-law, frightened and disappointed, deserted her husband. The young groom is now searching Brooklyn and New York in vain for his truant bride.

A REVOLUTIONARY PLOT.

Discovery of a Bulgarian Conspiracy—Pan-Slavists Implicated.

BERLIN, July 25.—The Allegemeine Zeitung learns that a revolutionary plot has been discovered in Rustchuk, and that two persons have been arrested in connection with the affair. The Bulgarian Foreign and Finance Ministers have arrived at Rustchuk to enquire into the plot. Letters under date of Kieff were found in the possession of the persons arrested. A number of Bulgarian refugees, headed by M. Zankoff, are attending the Pan-Slavists' Christian festival at Kieff, and it is supposed they are implicated in the plot.

The Traitors' Object.

SOFIA, July 25.—The object of the plot discovered at Rustchuk was to murder Prince Ferdinand. Two of the ringleaders, Boyntoff and Ivanoff, have been arrested.

ONE HUNDRED SHOTS EXCHANGED.

Prohibition in Kentucky Leads to Winchesters and Bloodshed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 25.—There is a bitter fight in progress over the whisky question at Harlan Court-House, Kentucky. County Judge Lewis believes that a great deal of whisky is being sold in the town in spite of the local prohibition law. Several grocerymen were tried a few days ago on the charge, but no proof was produced. The arrest angered the accused, and as Judge Lewis rode out of town at evening he barely escaped being shot by John H. Barley.

Lewis rode back into town and assembling the opponents of the traffic proceeded to search the stores of those suspected. They found liquor in several and rolled the barrels into the streets and emptied the contents on the ground. This was done under a guard of twenty men with Winchesters. Yesterday the whisky men rallied and the two factions met in the street. A hundred shots were fired, but nobody was killed. Five were carried off badly wounded.

A TREASURER ABSCONDS.

A Wealthy Married Woman Also Disappears—Possibly an Elopement.

GREAT FALLS, N. H., July 25.—Emery J. Randall, treasurer of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company, has left town. The books of the company are being examined by an auditor. The wife of William A. Worcester has also suddenly disappeared, and it is believed she and Randall have gone to Europe together.

Mrs. Worcester is worth $100,000 in her own right. Her husband is a prominent citizen. Randall leaves a wife and two children.

Adjusting Freight Claims.

MONTREAL, July 25.—A number of the representatives of the various fast freight lines of the United States and Canada arrived in town yesterday to attend the monthly meeting to be held in the Windsor to-day. These meetings are for the purposes chiefly of adjusting claims and are held each month in a different city. The roads which are to be represented at the meeting are the Lackawanna, Great Eastern, Nickel Plate, Commercial Express, West Shore, Hoosac Tunnel, Erie Despatch, Grand Trunk, Chicago & Grand Trunk, Intercolonial, Erie, New York Central, Wabash and others lines.

A CASUALTY IN GOTHAM.

COLLAPSE OF A PORTION OF A LARGE BUILDING.

A Scene of Confusion and Terror—Fifty Girls and Women Precipitated in the Debris, but only One Killed—Miraculous Escapes From Death.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The old armory of the Eleventh Regiment at Elm and White-streets has been used for commercial purposes for some years though still owned by the city. This afternoon the gallery for 31 feet on one side collapsed and fell carrying down with it five heavy folding machines and about fifty girls and women. Over 200 girls and women who were at work at the time ran panic stricken to the street.

The scene baffled description. Men were trying to get at the buried people and women were shrieking and moaning.

The five heavy folding machines crashed like rock ribbed monsters to the floor of the hall, the floor yielded and the mass crashed through to the ground floor. Six girls who had been working at the machines went down in the wreck all the way to the ground floor. The rest managed to escape. Two of the six were uninjured. May Bignell, of 127 King-street, Brooklyna, lay dead, her hands clutching a piece of the sheets she was holding when the crash came. Two other girls had fallen in such a way that the debris formed an arch over their heads. They were unhurt. The sixth, Mrs. Mary MacDonald, was badly bruised.

Infernal Machines Captured at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 25.—A gunsmith named Rudolph Sevic was arrested this morning, and is charged with being the individual who furnished dynamite to the anarchist conspirators. Sevic acknowledges that he has been dealing illegally in dynamite. Inspector Bonfield last night also captured several infernal machines of cylinder shape 2½ inches in diameter.

Sevic professed ignorance of English though Inspector Bonfield said he knew it passably well. He was held in the sum of $7000.

Inspector Bonfield said the bombs made by Sevic were of the most devilish pattern. One of them might have killed fifty men.

This afternoon Sevic was carried with Hroneck and Chapek before the grand jury who immediately took up the case. The proceedings were guarded with the utmost secrecy.

Seeking Fresh Fields.

OMAHA, July 25.—The eloping editor, Henry W. Moore and his paramour, Mrs. Norton, passed through Omaha yesterday afternoon en route to Canada. They were accompanied to this city and to Council Bluffs by Charles Reynolds, of The Topeka Democrat. At Council Bluffs he parted company with them and came over to Omaha.

Moore and Mrs. Norton left on the Burlington train for Chicago, and expected to be in Canada to-day. In a few days they will sail for London, where Moore will at once become the London correspondent of The New York World, this position having been given him since the elopement.

The Papermakers' Convention.

SARATOGA, July 25.—The American Papermakers' Association held its eleventh annual session at the Grand Union Hotel to-day. There was a large attendance.

Milan's Meanness.

LONDON, July 25.—King Milan, of Servia, is a most despicable creature. Some years ago he went to Vienna for a brief stay, and the first night of his visit he lost £24,000 at a noble's club. The money had to be paid within twenty-four hours, and as the amount was not within his reach he went to the palace and requested a loan from the emperor, who gave him the money on condition that he would not play again, and yet the very next night he was found at the table and did not rise until another £8,000 had gone. No application could be made this time to the emperor, so Milan raised the money on a splendidly jewelled scimitar, his most valuable hereditary possession, which had been presented to the late Prince Milosch by Emperor Nicholas. His scimitar has never been redeemed, and it is now in the possession of Herr Bleichroder, a Berlin banker.

An Illinois Murder.

QUINCY, Ill., July 25.—A party of seven persons were boat-riding here last Saturday night, when the skiff was capsized and Sam Steele and Miss Jessie Kay were drowned. Steele's body was recovered to-day and a bullet hole was found in the temple. It is thought he was murdered and the boat upset to remove suspicion. Miss Kay's body has not been found.

Settled the Funeral Expenses.

SHAWNEE, Ill., July 25.—Wm. Randolph, aged 30, came here from Arkansas yesterday and killed his father because he had been abusing Mrs. Randolph. Young Randolph settled the funeral expenses and then surrendered to the authorities.

Death of Mr. Richard Burrows.

OSHAWA, July 25.—Richard Burrows of Oshawa, father of Alfred Burrows of Toronto, who has been connected with the Canadian Pacific Railway for the past few years, died this afternoon in the 64th year of his age. He was born in Manchester, Eng., and came to this country some 34 years ago.

Will Prohibit Christian Missionaries.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 25.—A report comes from Corea that the king of that country has intimated to the missionaries that he will prohibit the preaching of Christianity.

A $20,000 Blaze at Beaverton.

BEAVERTON, July 25.—A fire broke out in the engine room of the Beaverton foundry shortly after the men left work about 7 o'clock to-night. The building and contents were totally consumed. The loss is about $20,000 and there is no insurance. The fire extended to a dwelling house owned by J. A. Proctor, which was also burned. Several private residences are badly damaged.

Wheat Crop in India.

Some Reliable Figures Relating to This Year's Crop.

From the Mark Lane Express, July 9.

We have received the following epitome of the Indian Government reports of the Indian wheat crop of the present year:

The last reports of the wheat crop just before harvest have been received from Simla in respect of the North-western Provinces and Oudh, of Bengal, and of the Central Provinces. These show that there has been on the whole, taking these districts together, an increase in the acreage of wheat land for the crop of 1888, and that the crop is about equal to an average return with regard to quantity and quality.

In the North-western Provinces and Oudh the wheat acreage of this season is given as 4,962,354 acres, compared with 4,962,942 acres in 1887 and 5,240,331 acres in 1886.

Of this acreage for 1888, that of Oudh is 1,549,789 acres, and that of the North-western Provinces is 3,402,565 acres.

Though slightly larger than the return of the last year, the wheat acreage of these important districts is 2 per cent. less than the "normal area," and 6 per cent. less than the areas of 1885 and 1886.

This falling-off in the present and preceding year is due to continuous and heavy rainfall, which prevented ploughing and proper cultivateon, but the condition of the crop is fairly good, and the yield is set at a little over fourteen bushels per acre, or less by over one bushel and a quarter per acre than the crop of 1887. It is said that owing to last year's bad harvest and to other causes the price of wheat is now on an average of 33 per cent. higher than in 1887, and that at the present rates exporters can make no profit.

In Bengal the exact average for 1888 has not been ascertained. It is, however, believed to be 25 per cent. less than that of 1887, when it was returned as close upon 1,300,000 acres.

Owing to excessive rains at the time of sowing, and unseasonable rain in January, the crop is much under the average. No figures are given; nor are any estimates of the crop forthcoming.

The time of the harvest in Bengal, as in Oudh and the North-western provinces, varies between the end of March and the latter part of May, according to situation; and the sowing of wheat, which is the chief of the "rabi," or autumn and winter sown crops, takes place between September and October.

In Rajputana, Hyderabad and Mysore the harvest is between the end of February and April, and seed time from September to December, according to the variations in soil and climate.

The Central provinces show an increase in the acreage of wheat land of 258,400 acres above that of 1887. In 1886 the acreage was 3,858,809 acres, 4,000,000 being the normal area. Advantage was taken of a very favorable fall of rain in October to put as much wheat in as possible. The rain ruined a part of the linseed crop, so that a good deal of the land was resown with wheat.

It is estimated that this year's wheat yield will be about 10½ bushels per acre, a return which, it will be noted, compares unfavorably with that of the North-western Provinces and Oudh, as given above. This difference is said to be due to the paucity of the population in the Central Provinces and the large size of the farms, whose cultivators have not the ambition, and probably not the capital, to farm high. On the other hand, the North-western Provinces are thickly inhabited, and the land is subdivided and carefully cultivated by small holders.

In this report from Simla it is remarked that it is difficult to trace a connection between prices and the export trade in wheat. This has puzzled a good many others. For instance, the average price per quarter for the pure wheat, which is the kind usually exported, was only about 18s. 6d. per quarter in 1885-86, and only 1,178,750 quarters were exported from these provinces. But in 1887-88, 1,311,110 quarters were exported, though the price had risen to £1 1s. per quarter. This is, of course, exclusive of carriage to the ports, which costs over 5s. per quarter, and sea carriage to Great Britain, put at about 5s. per quarter. "It is difficult to refrain from the conclusion," the writer of this report adds, "that the rise in prices has resulted rather from a fall in the exchange value of silver than from an appreciation in the value of grains."

With an average crop of 10½ bushels per acre and an average price of something like 19s per quarter at the place, taking the average of the last four years, there can be very little profit left for the producers in the Central Provinces; but they continue to grow wheat, being evidently satisfied with next to nothing.

No estimates whatever are given of the cost of cultivating an acre of wheat in these provinces, but it seems that in other parts of India this ranges from 13s. to over £1 per acre, taking wide areas of land.

Lakefield.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A WARNING.

Great complaints are made by the lumberman and many of the campers of the reckless use of firearms by boys and young men camped on the islands in Stony Lake. Several parties have had narrow escapes from being struck by bullets. There is no game in season at present, therefore no necessity to take any firearms up the lake to endanger the lives of others, and the sooner the practice is stopped the better.

ST. PAUL'S PICNIC.

Some four or five car loads of children and young people came up on Tuesday morning train and at once took passage on the "Crusier" and "Mary Ellen" for "Gin Island," where a pleasant day was spent by all, it being bright and cool. The little ones seemed delighted with the day's outing.

WATER WORKS BY-LAW.

I would call the attention of your Lakefield readers to the vote on the water works by-law, which will be taken in the council chamber next Tuesday, the 31st inst. Every freeholder should make it a point to attend and poll his vote one way or other and show that he is taking an interest in what concerns the welfare of the village. The voters' list of 1887 will be used.

A GOOD THING.

The daily EXAMINER is in great demand in camp up the lakes, where the list of departures from town or village are eagerly scanned for the names of friends and acquaintances, as visits can then be made and returned, and the ladies can learn all the little news so dear to the feminine heart from the new arrivals.

BEAR STORY.

Last Sunday evening the occupants of a large camp on "Gin" Island were startled by the appearance of a well known Peterborough legal gentleman in a great state of excitement, and a stone(y) look, who explained that there was a large bear in the lake swimming from Otter to "Gin" Island. Rifles were at once secured and a hurried start made to intercept Bruin, our legal friend and his companion arming themselves with axes in case the rifles of the others failed. Half an hour later, five or six crestfallen campers, drenched to the skin by the heavy rain, were received by their companions with cheers and shouts of laughter as the truth was told that the bear had proved to be a block of wood drifting between the islands.

THE HEROES OF LUNDY'S LANE.

Drummondville's Gala Day—74th Anniversary of the Battle.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 25.—The seventy-fourth anniversary of the battle of Lundy's Lane was right loyally celebrated to-day at the historical little village of Drummondville on the ground where the battle was fought. The graves of those who fell and were buried in trenches in the old village graveyard were profusely decorated with flowers and Union Jacks. The trenches were staked out and large Union Jacks were floating above them. A wire was stretched across the street and hanging from it side by side were the Stars and Stripes and Union Jack.

The grave of Laura Secord, who walked to Beaver Dam and gave the information of the approach of the American army to the British troops, with her husband's, has been restored and enclosed with a picket fence by the Lundy's Lane Historical Society and was also decorated with flowers and Union Jacks.

Dr. Ferguson, M. P. for Welland, was made chairman and delivered an interesting address, which was followed by speeches by Mr. Kerler of Niagara, Rev. Mr. Hobbs, Rev. Mr. Young and Warden Burgar.

BERLIN'S TOURNAMENT.

A Big Crowd Present—Bowmanville Wins in the Band Competition.

BERLIN, Ont., July 25.—The first day of the Berlin band and firemen's tournament was a great success. Crowds of people came in from the country and the forenoon trains brought over 2000 more from a distance.

The mayors and councillors of Guelph, Galt and Waterloo, as well as visitors from Bowmanville, Preston and other places were entertained to lunch in the Saenger Hall.

Six thousand people gathered to see the evolutions of Capt. Clarke's cadets in the town park and to hear the band competition. The three bands which competed were the Bowmanville, the Massey of Toronto and the Barrie band. The prizes were awarded as follows: Bowmanville, 1st, $250; Massey's band, 2nd, $150; Barrie, 3rd, $75.

At night there was a concert in the Skating Rink.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate winds, mostly south-east and south, fair weather, not much change in temperature; local showers to-night mostly in Western Ontario.

Something New Under the Sun.

The Farmers' Advocate says potatoes should not be hilled. That repeated experiments have shown that potatoes not hilled yield from 10 to 50 per cent. in advance and in some cases even 100 per cent. in advance of those hilled. Farmers and gardeners should make a note of this, and every lady should make a note of the fact that a large stock of cream lace, parasols worth $2.50 or $2.00 are being cleared at the golden lion at $1. All new goods imported direct, but if kept on hand they will be old next season, therefore the price has been reduced 100 per cent. to dispose of them.

Lindsay's Political Quid Pro Quo.

Mr. Navin, contractor, Ottawa, who has been awarded the contract by the Dominion Government for the erection of the public buildings in Lindsay, is in that town making preparations for the work to begin at once. Mr. H. Walters has been appointed Clerk of Public Works by the Dominion Government. It is to be hoped that the Lindsay post office clock face will not be hid behind a gable, as is one of the dials in the Peterborough post office tower.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

County Cases.

Yesterday County Police Magistrate Edmison heard two Scott Act cases at the court house. The offenders were Hugh Becket and O. A. Brennan. The magistrate imposed a fine of $50 and costs each.

This morning an assault case came before the magistrate. The defendant was James Thompson and the plaintiff was Wm. Douglas. The defendant was found guilty of the charge and a fine of $2 and costs was imposed.

Fine Fishing.

Mr. T. Fitzgerald has returned home from another fishing expedition, doing it himself and showing others how to do it. He reports fishing at Burleigh as something unusually good. He reports the capture of a ten-pound maskinonge by still-fishing with a bass tackle, and also catches like twenty four pounds of bass, while dinner was cooking. There are a large number of visitors, especially Americans, at Burleigh, and our local Isak Walton had the pleasure of chaperoning over chosen grounds a party of Americans, having amongst it residents from Washington to San Francisco, and under his instructions ladies who had never caught a fish in their lives were hauling in the finny spoil hand over hand, like a gymnast ascending a ladder. When "Fitz" can't find fish, fish can't find themselves.

Willow and Wicket.

There will be a general practice game of cricket to-night at 6.30. Every member of the cricket club is expected to be present. The teams to play the Seabrights, the Hamiltons and the Torontos will be selected from those most proficient in fielding and these practice games, will be held every Wednesday and Friday nights. Every cricketer anxious for a place on any of these teams must therefore be on hand and show cause or forever after hold his peace.

There will probably be a match between the county and town on Tuesday next.

A meeting of the members of the cricket club is called for this evening, after the practice. All the members are requested to be present, as matters of special interest to the club will be discussed.

It appears that small scores are sometimes made at other places than Whitby. On Tuesday, Toronto and Guelph had a set-to. In two innings Guelph only put up 25 and 47. In the Torontos' first innings only 68 were put up, of which "the Duke" made 44, and the remaining 24 (counting out five extras) were contributed by three other men, a painful procession of seven cyphers following the Duke's tally on the score sheet.

The Log Blockade.

This morning the Golden Eye started down the river on her usual trip, but could get no farther than Robinson's Island on account of the obstruction presented by the logs in the river.

Campbellford Cheese Market.

There were twelve factories represented at the Campbellford Cheese Market, held there recently. There were 1,350 boxes boarded but no bids were made, and no transactions took place. There were two buyers from abroad and one resident buyer present.

A Good Growth.

Mr. Geo. Willman left at the Campbellford Herald office on Monday last, a stalk of spring wheat which was grown on his farm in Seymour west, measuring four feet ten inches in height. We might pronounce this a good growth for such a dry season.

Fly Time.

Flies have got to take an outside roost when the people protect themselves with those wire window screens and doors which are nicely framed and stained, and made to fit all sizes. Full stock at Kingan & Co's. eod.

BUYERS are bewildered by our bewitching bargains in biscuits, baking powders, etc., at The Pantry.

En Route.

Fifteen carloads of square timber passed over the Grand Junction road the other day on its way to Belleville. Another trainload of as much more went over the same road a day or two after. Some of the sticks are as fine as anything brought out of the northern woods.

Wisely Reconsidered.

The Barrie Oddfellows have taken the advice of the EXAMINER, tendered a few days ago, and reconsidered their decision not to engage the Fire Brigade Band for their Oddfellow Demonstration Day. The band will be there and will wake the echoes of the forest primeval by some of the best music ever heard in Barrie.

Neighbors Won't Hear Them Quarrel.

An interesting ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. J. W. Cronkwright, Front-street, Belleville, the marriage of his daughter to Mr. Henry Moore, of Toronto. All the more interest was taken in the affair as the contracting parties were deaf mutes. The Church of England form of service was used, Rev. D. F. Bogart officiating, Prof. Coleman, of the D. and D. Institute, interpreting. The responses and plighting of troth was done in the sign language. The invited guests were much impressed with the ceremony, as the silence added to the solemnity. The presents were numerous and useful. With what speechless admiration and unspeakable happiness would the newly wedded pair gaze upon the magnificent stock of ready-made clothing at gough bros', the wonderful cheap men. Their seasonable clothing will be found next down in cheapness to the first ready-made suit—Adam's fig-leaf toggery. A magnificent stock at deep sea prices. Clothing for men, clothing for youths, clothing for boys. All made and sold to match the hard times and short money crop. Go to gough's for cheap clothing.

Cathedral Choir Excursion.

On Wednesday, in recognition of the faithful services of the choir and altar boys of St. Peter's Cathedral, Rev. Father McEvay, parish priest, entertained them to an excursion down the river. The Golden Eye left the wharf at about eight o'clock with a merry party of about fifty on board. After a delightful steam down the winding Otonabee, Jubilee Point was reached in good time. Arrived at the Point refreshments were partaken of, and there were exciting games and races for the boys, while the others sought with happy success the varied enjoyments the Point affords, swinging, boating, fishing, dancing, etc. A delightful few hours was spent at the Point, the return trip was begun in good time and was pleasant and smooth. In fact, both trips up and down were made without mishap or detention, and both were greatly enlivened by the excellent singing contributed by the members of the choir. The steamer reached home at 10 o'clock. Rev. Father McEvay and Rev. Father Dubie accompanied the excursion, and the former was especially active and solicitous for the enjoyment of all the guests whom his liberality and paternal forethought had provided with such a delightful day's outing. He richly merits the grateful sentiments the choir and altar boys entertain for him.

Obituary.

The EXAMINER chronicles with regret the death of an esteemed and venerable citizen, Mr. John Sargent, who died at his residence, Robinson street, Ashburnham, at 10 o'clock on Wednesday night. The deceased was a native of Limerick Ireland, where he was born in 1815 (the year of Waterloo) and whence he came to Canada with his father's family, in 1825. His father settled on the farm, lot 20, 10th concession, of Otonabee, and in due course Mr. John Sargent struck out for himself, settling on the east half of the adjoining lot—27. Here he lived and wrought and throve till 1877 when he removed to Ashburnham. He was twice married—the first time to Miss Mary Girvin, who died in March 1881. The following November he was married to Miss Eliza Johnston, who yet survives. He has no living issue, the only child born to him was of his first marriage, and she died at the age of nine years. In religion Mr. Sargent was a consistent member of the Methodist persuasion, and in politics he was a staunch Liberal. In all the relations of life he enjoyed the high esteem and respect of the community, always filling, in every department, the place of an upright citizen of worthy example and practice. The funeral takes place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence to the Little Lake cemetery.

Lacrosse Match.

Riversides of Peterborough vs. Orillia.

Yesterday afternoon an interesting lacrosse match took place on the Riverside park between the Riversides and the Orillia teams. The Riversides took three games out of five in less than two hours, Isbister making the three goals for the home team. Joe Phelan played goal well and made several long throws. The teams were as follows:

Riversides.		Orillias.
Joe Phelan	goal	W Peard
Joe Joyl	point	J Henderson
A Ross	cover point	E Rhens
A Butler	1st defence	J Quin
T Meagher	2nd defence	F Maudie
M Halpin	3rd defence	M Peard
F Larose	centre	D Tedhope
Jos Begley	3rd home	D McGinnis
F Pakenham	2nd home	P McMillan
T Duncan	1st home	D Henderson
T Isbister	outside	D McMillan
F Barnes	inside	R Frost
T Rodkins	Field Captain	G Thompson
J Gerrie	Umpire	T Fetye
G W Stewart	Referee	Toronto

FIRST GAME.—The ball was faced for the first time at a quarter to three o'clock. The playing was good from the first and continued so during the entire match. At first the opinion seemed to be that the visitors would get the first game, but after playing half an hour Isbister (Peterborough) scored a goal for the home team. Larone made a long throw and Isbister put the ball through between the poles.

THE SECOND GAME.—This game started at about half-past three, but it only continued for a minute or two before Phelan (Peterborough goal-keeper) was struck on the head and had to stop playing. Immediately the players around called time, but the captains did not seem to comprehend what was the matter and they did not call time. All the players, with the exception of a few, stopped playing, but the few visitors who did play made a goal with scarcely, if any, opposition from the home team, and as the captains had not called time, the referee decided that it was a goal for Orillia.

THE THIRD GAME.—This game was also a short one there being only three minutes playing in it. Butler "ran on his stick" and was laid out for a few minutes, but vigorous rubbing soon brought him around and the game was resumed. Frost (Orillia) scored this game for the visitors.

THE FOURTH GAME.—After a few minutes intermission the fourth game was started and was not so easily won as the two previous ones. All the boys seemed to "dig in" harder than ever, and after playing for fifteen minutes Isbister scored the second goal for Peterborough. This was a fine game, both teams played well and the struggle was a close one but ended favorably for the home team.

THE FIFTH GAME.—This was the last and the shortest game played in the match. It lasted just two minutes. At first the rubber was kept near the Peterborough goal, and several seemed to think Orillia would win but such was not the case. When the ball came near the Peterborough goal for the last time Phelan got hold of it and made one of his long shots, Begley then got it and passed it to Isbister who put it between the Orillia poles.

There was less than an hour's playing although the match lasted an hour and three-quarters. It was a close game all the way through, and there was some excellent playing by both teams, although Peterborough had the advantage. Isbister played well and so did Begley and Joyal.

The visitors returned home on the 5.10 train yesterday afternoon.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, July 26.

A police court was held yesterday afternoon at which John Sullivan, charged with indecent exposure, pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to two weeks imprisonment in jail.

At a late hour last evening Officer Stewart managed to secure two men who were driving furiously round town in a buggy, and were otherwise acting in a disorderly manner. This morning they pleaded guilty to the charge and the magistrate imposed a fine on each of $2 or ten days in jail. The fine was not paid, so they will spend a few days on the hill.

Wm Fitzgerald was also picked up last night for being disorderly. He made some resistance, saying that he had done nothing. However, he was looked up and this morning he had to pay a fine of $2 before he was allowed to go.

Personal.

Mayor Stevenson is in Toronto to-day on a business trip.

Mrs. R. Robins, of Port Hope, is visiting friends in Peterborough.

Mr. A. L. Colville, barrister of Campbellford, a former resident of Peterborough, is in town.

Mr. T. Ambrose and son, of Port Hope, are in town on a visit, the guests of Mr. Cluxton.

His Honor Judge Benson and Mr. D. Chisholm came to town Tuesday evening and took the C.P.R. from Peterborough for the sea breezes of Old Orchard Beach.

Mr. Wm. Kennedy, C.E., Owen Sound, paid a flying visit to Peterborough. From here went to Welland on business connected with the new system of water works being put in at that place.

Mr. D. A. Flemming, the popular travelling representative of Messrs. Gault Bros., Montreal, is in town. Mr. Flemming makes a long stay in Peterborough, the best town in the country for business.

Hon. C. A. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, who will open the Central Exhibition here next September, was, on Wednesday, entertained as guest of the annual picnic of the East Simcoe Agricultural Association at Strawberry Island Lake Simcoe.

We find the following paragraph under the above heading in this week's issue of the Irish Canadian:

Councillor Thomas Cahill, of Peterborough, paid his respects, this week, to the Irish Canadian by a personal visit to its sanctum. The worthy Councillor was on his return from an eight-week trip across the continent, during which he visited every place worthy of note between this and the Pacific Slope. Amongst other places, he called at Lincoln, Nebraska, the headquarters of the American branch of the Irish National League, where he had the pleasure of meeting Secretary Sutton and Mr. Patrick Egan. The President, Mr. John Fitzgerald, was from home, which deprived the visitor of the pleasure of meeting him. Councillor Cahill is highly pleased at the manner of his reception by Messrs. Sutton and Egan, and conveyed to us the kind regards of the former, who will be happy to meet friends journeying his way, and afford such information as he can to those intending to travel to Nebraska.

Leveling Streets.

Several loads of gravel have been distributed on George, Hunter and Charlotte streets to fill up some of the hollows in the road, especially at crossings, where they were the largest.

Baseball Match.

The Lock Works baseball club played a match with the Ashburnham Astonishers last evening on Riverside park. The match resulted in a score of 13 to 7, in favor of the Lock Works.

An Excursion on Wheels.

This afternoon a jolly party drove to Bridgenorth to spend the afternoon and evening. It consisted of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walker, Mrs. Kirby, Miss Tierney, Miss White, Mr. M. Tierney, Dr. Brennan and Mr. P. D. Doran. Bridgenorth is a delightful spot to spend a pleasant afternoon.

Lake Couchiching Camp.

The second annual meet of the Northern Division, A.C.A., began Monday on Horseshoe Island, in Lake Couchiching. The island contains about 30 acres, and is beautifully situated about four miles north from Orillia. There are not a great number of ad canonists present yet, though a number of clubs are represented. Commodore Magachan and Purser Britton, of Lindsay, arrived on Friday, accompanied by several other members of the Lindsay Canoe Club. Other members of the same club followed on Saturday and yesterday. Five members of the Whigin C. C. and one from Toronto C. C. arrived on Saturday. Peterborough, Orillia, and other clubs are also represented. A large addition to their number was expected Tuesday afternoon. So far most of those here have spent their time in getting settled, making preparations for friends to follow, rigging sails, etc., or in viewing the beauties of the situation. The first event of the meet was a camp-fire Tuesday at headquarters. This will be followed by a cruise to the Severn to-morrow, and an illuminated parade on Thursday night. The races begin on Saturday and will be continued next week, as weather will permit. After the races will be the annual meeting and election of officers, bringing the meet to a close about the end of next week.

LAKE COUCHICHING, July 25th.—The camp fire last night was well attended, and showed that there were an unusually large number in camp for the second day of the meet. A rousing time was spent, the best of good sprits prevailed, and the minutes passed all too quickly with song and story. The presence of a much larger proportion of ladies than usual was a very noticeable feature. Indeed it is a pleasing feature of the present meet so far that the number of ladies present is much greater than in former years. The ladies' camp at "Squaw Point" is the largest encampment on the island, and bids fair to maintain its lead. The ladies aided much to the enjoyment of the gathering last night, not by their presence alone, but by the assistance they gave in furnishing a programme.

The latest arrivals are a number from Peterborough who came yesterday. Several members of the Orillia C.C. have also joined and pitched their tents near the headquarters. Lakefield has also some representatives present, and ten or a dozen men with some eight canoes are expected from Bobcaygeon to-day.

The August Scribner.

This August (it should be pronounced with the accent on the last syllable) number of Scribner's Magazine is the peer and more of all its predecessors. It is, as is suitable for the outing season, largely a fiction number, containing contributions from Robert Louis Stevenson, Henry James, Sarah Orne Jewett, Octave Thanet, F. J. Stimson and Maria Blunt—a very notable array of story writers. There are, in addition, two richly illustrated articles of unusual importance. The railway series,—which has been received with the warmest approval of the general public as well as of railroad men of all grades—is continued in this issue with an acute and luminous account of the evolution and present wonderful perfection of "American Locomotives and Cars." The following table of contents gives some slight idea only of the richness of the intellectual pabulum of the August Scribner:—

Lower Falls and Canon of the Yellowstone, frontispiece; engraved by Andrew. Rivers and Valleys, by N. S. Shaler; with illustrations from photographs, drawings and diagrams; engraved by Hoskin, Thomson, Wardell, Watt, Whaley and others. Otto the Knight, by Octave Thanet. Midsummer Night, by A. Lampman. American Locomotives and Cars, by M. N. Forney; illustrated from drawings made by J. D. Woodward, Robert Blum, M. J. Burns, D. C. Beard and others, and from old prints drawings and photographs furnished by the author; engravings by Delorme, Peckwell, Van Ness, Andrew and others. Fair Day, by Sarah Orne Jewett. The Immortal Word, by Helen Gray Cone. First Harvests—Chapters XXIV-XXVI; by F. J. Stimson; to be continued. Seaward, by Thomas P. Conant. The Fate of the Georgiana, by Maria Blunt, with illustrations from drawings by W. L. Taylor and C. H. Woodbury; engraved by Latham, Heinemann, J. Clement, Hoskin, Peckwell and Acester. A London Life—in four parts, Part III—by Henry James. Epilogue to "An Inland Voyage," by Robert Louis Stevenson.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

THE ARREST OF O'KELLY.

A SOURCE OF GENERAL SURPRISE IN LONDON.

Coercion to be Pushed to the Bitter End—Literary Celebrities at the Authors' Dinner—The Real Fight on the Commission Bill Yet to Come.

LONDON, July 26.—The Incorporated Society of Authors for the first time in their history gave a public dinner to distinguished American men and women of letters last night. The ostensible purpose of the banquet was to celebrate the progress of the International Copyright Bill in America, but a scarcely secondary purpose was to welcome James Russell Lowell on his first public appearance in London since his recent illness. It was a gathering of distinguished literary celebrities of the old and new worlds. British Literature was represented by Wilkie Collins, Wm. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gosse, Lord Bradbourne, Walter Besant, Austin Dobson, Edmund Yates, George Meredith, George A. Simms, Oscar Wilde, Lady Colin Campbell, John Strange Winter, Professor Pollock, Campbell Praed and wife, Professor George Darwin, the Earl of Pembroke, J. Stanley Little and Professor James Bryce. Lord Tennyson, the president of he society, never goes to public dinners, but he sent a telegram conveying "the warmest feelings to our American guests." Mr. Lowell in his speech referred to the good feeling between England and America which every good man in both countries is anxious to increase, and added that there were no differences between them which good sense and good feeling could not settle. The reception to Mr. Lowell almost took the form of an ovation.

The arrest of O'Kelly has caused general surprise. He is so quiet a member in the House and so universally popular that the news that he had offended Balfour's delicate feelings was quite unexpected. Nobody knew that there was a warrant out for him, and his offence is quite an old one, the charge being that in a street meeting at Boyle, County Roscommon, he besought his audience to refuse to give evidence under the Crimes Act. O'Kelly's arrest means that Balfour, instead of wavering in consequence of the late Cabinet Councils, means to push coercion to the bitter end. To-day O'Kelly was remanded for a week.

The real fight on the Parnell Commission Bill will take place on the third reading, the date of which is not yet fixed. The Parnellites will make a resolute stand in favor of special charges. Mr. Chamberlain's speech causes much comment, and it is now believed that the member for Birmingham has had a great deal to do with the drawing of the bill, a fact which makes the Irish members more than ever cautious in the strategetical contest over the preliminaries.

In the House of Commons it was agreed to hold an autumn session. Replying to a question by Mr. Sexton Mr. Balfour said he accepted the whole responsibility for the action taken toward Mr. O'Kelly and other Parnellites who have been arrested.

The United States Postoffice Department has instructed frontier postmasters to treat as unmailable Canadian reprints of sheet music copyrighted in the United States.

MONTREAL MALEFACTORS.

HOW ALFRED FORTUNAT ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS.

Aberonder Pitcher Recommitted—A Bell-Boy's Diamonds—Drowned in the St. Lawrence—The Heathen Chinee—A Suspicious Transaction.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The modus operandi of Alfred Fortunat, who was arrested last night on the charge of appropriating $1,000 from his employers, Thos. May & Co., was as follows: When the customs clerks go down to take out packages they are given so much money to pay the duty. Supposing he had to take out packages on which the charges were $500 he would only take out packages on which the charges were $300 and pocket the other $200. As the customs do not give receipts for money and the large firms nearly always have goods there, it is a very difficult matter to discover these defalcations until some considerable time has elapsed. Fortunat was sentenced to three months' imprisonment today.

Judge Church this morning recommitted Pitcher, the absconding bank teller, on the charge of having brought stolen money into Canada, knowing the same to have been stolen. Guerin, Pitcher's counsel, moved to have the matter brought before a full term court of the Queen's bench, but Judge Church rejected the motion, allowing it, however, to be placed on file as part of the record. He said the only thing Guerin could do, in his opinion, was to issue a new habeas corpus when the court sits in September.

DROWNED IN THE ST. LAWRENCE.

Mysterious Fate of a Woman—The Body Identified.

MONTREAL, July 26.—When the Terrebonne boat was nearing Varennes yesterday morning, the captain observed the body of a woman floating down the river. It was recovered by the aid of a boat hook and conveyed to the wharf, to which it was lashed, and the boat proceeded on her way to this city. The body is that of a tall, good-looking woman, of about 45 years of age, of dark complexion and short, curly hair, she was dressed in a calico dress and apron, with small shawl over her back, and wore rosary beads around her neck. Her hand was in the dress pocket and was clasping a handkerchief and purse. The appearance of the body led to the supposition that it had only recently got into the water. As far as could be seen there were no marks of violence on the person.

The body has since been identified as that of Julienne Prevost, aged 40 years, spinster, who lived with the Grey Nuns at Varennes and was considered slightly affected in mind. She is supposed to have taken a fit and fallen into the water.

He Owned Diamonds.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Detective Robertson found, yesterday, in a second-hand shop on Craig-street a handsome and costly diamond ring, which the proprietor said had come into his possession under suspicious circumstances. On information received from him the detective proceeded to St. Lawrence Hall, where he questioned a bell boy, who admitted that he was the party who had sold the ring. His story was that he had found the ring in room 142 of the hotel lying under the bed. Further examination by the detective elicited the fact that the boy had also in his possession a second diamond ring, which, he stated, he had found in the same room. The officer thought there was something fishy in the case, and arrested the boy on suspicion. When before the magistrate, his father appeared, and the boy was allowed his liberty on the parent promising that he would be forthcoming when required. The young fellow has only been employed eight days at the Hall, and his parents are very respectable.

A Suspicious Transaction.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Yesterday morning a young fellow went into Moss's pawnbroking establishment on Notre Dame-street and odered for sale a pair of costly gold spectacles. When questioned by Mr. Moss as to where he had come by them, he said that his father had given them to him to sell. He left the shop and returned a few minutes later with a youth a little older than himself, whom he represented as his father. The pawnbroker became suspicious and while he kept the boys in conversation told one of his employes to call the police. Before the officers arrived, however, the boys took up the spectacles and decamped. The lad who had first offered the spectacles was subsequently arrested. Before the police magistrate he pleaded not guilty, and was remanded for inquiry.

A Secret Marriage.

MONTREAL, July 26.—A Belgian named Von Dosch came to board with a family in Chaboillez-square some months ago and becoming enamored of the 15-year-old daughter of the family they were secretly married in St. George's Church. The girl was not in good health and proceeded home immediately after leaving church. She never mentioned the subject to one of her family but her mother began to suspect that there was too much familiarity between the two. The day before yesterday Von Dosch was given notice to leave the house and very much astonished his landlady by pulling out the certificate of marriage and saying he would not go unless his wife was allowed to go with him.

The parents were informed that as the man was a Protestant and the girl a Catholic and the ceremony had been performed in a Protestant Church the marriage could be declared null and void.

To-day a warrant was taken out for Von Dosch's arrest, as he declared at the church that the girl was 21 years of age.

The Celestials Paid the Duty.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Two of the three Chinamen over whom there has been such trouble in Plattsburg, N.Y., came back to Montreal to-day in charge of United States Marshal Dowell. The Marshal handed over the two Chinamen to Landing Waiter Crowhurst at Bonaventure Station. Having entered Canada in bond they were liable to a duty of $50 a head if they wished to remain within the Dominion. After a brief delay the money was paid, the documents signed and the two Celestials were at liberty once more.

Montreal's Nightly Fire.

MONTREAL, July 26.—A fire took place, to-night, in the shop and stables of Mr. D. Ouimet, tinsmith and plumber, St. Lawrence-street. The place was gutted and two valuable horses burnt. The loss is $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

The Type-Setting Contest at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 26.—These printers have entered their names for the type-setting contest at the French printers' picnic on the Exhibition Grounds on Saturday next: English—W. A. Bell, Isaac Glennon, Witness; M. O'Connor, F. Larose, Gazette, E. A. W. Simmers, Herald. French—E. Dupont, La Minerve; P. Robineau, L. Marchand, Le Monde; L. Dube, L. O. Brazeau, L'Etendard; Jos. Belair, Jos. Lariviere, Gebhardt-Berthiaume; H. Dalaire, Imprimerie General.

Arrest of a Horse Thief.

GUELPH, July 26.—A horse thief, who refused to give his name or any information about himself, was lodged in jail here to-day. He stole a horse and buggy from a son of Sheriff McKim at a barn-raising a week ago and was traced through several places and finally run down and arrested at Campbellville. His name is supposed to be Heffernan.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A WRECK ON THE GRAND TRUNK.

Two Freight Trains Meet in Collision on the Eastern Section.

QUEBEC, July 27.—Early this morning two freight trains on the eastern section of the Grand Trunk Railway were sweeping along in opposite directions when they met in collision near Warwick Station. The drivers and firemen just had time to jump off in safety when the collision took place. The cars piled on each other and in a short time a large amount of property was destroyed but fortunately no lives were lost, all hands coming out uninjured from the wreck. It took several hours to remove the debris and the express train was delayed.

The Grand Trunk authorities have had several employes connected with the night service suspended and a searching enquiry will be made. The night was clear and this enabled both drivers to see ahead and jump in time to save their lives. The general opinion is that the telegraph clerk is at fault.

STABBED BY A TOUGH.

Singular Assault on a Hamiltonian—Youthful Thieves—Suspected of Larceny.

HAMILTON, July 26.—A young man named Carrom, is suffering from a severe knife wound in the hand. The wound was inflicted on Saturday evening last, but the injured man neglected to report the occurrence to the police, and has not done so yet. It happened in this way: Carrom and a fellow-boarder named Campbell walked down to the bay at the foot of John-street about 10 o'clock. They were walking along quietly when suddenly about half a dozen roughs sprang out of a dark corner and jumped on them. Carrom saw a knife flash in the air and threw up his hand to protect himself when the weapon came down and went clean through the palm of his hand. He struggled a few minutes until he got free and then ran for all he was worth.

Three boys named Alexander McLellan, William Cusick and John Mulroy, are held by the police for several cases of larceny. They were brought up before the police magistrate this morning and pleaded guilty to two offences. There are other charges against the prisoners, and the boys were remanded until Friday morning.

William Steves, a young man who lives in Ancaster, was a prisoner at the police court this morning because it is suspected that it was he who broke into C. H. Forsyth's boathouse on March 27 and stole a pair of rubber boots, two spoonhooks and a pair of oarlocks. The stolen articles were found in Steves' possession. His explanation was that he purchased the boots from his brother, who bought them from a man in Dundas. The case will be further investigated to-morrow.

Last night Thomas Johnston had a watch stolen out of his pocket.

A ROW OVER A CHURCH SOCIAL.

A Flamboro Man Fined for Using Too Vigorous English to a Neighbor.

HAMILTON, July 26.—At the Police Court this morning Mr. John Ward, of Flamboro, charged Mr. M. J. Morden with making use of indecent, profane and threatening language. Mr. Ward swore that some time ago Mr. Morden went to him and asked him to tend the gate at a social that was to be given at his place in aid of Christ Church of that village. He reluctantly consented. After the social he went into Mr. Morden's house to get his supper and Mr. Morden asked him to count the money with him. Then Mr. Morden got very angry, he said, and accused him of stealing and being a robber. Mr. Ward swore that Mr. Morden said he (Ward) had pocketed $3 for every $1 he accounted for; also that he called him a damned Methodist. A man who was employed by Mr. Morden to watch the place also swore that he heard Mr. Morden calling Mr. Ward a thief. He did not hear any profane language because a woman shut up the door as soon as the row commenced. Counsel for the parties agreed that a nominal fine should be imposed upon Mr. Morden, and that the defendant should apologize to Mr. Ward for calling him a thief. The Magistrate consented to the proposition and imposed a fine of 25 cents and costs—$3.69 in all.

THE BERLIN TOURNAMENT.

Winners in the Contests Yesterday—A Complete Success.

BERLIN, July 26.—At the band and fireman's tournament to-day the hose and reel race was won by Seaforth, Caledonia second. In the hook and ladder race Grimsby won, Smithville second.

There were seven entries in the second class band competition. Walkerton won, Dunnville second and Streetsville third.

An error appeared in yesterday's despatch with reference to the first class band contest. The first prize of $250 was won by the Dominion Organ and Piano Company Band, not by the "Bowmanville Band" as stated.

Fully 12,000 visitors were in town during the two days and the tournament has been a complete success.

Enterprising Burglars at St. Kitts.

ST. CATHARINES, July 26.—Benjamin Pender's machine and gunshop was burglarized some time during last night, and a number of guns, revolvers, hunting knives, etc., stolen, valued in all at about $200. The burglars forced the lock of the back door.

Assignment of a Montreal Merchant.

MONTREAL, July 26.—At the instance of Reed, Rye & Co., of London, Eng., and representing Graham & Co. of Oporto, a demand of assignment was made to-day upon James Guest, wholesale wine merchant, which was acceded to. The liabilities are said to exceed $200,000, of which the Oporto firm represent $35,000.

The Deadly Buttermilk.

WICHITA, Kan, July 26.—The family of Daniel McCarthy, consisting of his wife, four daughters and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henshaw, were poisoned yesterday by drinking buttermilk. The doctors have succeeded in saving the lives of Mrs. McCarthy and three daughters. Mrs. Henshaw and one daughter, it is believed, will die. It is thought that the milk had been allowed to stand in a copper vessel and became poisoned.

THE DOMINION'S EXPORTS.

A TOTAL OF $77,612,552 FOR THE 12 MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30.

Comparison With Last Year's Figures—Twenty-First Annual Statement of Post Office Savings Banks—The Most Satisfactory Report Ever Issued.

OTTAWA, July 26.—The value of exports from Canada for the month of June was $9,924,536, of which $9,175,874 was the produce of Canada and $748,662 the produce of other countries. Compared with the same month last year this shows a decrease of $307,434 in the produce of Canada and $365,410 in the produce of other countries. In produce of the forest there is an increase of about $300,000 and a similar decrease in animals and their products. Agricultural products also show a decrease of nearly $500,000 and manufactures and fisheries an increase of about $200,000.

The publication of these figures enables a comparison of the exports for the twelve months ending June 30 with the corresponding period last year. The total exports amount to $86,454,989 of which $77,612,552 was the produce of Canada and $8,842,437 the produce of other countries. The total exports for the twelve months only fall $52,800 below last year, which is very gratifying in view of the short grain crop in Ontario. The following statement shows the details of the produce of Canada exported:

Produce of the mine	$ 4,080,063
" " fisheries	7,723,483
" " forest	20,979,405
Animals and their products	24,642,215
Agricultural products	15,360,954
Manufactures	4,023,423
Miscellaneous	703,019
Total	$77,612,552

Compared with last year the following increases are shown:

Mine	$288,436
Fisheries	870,605
Forest	475,113
Animals and their products	329,389
Manufactures	947,619
Miscellaneous	151,878

Agricultural produce shows a decrease of $3,402,682. This shows a net decrease in goods the produce of Canada of $339,632; but goods not the produce of Canada show an increase of $296,832.

The following is the statement of goods entered for consumption during the month of June:—

Dutiable	$ 6,084,527
Free	4,018,242
Total	$ 10,102,769
Duty collected	$ 1,942,439

The twenty-first annual statement of Post-Office Savings Banks to June 30 will be published to-morrow and is the most satisfactory one ever issued. Although there were over 100,000 accounts remaining open at the end of the year they were all balanced, the interest calculated and the statement prepared in little more than three weeks from the close of the fiscal year, a feat of which the postal authorities may be proud.

During the year the number of depositors increased 1100, the largest increase in any one year since the system was established.

The number of accounts remaining open at the end of the year was 101,963 against 90,159 last year. The balance at the credit of depositors increased $1,250,000 and at the end of the fiscal year reached $20,686,032. The expenses of management are the same as last year or within a few dollars. The increase in small deposits is a healthy sign.

Under the policy adopted last year of not allowing savings banks to be used as a place of deposits for large amounts a salutary situation was given to the purely savings character of the bank.

A new column has been added to the statement showing that the process of absorption of Dominion Government Savings Bank accounts has begun. The amount transferred from the Government Savings Bank to the Postoffice Savings Bank was $217,385.

The Governor-General has consented to become patron of the Dominion Artillery Association.

The Department of Justice has received a request from the Quebec Government to take steps for the extradition of Wm. Coleman and John O'Halligan, arrested in St. Albans, Vt., about a month ago on a charge of highway robbery committed at Stanbridge. It is stated that Capt. Sears of C School of Infantry, Toronto, and Capt. Frese of St. John, who has been temporarily attached to London Infantry School, will shortly return to England, their term of service in Canada being completed.

The Fisheries Treaty Debate.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In open executive session to-day Mr. Wilson (Dem., Ma.) addressed the Senate in favor of ratification of the Fisheries Treaty. He said the question at issue was simply whether the British contention had not so much in it that was reasonable as to render the question at issue an honestly debatable one and such as honest and reasonable men, endeavoring to avoid a possible war, might hope by mutual concession to adjust. He justified the reasonableness of the British contention as to the construction of the treaty of 1818.

Mr. Salisbury (Dem., Ma.) took the floor and said he would address the Senate to-morrow and Mr. Vance, (Dem., N.C.) gave a like notice for Saturday.

Mr. Frye said he would ask the Senate to meet at 11 a. m. on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday and until the vote was reached.

The Penalty Waived.

WASHINGTON, July 26. The Secretary of State has received a despatch from Consul-General Phelan at Halifax, N. S., in relation to the case of the schooner Arthur D. Storey, seized early this season for entering and leaving the port of Halifax without clearance papers. He said he had received a note from the Canadian Minister of Customs saying that as the papers showed that her agent endeavored to have the captain comply with the law, he had decided to waive any penalty in the case notwithstanding that her captain had been guilty of deliberate violation of the law.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

THE ARREST OF O'KELLY.

A SOURCE OF GENERAL SURPRISE IN LONDON.

Coercion to be Pushed to the Bitter End—Literary Celebrities at the Authors' Dinner—The Real Fight on the Commission Bill Yet to Come.

LONDON, July 26.—The Incorporated Society of Authors for the first time in their history gave a public dinner to distinguished American men and women of letters last night. The ostensible purpose of the banquet was to celebrate the progress of the International Copyright Bill in America, but a scarcely secondary purpose was to welcome James Russell Lowell on his first public appearance in London since his recent illness. It was a gathering of distinguished literary celebrities of the old and new worlds. British Literature was represented by Wilkie Collins, Wm. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gosse, Lord Bradbourne, Walter Besant, Austin Dobson, Edmund Yates, George Meredith, George A. Simms, Oscar Wilde, Lady Colin Campbell, John Strange Winter, Professor Pollock, Campbell Praed and wife, Professor George Darwin, the Earl of Pembroke, J. Stanley Little and Professor James Bryce. Lord Tennyson, the president of he society, never goes to public dinners, but he sent a telegram conveying "the warmest feelings to our American guests." Mr. Lowell in his speech referred to the good feeling between England and America which every good man in both countries is anxious to increase, and added that there were no differences between them which good sense and good feeling could not settle. The reception to Mr. Lowell almost took the form of an ovation.

The arrest of O'Kelly has caused general surprise. He is so quiet a member in the House and so universally popular that the news that he had offended Balfour's delicate feelings was quite unexpected. Nobody knew that there was a warrant out for him, and his offence is quite an old one, the charge being that in a street meeting at Boyle, County Roscommon, he besought his audience to refuse to give evidence under the Crimes Act. O'Kelly's arrest means that Balfour, instead of wavering in consequence of the late Cabinet Councils, means to push coercion to the bitter end. To-day O'Kelly was remanded for a week.

The real fight on the Parnell Commission Bill will take place on the third reading, the date of which is not yet fixed. The Parnellites will make a resolute stand in favor of special charges. Mr. Chamberlain's speech causes much comment, and it is now believed that the member for Birmingham has had a great deal to do with the drawing of the bill, a fact which makes the Irish members more than ever cautious in the strategetical contest over the preliminaries.

In the House of Commons it was agreed to hold an autumn session. Replying to a question by Mr. Sexton Mr. Balfour said he accepted the whole responsibility for the action taken toward Mr. O'Kelly and other Parnellites who have been arrested.

The United States Postoffice Department has instructed frontier postmasters to treat as unmailable Canadian reprints of sheet music copyrighted in the United States.

MONTREAL MALEFACTORS.

HOW ALFRED FORTUNAT ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS.

Absconder Pitcher Recommitted—A Bell-Boy's Diamonds—Drowned in the St. Lawrence—The Heathen Chinee—A Suspicious Transaction.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The modus operandi of Alfred Fortunat, who was arrested last night on the charge of appropriating $1,000 from his employers, Thos. May & Co., was as follows: When the customs clerks go down to take out packages they are given so much money to pay the duty. Supposing he had to take out packages on which the charges were $500 he would only take out packages on which the charges were $300 and pocket the other $200. As the customs do not give receipts for money and the large firms nearly always have goods there, it is a very difficult matter to discover these defalcations until some considerable time has elapsed. Fortanat was sentenced to three months' imprisonment today.

Judge Church this morning recommitted Pitcher, the absconding bank teller, on the charge of having brought stolen money into Canada, knowing the same to have been stolen. Guerin, Pitcher's counsel, moved to have the matter brought before a full term court of the Queen's bench, but Judge Church rejected the motion, allowing it, however, to be placed on file as part of the record. He said the only thing Guerin could do, in his opinion, was to issue a new habeas corpus when the court sits in September.

DROWNED IN THE ST. LAWRENCE.

Mysterious Fate of a Woman—The Body Identified.

MONTREAL, July 26.—When the Terrebonne boat was nearing Varennes yesterday morning, the captain observed the body of a woman floating down the river. It was recovered by the aid of a boat hook and conveyed to the wharf, to which it was lashed, and the boat proceeded on her way to this city. The body is that of a tall, good-looking woman, of about 45 years of age, of dark complexion and short, curly hair, she was dressed in a calico dress and apron, with small shawl over her back, and wore rosary beads around her neck. Her hand was in the dress pocket and was clasping a handkerchief and purse. The appearance of the body led to the supposition that it had only recently got into the water. As far as could be seen there were no marks of violence on the person.

The body has since been identified as that of Julienne Prevost, aged 40 years, spinster, who lived with the Grey Nuns at Varennes and was considered slightly affected in mind. She is supposed to have taken a fit and fallen into the water.

He Owned Diamonds.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Detective Robertson found, yesterday, in a second-hand shop on Craig-street a handsome and costly diamond ring, which the proprietor said had come into his possession under suspicious circumstances. On information received from him the detective proceeded to St. Lawrence Hall, where he questioned a bell boy, who admitted that he was the party who had sold the ring. His story was that he had found the ring in room 142 of the hotel lying under the bed. Further examination by the detective elicited the fact that the boy had also in his possession a second diamond ring, which, he stated, he had found in the same room. The officer thought there was something fishy in the case, and arrested the boy on suspicion. When before the magistrate, his father appeared, and the boy was allowed his liberty on the parent promising that he would be forthcoming when required. The young fellow has only been employed eight days at the Hall, and his parents are very respectable.

A Suspicious Transaction.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Yesterday morning a young fellow went into Moss's pawnbroking establishment on Notre Dame-street and ordered for sale a pair of costly gold spectacles. When questioned by Mr. Moss as to where he had come by them, he said that his father had given them to him to sell. He left the shop and returned a few minutes later with a youth a little older than himself, whom he represented as his father. The pawnbroker became suspicious and while he kept the boys in conversation told one of his employes to call the police. Before the officers arrived, however, the boys took up the spectacles and decamped. The lad who had first offered the spectacles was subsequently arrested. Before the police magistrate he pleaded not guilty, and was remanded for inquiry.

A Secret Marriage.

MONTREAL, July 26.—A Belgian named Von Dosch came to board with a family in Chaboillez-square some months ago and becoming enamored of the 15-year-old daughter of the family they were secretly married in St. George's Church. The girl was not in good health and proceeded home immediately after leaving church. She never mentioned the subject to one of her family but her mother began to suspect that there was too much familiarity between the two. The day before yesterday Von Dosch was given notice to leave the house and very much astonished his landlady by pulling out the certificate of marriage and saying he would not go unless his wife was allowed to go with him.

The parents were informed that as the man was a Protestant and the girl a Catholic and the ceremony had been performed in a Protestant Church the marriage could be declared null and void.

To-day a warrant was taken out for Von Dosch's arrest, as he declared at the church that the girl was 21 years of age.

The Celestials Paid the Duty.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Two of the three Chinamen over whom there has been such trouble in Plattsburg, N.Y., came back to Montreal to-day in charge of United States Marshal Dowell. The Marshal handed over the two Chinamen to Landing Waiter Crowhurst at Bonaventure Station. Having entered Canada in bond they were liable to a duty of $50 a head if they wished to remain within the Dominion. After a brief delay the money was paid, the documents signed and the two Celestials were at liberty once more.

Montreal's Nightly Fire.

MONTREAL, July 26.—A fire took place, to-night, in the shop and stables of Mr. D. Ouimet, tinsmith and plumber, St. Lawrence-street. The place was gutted and two valuable horses burnt. The loss is $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

The Type-Setting Contest at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 26.—These printers have entered their names for the type-setting contest at the French printers' picnic on the Exhibition Grounds on Saturday next: English—W. A. Bell, Isaac Glennon, Witness; M. O'Connor, F. Larose, Gazette, E. A. W. Simmers, Herald. French—E. Dupont, La Minerve; P. Robineau, L. Marchand, Le Monde; L. Dube, L. O. Brazeau, L'Etendard; Jos. Belair, Jos. Lariviere, Gebhardt-berthiaume; H. Dalaire, Imprimerie General.

Arrest of a Horse Thief.

GUELPH, July 26.—A horse thief, who refused to give his name or any information about himself, was lodged in jail here to-day. He stole a horse and buggy from a son of Sheriff McKim at a barn-raising a week ago and was traced through several places and finally run down and arrested at Campbellville. His name is supposed to be Heffernan.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A WRECK ON THE GRAND TRUNK.

Two Freight Trains Meet in Collision on the Eastern Section.

QUEBEC, July 27.—Early this morning two freight trains on the eastern section of the Grand Trunk Railway were sweeping along in opposite directions when they met in collision near Warwick Station. The drivers and firemen just had time to jump off in safety when the collision took place. The cars piled on each other and in a short time a large amount of property was destroyed but fortunately no lives were lost, all hands coming out uninjured from the wreck. It took several hours to remove the debris and the express train was delayed.

The Grand Trunk authorities have had several employes connected with the night service suspended and a searching enquiry will be made. The night was clear and this enabled both drivers to see ahead and jump in time to save their lives. The general opinion is that the telegraph clerk is at fault.

STABBED BY A TOUGH.

Singular Assault on a Hamiltonian—Youthful Thieves—Suspected of Larceny.

HAMILTON, July 26.—A young man named Carrom, is suffering from a severe knife wound in the hand. The wound was inflicted on Saturday evening last, but the injured man neglected to report the occurrance to the police, and has not done so yet. It happened in this way: Carrom and a fellow-boarder named Campbell walked down to the bay at the foot of John-street about 10 o'clock. They were walking along quietly when suddenly about half a dozen roughs sprang out of a dark corner and jumped on them. Carrom saw a knife flash in the air and threw up his hand to protect himself when the weapon came down and went clean through the palm of his hand. He struggled a few minutes until he got free and then ran for all he was worth.

Three boys named Alexander McLellan, William Cusick and John Mulroy, are held by the police for several cases of larceny. They were brought up before the police magistrate this morning and pleaded guilty to two offences. There are other charges against the prisoners, and the boys were remanded until Friday morning.

William Steves, a young man who lives in Ancaster, was a prisoner at the police court this morning because it is suspected that it was he who broke into C. H. Forsyth's boathouse on March 27 and stole a pair of rubber boots, two spoonhooks and a pair of oarlocks. The stolen articles were found in Steves' possession. His explanation was that he purchased the boots from his brother, who bought them from a man in Dundas. The case will be further investigated to-morrow.

Last night Thomas Johnston had a watch stolen out of his pocket.

A ROW OVER A CHURCH SOCIAL.

A Flamboro Man Fined for Using Too Vigorous English to a Neighbor.

HAMILTON, July 26.—At the Police Court this morning Mr. John Ward, of Flamboro, charged Mr. M. J. Morden with making use of indecent, profane and threatening language. Mr. Ward swore that some time ago Mr. Morden went to him and asked him to lend the gate at a social that was to be given at his place in aid of Christ Church of that village. He reluctantly consented. After the social he went into Mr. Morden's house to get his supper and Mr. Morden asked him to count the money with him. Then Mr. Morden got very angry, he said, and accused him of stealing and being a robber. Mr. Ward swore that Mr. Morden said he (Ward) had pocketed $3 for every $1 he accounted for; also that he called him a damned Methodist. A man who was employed by Mr. Morden to watch the place also swore that he heard Mr. Morden calling Mr. Ward a thief. He did not hear any profane language because a woman shut up the door as soon as the row commenced. Counsel for the parties agreed that a nominal fine should be imposed upon Mr. Morden, and that the defendant should apologize to Mr. Ward for calling him a thief. The Magistrate consented to the proposition and imposed a fine of 25 cents and costs—$3.60 in all.

THE BERLIN TOURNAMENT.

Winners in the Contests Yesterday—A Complete Success.

BERLIN, July 26.—At the band and fireman's tournament to-day the hose and reel race was won by Seaforth, Caledonia second. In the hook and ladder race Grimsby won, Smithville second.

There were seven entries in the second class band competition. Walkerton won, Dunnville second and Streetsville third.

An error appeared in yesterday's despatch with reference to the first class band contest. The first prize of $250 was won by the Dominion Organ and Piano Company Band, not by the "Bowmanville Band" as stated.

Fully 12,000 visitors were in town during the two days and the tournament has been a complete success.

Enterprising Burglars at St. Kitts.

ST. CATHARINES, July 26.—Benjamin Pender's machine and gunshop was burglarized some time during last night, and a number of guns, revolvers, hunting knives, etc., stolen, valued in all at about $200. The burglars forced the lock of the back door.

Assignment of a Montreal Merchant.

MONTREAL, July 26.—At the instance of Reed, Rye & Co., of London, Eng., and representing Graham & Co. of Oporto, a demand of assignment was made to-day upon James Guest, wholesale wine merchant, which was acceded to. The liabilities are said to exceed $200,000, of which the Oporto firm represent $35,000.

The Deadly Buttermilk.

WICHITA, Kan, July 26.—The family of Daniel McCarthy, consisting of his wife, four daughters and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henshaw, were poisoned yesterday by drinking buttermilk. The doctors have succeeded in saving the lives of Mrs. McCarthy and three daughters. Mrs. Henshaw and one daughter, it is believed, will die. It is thought that the milk had been allowed to stand in a copper vessel and became poisoned.

THE DOMINION'S EXPORTS.

A TOTAL OF $77,612,552 FOR THE 12 MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30.

Comparison With Last Year's Figures—Twenty-First Annual Statement of Post Office Savings Banks—The Most Satisfactory Report Ever Issued.

OTTAWA, July 26.—The value of exports from Canada for the month of June was $9,924,536, of which $9,175,874 was the produce of Canada and $748,662 the produce of other countries. Compared with the same month last year this shows a decrease of $307,434 in the produce of Canada and $365,410 in the produce of other countries. In produce of the forest there is an increase of about $500,000 and a similar decrease in animals and their products. Agricultural products also show a decrease of nearly $800,000 and manufactures and fisheries an increase of about $200,000.

The publication of these figures enables a comparison of the exports for the twelve months ending June 30 with the corresponding period last year. The total exports amount to $86,454,989 of which $77,612,552 was the produce of Canada and $8,842,437 the produce of other countries. The total exports for the twelve months only fall $52,800 below last year, which is very gratifying in view of the short grain crop in Ontario. The following statement shows the details of the produce of Canada exported:

Produce of the mine	$ 4,080,063
" " fisheries	7,723,483
" " forest	20,979,495
Animals and their products	24,042,215
Agricultural products	15,360,954
Manufactures	4,023,423
Miscellaneous	703,919
Total	$77,612,552

Compared with last year the following increases are shown:

Mine	$288,436
Fisheries	870,605
Forest	475,113
Animals and their products	329,399
Manufactures	947,619
Miscellaneous	151,878

Agricultural produce shows a decrease of $3,402,682. This shows a net decrease in goods the produce of Canada of $339,032; but goods not the produce of Canada show an increase of $296,832.

The following is the statement of goods entered for consumption during the month of June:—

Dutiable	$ 6,084,527
Free	4,018,242
Total	$ 10,102,769
Duty collected	$ 1,942,439

The twenty-first annual statement of Post-Office Savings Banks to June 30 will be published to-morrow and is the most satisfactory one ever issued. Although there were over 100,000 accounts remaining open at the end of the year they were all balanced, the interest calculated and the statement prepared in little more than three weeks from the close of the fiscal year, a feat of which the postal authorities may be proud.

During the year the number of depositors increased 1100, the largest increase in any one year since the system was established.

The number of accounts remaining open at the end of the year was 101,963 against 90,159 last year. The balance at the credit of depositors increased $1,250,000 and at the end of the fiscal year reached $20,686,032. The expenses of management are the same as last year or within a few dollars. The increase in small deposits is a healthy sign.

Under the policy adopted last year of not allowing savings banks to be used as a place of deposits for large amounts a salutary situation was given to the purely savings character of the bank.

A new column has been added to the statement showing that the process of absorption of Dominion Government Savings Bank accounts has begun. The amount transferred from the Government Savings Bank to the Postoffice Savings Bank was $217,385.

The Governor-General has consented to become patron of the Dominion Artillery Association.

The Department of Justice has received a request from the Quebec Government to take steps for the extradition of Wm. Coleman and John O'Halligan, arrested in St. Albans, Vt., about a month ago on a charge of highway robbery committed at Stanbridge. It is stated that Capt. Sears of C School of Infantry, Toronto, and Capt. Frees of St. John, who has been temporarily attached to London Infantry School, will shortly return to England, their term of service in Canada being completed.

The Fisheries Treaty Debate.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In open executive session to-day Mr. Wilson (Dem., Ma.) addressed the Senate in favor of ratification of the Fisheries Treaty. He said the question at issue was simply whether the British contention had not so much in it that was reasonable as to render the question at issue an honestly debatable one and such as honest and reasonable men, endeavoring to avoid a possible war, might hope by mutual concession to adjust. He justified the reasonableness of the British contention as to the construction of the treaty of 1818.

Mr. Salisbury (Dem., Ma.) took the floor and said he would address the Senate to-morrow and Mr. Vance, (Dem., N.C.) gave a like notice for Saturday.

Mr. Frye said he would ask the Senate to meet at 11 a. m. on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday and until the vote was reached.

The Penalty Waived.

WASHINGTON, July 26. The Secretary of State has received a despatch from Consul-General Phelan at Halifax, N. S., in relation to the case of the schooner Arthur D. Storey, seized early this season for entering and leaving the port of Halifax without clearance papers. He said he had received a note from the Canadian Minister of Customs saying that as the papers showed that her agent endeavored to have the captain comply with the law, he had decided to waive any penalty in the case notwithstanding that her captain had been guilty of deliberate violation of the law.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1888.

Hon. Charles Drury.

Entertained by the East Simcoe Agricultural Association—A Flattering Address Presented. The Gathering Composed of Members of Both Political Parties—The Government's Choice Warmly Commended.

The public will remember that the Department of Agriculture in the Ontario Administration was created last session of the legislature, and that Hon. Charles A. Drury, East Simcoe, was intrusted with the portfolio. The creation of the office met with the complete endorsation of the agricultural community, and it appears the personnel of the incumbency has given equal satisfaction—without regard, is either case, to party predilections. In view of these considerations, and in view of the fact that a local interest attaches to Hon. Mr. Drury, inasmuch as he has consented to formally open the Central Exhibition here next September, we give space to the following report of an honor conferred on the Minister of Agriculture. The occasion was a purely non-political one, the East Simcoe Agricultural Society being pretty nearly equally divided on the question of politics. Hon. Mr. Drury's reception and treatment were eminently cordial and complimentary, as will be seen by the report :—

ORILLIA, July 25.—A large gathering of the representative farmers of this riding took place to-day at Strawberry Island, Lake Simcoe, about ten miles from here. The occasion was the annual excursion of the East Simcoe Agricultural Association, and the chief attraction was the presence of Hon. Chas. Drury, the lately appointed Minister of Agriculture. After a pleasant sail from town, and a pic-nic at the island, the people assembled in the pavilion, where the proceedings were opened by Mr. J. B. Thompson, mayor of Orillia, taking the floor, and after a few words of eulogy, presenting the hon. gentleman with the following address :—

To Hon. Charles Drury, Minister of Agriculture.

DEAR SIR,—The East Simcoe Agricultural Society takes great pleasure in congratulating you on your appointment to a position both high and honorable. With feelings of pride we received the news that you had been appointed Minister of Agriculture, and now that you have seen fit to pay us a visit, we desire to welcome you with warm expression of the joy and good will which exist in the heart of every farmer in the riding. For years you have been our representative to the Provincial Agricultural Association, as well as our voice in the halls of the Legislature. For years you have stood by the farmer and the people, and we are proud because you have ever personally advocated justice, purity, and the country's best welfare. We are confident that as a Cabinet Minister you will still be what you have always been, a man of the people. We have perused with pleasure the reports of your utterances on Canadian agriculture, and applaud the choice of the Government in appointing you, a practical farmer, to the very responsible position you now occupy. The agricultural interests of this province are of paramount importance, and must be handled with the wisest judgment, the keenest attention, and by a man who knows whereof he speaks. In yourself, Mr. Drury, we feel that we have such a man, and therefore congratulate not only you upon having been chosen, but also the Government upon having made such a happy choice. We wish you a prosperous career as Minister of Agriculture, and hope to see the day when you will be further advanced in the rule of this fertile province. Our hearts are with you. The agricultural community will always support and uphold you in your good work. In the name of the E.S.A.S. and the farmers of East Simcoe, we wish you health, prosperity, and many years of honorable public office.

[Signed] J. CUPPAGE,
President East Simcoe Agricultural Society.

MR. DRURY'S REPLY.

Mr. Drury, in reply, stated that of late he had become quite used to receiving congratulatory addresses, but none of them had given him as great pleasure as the present one; because it came from his own constituents, and because it did not represent party, but the honest feeling of farmers of both sides. The remainder of the honorable gentleman's speech was confined to agricultural topics, the speech giving great satisfaction, judging from the loud applause which frequently interrupted the speaker.

OTHER SPEECHES AND PLEASANTRIES.

Mr. Duncan Anderson, a well-known farmers of Oro, next spoke, the subject of his remarks being extended trade relations with the United States. The various speeches were lengthy, and were listened to by the audience with the greatest attention. After a vote of thanks to the chairman, Mr. John Cuppage, president of the society, had been put and carried, the gathering broke up with cheers, after which Mr. Drury was entertained by the society at the Island hotel.

Increased Asylum Accommodation.

The New Asylum Completed at Hamilton—Circular to County Officials.

The following circular has been issued by the Ontario inspectors of prisons to the sheriffs, wardens and gaol surgeons :—

Office of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities, Ontario, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, 23rd July, 1888.

SIR,—I have the honor to advise you that, the new building at Hamilton having been completed, there is now sufficient asylum accommodation to meet all present demands, and I have to request that you will in future lose no time in having the necessary examinations made of persons committed to your gaol as dangerous lunatics, and all papers sent to their proper destination, with a view to such persons being forwarded to an asylum without delay or to their immediate release in case they are found not to be insane. I wish also to impress upon you the necessity of affording lunatics, or persons charged with lunacy, the best accommodation that your gaol will admit of, and of keeping them free from contact or association with prisoners committed upon criminal charges. Where your usual staff is not sufficient to furnish the necessary attendance for persons committed as lunatics, you should employ additional temporary aid at once, reporting the circumstances immediately to this department. You will please communicate the purport of this circular to the gaoler and surgeon of your gaol.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

R. CHRISTIE,
W. T. O'REILLY,
Inspectors.

ONTARIO'S CASE COMPLETED.

The "Disputed Territory" Argument Before the Privy Council Closed.

TORONTO, July 27.—Acting Premier Hardy received a cablegram from Mr. Mowat last evening from London stating that the argument in Ontario's "disputed territory" case, now before the Privy Council, had just been concluded and that judgment was expected within a week.

The writs for elections of members for the Ontario Legislature in the three open constituencies in Ontario have not yet been issued. The vacant constituencies are Frontenac, East Elgin and North Lanark.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, have an unfailing specific in Dr. Pierce's Favorit Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. b

Why GOUGH BROS., the Wonderful Cheap Men, are on TOP OF THE HEAP!

Why the Giant Clothiers Knock the Sox off the Combined 12 Trifflers with the Clothing Trade.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

FIRST.—Buying for Spot Cash, thereby convincing the Wholesale Men that we command the Market.

SECOND.—Selling Goods Cheaper Retail than the Handicap Dealers who are under the Thumb of Wholesale Men can buy for.

THIRD.—Carrying the LARGEST Stock of CLOTHING of any house between Montreal & Toronto thereby giving the Customer the benefit of buying largely.

FOURTH.—Goughs sell FINE WORSTEDS for $6.90, worth $13.00. They sell All-Wool Waterloo Tweed Suits for $3.80 worth $8.00. "They sell Boys' Suits for 58c., $1.10, $2.00, and upwards. Elegant Goods. They sell Boy's Coats for 19c. A customer remarked the other day when shown the Goods, well, really gentle men, you are without doubt, the Kings of Low Prices and the only and original Wonderful Cheap Men."

FIFTH.—Men's Work ing Pants 17c.

SIXTH.—Do we offer Baits? Some Dealers say our Prices are only Baits thrown out to catch! Why bless them! GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of small Profits Goods are all Baits. They don't Fish with a bare hook. They know the value of good value. Their offers touch bottom in Clothing Prices, and that's what makes all the High Priced Clothing Sharks wriggle and squirm

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $496,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,500 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table :—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,492 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 99	475,607 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Sensation in Wesleans—A Pretended Detective Run in as a Motel Keeper.

TORONTO, July 27.—It is said that the junior member of a wholesale woolen firm in Front-street has pocketed about $5000 of the firm's money. He had charge of the books and failed to enter the collections. The loss is reported to be covered by a guarantee company's bond, each of the partners having given an instrument of that nature. The firm has dissolved partnership in consequence of the discovery.

A man giving his name as J. H. Potter and claiming to be a Pinkerton detective from Chicago engaged in working up a special case, has been doing up the hotels here for various amounts during the past month. He was arrested yesterday on a charge of fraud, having obtained $4 of a Palmer House guest on the pretence that he wanted it to pass some goods through the customs.

Three months ago Toronto Typographical Union No. 91 served a notice on the publishers of the four morning newspapers in Toronto, that on July 25 they would demand an increase in the price of composition from 30 cents to 33½ cents per 1000 ems.

Yesterday a committee from the union saw Mr. Douglass of The Mail and Mr. Creighton of The Empire. The committee did not make the demand for the increase, but merely requested that Mr. Douglass and Mr. Creighton meet them at a future day to "talk matters in general over." This both gentlemen consented to do, but no date was fixed for the conference. The committee also went to The Globe office, but found neither Managing Director Cameron or Secretary-Treasurer Taylor about the premises.

The Globe notified the union several days ago that they would grant no increase at present.

William Irving, of Lippincot-avenue, reported to the detectives yesterday that $135 had been stolen from his house during the temporary absence of his family last evening.

While in a state of intoxication last night, Francis Roche wandered down to Front street, where he lay down to rest. During his slumber, his wallet, containing $58, was neatly abstracted from his inside pocket.

A Good Corn Sheller for 25 cents.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy, and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor —safe, sureand painless. Sold at druggists. 6dw30

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensible.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont. 5w29d

A Sad Loss.

Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dulness and debility, are of very frequent occurrence. Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digestion by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present. 2w29d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1888.

OUT OF TOWN.

Subscribers to THE EXAMINER, who intend spending their holidays at summer resorts, can have their papers sent them by giving notice at the office. Non-subscribers will be supplied with THE DAILY EXAMINER at such resorts for 35c. per month or $1.00 for three months.

The Weather.

Moderate winds, mostly south-east and south, fair weather, not much change in temperature; local showers to-night mostly in Western Ontario.

The Banks and Business Men.

A new name has been given the parlors of local bank managers. They are called "sweat rooms"—the hot weather and the close hunt for money or accommodation make merchants perspire like navvies. But business men need not lack for money if they take the right methods, only let them take the example of the golden lion, where money is pouring in for the purchase of the splendid line of cream lace parasols at $1, worth $2.00 or $2.50. Imported goods reduced to clear. Now is the time to buy.

A Gymnasium.

The school board intend fitting up a gymnasium in connection with the Central school. The shed on the north side can be made to answer the purpose by a very small outlay. The walls of the building will be raised about three feet and battened, the necessary doors and windows put in and the building then equipped with the necessary appliances for a first class gymnasium. The ground on the high side will be removed so as to make it level. The building is about 50x30 feet and in a very desirable place. A stove will be placed in it in the winter which will supply ample heat for the place.

No Rifle Practice Yesterday.

The weekly practice of the Rifle Association did not take place at the range yesterday. The workmen are busy laying track on the Chemong branch, and their presence prevented taking steady aim and would have probably deflected a bullet from its course. The committee are moving energetically for a new range, and will probably secure one running east and west across the line of the present one, the butts to be at the western end. In view of the fact that several members of the Association are going to Ottawa to shoot, they are anxious to get some practice with the new Martini-Henry rifles, and it is probable that in a short time the new range will be put in order.

Civic Holiday.

Arrangements have been completed for the excursion to Sturgeon Point on August 16th, Peterborough's civic holiday, under the joint auspices of Canton No. 10 and the fire brigade band. Bandmaster Millar was one of the party that went to Sturgeon Point yesterday. They made special arrangements with the hotel there and also the steamboats. It will be a fine day's outing to go to Sturgeon Point, and it will probably be a great day in Lindsay, as it will be civic holiday in that town also. There will be other excursions to the same place on that day. No doubt there will be a large crowd present.

A Beautiful Spot.

One of the tidiest, freshest and greenest spots, in town is found at the Midland station. Station agent Brandrette's little flower garden is a gem and he personally gives it the care and attention which make it, in Hibernian greenness and freshness of verdure, like a little patch of emerald Ireland, the ivy clad round tower in the enclosure greatly assisting the resemblance. This pretty plot, with its trim, tidy turf and well kept flower plots, brilliant masses of bloom, is the care and pardonable pride of Mr. Brandrette, and he has not only the personal satisfaction of successfully cultivating the beautiful but of contributing to the delight of all visitors at the station. He is, thus, more of a philanthropist than he may think himself to be.

James Crowley's Body Found.

The Fobcaygeon Independent says that on Friday morning, at about nine o'clock, the parties who were in search of the body of Mr. James Crowley, discovered it floating near the surface, in a position as if standing in the water with the head back. A sash was found around the body as stated by Connors, who was with him at the time of the upset. The body was buried on Saturday at the Eonismore Cemetery. Mr. Crowley was 65 years of age, and came from Fermoy, Co. Cork, Ireland, in 1850. He resided on the Island which bears his name, for 23 years, and there raised his family of five children, three boys and two girls, all of whom except one, Patrick, are married and settled in life.

New C. P. R. Cars.

A train composed of twenty new box cars for the C.P.R., from Crossen's establishment, Cobourg, arrived in town yesterday. They are fine specimens of box cars.

Belleville Cheese Market.

The cheese market at Belleville yesterday was very quiet. There were 4,276 boxes offered but only 675 were sold, and the price of these was from 9c. to 9¼c.

New Platform.

The new platform at the Midland station is nearly completed. A few days more and the place will wear a different aspect. The new platform is a little higher than the old one.

A New Block Started.

The bricklayers have started the brikwork on Mr. Halpin's new block on Hunter street, near Alymer. It will not be long before the new block will be well under way.

Lacrosse.

The Riversides go to Bradford on August 29th to play a match with the team in that place. The date first decided upon for this match was July 12th but the boys were unable to go on that day.

Brockville Cheese Market.

The cheese market at Brockville is rather dead just now. There is a large number of boxes now on hand and the buyers are not inclined to offer very good prices, consequently a large quantity is left unsold.

Mischevious Boys.

Last evening a dog ran down Hunter street from Alymer, at the top of his speed and was doing his best to out run a stick which was tied to his tail. It was naturally an attraction for other boys and caused considerable commotion.

Got the Reward.

The Intelligencer says that the $1,000 reward for the arrest of C. C. Nelson, the Atlanta absconder, has been awarded. A. Parent, of Trenton, who informed Chief Hinds where he would find the man, got half.

Fruit Social.

A fruit social will be given by the Ladies Aid of the George street Methodist church on Thursday evening next, 2nd of August, in the grounds of the church. The Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance. Admission, 10 cents.

The Regatta.

There will be no regatta to-night as was previously announced. Several members of both crews have been away on their holidays, and consequently they have not had an opportunity of practicing. It is not known now when the regatta will take place.

Cheese Markets.

At the Napanee market Wednesday, 2,195 boxes were offered. No bids.

At the Belleville Board Thursday, 41 factories boarded 4,276 boxes; 8¾c. was offered. No sales are reported at any Canadian Board this week.

Bark in the Paper Mill.

Cedar bark is now being purchased by the Northumberland Paper Co. for the mill in Campbellford. Three large wagon loads arrived from the north a few days ago. An abundance of it can be procured in the vicinity of Havelock, and there may yet be a brisk demand for it.

Off the Track.

A flat car was yesterday shunted with such force against the Charlotte-street buffer of the siding along McBain's grain store house as to displace the buffer and send the car some distance into the street. This is a not unfrequent occurrence.

Water Works in Lakefield.

Next Tuesday a vote will be taken in Lakefield on the water works question. The fire in Strickland's lumber yard aroused the council to action, and they realized that they were in need of a system of water works. The subject has been discussed in the council and now it will be laid before the people.

Cricketers' Meeting.

At the meeting of the cricketers last evening it was decided that they would not give a guarantee of any sum to get the Irish Gentlemen here. They offer them the proceeds of the gate but would not make any further guarantee. The match, if played at all, will be played next month.

Millbrook Cattle Shipment.

This week Messrs. Eakins & Co. shipped three car loads of very fine cattle to the Liverpool market direct. This firm bought one of the car loads from Jabes Thurston, Esq., Dunsford, and they were pronounced the finest cattle ever shipped from Millbrook.

Our Pattern Post Office.

Mr. Navin, contractor for the new government buildings in Lindsay, and Mr. Milburn, stone-cutter and stonemason, of Lindsay, were in town to-day looking over the new post office, and especially the stonework, with a view of securing information in respect to procuring suitable stone for the new structure.

Brightening Up.

The shop occupied by Mr. M. Sullivan, 397 George street, is being improved greatly. It is being painted outside and the walls within will be covered with artistic paper. A new line of gas jets over the counters on either side will give improved light. The appearance of the shop will be totally changed.

For the Camps.

Several more left for the camping regions this morning. Among those for Stony Lake were Messrs. Wm. Belleghem, R. J. Lee and Chas. Wynn. Col. J. Z. Rogers left for Orillia to join the Peterborough party at A.C.A. camp on Couchiching Lake. There is scarcely a train leaving here for the north that does not carry several campers to the back lakes.

Northwest Missions.

In addition to the appeal recently made to the congregation of St. Paul's (Presbyterian) church, the committee of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society hereby publish a list of the things considered most necessary for the Indians on the Assiniboine Reserve, which, as coming from the Missionary, Rev. John McLean, will carry some weight and greatly help contributors in their selection of articles to be sent in the box next month from the societies in the Peterborough and Bruce presbyteries:—Warm material, such as home spun and flannel, should be unmade; quilts and comforters or patches for the same; every kind of bright, warm material, blankets of every description, yarn and knitting needles, children's socks and mitts, dresses, if made, are preferred in the old style of waist and skirt together, basques, unless very large and of warm stuff, are useless, cast-off clothing should be in good condition or neatly mended. The women are anxious to learn, and Mrs. McLean is fully able and willing to teach them, how to cut out and make dresses, coats, vests, pants, etc. They are almost all able to knit, hence the desire for unmade material and yarn. The number of Indians on the above Reserve is about 250—60 men, 84 women, 53 boys, of which 16 are infants, and 51 girls, of which 5 are infants.

Parcels may be sent during the next three weeks to the care-taker of St. Paul's church, Mr. Walter Wood's residence next door to the church on Murray-street.

Personal.

Hon. E. Blake sails for home from London to-day.

Miss Emma Kirby, of Ottawa, is visiting in town the guest of Miss Josie Bradburn.

Mr. Jas. Gallon, of Lindsay, Inspector of the Manufacturers Life, was in town to-day manufacturing "lives" by the gallon.

His Honor Judge Wellor is put down for a paper on "The Legal Rights of the Citizen to Sanitary Protection," at the Sanitary Convention, Lindsay.

Mr. Christopher Leary, North Monaghan, is at Minden superintending the harvesting of the crops of his son, who is prevented by lameness from attending to business.

Coroner Bell and D. Belleghem returned home last night from a week's sojourn amongst the back lake islands. Now times will be more lively.

Mr. Thomas B. Collins, Millbrook, Orange Grand Master of Ontario, is in Ireland attending the Triennial Orange Council at Carrickfergus, Ireland.

Mr. T. Arnold Haultain, M.A., of Peterborough, is to read a paper before the Ontario Teachers' Association, which meets in Toronto August 14-16.

Mr. J. H. Long left this morning for an extended tour in eastern Canada. He proposes cruising some time in the waters of the Maritime Provinces.

After carrying on business in Millbrook for several years, Mr. Thos. H. Philp has decided to come to Peterborough as soon as he can clear out his present stock of tinware, stoves, etc.

Mr. Joseph Curran, of the Midland Despatcher's office, Miss Curran and Miss —— O'Brien left yesterday morning, via Niagara Falls, for a fortnight's visit to friends in Rochester and vicinity.

Civic Carelessness in Port Perry.

Mr. H. Gordon, of Port Perry, has given notice to the town council that he intends entering suit against the corporation for $5,000 damage, owing to the drowning of his son in a town tank. The council passed a motion sympathising with the parents, but stating that they do not deem the town liable for damages. Resolutions of condolence are altogether too cheap a manner of condoning civic carelessness.

Crops in Dummer.

Mr. A. R. Kidd, of Dummer, called at our office this morning, and reports in reference once to the crops as follows:—Fall wheat, fairly good where not winter-killed; spring wheat, straw short and grain small for lack of rain; barley, light, color good, suffered from drought; oats, on high land a complete failure; peas, about half a crop, parched on high lands; rye, fairly good; hay light, and averages little better than half a crop; potatoes, smaller crop than last year without rain; other roots not promising. Fruit will be a slight crop, about half of the apples were blown off by recent windstorm; wild fruits scarce. There is no pasturage absolutely on uplands; working horses have to be fed in stables, and milk is falling off. There will probably be a sufficiency to winter stock. There has not been one good soaking rain this summer.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

Lakefield "Chronicelings."

The other day a young son of Mr. G. J. Galvin, who was visiting at Mr. H. Garbutt's, had his leg badly bitten and torn by a dog. The dog was shot.

On Saturday Mr. Richard Alfords was thrown from a load of barley and had his right wrist dislocated and received several bruises on the face.

On Thursday Mr. W. H. Hunter met with an accident at Messrs. Strickland's saw mill, losing two of his fingers from his right hand and badly injuring another, it being almost severed from the hand.

Mr. Adams, inspector of steamboat hulls and boilers, on Thursday inspected the Cruiser, Dawn and Mary Ellen. All the boats passed the keen eye of the inspector.

Miller & Freeman's Monster Railway Shows.

The amusement-going public will remember with favor this model amusement enterprize, the most acceptable of the tented exhibitions that visited us last season, and which more than pleased enormous patronage. This year it comes to us with largely added attractions, and double its former capacity of canvas, presenting among its list of riders the superiors of the profession, and among its gymnasts, athletes, tumblers and aerial artists, the most celebrated performers before the public. Among the new accessions to its wondrous roll of novelties is the fearful parachute decent from the clouds of Professor Ned Hathaway, which takes place at the exhibition grounds every morning at 11 o'clock. As this exhibition is given outside the canvas, it is, of course, free to everybody. It may be well to remember that the show gives its exhibitions under canvas at prices much reduced from regular rates. The exhibition will be in Peterborough Monday, August 6. 1d

Wheeling.

The Lindsay Post notes the feat of Geo. Matthews, jr., making a trip from Peterborough to that town, a distance of nearly thirty miles, in three hours and twenty minutes.

Put off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

A New Proprietor.

The Minden Echo will in future be conducted by Mr. John M. Delamere. Mr. Delamere will do his best to improve the paper and is already making some changes. He has increased his staff by one or two new men and no doubt the changes will all be for the better.

Slow but Sure.

The price of potatoes is slowly but surely falling. Already they can be had for $1.20 per bushel and it is likely they will be below that to-morrow. The yield will be a great deal better than was first anticipated. Those who still complain of the poor yield have not made allowance for the recent rains which have done a great deal of good.

The Cannington Races.

The Peterborough trotters, "Sleepy Dan" and "Gray Ned," with the party of Peterborough sports who went up to Cannington to see their turf triumphs, returned home to-day on the midday Midland express. "Sleepy Dan" got there first in the 2.50 trot on Wednesday, time 2.37; and he collared second money in the 2.40 trot on Thursday, the winner's time having been 2.33. "Gray Ned" got in excellent work in the "free-for-all," especially considering what good company he was in. He trotted against the well known fliers, "Dan O'Connell," "Maud S." and "Tariff jr.," winning third place and shutting out "Tariff," who is "no slouch" either. "Tariff" came down with the other horses and went on to Cobourg.

The Terrible Drouth.

The dry weather affects every industry, even the news-gatherer suffers from the dearth. Everybody is out of town, business is dull, the "silly season" is in full swing, in fact the "dog days" exercise a Sirius effect on everything. Nobody has ambition enough to commit a crime or create a sensation. Even the man who gets drunk does it in so lazy and apathetic a manner, with such lack of style as to give the police no excuse for clubbing him. A runaway horse shows a leisurely laziness only equalled by the leisurely laziness of his driver, and he winds himself up inside of a block's breadth. Why doesn't somebody raise a row? Why doesn't some undesirable citizen elope with some other undesirable citizen's undesirable wife, and thus stir the stagnant pool of news matter. Why doesn't some human firebrand stir up a strike amongst the thousand laborers on the Peterborough-Lakefield section of the Trent Valley Canal? Why doesn't some enterprising burglar create a sensation by breaking into some business place and astonishing the proprietor by finding a few dollars? Why doesn't somebody do something to give a paragraph to the reporters, who gather in groups and condole with each other on the Dead-sea dullness of the news markets. Just at this point a merciful citizen rushes in with a budget of news—Mrs. Blank, on her return from Stony Lake, found that a maternal mouse had chewed up her real lace collar to make a nest in her Sunday bonnet, where she found a little family snuggled up like half a dozen pink Lima beans—A neighbor's cat was choked to death by a fish bone—Mrs. Slattern shows signs of incipient insanity; she cleaned down her front door steps the first time this year—Mrs. Highflier and family have gone to camp at Inverlea park accompanied by Miss Fustian, of Port Hope—Mr. Sprightly Spruce has had a new picket put on his front yard fence—and the man would have gone on unloading himself till now if the reporter hadn't threatened to stab him with the editorial scissors if he didn't desist. News might be dull enough but the line must be drawn somewhere.

A LIBEL SUIT PROBABLE.

PARNELL INCLINED TO BRING THE TIMES INTO COURT.

In Which Event It is Believed the Commission Would be Dropped—The Irish Party said to be Exasperated at Chamberlain—Lord Salisbury's Health.

LONDON, July 27.—A report, which may almost be called startling, was current last night, or rather was whispered among a few well-informed persons on both sides. It is nothing less than a probability that Mr. Parnell may, after all, bring on an action for libel against The Times. It is certain he was seriously considering it. One or two friends said he had made up his mind. It is needless to say what a momentous resolution this would be if really taken. I believe that most of his Gladstonian counsellors counsel him against it. They urge all the old arguments, the probability of a prejudiced judge and of a disagreeing jury, the expense, the peril of cross-examination, which cannot be limited to the direct issue, the extreme difficulty of proving letters to be forgeries, and so on. Mr. Parnell's answer I understand to be substantially this: That his position before the special commission would be worse than in a court of law as plaintiff. This commission, supposing all limitations rejected by the Government, will go into matters which might be excluded from a court, and the delay, expense and difficulties of all sorts will be greater. Mr. Parnell assumes that if he sues The Times the commission will be droped. Nobody likes it, except, perhaps, its inventor, Mr. Chamberlain. The debate, which ended in the second reading of the bill unanimously, was very hot. Apparent unanimity is apparent only. No two men agree about the details of the scheme. The personalities imported into the discussion are exceedingly bitter. The attacks on the Attorney-General have broken down, but will be renewed. Mr. Chamberlain, in the character of a candid friend, exasperated the Irish party beyond all others. In spite of his declaration of his own belief in Mr. Parnell's integrity, they say all his honeyed sentences were only meant to smooth the way to an open commission which should seem to be strictly limited, and really have free hand. All these things, however, become of secondary importance, should Mr. Parnell finally resolve to proceed with his action against The Times. If the commission sits, Sir James Hannen will practically be the commission—certainly one of the strongest, and as certainly one of the fairest judges on the bench.

The stories about Lord Salisbury's health have only too much foundation. He is again suffering from a sharp outbreak of eczema, his old enemy, and means to leave London for Royat this week or next at the latest. The waters of Royat are his best medicine. This, however, has little bearing on the question of the date to be fixed for the closing of the session. So long as no foreign trouble threatens the Prime Minister is content to leave such domestic matters as are most pressing in the hands of his colleagues.

OTTAWA, July 27.—Bread was down to 5 cents per small loaf here yesterday. To-day the price went back to 6 cents.

NOT THE LEAST ANXIETY

TOUCHING THE MEN SENT TO THE SKEENA.

The Latest Romance of the Yankee Lass a Ottawa—Convict Roberts Pardoned Matters Working Smoothly under the Fisheries Modus Vivendi.

OTTAWA, July 27.—Sir Adolphe Caron laughed to-day when shown the sensational despatch from Ottawa to a New York paper, in which it was stated that great anxiety was felt here about the safety of C Battery sent to the Skeena, and the Militia Department was charged with having blundered in the route selected for the men. Sir Adolphe said there was not the slightest anxiety about the safety of the men who had been sent out by the local authorities, as provided by the act and the Militia Department had nothing to do with selecting the route.

It is understood that the convict Roberts, reported to be dying in Kingston Penitentiary has been pardoned and his release ordered.

The Marine Department has been advised that the Imperial Government has decided not to continue the signal station on Sambro Island at the entrance to Halifax harbor and that the regular troops stationed on the island will be withdrawn.

The work of construction on the line of the Pontiac and Pacific Junction Railway is being vigorously prosecuted and it is expected that before next fall the company will be running their trains into Pembroke.

Col. Tisdale, M.P., was here to-day on business connected with the South Norfolk Railway. He says the line will be commenced immediately and he expects it will be finished by December, when it will be taken over and run by the Grand Trunk Railway in connection with the Georgian Bay section.

The presence of Mr. D. Pottinger in the city has caused a revival of the rumor that he is likely to succeed Mr. Collingwood Schriber as Superintendent of Government railways, the latter accepting a position on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Gen. Middleton returned last night from his inspection of the military camp and schools of instruction. He will probably visit British Columbia this fall.

Reports to the Fisheries Department continue to show that matters are working smoothly under the modus vivendi. The American fishermen take out their licenses and there is very little disposition to evade the regulations.

Special-Customs-officer Wolff has reported to the Customs Department the seizure of a lot of watches smuggled into Canada from the United States at Salmon River, N.B.

The Government steamer Cruiser is now on her way to Georgian Bay where, in addition to looking after the Lake fisheries, she will be engaged in preventing smuggling from the United States.

To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain the following appointments:

John Muir of Hamilton to be Judge of the County Court for Wentworth and Local Judge of the High Court of Justice for Ontario.

Lieut.-Col. H. R. Smith of the Canadian Militia to be an extra Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency the Governor-General.

Joseph Leblanc of New Richmond, Que., to be Preventive Officer of Customs.

An order-in-council has been passed approving the tariff tolls of the Trent Valley Canal.

Arthur Wand of Montreal, contractor, will apply to Parliament next session for a bill of divorce from his wife, Jennie Darrach, formerly of the same place but now of the City of New York, on the ground of adultery, desertion and attempt to poison the applicant.

Notice is given by the Prescott County Railway Company of application to Parliament for an enlargement of its bonding powers, the construction of a bridge at or near Hawkesbury, the extension of their line through the counties of Russell and Ottawa, including a bridge over the Ottawa River at some convenient point west of Plantagenet, change of name and extension of time for construction.

An order-in-council has been passed placing these articles on the free list:

Wire of iron and steel, No. 13 and 14, wire gauze, flattened or corrugated and used on a machine known as the wire grip in the manufacture of boots and shoes and leather fitting.

Certain chemical preparations, when imported for the manufacture of cotton and woollen goods.

Two-ply cotton twine and yarn in cops only, made from single cotton yarn finer than No. 40, and used by manufacturers of Italian cloths, cashmeres and cotton cloths.

Blanketing and lapping and discs or mills for engraving copper.

Rollers, when imported by cotton manufacturers for use in their factories only.

Ex-Banker Nelson's Case.

TRENTON, July 27.—The case of C. C. Nelson, the Atlanta absconder, was up before the police magistrate here again this afternoon. A considerable amount of evidence and affidavits were taken in regard to the matter. The case was adjourned until next Tuesday to allow time for further evidence to be procured. Bail was accepted for the appearance of Nelson.

DEFYING THE LAW.

The Megantic Murderer Goes to Meet the Officers Sent to Arrest Him.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Donald Morrison who killed Bailiff Warren at Lake Megantic has not been captured yet, and by all appearances never will be. The people of the district sympathize with Morrison and hold that he was perfectly justified in killing Warren as the latter had threatened to shoot Morrison on sight, and had even drawn a revolver on him when Morrison killed him. The Quebec Government offered a reward of $400 for his arrest, and sent five men to hunt him down, but they were apparently not the right kind of men for they have never seen him yet, and the people take a delight in sending them on a wild goose chase every second day. Morrison never avoids them, but goes around with a loaded rifle over his shoulder ready to defend himself. He was told the other day that the officers were watching him at Richmond and advised him to keep away from there. Instead of following this friendly advice, however, he shouldered his rifle, marched down to Richmond, entered the bar-room of the principal hotel and asked, bringing down the rifle significantly, "Where are those detectives who wanted to arrest me?" No one spoke, and Morrison, after marching through the town looking for the officers, returned to the bush.

A Jilted Lover.

MONCTON, N.B., July 27.—A rather sensational scene was enacted at Cocagne, Kent County, at an early hour yesterday morning. It appears a man named Perrigo, a photographer at Buctouche, had arranged an elopement with Miss Lucas of Cocagne, and the marriage was to take place in Moncton. Miss Lucas, however, did not show up, having been followed to Buctouche by relatives and induced to return home. Perrigo was told she was about to be married to a Mr. Millican, and expressing his determination to get her if he had to shoot her and the whole family, posted in hot haste to Cocagne, reaching there about 1 o'clock in the morning. He thumped loudly at the door, but her male relatives rushed out, seized the revolver, and gave Perrigo a terrible thrashing. He is now talking of an action for breach of promise. Miss Lucas and Millican were married by Rev. J. D. Murray, yesterday morning.

PARTY STANDARD BEARERS.

Cumberland Liberals Select Their Candidate for the Commons.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 27.—At the Liberal convention in Truro to-day Cyrus Eaton, Ex-Mayor and President of the Jubilee Temperance Society, was selected to oppose Sir A. G. Archibald, for the seat for Cumberland in the Dominion House made vacant by the resignation of Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. Eaton accepted and announced that the two leading planks in his platform would be Unrestricted Reciprocity and Prohibition.

East Elgin Reform Convention.

AYLMER, July 27.—At the East Elgin Reform convention held here to-day there were sixteen names presented from which to select a standard bearer in the coming contest for the local House. On the third ballot ex-Warden Charles Dance was chosen.

WAFTED FROM WINNIPEG.

Another Candidate for Cardwell—The R. P. Negotiations.

WINNIPEG, July 27.—It is reported in the Free Press that Hon. Mr. Dewdney, when appointed Minister of the Interior, will run for Cardwell.

Telegrams from New York indicate that some sort of an arrangement with the Northern Pacific is being consummated. Additional information has been asked of members of the Government here and furnished by wire.

It is stated that the Yankee officials are in the conspiracy which led to the arrest of Leighton at Morden for horse-stealing, the object being to get him extradited and claim the reward.

TORONTO TOPICS.

An Old Offender Recognized in Court—Man's Depravity and Woman's Frailty.

TORONTO, July 28.—Frank F. Peard has had a writ for $200 damages issued against Constable Robinson who arrested him for jumping from the wharf to the steamer Canadian.

Minnie Martin, alias Berry, a pretty girl who was arrested a few nights since on a charge of disorderly conduct, was subsequently recognized as being the girl who was indicted at the December assizes for feloniously wounding Ida Stephenson, and who, on being admitted to bail in the sum of $500, skipped to Detroit. She was committed yesterday on the old charge.

Robert S. Gibbs formerly of Toronto, who now resides in Buffalo, has filed a bill there for divorce from his wife Myrtle, who has been living in this city with a young man who figures as co-respondent in the case. Mrs. Gibbs claims that she has merely been fulfilling the duties of housekeeper, and evidence is now being taken here by which Mr. Gibbs seeks to prove a more intimate relationship between the parties.

At a special meeting of the Toronto Presbytery, Tuesday evening, Aug. 7, was fixed for the induction of Rev. Dr. McTavish to the pastorate of the Central Presbyterian Church.

J. H. Potter, alias Finkbone, the alleged detective arrested on a charge of fraud, pleaded at the police court this morning that he only borrowed the $4 from E. W. Ryder. He was remanded till Aug. 1.

The Executive Committee of the Permanent Central Farmer' Institute of Ontario met yesterday in the Walker House. The committee regret that the grant given by the Department of Agriculture was insufficient to meet their expenses. This was made the subject of a lengthy resolution which concluded with the ominous statement that if the grant be not increased this year they will look elsewhere, to the individual institutes, for support. At the afternoon session an offer of co-operation was received and accepted from the Ontario Fruit-growers' Association. On motion of Mr. Shaw, it was resolved to so amend the constitution as to admit two delegates each from the Dairymen's Association and the Eastern and Western Creameries Associations. It was resolved that an attempt should be made to secure $1000 from the Minister of Agriculture. The advisability of doing away with township fairs will be discussed at the next annual meeting of the Institute, to be held in Toronto on the first Tuesday in February, 1889.

THE FISHERIES DEBATE.

U.S. SENATOR SAULSBURY DEFENDS THE TREATY.

A Wise and Just Settlement of a Threatening Controversy—The Headlands Theory Never Abandoned by Great Britain—The Discussion Not Yet Concluded.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—In the Senate today Mr. Sherman (Rep., O.) gave notice that as soon as the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill should be disposed of he would insist on getting the Fisheries Treaty out of the way and he hoped to do so early next week. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the Fisheries Treaty in open executive session and was addressed by Mr. Saulsbury (Dem., Del.) in favor of its ratification. He said:—

Democratic Senators had not opposed the open executive session from any apprehension that the public discussion of the treaty would injure the administration or the Democratic party. On the contrary they believed that a full understanding of it would command it to the favorable judgment of the country as a wise and just settlement of a controversy which had at times threatened the harmony and peace of the whole country.

Whoever was willing to continue such a state of affairs when trouble could be honorably prevented was callous to the true interests of his country and to the highest demands of patriotic duty. The treaty, while securing to the United States valuable rights and privileges hitherto denied and which no previous administration had been able to secure, gave up no undisputed right nor any privilege that could be justly regarded as of the slightest value. The objections to the treaty were too insignificant to be permitted to prevent the settlement of a long-standing controversy and the suggestion that under it that controversy might be continued and aggravated was so absurd that it was surprising that any senator would venture to make such an assertion.

As to the headland theory which Republican senators had represented to have been long since abandoned by Great Britain, Mr. Saulsbury showed by quotations from American, English and Canadian public men that it had never been abandoned and never could be abandoned. Even Mr. Trescott, who had been very severe in his criticism of the pending treaty—a little mortified perhaps because he had not been employed as one of the negotiators—had acknowledged in 1876 that the headland question was then an existing question between the two Governments. He would not say that claim on the part of England was correct but only that she had steadily insisted upon it and that the assertion that she had withdrawn from it was contradicted by the repeated declarations of her public men. For nearly seventy years England had denied the right on the part of American fishermen to enter the bays and other waters over which her jurisdiction extended, except under treaties. The pending treaty settled that controversy and would, if ratified, prevent the possibility of disagreement between the two countries hereafter on that subject. Was it not a matter of great importance to settle disputes of long standing which had threatened to disturb amicable relations, and which remaining unsettled might result in peril not only the commerce but the peace of both countries?

He declared that the President could have made no settlement of the question that would have met the approval of a majority of Republican Senators. They would have agreed to no settlement that should have deprived them of the opportunity of appealing to the prejudices of a class of voters hostile to England. It was votes they wanted, not a settlement of the controversy. To what base uses had the senate come at last in abdicating its high functions as part of the treaty-making power and debasing and degrading its executive power to a political machine.

He defended the Secretary of State against the assaults made upon him by Republican Senators and declared that no man who has occupied that position has labored more honestly than he to promote the interests and maintain the honor of the country in its relations with foreign countries, and that but few of his predecessors had manifested an equal fidelity and ability in the discharge of their duties. "It might be," Mr. Saulsbury said, "that Mr. Bayard's success, in securing an honorable adjustment of a long standing controversy which his Republican predecessors had been unable to secure, had, in part at least, inspired such assaults upon his character and upon the treaty he negotiated.

At the close of Mr. Saulsbury's speech the treaty went over without action.

ONTARIO'S MINERAL WEALTH.

Increasing attention is being daily given to the vast mineral wealth of this province, and, as many natives of the province are ignorant of it great extent, it is no wonder that our exhibit at the Cincinnati Exposition creates much surprise. In reference to the position taken by Ontario, Hon. T. W. Anglin, the Commissioner for Ontario, says:

"Ontario alone makes a complete exhibit of minerals, and the number, the variety and the richness of the specimens which give testimony of the great mineral wealth of the Province, attract much attention. The visitors number hundreds every day, and the Commissioner and his assistant are kept busy answering the numerous inquiries. Many can scarcely be convinced that all the minerals are found in Ontario. They had no idea, they say, that Canada possessed such vast mineral wealth. Those, who, from their practical or theoretical knowledge of mineralogy or geology are best qualified to judge, are loudest and strongest in their expressions of admiration. Several have not hesitated to declare that no other exhibit can be compared with it, either for its intrinsic excellence, or for the admirable method of its arrangement, which is chiefly due to the good judgment and scientific knowledge of Mr. David Boyle and Prof. James. Natives of Canada, who number many among the visitors, express great pleasure to see this department of Ontario's resources so creditably displayed.

A few of the states might make a larger and finer exhibition of some minerals, but it may be doubted whether any one of them could prove that it possesses so great a variety, and such an abundance in high quality, of nearly all those minerals that have the greatest economic value. Everyone admires the rich specimens of free gold-bearing quartz, the numerous specimens of silver ore, of which some are surprisingly rich, the magnificent display of the ores of copper, iron, lead and zinc; the specimens of apatite, gypsum, lime marl, Roman cement, marbles, serpentine, granites, limestone, sandstone, bricks of various kinds, tiles, and of terra-cotta, whose beauty of design and finish are certain to catch the eye. Of the numerous specimens of mica, some are of extraordinary size, and some are nearly as clear as crystal. These invariably arrest the attention even of those who endeavor to "do" the whole Exposition in a day. The exhibit of "Petroleum and its products," twenty-eight in number, is not surpassed by anything of the kind anywhere. Good service has already been done in dispelling the ignorance and prejudice respecting Canada, its products and resources, which prevail almost universally throughout these States. "We never thought Canada was so rich." "We never imagined that Canada was such a country!" are the exclamations heard every moment, from persons highly educated and intelligent. Several inquiries have been made respecting the prices at which certain minerals may be purchased in Ontario, and the cheapest means of getting them brought to this and other parts of the United States, and it seems probable that, notwithstanding the almost prohibitory tariff, a market will be opened for many of the mineral resources of which Canada has an inexhaustible supply.

The Cincinatti Commercial Gazette referring to Ontario's contribution, speaks in the following complimentary strain:—

The Centennial Commissioners extended an invitation to the Government of the Province of Ontario to take part in our Exposition. The invitation was accepted and the result is now to be seen in the park building, where are shown over ten tons of the various minerals of Ontario, representing over four hundred distinct entries and over two thousand specimens. The exhibit is interesting and instructive. An idea is given of the mineral wealth of a country that Americans have not considered particularly rich in that respect, and because the minerals and ores are exhibited in their natural condition.

There is a magnificent collection of iron ore, hematite, magnetite and pyrites. Over forty mines are represented. This section should be of great interest to our manufacturers, and is well worth their close attention. Next comes copper, principally from the region of Sudbury and the north shore of Lake Superior, in the mines of which some of our U.S. citizens are financially interested. Lead and silver from the district north and west of Lake Superior are next observed. The mines, such as Beaver, Badger, Silver Mountain and Rabbit Mountain, are the centre of the silver deposits, and it is said that the Americans, who largely control them, are likely to reap rich rewards. Gold-bearing quartz is represented by a large pile. This comes from the Lake-of-the-Woods district, west of Lake Superior.

Zinc, arsenical ore, gypsum, baryta or heavy spar and lime also are on exhibition. Phosphate of lime is very prominently represented, there being shown one immense specimen weighing nearly half a ton. The Canadian phosphate of lime or apatite is exceedingly rich. Most of it is shipped to England, there being little demand as yet for it in the United States, owing to its value and extent being little understood. The mica display attracts much attention. In petroleum and its products are shown bottles of all the various grades of oil, from the black crude oil to the refined naphtha, while hard coke, wax, candles and axle-grease represent what may be termed the bye-products.

Terra cotta, tiles, red and white bricks are also exhibited. Of building stone, sandstones, limestones, marbles, granites and serpentines there is a very fine display. The most attractive, probably, in this connection are the black marbles and colored marbles.

The native silver, native gold and precious stones displayed in the cases are rich-looking and attractive and add very much to one's appreciation of the extent of the mineral wealth represented.

On the walls are geological and mineralogical maps of Ontario, a forestry map by Dr. Bell, of Ottawa, Ont., and three colored plates representing some original methods in the determination of minerals by the use of the blow-pipe. They represent the work of Dr. E. Haavel, of Victoria College, Cobourg, Ont.

Visitors are welcomed by those in charge and full information is cheerfully given. The intention of the exhibit is openly declared to be that of drawing the attention of U.S. capitalists to those rich deposits, that they may be developed to the benefit of the investors and of Ontario as well.

The Government of Ontario is represented by Hon. T. W. Anglin, of Toronto, assisted by Mr. David Boyle, Director of the Canadian Institute Museum, Toronto, and Prof. C. C. James, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. The success of the undertaking is largely due to Mr. A. Blue, of Toronto, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, who has the oversight of the mining interests of Ontario. Mr. Blue was in Cincinnati during the arrangement of the exhibit, but has just returned to Toronto.

The Ontario Government is to be highly commended for taking so active an interest in bringing the mineral resources so prominently before those whose capital may thus be enlisted in procuring their development.

Sanitary Convention.

Preparing for the Great Gathering at Lindsay—Features of the Programme.

Dr. P. Palmer Barrows, of Lindsay, the president of the Executive Association of Health Officers, reports that the sanitary convention advertised for the 14th, 15th and 16th of August is now an assured success. A large number of eminent scientists have already signified their intention of being present, and some very interesting practical papers are promised. It is expected that the 700 Local Boards of Health from Sarnia to Ottawa will be well represented. Dr. C. M. Hewitt, president of the American Public Health Association, will be here; also Drs. Roe, Bryce, Yeomans, Covernton, of the Ontario Provincial Board, and representatives of the Provincial Board of Health, Quebec, and the principal cities and towns in Ontario. Sheriff Dr. Sweetland, of Ottawa, Dr. Coventry, Windsor, ex-presidents of the Executive Association of Health Officers; Dr. Daniel Clarke, Medical Superintendent, Asylum for the Insane, Toronto; Dr. C. O'Reilly, Toronto General Hospital; Drs. Griffin, Brantford; Sangster, Port Perry; McLennan, Trenton, will be among them. Mayor Walters will welcome the meeting on behalf of the council, and his Honor Judge Dean will deliver a citizens' address on the morning of the 14th. A banquet and excursion, tendered by the council, to the favorite summer resort at Sturgeon Point, will fittingly close the convention. Attractive cards of invitation are already out. Programmes will be issued in a few days, and return railway tickets at a fare and a third, good for 15 days, can be had by applying to Dr. Barrows, Lindsay.

BEAUMARIS, July 27. There was very nearly a drowning accident here a day or so ago. Kee-way-den Island is situated about two miles out from Beaumaris and on this island are three cottages one occupied by Rev. Mr. Maitland, Ingersoll; Joseph Gibson, Postmaster at Ingersoll, and Messrs. McCaulay and Dundas and party; another by Mrs. Ross, Ingersoll; and the last by Rev. W. H. Laird, of the First Methodist Church, Hamilton and party. Wynnie Ross and Queenie Maitland were playing on the rocks at the edge of the water not far from the cottages, which are located a short distance apart, and Queenie, who is 8 years old, fell into the water, which was at that point 25 feet deep. Wynnie ran screaming to the house and Mrs. Maitland rushed wildly to the water's edge and without the slightest hesitation leaped in and seized her child. Mrs. Maitland was unable to swim and could not regain the rocks. Rev. Mr. Laird, who was the only man on the island at the time, heard the screams and hastened to the spot and reached out a long pole, which the drowning woman clutched and was drawn safely up, holding her child in her arms. When Mr. Laird arrived Mrs. Maitland had sunk twice, and but for his timely assistance both she and the child would most assuredly have met a watery grave. Both have entirely recovered from the effects of the shocking.

A Good Corn Sheller for 25 cents.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy, and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor —safe, sureand painless. Sold at druggists. 6dw30

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensible.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidmas, Ont. 5w29d

A Sad Loss.

Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dulness and debility, are of very frequent occurrence, Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digestion by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present. 2w29d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

Property Committee.

At a meeting of the Property Committee of the Board of Education last evening, it was decided to advertise at once for tenders for raising the walls of the shed north of the Central School, and also for the necessary excavating. This shed, when finished, will be made to answer the purpose of a gymnasium and also a play-room for the children in winter. The room in the basement of the school, which has formerly been used as a play-room, is too small and will be converted into a room for teaching.

Our Bicyclists Abroad.

The trio of touring cyclists, Messrs. Geo. Schofield, Vernon Halliday and Frank Kingan, who left town a short time since, are heard from through the Rochester, Lockport and Buffalo papers. They crossed the lake to Charlotte, wheeled to Rochester, from thence to Buffalo, thence to Lockport and will return home by Niagara. At all the above places the trio were handsomely and hospitably entertained by the local wheelmen.

Market Items.

The largest crowd attended the market this morning that has been there for some time. There were a few green apples, but the price asked was rather high. The prices asked were as follows:—Potatoes 30c. per peck, apples 20c. per measure (4 qts.), butter 21c. to 22c., eggs 15c. to 16c., cherries 10c. per quart, black currants 12c. and 13c., red currants 10c. per quart, raspberries from $1.25 to $1.40 per pail, peas 11c. per quart, celery 10c. to 15c. per bunch of 2 to 5 heads, carrots, onions, raddishes, etc., at the usual price of 5c. per bunch. There was a waggon-load of very beautiful plants and flowers at different prices. The prices given under this heading from time to time may not be the exact price at which the produce is sold, but it is the price asked. The selling price has been known to be less than the price asked in several cases.

Improvements.

Mr. J. Stevenson is making summer improvements to his storehouse property at the Midland station. The lane running at the rear of the range, from Charlotte to Simcoe street has been provided with new sliding gates. The storehouse injured by fire has been rebuilt and converted into coal sheds. In fact the increase of Mr. Stevenson's dusky diamond business demands increased space. This year already he has ordered 4,000 tons of coal and he thinks before the season is over his imports will amount to 8,000 tons. Though there is every season an increasingly large consumption of coal for domestic purposes, all this large quantity is not used in Peterborough. Mr. Stevenson supplies large quantities to surrounding towns and villages.

At a meeting of the Victoria County Rifle Association held in Lindsay last week, Major Sam Hughes was elected president for the ensuing year.

A Splendid Sample.

A gentleman from town was driving in Ennismore yesterday, and brought with him a splendid sample of fall wheat, taken from the stock. The berry was large and plump.

Raspberries.

The Omemee Herald says:—This delicious wild fruit is coming into Omemee at the rate of over a hundred quarts a day, and finds ready purchasers at 5c. per pound.

Olemia.

Civic Holiday.

The members of Court Little John are, we understand, contemplating an excursion to Toronto, via Port Hope, on the civic holiday, August 16th. Particulars hereafter.

A County Case.

This morning a Scott Act case was tried before County Police Magistrate Edmison. John Woods, of the township of Belmont, was fined $50 and costs.

Only Two Cases.

A case of diphtheria in Ashburnham was reported to the medical health officer this morning. This, and the one on Park street, are the only cases in the vicinity.

Lacrosse.

The Etna lacrosse club is trying to arrange a match with the Y.M.C.A club, but on account of so many being away on a camping tour, it is difficult to get a team together.

Put off prejudices and put in a good supply of choice Family Groceries from The Pantry.

Fly Time.

Flies have got to take an outside roost when the people protect themselves with those wire window screens and doors which are nicely framed and stained, and made to fit all sizes. Full stock at Kingan & Co's. eod.

Fruit Social.

A fruit social will be given by the Ladies Aid of the George street Methodist church on Thursday evening next, 2nd of August, in the grounds of the church. The Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance. Admission, 10 cents.

An Arch Burned.

One evening not long ago, one of the arches in Omemee, built for the Orangemen's celebration on the 12th, was set on fire by some person. The bushes were dry and burned very rapidly, making a very pretty sight. If the person should be caught it will be an expensive piece of fun for him.

Market Visitors.

Peterborough market attendance owes no small share of numbers to the arrivals by train. This morning about 50 came by C. P. R. from Norwood and Indian River way, a similar number by Grand Junction and another like number by the Midland main line.

Fine Beverage.

J. H. Gurd & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 18 lbs. good sugar, $1; tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. tw W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

On the Battlefield.

Captain Woodgate and Lieut. Stalliker received orders yesterday to "farewell" on Sunday evening and prepare to go to other parts of the battlefield. They will probably leave next week and a grand farewell will take place in the new barracks on Sunday night.

Bryce's Publications.

The latest publications of new novels of W. Bryce, Toronto, are the "Ironmaster," from the French of Geo. Ohnet, and "Geoffrey's Victory," by Mrs. George Sheldon, well printed, neatly bound in paper, and most entertaining summer reading. Of the former work 146,000 have been sold in France. At all the book stores, 25 and 30 cents respectively.

S. S. Convention.

A Sunday school convention will be held at Millbrook on August 7th in connection with the Methodist district meeting. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. M. L. Pearson, president of the conference, and the Rev. Messrs. S. J. Shorey, D. M. McCamus, F. Johnston, B. Greatrix and J. C. Bell, and Mr. H. S. Griffin.

For Stony Lake.

This morning there was not an unusual exodus to Stony Lake. Mrs. Robt. Hall and family and Miss Hall went up to Boschoinck. Mr. Harry Roper went up to join friends, and several American tourists also passed northward. It is probable a large number will make their escape from town by to-night's train.

A Four Fold Honour.

The High Chief Ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters has reappointed Mr. H. Watson, P.C.R., District Deputy High Chief Ranger for the West Riding of Peterborough. This is the fourth time in succession that this important office has been conferred upon Mr. Watson, and this fact proves that he has discharged its duties in the past with fidelity and acceptability.

Peterborough Gun Club.

Following is the score of the Peterborough Gun Club's practice shoot on Friday afternoon:—

R. Tivey	1	0	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	—9
H. Nell	1	1	1	1	1	0	1	1	1	—9
H. W. Keat	1	0	1	0	1	1	1	0	0	—5
N. Parker	1	1	1	0	1	1	1	1	0	—8
H. Calcutt	0	1	0	0	0	1	1	1	1	—5
R. G. Kingan	0	1	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	—3
J. E. McIntyre	0	0	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	—8

The gun club members are fast improving in their shooting. The above score, averaging 7 1/7, is not bad shooting.

"Sleepy Dan's" Doings.

A group of horsemen was this morning on the market square discussing the turf performances of Sleepy Dan so far this season, the first for him. It appears that he has been very successful—he has at least earned his oats—his winnings so far are $460. He has never been shut out at any meeting he has attended. At Montreal, in very fast company, he took second place in the three minute trot, and he would undoubtedly have taken first but for the accidental parting of his trace which, of course, lost him several valuable seconds. At Port Perry, he took first place on the first day in the three minute event, and next day led in the 2.45, and entered the same day in the open trot, just for fun, to fill the field, and took third place in a very close race the horses coming in almost neck and neck. At Cannington three straight heats brought him first money in the 2.50, although he had to pull against F.O.P. and Toronto and Hamilton horses. He also captured second money in the 2.40 trot. Sleepy Dan's triumphs are, perhaps, not yet over this year; he is entered for the Toronto and St. Catharines meetings, which take place the latter part of August.

Church Chimes.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—At St. Peter's Cathedral, Roman Catholic, there will be two masses celebrated, the first at 8 a.m., the second at 10.30 a.m. Vespers at 7 p. m.

Laymen's evangelistic services for to-morrow are as follows:—Jail, 9.30 a. m.; Protestant Home, 2 p. m.; Nassau, 7 p. m.; North Monaghan, 7 p. m. All are invited.

Services will be conducted in the Methodist church, Ashburnham, to-morrow by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Wilson. 11 a.m., subject, "Results of Honoring and Dishonoring God." 7 p.m., subject, "Our Lord's Ejection from Home by His Mother (Virgin Mary) and His brothers." All are welcome, pews all free. Sacramental services next Lord's Day and morning prayer-meeting from 7 to 8.

At the Baptist church, Sunday, Rev. D. Reidlek, of Port Hope, will preach morning and evening, services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Strangers are cordially invited to attend and will be made welcome and shown shown to a seat.

At the Charlotte-street Methodist church on Sunday the pastor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, will conduct the services both morning and evening. Strangers are cordially invited to attend.

The pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearson, will preach in the George street Methodist church, Sunday, July 29th, both morning and evening. Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Strangers are cordially invited to attend and will be made welcome.

Personal.

Mrs. Wm. Long, Codrington, Northumberland county, is in town visiting friends.

Prof. Weese and family, of Toronto, are registered at the Grand Central.

Miss Minnie Hurley is spending the holiday season in Napanee.

Mr. John Walsh, of Asphodel, warden of the county, is in town to-day.

Messrs. Judge Weller and Donald Edwards went north to the A.C.A. camp, Lrke Couchiching, this morning.

The LeBrun Hackett party, the E.B. Stone party and the Leonard-O'Brien party arrived home last night from Stony Lake.

Mr. P. J. Daly, brother of Mr. F. J. Daly, of the Grand Central, and Mr. Charlie Potter, both of Rochester, arrived in town to-day for a fortnight's recreation.

Mr. Geo. A. McBain, of this town, who has been visiting with his wife's relatives at Woodstock for some time, left that place on Wednesday morning for the Pacific Coast.

Mr. Wm. Jackson, Peterborough, has been on a tour to the North Shore and Penetanguishene. He says lumbering operations are being carried on to a great extent, that there is plenty of work and that the crops are looking well.

Mr. W. A. Dixon returned home from Sault Ste. Marie on Friday morning. He reports building as being very active. [illegible] being no boats, but a number [illegible]. The harvest [illegible]. Good Wages paid—[illegible] Immediately. Apply to Mitchell & SULLIVAN, Brock street, or at M. Sullivan [illegible] & Co's store, [illegible] street. d171

[illegible] pushed forward. [illegible] regular passenger trains and has a large [illegible] yard in which there are being laid 16 [illegible]. Mr. Dixon expects to return to the Sault in three weeks.

Mr. John Millar, of Otonabee, returned home from Pethshire, Scotland, on Wednesday last after being absent for about two months on a visit to his brother. He reports the crops in his native county as being first class. While in Glasgow he visited the International Exhibition, and saw the great mammoth Jumbo Cheese, weighing 5,434 lbs. To manufacture one of these large cheese required milk from 4,250 cows, the milk weighed about 53,060 lbs., equivalent to nearly 27 tons, or 6,250 gallons. Mr. Millar is greatly pleased with his visit.

Protest Against Pauper Immigration—The Currency Question.

LINDSAY, July 27.—District Assembly No. 236 has been in session here during the past two days, being attended by representatives from Gravenhurst, Midland, Port Perry, Lindsay, Uxbridge, and Peterborough, which was represented by Mr. Geo. Ball, Master Workman Assembly No. 6952, and Mr. Z. B. D. LaFleur, and a considerable amount of important work has been transacted. District Master Workman Elliott, of Uxbridge, was unanimously elected to represent the district at the general assembly to be held at Indianapolis in November next. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved: That we the delegates of the various local assemblies in session at Lindsay, do condemn the indiscriminate landing on our shores of pauper and other undesirable immigrants, and are of opinion that Parliament should pass a bill enabling the Government to deal with this question, and remove the evils complained of.

Whereas, the time has arrived when the system of paying registrars of county courts, clerks and bailiffs should be changed, therefore it is resolved that in the opinion of this district assembly the said officers should be paid on fixed salary, and that all fees be returned to the County Treasurer.

That this district assembly call the attention of members of Parliament to the vast importance of that body issuing all the currency, and establishing a National bank, and that all benefits derived therefrom should go directly to the people.

The factory act was considered and a resolution favoring its amendment so as to include those employed in shops, adopted.

A resolution was also adopted favoring the establishment of a government board of arbitration to consider and adjust difficulties between employes and employers, with a view of preventing strikes. A resolution favoring the abolition of tax-exemption was passed.

The next meeting will be held in Peterborough on the last Thursday in January, 1889, and the selection of a representative to the Dominion Trades and Labor Council, to be held in London in September, was left to Peterborough Assembly.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, July 28.

At the police court this morning John Powers was charged with being drunk in a public place. He pleaded not guilty, and, after hearing the evidence against him, the magistrate said he would let him go this time.

There were also nine Scott Act cases, and all but one, McFarlane, were fined $50 and costs each. McFarlane's case was enlarged until Tuesday. The others were Connors, Snowden, Dunn, Chamberlain, Hamilton, Rush, Cameron and Garvey. They all pleaded guilty.

Crops in Smith.

The reports for Smith township this year are encouraging. Fall wheat where not winter killed is turning out well. Spring wheat though short in the straw is filling well. Oats are far more than meeting expectations. Hay is light though in some instances fully equal to last year. Pasturage is destroyed, and farmers who want to keep up the flow of milk have to feed their stock some green crop. Throughout the township it is thought that farmers will have enough to winter their stock, though some will have to sell before winter. The apple crop was very badly hurt by the recent windstorm, which covered the ground with unripe fruit. There will be a great scarcity of plums and small fruits are nothing to boast of. Potatoes seem to be growing well, but they, as well as other root crops, need rain soon to give any sort of a yield.

Ennismore.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CROP REPORT.—The crops in this locality, after careful enquiry and personal observation we would find about the following correct:—Hay not more than 50 per cent. of an average crop; fall wheat well headed but thin on the ground, 85, but it must be remembered we don't include what has spring wheat sown amongst it; barley will go about 75, a great many of the fields have not ripened regularly, consequently injuring the sample of the grain. Spring wheat 70, straw long enough but thin on the ground. Oats, owing to our late local showers, may come about 85. Peas, like the oats, is benefitted by the rain and will reach 80; potatoes although looking well above the ground have a poor prospect so far of a good yield; a good many of the turnips is not thinned yet. Taking all into consideration, I believe our farmers will not receive more than two-thirds of an average, including seed and labour. Fruit will not come up to our expectations owing to the gales blowing so many of the young fruit off, and in winter the scarcity of feed will be severely felt; all caused through the long continued drought. The Dominion Government would confer a blessing on the farmers if they would allow corn and oats to come in free of duty for six months at least.

Millis' Tourists.

Mr. Fred. W. Millis, the Australian humorist, and monarch of ventriloquists, with a select company of artistic specialists, the whole combined in "Millis' Tourists," will give one of their rich, racy, varied, bright, sparkling and original entertainments in Bradburn's Opera House on Tuesday evening, July 31st. The entertainment consists of wonderfully illusive sleight-of-hand feats, unrivalled ventriloquism, popular music, the black art, etc., etc. The company brings the highest testimonials, as, for instance, the Mail, Toronto, which says: "Everyone appeared to be well satisfied with Fred W. The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Good wife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

THE ALLEGED SENDING BACK OF CANADIANS FROM PT. HURON.

Further Enquiry to be Made by the Department of Customs—The Food Adulteration Act to be Vigorously Enforced —Disastrous Bush Fires.

OTTAWA, July 29.—On being shown yesterday a telegram from Pt. Huron, Mich., reasserting that Canadian employes on the Grand Trunk had been forced to cross the line, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, said, "I know nothing beyond what has been received from the Collector of Customs at Sarnia. He forwarded a report denying the statement that Canadian workmen had been sent back. However, I intend to make further enquiry."

Gen. Middleton, on being asked yesterday what he thought about the Guards' difficulty, said that he could not express any opinion as he had heard nothing about it beyond what had appeared in the papers. No resignations had been reported to him.

It is understood that no more analyses will be made by the Department of Inland Revenue this year. Next year it is said the Department will vigorously enforce the Food Adulteration Act. Traders will by that time have had sufficient opportunity to make themselves familiar with the act and will have only themselves to blame if they get caught.

The Department of Justice has received notice from Judge Johnson that he has issued a warrant for the arrest of Bergin, the Baltimore forger, now held in Montreal.

It is reported that Sheriff Coultlee of Ottawa County, who is about 80 years old, is anxious to retire. It is said that his successor will be C. B. Major of Hull.

Bush fires are again very troublesome in this section and two large ones could be seen from Parliament Hill to-day, one back of Hull and the other apparently on the line of the Canada Atlantic.

THE N.P.R.R. NEGOTIATIONS.

Nothing Definite Known at Winnipeg as to the Arrangement.

WINNIPEG, July 29.—Nothing has been heard from New York respecting the negotiations with the Northern Pacific beyond the announcement in the Associated Press dispatch that they have been consummated. The members of the Government here have not received any information of the details of the deal, but it is stated that the agreement involves $6500 guarantee of bonds per mile, instead of $5000, and that the Legislature will be called before harvest to pass the necessary legislation to charter another company, as the bonds cannot legally issue to the Northern Pacific nor does the Manitoba Central charter cover all the territory the Northern Pacific intends to possess.

Archer, the principal in the criminal assault case at Donald, was shot dead by Kennedy, one of the witnesses, who claimed he did it in self-defence.

A heavy discount, ranging from 3 to 20 per cent. has been placed on American silver.

It is believed that Mayor Jones' resignation will not be accepted.

THE BULGARIAN THRONE.

PRINCE WALDEMAR LIKELY TO ASSUME THE SCEPTRE.

Emperor William's Movements—Germany's Friendly Relations with the Scandinavian Races—The Kaiser Will Not Go to Rome—The Political Situation.

BERLIN, July 29.—The movements of Emperor William and his party after their visit to Copenhagen are timed so that they will arrive at Kiel on Monday next. On Tuesday His Majesty will hold a naval review, the leading feature of the manoeuvers being a test of the powers of torpedo boats.

The interview between Emperor William and King Christian of Denmark has a special importance as associated with the settlement of a family question, connected with the Bulgarian throne. The Czar appears to have given his assent to the creation of a Bulgarian monarchy, with either Prince Waldemar, the youngest son of King Christian, or the Duke of Cumberland on the throne. The Duke of Cumberland has decisively rejected the offer, which was made to him through Prince Bismarck. In his note refusing to accept the Crown he declares that the proposal is an insult to him as the legitimate King of Hanover, and expresses the hope that he is destined to see the King of Prussia reduced to his proper level. King Christian of Denmark advises Prince Waldemar to accept the throne of Bulgaria if the entente between the European powers is perfect. King George of Greece, the brother of Prince Waldemar, opposes his candidature. Important events are certain to take place if Greece and Bulgaria come into conflict.

The National Zeitung, in a semi-official article, declares that the Imperial visit to Stockholm and Copenhagen is a pledge for the re-establishment of friendly relations by Germany with the Scandinavian races.

With reference to Prince Ferdinand, it has been decided that he shall be assisted to maintain his position in Bulgaria. Last evening's Svoboda, the official organ of the Sofia government, declares that the abdication of Prince Ferdinand does not depend upon the will of any power whatever: that he was raised to the throne by the Bulgarian nation and will remain as long as he preserves the affection and confidence of the people.

The Russian Government distrusts more than ever Prince Bismarck's diplomacy with reference to Bulgaria. The Moscow Gazette and The Svet are no longer content with demanding the deposition of Prince Ferdinand from the throne of Bulgaria as a guarantee of Germany's good faith, but demand that Prince Bismarck be first dismissed. It is notable as illustrating how little the effect of the Emperor William's visit to St. Petersburg modified the anti-German hostility seen in the articles of the Pan-Slavist press.

The protest of the Vatican against the visit of Emperor William at Rome has proved effectual. One result of the Vatican's diplomatic triumph is that Minister Crispi has sent instructions to the Italian Embassy in Paris to invigorate the negotiations for a commercial treaty with France. Berlin official circles strongly distrust the Italian Government on account of its relations with France.

The approaching elections to the Landtag cause the difference between the National Liberals and the Conservatives now forming a majority to become more distinctly indicated. The National Liberals, hoping to obtain the preponderance, are disposed to break the alliance with the Conservative leaders, who are disinclined to renew the coalition agreed upon early last year.

NATALIE AND THE CZAR.

Endeavoring to Arrange an Interview—Elopement of a Liverpool Heiress.

LONDON, July 28.—Queen Natalie of Servia, has announced her intention of shortly taking a trip to Odessa, where the body of her father, Colonel Keshko, is buried. Her Russian friends, and they are many and powerful, are making efforts to arrange a meeting between her and the Czar during the latter's forthcoming visit to Livadia and it is likely that the interview will take place.

The jury in the inquest on the body of Mr. Mandeville discussed for some time the question of returning a verdict of murder against Dr. Barr, and had the Parnellite members of the body pressed their arguments in favor of such a verdict it would undoubtedly have been rendered. The leaders of the Home Rule element of the jury however decided that a verdict of general censure of the jail officials together with the suicide of Dr. Ridley would be sufficiently strong object lessons to the British electorate to accomplish the needed reforms and establish the brutality of the treatment to which Irish political prisoners are subjected.

Miss Lucy Rostron, daughter of a Liverpool merchant and heiress to £20,000, eloped on Thursday with a stable groom named Aspin who is married and the father of five children. The father and brothers of the girl started in pursuit and overtook the couple on board of the steamship Bothnia at Queenstown yesterday as they were about to sail for America. The girl when confronted with the gloomy prospect of living from hand to mouth in a strange country repented and returned home. The groom was allowed to go his way.

C. B. Johnston of Boston Proposes to Swim the Niagara Whirlpool To-Day.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 29.—Invitations have been issued by C. B. Johnston of Boston, Mass., to witness him swim the Whirlpool Rapids on Monday afternoon in a patent rubber suit.

Yesterday the body of a man was seen floating about the Whirlpool. This afternoon about 4 o'clock it was carried by the current close to the shore. A rope was attached to a young man named Tims and he swam out from the Canadian shore, caught the body and pulled it to the shore where it now lies. It is that of a young man about 25 years old who would weigh from 140 to 150 pounds. The deceased was apparently of a sandy complexion. His hair is cut very short and the face is smooth. The body is badly bloated and has apparently been in the water some time. The coroner was notified.

CAUGHT THROUGH HIS UNCLE.

A Man Arrested at Detroit for Disposing of Goods Stolen in Canada.

DETROIT, July 29.—Some days ago a letter reached police headquarters from G. W. Scott, residing at Point Edward, Ont., setting forth that his house had been entered on July 13 and jewelry and clothing to the value of over $500 carried away. Among the jewelry was a Scotch pebble chain, locket, bracelets, earrings, brooches, etc., all of genuine gold and quite antique. Detectives Boberitz and Baker a few days ago discovered some of the missing jewels where they had been disposed of in this city, and, finding that the robber was in the city, laid their plans to secure him. At the places where the stolen property had been sold and pledged they obtained as accurate a description of the man as possible, and yesterday, on the market, arrested a man whose general appearance answered the description. At the detective bureau, where he was searched, a large number of the stolen articles were found in his possession. He was locked up under the name of Charles Cliff, 36 years old and residing in Massachusetts. He is a stranger to the police and the rogue's gallery does not contain his portrait.

BRODIE, THE BRIDGE JUMPER.

His Girl Makes a Desperate Attempt to Kill Herself.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Steve Brodie, the bridge jumper and Bowery saloonkeeper, and the Albany girl, whom he is accused of abducting, were arraigned at the Tombs' Police Court to-day before Justice Kilbreth. The girl's mother, Mrs. Laura Ford, of Albany, was present and admitted that the girl was 16 years old. The charge of abduction, therefore, fell through. It was then decided to hold the girl as an incorrigible, and while waiting removal to the House of Mercy the girl made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt to plunge the blade of a penknife into her breast. Had not Officer Patten caught her arm she would have succeeded in her design. She then remarked defiantly: "Well, either I'll be allowed to go with Steve, or I'll do it yet."

LIBERATED AT LAST.

John Anderson Taken From the Well in Which He Spent Nine Days.

JOHNSTOWN, Neb., July 28.—At early dawn this morning the rescuing party resumed its labors at the living tomb of John Anderson. A box eighteen inches long and ten by twelve inches square, was thrust through the opening to the boards that were protecting him and an opening made to it. Anderson stripped himself and attaching a rope to his body was drawn through the aperture to his rescuers, where he was again dressed and drawn to the upper air. He seemed cheerful and wanted to walk, but by the advice of physicians was carried to a house and placed under the care of Drs. Farleigh and Reine, who pronounced him as doing well and as almost certain to recover. He was in the well nine days.

A Cyclone in the Northwest.

ST. PAUL, July 28.—Very hot weather, accompanied by local storms, has prevailed in the Northwest to-day. The Pioneer Press has information that a cyclone at Plainview, near Rochester, Minn., this afternoon, wrecked several houses, but so far as known killed no one. Details are lacking. During a thunderstorm at Brown's Valley, Mrs. Estelle, wife of a farmer, was killed by lightning.

Canal Tolls Upon Canadian Vessels.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Mr. Dingley of Maine presented in the House to-day a bill providing for tolls upon Canadian vessels passing through the Ste. Mary's and St. Clair Flats Canals in case of discrimination on Canadian canals against vessels or ports of the United States. Referred to the Committee on Merchant Marine.

Hoge and Murphy Held for Trial.

CHICAGO, July 28.—The cases of Chairmen Hoge and Murphy charged with being implicated in the Burlington dynamite conspiracy were called in court this morning. The prisoners were represented by ex-Judge Barnum who stated that his clients would waive examination and asked that the bail formerly given be allowed to stand for their appearance. In the absence of any opposition from the prosecution this was done. The informers, Kelly and McGilvary, Hoge's clerks, followed suit, waiving examination and being held on their former bonds.

A Youthful Chicago Horsethief.

CHICAGO, July 29.—The police have captured a 16-year-old robber named Brown, whose achievements in the horsestealing line are unparalleled. So far 25 stolen horses and eight stolen vehicles have been recovered.

A Pittsburg Enterprise.

PITTSBURG, July 29, A company was formed in this city last evening, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, the object being to open a tin mine in Mexico, near Durango.

Typesetting Feats of the Montreal Champs.

MONTREAL, July 29—At the French printers' picnic yesterday, the English types-setting match was won by W. Bell of The Witness, who set 1794 ems in one hour without correcting, J. Glennon being only 78 ems behind. The French match was won by M. Belair, who set about the same amount of matter as Bell.

Peculiar Accident.

MARKDALE, July 28.—Michael Sweeney, a farmer of Glenelg, was killed yesterday while endeavoring to pass beneath a tree on a load of hay. He was caught across the face by a swinging limb and thrown to the ground, receiving injuries that rapidly proved fatal.

NEWS FROM THE SKEENA.

ARRIVAL OF H.M.S. CAROLINE AT ESQUIMALT.

Details of the Affrays Which Led up to the Present Difficulties—A Detachment Sent on to Hazelton—C Battery at the Mouth of the Skeena.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 29.—H.M.S. Caroline, Capt. Sir William Wiseman, arrived at Esquimault from Skeena this evening with the latest news concerning the Indian trouble. The Caroline arrived at the entrance to the Skeena on July 19. Information was first sought as to the condition of affairs at Hazelton which is 140 miles from the mouth of the river and distant 10 days by canoe, the river being a mad torrent enclosed by lofty canyons. Mate Harkin, who arrived the day before from Hazelton, stated that the reports about the Hudson Bay Company's agent and others were totally unfounded. With the exception of the missionary at Hazelton all the white residents had entered the shelter formed by the barricaded Hudson Bay Company's post.

The Indians' demeanor was threatening and they were still excited over the killing of Kit-Wun-Cool-Jim by Constable Green, who is now said to be a deserter from the American army. It was the opinion of Harkin that serious trouble would probably ensue unless special police immediately proceeded to Hazelton.

Two more Indians had been killed in a fight caused by some trival feud. A letter from Constable Washburn at Hazelton, sent no the Government, contains an account of the killing of these two men. An Indian famed Tobias Shot, father-in-law of Kit-Wun-Cool-Jim, then went mad, threatening to kill the head chief of another tribe. The latter claims self-defence compelled him to kill Tobas, which he did. Washburn and three constables went to the village, arrested him and have him in charge at Hazelton.

Green is also under arrest for killing Jim. From the statement of an Indian eye witness it would appear that Green wantonly shot Jim. The latter in a house with a dozen others twice asked three constables to arrest him. He had a pistol in his hand and they did not move. Jim suddenly walked out of the back door, the constables after him. Green went out the front door almost colliding with Jim whom, when he passed, he shot in the back. Jim lived an hour. It is claimed that he was about to give himself into custody when the shot was fired. Green's action is generally condemned and he will be tried for manslaughter.

The day after the arrival of the Caroline the steamer Boscowitz arrived with Supt. Royerott on board, and after some difficulty in securing a crew of six Indians, Royerott and twelve special constables started up the river for Hazelton. The trip will take nine or ten days up and as soon as the facts are ascertained a messenger will be forwarded to Commandant Holmes of C Battery. If trouble occurs the battery will at once start up the river. The battery at Port Essington, at the mouth of the river.

A DISHONEST BROKER.

Montrealers Victimized to the Tune of Nearly $10,000.

MONTREAL, July 29. Some time ago a certain broker who has been and is well known in town started a grain and provision brokerage business not very far from McGill-street, and did a good business. Of late, however, matters do not appear to have been kept quite straight, and for the last day or two rumors have been current that trouble was impending. From what can be ascertained at present, the facts seem to be that several customers, including two prominent produce merchants, put up margins on deals in Chicago, ranging in amount from $900 to $1,600, which, if properly placed, would have proven profitable. The broker, however, instead of utilizing the margins for his customers, speculated with it on his own account and finding that he was becoming heavily involved determined to wind up in good style by temporarily retiring from the public gaze until the remainder of the margins has been called. It is understood that several large deals are still outstanding and the broker's customers despair of ever seeing a cent of their money, especially as the Chicago firms through whom the deals were supposed to have been made have repudiated connection with the broker. The margins put up by customers certainly exceed $5000 and may even reach $10,000, for which there is little hope of recovery.

HACKED HIS HEAD TO PIECES.

Fatal Quarrel between Two Lumbermen at Sable River.

SUDBURY JUNCTION, July 28.—Great excitement prevails along the Algoma branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, owing to a sensational fight that occurred at Sable River Thursday evening, between a man named Robert O'Connell, a lumberman of Mattawa, and another named Wilson. It appears that the two had a dispute that culminated in a fearful assault upon each other at the lumber camp at Mossey, and O'Connell, picking up a shovel, literally hacked Wilson's head to pieces. Wilson is dead. After the fight O'Connell took to the bush and is now being pursued by men of the camp, who declare that they will lynch him should he be found. The chief of police and a detective have left to endeavor to get O'Connell before the campmen lay hands upon him. The murderer is known unfavorably to the police here as a desperate character who will not hesitate to kill anyone attempting to effect his arrest. Trouble is expected.

Sudden Death at Galt.

GALT, July 29.—Edward Edwards, aged 43, an employe at Goldie & McCulloch's safe works, died very suddenly at his residence last night. Mr. Edwards was secretary for the Forester's Society and remained up late writing. Mrs. Edwards retired at the usual hour and awoke between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning. Finding her husband had no come to bed she went to see what was keeping him. She was horrified to find him cold in death, sitting in the chair with his hands folded apparently sleeping. A doctor was sent for, who said that death had occurred four hours previous, and was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain. Mrs. Edwards is in delicate health, and is left with five children, the eldest 14 years of age.

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1888.

BUSINESS OF THE WEEK.

Cheap money continues to be the cry in the leading commercial centres. The effect is seen in the higher prices of bonds and other investment issues. There is a steady demand for all first-class securities, and the loans effected in London since the beginning of the year are something enormous. From January 1st the new issues amount to £116,396,450 as compared with £72,669,000 for the corresponding period of last year, £98,066,000 for the twelve months of 1887, and £101,074,000 during the year 1886. Foreign Government bonds have had a continuous advance in prices this year, and from this it would seem to follow that the political outlook was bright and that there would be a long continued peace. But, says the London Economist, the political aspect of affairs on the Continent is anything but bright or free from complications. Vast sums are being expended upon arms and fortifications; fresh difficulties are constantly giving rise to apprehensions, and the Eastern question seems to be as far off from settlement as ever. And yet the bonds of the States which would be most effected by the breaking out of hostilities have been moving upward with scarcely a check. It is true, of course, that in most of these bonds very little business has been transacted upon the London Stock Exchange for a year or two past, and that the exchanges of prices here are usually a mere reflex of the fluctuations upon the chief European bourses.

Gold is being withdrawn from the Bank of England to be taken to South America, and capital is being steadily absorbed in connetion with the multitude of new undertakings that are being launched. All these are influences that work in the direction of dearer money, and it is difficult to see anything that tends to counteract them. The season is approaching when the United States are likely to draw gold from Britain.

The Postoffice Savings Bank statement shows that the total number of accounts at the end of the fiscal year was 101,693, and that the total amount standing to the credit of depositors was $20,689,000. This is an increase of a million and a quarter over last year. There is little said about the Government's intended action in respect to a reduction of the rate of interest on these deposits, and it seems probable that the 4 per cent. rate will be continued. In the present condition of the money market bankers find it unprofitable to pay 4 per cent. on deposits, and it is reported that in many instances they have notified depositors that 3 per cent was all they could expect after the 1st prox.

On our local Stock Exchange the dealings in Northwest Land Co. shares have been heavier than usual. This has been accompanied by higher prices and since Monday these shares have risen from 54s. to 59s. The movement is in sympathy with the British markets, which have been very strong of late. Orders on British account were filled here and a further advance is not improbable. The advance is based on good prospective reports for the company. Immigration is larger than usual this year, and from Great Britain to Canada it is relatively much greater than to the United States.

A good many dry-goods for the autumn trade are being distributed just now to merchants in the country. Very fair orders are reported as coming in for the leading staples, and although merchants are hopeful they are not over-sanguine. Prices are said to continue steady. A private despatch from Montreal says that Mr. Gibson, of Marysville, has gone into the combination. No advance in cotton is anticipated for the present, but the association will try and maintain quotations. It is expected that the Customs returns will show another big falling off in cotton and woollens this month.

A very unsatisfactory business is reported in boots and shoes. There is considerable competition from the east, and stocks everywhere are heavy. There is little profit in the sale of goods, and the best houses will not push trade until the cereal crops are assured. Payments are said to be very backward.

Generally speaking, the grain crops of Ontario north and west of Port Hope are very favorable. The month just ending has been most propitious, and a heavier yield than for years is expected in some localities for spring wheat and barley. Late rains have been of immense benefit to oats and peas. In the eastern part of the Province, from the point mentioned above, reports are less satisfactory. The drought has been severe, entailing a great deal of disaster to crops and suffering to live stock. In Manitoba and the Northwest glowing accounts of the crops continue to be received. The only danger to the wheat now is frost, and the greatest crop on record is looked for. The building of the new railway to connect with the Northern Pacific will make competition, and it is to be hoped that the farmers in these Prairie Provinces will now realize their fair share of profits.—Globe.

A Million on a Life.

John Wanamaker Carries the Highest Risks in the World.

The greatest achievement in the history of life insurance has been made by Mr. John Wanamaker, who is now paying premiums on $1,000,000 to 29 different companies. The last policy issued on his life was received by him on Thursday last and so far as is known there is no other man in the world whose life is insured for such an enormous amount. There are a number of men in this city who have been trying for years to achieve the point just gained by Mr. Wanamaker, but they have so far failed, although John B. Stetson, the hat manufacturer, has succeeded in getting policies on his life amounting to $750,000. He is desirous of putting the amount up to a round million. The risks on Mr. Wanamaker's life are divided equally into life and fifteen-year endowments and he pays over $60,000 annually in premiums to the different companies in which his risks are placed. In the matter of paying premiums he is outdone by Mr. Stetson, who pays $65,000 in the same length of time, but the difference is accounted for by the fact that besides paying the premiums on the risks on his own life he also pays those on the lives of his business manager and his son-in-law, both of whom he has insured for $100,000 each, besides holding policies for large amounts on other people's lives. Should Mr. Wanamaker allow the annual dividends to go uncollected until the risks on his life expire he will be entitled to about $1,400,000.—Philadelphia Record.

Summer Supplies

—FOR—

The Camp, Pic-nic or Home.

With the philanthropic object of reducing the amount of Cooking to be done to the lowest possible notch, we have laid in a large assortment of Superior Canned Goods. These are all first class articles, well put up and thoroughly reliable, else we would not offer them as we do, with the fullest confidence that they will give satisfaction.

Parties ordering in bulk from us will have their goods delivered to a reasonable distance by rail or boat free of charge. This will prove a great convenience, as they may be sent on a day ahead, thus saving a great deal of money and labor. Below we furnish a partial list of these supplies:

Canned Beef
Canned Ox Tongue
Canned Tomatoes
Canned Peas
Canned Corn
Canned Salmon
Canned Mackerel
Canned Sardines
Boneless Turkeys & Chickens
Condensed Milk
Relishes of all Kinds
Spiced Bacon and Bologna

PYRAMIDS OF FACTS

Why DOUGH BROS., the Wonderful Cheap Men, are on TOP OF THE HEAP!

Why the Giant Clothiers Knock the Sox off the Combined 12 Triffers with the Clothing Trade.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

FIRST.—Buying for Spot Cash, thereby convincing the Wholesale Men that we command the Market.
SECOND.—Selling Goods Cheaper Retail than the Handicap Dealers who are under the Thumb of Wholesale Men can buy for.
THIRD.—Carrying the LARGEST Stock of CLOTHING of any house between Montreal & Toronto thereby giving the Customer the benefit of buying largely.
FOURTH.—Goughs sell FINE WORSTEDS for $6.90, worth $13.00. Tweed Suits for $3.80 worth $8.00. "They sell Boys' Suits for 58c., Elegant Goods. They sell Boy's Coats for 19c. A customer remarked the Goods, well, really gentle men, you are without doubt, the Kings of original Wonderful Cheap Men."
FIFTH.—Men's Working Pants 17c.
SIXTH.—Do we offer Baits? Some Dealers say our Prices are only Baits thrown out to catch! Why bless them! GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of small Profits Goods are all Baits. They don't Fish with a bare hook. Their offers touch bottom in Clothing Prices, and that's what makes all the High Priced Clothing Sharks wriggle and squirm

FURNISHING GOODS and SUMMER COATS and VESTS.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$109,482 69	$1,149,743 09
1876 to 1880, four years	38,560 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,902,924 99
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 99	475,807 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

BEDFORD'S (N. S.) BIG BLAZE.

Destruction of a Planing Mill, a Grist Mill and an Elevator.

HALIFAX, July 29.—Richardson's planing mill and Moir, Son & Co.'s big grist mill and elevator at Bedford were destroyed by fire early this morning. The fire started in Richardson's building and is supposed to have been incendiary.

Moir, Son & Co.'s loss on their elevator and grist mill is $40,000 with only $2,000 insurance. Richardson's loss on his planing mill is $4,000 or $5,000.

Incendiary Fire at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 29.—At an early hour this morning fire broke out at Donat & Major's boarding house in Common-street and spread to the Basin Hotel next. While the firemen were at work here flames were noticed issuing from the stables adjoining, owned by a carter named Boylan and when the firemen went over to them they found the proprietor with a can of oil pouring it around. He was arrested and taken to the police station on a charge of arson. His stables have been on fire before, but the incendiary could never be caught.

Another Big Failure at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 28.—Nathan Kennedy, a live stock importer, made an assignment to-day. His liabilities are about $150,000.

An Old Time Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy. 2w29d

A Dying Wish

to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances. 2w29d

Indispensable.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont. 5w29d

A Sad Loss.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Be Prepared.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve. 2w29d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Grand Farewell.

A grand farewell meeting took place at the Salvation Army barracks Sunday night, Captain Woodgate and Lieut. Stolliker are about to leave for other parts of the battlefield. An audience of about 800 was present. The meeting was led by Adjt. Bolton, of Toronto, who is in town for a short time. He preached a short sermon, taking for his text, Acts xxiv., 24. Several others then assisted in the meeting.

Lacrosse Notes.

The Peterborough Ætnas have written to Lindsay to make arrangements for a match with the Y.M.C.A. club of that place. They have not yet received an answer.

There is some talk of a match between the second twelve of the Y. M. C. A. clubs of Peterborough and Port Hope.

All the clubs of the town are somewhat thinned out on account of so many being away at the camps.

Flowers for the Hospital.

On Mondays and Tuesdays gardener McLennan trims his flower plants and has to sacrifice a large amount of flowers which could be converted into bouquets, which would cheer suffering patients in the hospital. Mr. McLennan would be glad to co-operate with any kind hearted ladies who would visit the park on the above days and make up the bouquets.

Flower Stealing.

A morning or two ago Gardener McLennan, on coming to his duties, observed that one of his flower beds had been despoiled of two of the finest geraniums, leaving an unsightly gap. The meanness of such a theft cannot be too severely characterized, and Mr. McLennan wishes to say to parties who feel themselves unable to resist the temptation to commit such a despicable theft, that, if they apply to him and state the circumstances, he will supply them with slips from his choicest plants.

The Boodler Bailed.

Charles C. Nelson, the Atlanta boodler arrested at Campbellford, was before Magistrate Gordon, at Trenton, Saturday. All the claims against the prisoner were satisfied, Nelson's friends coming to the rescue. The Atlanta parties gave Chief Hinds $500 for the arrest and returned home. Mr. Henderson, Q.C., is very indignant at the manner in which the Atlanta parties acted in prostituting the Canadian courts by using them for the purpose of forcing Nelson to a settlement, and demanded that Nelson be still held on the charges preferred against him. The prisoner gave bail to appear on Tuesday, when if no one appears against him he will of necessity have to be discharged.

A Painful Accident.

Mrs. A. L. Davis met with a painful accident at the Burleigh locks Saturday afternoon. She and Mr. Davis are camped on Stony Lake and were inspecting the locks. In passing by the ponderous crank attachment that operates the sluices, her dress caught and dragged out of position a small wooden plug that checks the crank. The cog wheels instantly began revolving, and, on the impulse of the moment, Mrs. Davis put out her hand to stop their motion. The cogs caught the fleshy part of the hand, between the first finger and the thumb, and cruelly lacerated it. There were no doctors within reach, and surgical attendance could not be had till late at night. Mrs. Davis was brought down the same night, and it is expected the wounded hand will heal in two or three weeks.

Nearly an Accident.

At the railway crossing on Hunter street this morning, two horses were frightened by an engine. One of the horses reared on its hind feet and its fore feet became entangled in the harness of the other one. However, the horse was quieted and got its feet out of the other harness, and no serious accident resulted.

Fall Wheat.

Mr. T. N. Willan, Reeve of South Monaghan, sent the EXAMINER to-day, by Mr. Johnston Carey, sample heads of fall wheat raised on his farm. The berry is plump and finely colored, and the heads are all well filled. Mr. Willan will have a good crop this season.

Still They Go.

The exodus still continues. This morning Mrs. W. Hamilton, Mrs. A. Lech and Master Dolan left for Stony Lake to join other campers already there. Judging from the number already gone, the lake must wear a pretty aspect, with its shores dotted with white tents and at night the camp fires along the shores blazing up in the cool, still night air.

THE cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

A Barn Raising.

Mr. W. J. Hall, town, has had begun for him a fine barn, 30x60 feet, on the west half of lot 7 in the 8th concession North Monaghan. A bee was made a few days ago and he neighbors turned out in force and had an old fashioned raising. Mrs. W. J. Hall catered to the provision-al wants of the volunteers in a handsome and highly appreciated manner.

How the House Flies Winter.

Some one has asked "Where do flies go in the winter? This is a question of some interest, for a house fly is born fully grown and of mature size, and there are no little flies of the same species, and small ones occasionally observed being different in kind from the large ones. The house fly does not bite or pierce the skin, but gathers its food by a comb or rake or brush-like tongue, with which it is able to scrape the varnish from covers of books, and it thus tickles the skin of persons upon whom it alights to feed upon the perspiration. A fly is a scavenger and is a vehicle by which contagious diseases are spread. It poisons wounds and may carry deadly virus from decaying organic matter into food. It retires from the sight at the beginning of winter, but where it goes few persons know. If a search of the house be made they will be found in great numbers secreted in warm places in the roof or between the partitions or floors. Last winter we had occasion to examine a roof and found around the chimney myriads of flies hibernating comfortably and sufficiently lively to fly when disturbed "in overpowering clouds." No doubt this is a favorite winter resort for these creatures.—From the Wilmington, N.C. Messenger.

South Monaghan.

The Crops this Season.

Fall wheat; good where not winter-killed to cause uneven ripening. Spring wheat; early sown good and filling well. Oats, fair; late oats will be the best, the crop in general not bad. Barley; the yield will be up to the average. Peas, a failure; yield will be from five to 10 bushels per acre. Hay; a light crop, will be enough in township to winter stock; pasturage poor. Fruit; apples will be a small crop, did not suffer from wind-storm like some other townships; plums are a failure. Roots will not be an extraordinary crop.

Obituary.

The Late C. D. Macdonald.

The public will learn with deep regret and some surprise of the death of Mr. C.D. Macdonald, clerk and treasurer of the town of Peterborough, which sad event took place at his residence, Benson street, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Macdonald, for the past dozen years, has been a prominent and well known citizen of the town. He was born in the then town of Belleville on February 14th, 1834, and was therefore fifty-four years of age at the time of his death. From Belleville he removed to Kingston, where he was engaged as book-keeper for Ross & Co. He came to Peterborough in 1863 and went into business in partnership with Mr. T. G. Hazlitt, the firm Hazlitt & Macdonald carrying on a grocery and boot and shoe establishment. Retiring from this business connection, Mr. Macdonald went to Albany, where he became engaged at book-keeping, at which he was especially proficient, in fact, his actuarial knowledge was of the highest and most practical order. His services have been in special demand as auditor for many years in town. Mr. Macdonald returned to town and became book-keeper for the late Samuel Dickson, with whom he remained in that capacity till he was appointed town clerk about eleven years ago. On Mr. Edward's retirement from the position of town treasurer, Mr. Macdonald was appointed to take his place, the offices of town clerk and treasurer being combined, and the duties of the double office were efficiently and faithfully discharged. It is probable that too close application to business, under exceedingly defective sanitary conditions contributed to the illness which closed his career. Since the first of the year Mr. Macdonald's health showed signs of failing and the disease, affection of the lungs and liver, steadily progressed till about a month since when he was obliged to absent himself from his office. His ailment was not regarded as indicating so speedy a termination, and at the last meeting of the town council a month's leave of absence was granted in hopes that a sojourn at some watering place would have a beneficial effect, but about a week ago a change for the worse set in and death closed the scene on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Mr. Macdonald was attentive and efficient in the discharge of his official duties, and few men could be found who could have carried so satisfactorily the double burden his dual office imposed upon him.

In religion, Mr. Macdonald was a member of the Church of England, and though not a regular attendent till recently, he was a firm believer in the doctrines of the church. On Friday Rev. Mr. Bradshaw administered the sacrament of Holy Communion, and the last hours were brightened with the consolation which a belief in the Atonement brings.

Mr. Macdonald was an enthusiastic member of the Masonic fraternity and had reached the highest position in the gift of the brotherhood in this country, and was identified with most of the higher degrees of the Order. In connection with the Grand Lodge of Canada he held many important offices, his most appreciated and effective work being in connection with the Board of General Purposes, and in all questions involving matters of ritual and technical points he was sought as a satisfactory and well-informed authority, and he will be much missed by his old associates in Grand Lodge work. He was initiated into Masonry in Ancient St. John's Lodge Kingston in early life and was subsequently connected with the Chapter and Preceptory in that city, and filled all the important offices in lodge and chapter. On his arrival in Peterborough he actively identified himself with the work of the Order. He was appointed D. D. G. M. of Ontario District, and at the time of his death he was the oldest surviving Past Grand of the Grand Chapter. In Templar Masonry Mr. Macdonald was Past Prior of the Grand Preceptory of Canada, and Past Grand Sub-Prior of England and Wales. A few years ago he had a high distinction conferred on him by the Prince of Wales, the credentials accompanying it bearing the autograph of His Royal Highness. Mr. Macdonald was 33° in the Ancient Scottish Rite, and held various high offices in the gift of the Grand body in the Dominion of Canada. He was an honorary member of Peterborough and Corinthian lodges and Corinthian Chapter, a distinction enjoyed only as a recognition of lengthened Masonic services and intelligent zeal on behalf of the interest of the craft. The local brethren feel their bereavement keenly, for while, during recent years, Mr. Macdonald had not the time to devote to Masonic work, still he was always ready to lay his ripe Masonic knowledge under contribution to assist in local Masonic matters, and warmly and actively identified himself with the local brethren in many of their fraternal works and undertakings.

The funeral, which will take place from his late residence, Benson-street, on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock, will be conducted with Masonic ceremonies.

Personal.

Mrs. Chambers, of Montreal, is in town for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kelso, of Rochester, N.Y., are in town visiting friends.

Mrs. McJanet (nee Miss Johnston) is in town and assisted the Charlotte-street church choir at the Sunday evening service.

Mr. John McKee leaves this evening for Toronto to attend a meeting of the Board of the Pharmaceutical College.

The reverend Mr. Angell, rector of St. Stephens, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Angell are in town, visiting Mr. Clurton.

Rev. T. B. Angell, rector of Harrisburg, Pa., preached the sermon, and an excellent one it was, too, at St. John's Church on Sunday evening.

James T. Foley, B.A., Gold Medallist of Ottawa College, is spending a few holidays in town and is the guest of Mr. T Hurley, Brock street.

Mr. Thos. Stark and Mrs. Stark, of Chicago, are in town visiting friends. Mr. Stark is looking as hearty as ever. After a six years' absence his friends expected to see him looking a little more aged, but it is a fact that he is becoming better-looking the older he grows.

Police Court.

MONDAY, July 30.

A man who was found drunk on Saturday night was fined $5 this morning by the magistrate. He pleaded guilty.

A complaint was laid against a young woman for making use of vulgar language. Several interested parties were a little excited over the matter. The case was enlarged till to-morrow morning.

A youth of about twelve years of age was found in Young's wood yard on Saturday. He said he came in on the boat last week and was to have work here next Saturday; in the meantime he was looking for work to occupy his time until then. He told a pitiful story about his father having nothing to do with him, and would not even speak to him. The magistrate gave him some good advice and told him to go to work as he was strong enough to earn his own living. The boy was then allowed to go and he departed in haste.

A.C.A. CAMP, HENNESSEY ISLAND, ORILLIA, July 28.—The meet of the Northern Division so far has been most successful, and the large crowds are enjoying themselves. Every day, almost, there are excursions to different places.

There have been a number of arrivals the last two days. Rear Commodore W. G. MacKendrick came with several members of the Toronto club and a number of canoes for members who are to follow. Dr. Douglas, V. C., of the Lakefield club, was also among the arrivals. Col. James Z. Rogers, who had been detained, came to-day from Peterborough, and several other clubs have received accessions.

The two sculling races of to-day's programme came off, but the paddling events were postponed. Following are the particulars:—

Novice's sailing race for those who never sailed in an A. C. A. race before 1888.—F. Goodwin, Lindsay, canoe Manito, 1st; Hugh McLean, Toronto, canoe Wawa, 2nd; E. Easton, Lindsay, canoe Comet, 3rd. The course was three miles, time limit an hour and a half. The winner's time was one hour and six minutes, there being a light wind. There were seven starters.

A special sailing race for all classes of canoes over a course four and a half miles, time limit two hours, was won by W. G. McKendrick, Ubique and Toronto, canoe Mac; D. B. Jaques, Toronto, canoe Hyler, 2nd; H. F. McKendrick, Ubique, canoe Cham, 3rd; Colin Fraser, Ubique and Toronto, canoe Una, 4th; George Sparrow, Toronto, canoe Petra, 5th. Twenty started. The winners time was one hour and forty-seven minutes, and the second man was three minutes behind him. A close and interesting struggle took place between Hyler and Cham, the latter leading until close to the finish. The above five were the only canoes that finished, and a considerable interval separated them from the others.

Baseball.

The Port Hope Times says:—"The Peterboroughs go to Whitby, Oshawa, Bomanville, Newcastle and then come to Port Hope next week. They think that when they have beaten the other teams they will be in good fettle for the Port Hopes.' The Peterboroughs intend taking the trip if they can, but it is not yet fully decided. They may not be able to go.

Sporting Notes.

A cricket match will be begun on the grounds to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock, Peterborough town vs. the county.

Mr. John Stirling umpired in the Toronto-Hamilton cricket match Saturday.

Messrs. Schofield, Kingan and Halliday arrived home from their week's bicycle tour Saturday night. They report having had a jolly time.

The volunteer rifle association have a practice shoot this afternoon. The new Martini rifles will be used for the first time.

DIED

MACDONALD.—In Peterborough, on the 29th July, 1888, Charles D. Macdonald, Clerk and Treasurer of the Town of Peterborough, aged 54 years.

Funeral from the family residence, Benson street, on Tuesday afternoon, July 31st, at three o'clock.

SUCEE—At Bridgenorth on Wednesday, the 25th of July, 1888, Maggie E. Moore, wife of Mr. Joseph Succe, aged 28 years and seven months.

The funeral took place on Friday, 27th July, to the Lakefield cemetery, and was one of the largest funerals that has taken place at Bridgenorth for a number of years. The deceased lady has been ill for over two years, was highly respected by a very large circle of acquaintance, for her many estimable qualities. At one time she was organist of the Bible Christian church, Lakefield, and in that capacity made many friends.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

ANXIOUS HOME RULERS.

THE LAST WEEK A TRYING ONE FOR THE NATIONALISTS.

Many Consultations Among the Leaders—The Proposed Parnell-Times Action—What a Member of Parliament Says About O'Kelly's Arrest.

LONDON, July 30.—The Nationalist party has been passing through a rather anxious week, many consultations having been held, the latest of which was brought to a close late on Saturday night. These consultations are held only among the leaders, Mr. Gladstone being represented either by Mr. John Morley or by his son Herbert. The rank and file are quite content to obey the word of command. Mr. Parnell probably has neither time nor energy to explain all his purposes to his followers.

I have reason to believe that it is decided after all to bring an action against The Times. It is evident that the Royal Commission as constituted under the new bill, would be more unfavorable than a trial in court, for it must not be forgotten that juries in this country never fail to bring a verdict against a newspaper if they get half a chance and The Times has a very difficult case to prove. Mr. John Morley is said to have overcome Mr. Parnell's objections to the court proceedings, which are evidently not shared by Mr. Wm. O'Brien, who promptly seeks redress when newspapers libel him.

There is further trouble going ahead, arising from Mr. James O'Kelly's arrest. There must certainly be a debate on it, for there are many members on both sides of the House who look with repugnance on the latest proceedings of the Irish executive. It seems a very harsh measure to dog a member of Parliament from the House to his home and there pounce down on him at midnight and drag him off to Ireland on account of a speech delivered five weeks ago, a speech moreover which contained nothing that could do anybody much harm. Many Conservatives shake their heads over this act and say pretty loudly Balfour is going too far.

Mr. O'Kelly is respected in the House as a thoroughly honest and independent man, holding strong opinions doubtless, but always expressing them in a fair and reasonable manner. His distinguished services to journalism are known to many members, and there is a general feeling that he ought not to have been dragged off by the police like a common criminal. Supposing a vote is challenged, I cannot say how far this feeling would find expression in the division list, for the moment the Irish question is touched in any shape the cords of discipline are tightened, but there would be some Conservatives who would abstain from voting altogether.

If Balfour is wise he will check the ardent zeal of his subordinates in Ireland and keep his hands off members of Parliament, unless they commit some palpable and grievous offence. A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.

An Excursion Steamer Sunk.

MILWAUKEE, July 30.—A special from Arnona, Minn., says the steamer Belleview with 100 excursionists on board sunk near there late yesterday afternoon. The passengers were rescued.

KILLED ON THE RAILWAY.

A WORKMAN RUN OVER AT A TORONTO STREET CROSSING.

A Second Mishap in the Same City—A Saltfleet Farmer's Terrible Tumble Down Hamilton Mountain—Injured in an Iron Mine.

TORONTO, July 31.—A fatal accident occurred at 6 o'clock last evening at the Able-street crossing of the Northern Division of the G. T. R. Mr. William Riley, residing at No. 4 Trafalgar-street, was returning from his work in the Massey factory, along the Northern track, when he was struck by an out-going freight, and so frightfully mangled as to cause almost instant death. The cause of the accident is ascribed to Mr. Able's deafness.

Three lives were placed in serious jeopardy last night at the Dufferin-street crossing, and it is probable that one man at least will die as a result of the accident. At 9 o'clock the C.P.R. express was coming in from the west, when at the Dufferin-street crossing it ran into a milk-wagon, driven by Samuel Wright, who had with him a boy named John McMurty and a third person, whose name is unknown. Wright was impaled on the cowcatcher, carried about 20 feet and hurled into the ditch, sustaining serious internal injuries. The boy McMurty, who was first struck by the train, when picked up was found to have sustained fractures of the left arm and thigh, besides several serious scalp wounds. The third man escaped uninjured. The wagon was smashed into splinters, while the horse, strange so say, escaped uninjured.

AN EXCITING ADVENTURE.

A Saltfleet Farmer's Tumble Down the Mountain.

HAMILTON, July 30.—Stephen Penfold, a Saltfleet farmer, residing near Stony Creek, had a remarkably exciting adventure on Friday night, and is engaged in congratulating himself on being alive at present. He was returning from an agricultural meeting at Stony Creek late at night, and while ascending the steep mountain road a short distance from A. D. Lee's residence his horse took fright at some sheep moving on the roadside and bolted over the edge of the road. The tangle of horse, man and rig rolled down the mountain over 100 feet and brought up against a tree, where they stuck. The tree was about half-way down the mountain, which is very steep at this point, the night was very dark and Penfold was afraid to move lest the wreck should roll down the rest of the distance. He lay there with the horse all night and in the morning help came. Tired, sore and stiff, Mr. Penfold was released from his uncomfortable position, and with the aid of those living near the horse was got safely down to the bottom. It was none the worse for its tumble except that the skin was knocked off its back with rolling down. The rig was badly wrecked.

Serious Accident to a Young Englishman.

KINGSTON, July 30.—A young Englishman named Edward Blake met with a serious accident at the iron mines. The bucket filled with ore was being hauled up the shaft when the rope broke and the ore went down below. Several men were immediately beneath the shaft at the time but they managed to get out of the way except Blake who was pinned to the earth with a piece of ore which weighed over 200 pounds. It struck his leg and broke it in two places while other pieces of ore bruised his body severely.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Lindsay Cigar Dealer Fined—A Crush in Canned Goods.

TORONTO, July 31.—Mr. J. McAlist[illegible], a recent arrival from Scotland, was seeing the lions with a friend on Saturday, and after passing through the crowd in St. Lawrence Market, missed his pocket book which contained, in addition to $143, a number of letters of introduction and other documents of value.

Abraham McGee, who said he was a cigar dealer hailing from Lindsay, was fined $50 and costs yesterday for improperly accosting Miss Eva Hartoliff, on King-street, Saturday night.

Messrs. C. Richardson & Co., the well-known pickle manufacturers and canners, suspended yesterday. The liabilities are placed at $75,000, but these not secured amount to only $20,000. No statement of assets has been made, but the amount is considerably under that of the liabilities.

John G. Miller, charged with the forgery of two checks for $10 and $20 respectively, was remanded till Aug. 3.

Fire at the corner of Yonge and Cottingham-streets caused a loss of $7000, the victims being E. J. Crown $2000 and Joseph Love $5000.

L. H. Spriggings, a well-known dry goods dealer, left on Saturday to go on his holidays and it is said that he will not return. Mr. Spriggings formerly worked in Simpson's. Previous to this he was in the dry goods business in Strathroy and also for a time in Paisley. He is about fifty years of age and had the record of being straightforward in his business dealings. The stories in circulation are to the effect that if he is gone he has merely left the business as it stood, taking nothing with him. As to liabilities and assets nothing is known yet.

MANITOBA BOODLERS.

The Winnipeg Agent of a Chicago Firm and a Customs Officer Missing.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Fred May, agent for Libby, McNeil & Fairbanks of Chicago, skipped the other day to Kansas City leaving a discrepancy of $1800 in his accounts. One of the firm's representatives arrived today to find the goods supposed to be on hand sold to Winnipeg merchants and hardly recoverable.

W. P. Leslie, for many years customs officer at the boundary, left suddenly without bidding his friends good-bye but wrote from St. Paul that he was going to South America and would send a check for the amount he owed the department which is about $1,300. He failed do so, but sent money to pay some small claims against him. He assigned as a reason for leaving that he would not live in a country in which he could not vote. Leslie was an ardent politician but was disfranchised by the late local election act.

Tracklaying on the Red River Valley road has reached Morris.

Goldwin Smith is here and a movement is on foot to get him to address a public meeting. He says Manitoba only wants free trade and Ontario is strongly in favor of it.

Ira Morgan, president of the Ontario Provincial Exhibition Associationis here arranging for the Manitoba display at the fall show.

A young man named Fletcher at Portage was committed to the asylum to-day as a lunatic. Since the eclipse, which he believed portended wars, his mind has been completely gone.

No action was taken by the City Council on Mayor Jones' resignation to-night, all motions being voted down.

Killed by Fakirs.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 30.—At a Scandinavian gathering at Lake Vadnaise yesterday a man named Oho Olsen was struck in the back of the neck with a club by one of a gang of "fakirs" and killed. Another of the gang disemboweled a carpenter named Johnston with a dirk and stabbed, it is thought fatally, two other Scandinavians.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Liquor Permits in the Northwest—Natural Gas at Billings Bridge.

OTTAWA, July 30.—It is understood that the Railway Department has decided not to purchase any more second class cars for the Intercolonial, but as new first class cars are required, those now in use will be converted into second class.

As the result of Lieut.-Governor Royal's conference with the Minister of Inland Revenue it has been decided that permits will be granted for the sale in the Northwest of beer containing not more than 4 per cent of alcohol or 7 per cent proof. The beer will be inspected in Winnipeg and a special excise stamp placed on it.

It is rumored that Premier Greenway and Attorney-General Martin will come to Ottawa from New York on their way back to Manitoba.

Natural gas was struck last week on the farm of John Smyth at Billings Bridge at a depth of 50 feet while a well was being sunk. It is believed to be only surface gas.

It is understood that James McLaren & Co. intend to abandon the use of water power in their mills at New Edinboro and substitute steam.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney has been appointed Minister of the Interior and Mr. John Haggart Postmaster General.

Sir Hector Langevin returns to-morrow from a four weeks' vacation which has been spent partly at Remouski and partly in trips about the Gulf and Lake St. John.

A Youthful Halifax Couple.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 30.—Fred W. Wright 17 years of age, and Ida May Griffith, said to be only 15 years old, were married last week. The young couple belong to the North End, the groom being a clerk. The license was obtained by the groom representing himself to be 21 years of age and the girl as 18. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. F. Huestis.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

A Lively Debate in the Imperial Commons—Some Ugly Epithets.

LONDON, July 31.—The House of Commons went into committee last night on the bill to investigate the charges against Mr. Parnell, and Mr. Sexton moved to increase the number of judges to five if it was to inquire into the history of the National League extending over nine years. Mr. Matthews said the Government could not accept the amendment. Mr. Sexton expressed surprise at the nomination of Justice Day.

Mr. Parnell reminded the House that they were discussing a proposal to provide a substitute jury.

Mr. Labouchere said one object of the amendment was to neutralize the influence of Justice Day by increasing the commission.

The amendment was lost, 190 to 233.

Mr. John Morley said that Justice Day was a man of the 17th century in his views concerning Catholics. Like Torquemada he was a "Tory of the high-flyer, non-juror type!" [Hear, hear].

Mr. Anderson moved that in the clause empowering the commission the word "allegations" be inserted—"to inquire into the charges and allegations against certain members of Parliament."

After nearly three hours' discussion the amendment was voted down, 255 to 200.

R. T. Reid (Lib.) proposed an amendment restricting the inquiry to accusations of complicity in murder or violence.

Mr. Chamberlain opposed the amendment.

During the absence of the Speaker from the chair a member referred to Mr. Chamberlain as "Judas" Chamberlain. When the Speaker returned Mr. Chamberlain complained of the insult and T. P. O'Connor thereupon withdrew the objectionable language.

The debate was also participated in by Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Balfour and others.

O'Brien's Libel Suit.

DUBLIN, July 30.—The libel action of Wm. O'Brien v. The Cork Constitution has resulted in favor of Mr. O'Brien for £100 damages. He claimed £5000.

Took a Long Vacation.

MONCTON, N.B., July 30.—An employe in connection with the I. C. R., a few days ago skipped to the United States under peculiar circumstances. He professed to be very pious, and imposed upon a number of merchants. From no less than three merchants before leaving he obtained complete suits of clothes on credit, and from other stores obtained goods. He drew his pay from the I. C. R. and then went away for a vacation to Boston and never returned. Last week his wife also disappeared with all her household effects.

Drowning Accident at Kingston.

KINGSTON, July 30.—On Saturday Mrs. Abbott, the wife of S. W. Abbott, baker of Toronto, came to this city to attend the funeral of her father, the late Mr. James Kirkpatrick. Yesterday she was on the wharf when by some as yet unexplained accident she fell into the water and was drowned. Mrs. Abbott was 36 years of age and leaves her husband and one daughter, Mabel, aged 12.

JENNIE & THE JOURNALIST

A SOCIAL SENSATION AT THE COMMERCIAL METROPOLIS.

How the Home of a Wealthy Montreal Contractor was Broken Up—The Part in the Drama Played by a Seeking Newspaper Man.

MONTREAL, July 30.—A little advertisement in the local papers containing a notice that Arthur Ward, contractor, will apply to the Parliament of Canada at the next session for a divorce from his wife on the grounds of adultery, desertion, and an attempt to poison the applicant, has given a clue to one of the biggest social scandals Montreal has known for some time.

Arthur Ward is the son of a wealthy contractor, has made a fortune in the city and some four years ago married Miss Jennie Darrach, the beautiful daughter of a Church of England clergyman in a country parish, and was congratulated by his many friends on what seemed to be the opening of a happy era in life. The young couple had plenty of this world's goods, were apparently very fond of each other and started connubial life with a beautiful home and every prospect of happiness.

But as is so often the case in modern marriages things were not what they seemed and a little over two years ago their happy life was interrupted by the entrance of the tempter in the person of a son of a leading English alderman, and Mrs. Ward fell, her conduct at a summer resort on the St. Lawrence being such as to lead to her ejectment from the hotel in which she was stopping. She returned home and then became acquainted with Chas. E. George, a dashing newspaper man, working on one of the local papers. A New Englander by birth, he came here from the far west where he had been practising as a lawyer and had earned somewhat of a reputation, but had to leave there because of some social scandal with which he was connected. He came here after having, as he said, worked up a murder case in New England, which had puzzled the detectives, in the interests of a Boston paper. He secured work here as night editor of a morning paper, and eventually worked up a big connection with American papers, including The New York World, and by means of drawing the long bow, at which he was an adept, secured a monopoly of sensational news which existed solely in his fertile brain.

After being introduced to Mrs. Ward he became a frequent visitor at her house especially in the afternoon when Ward was at his business. The neighbors began to talk as neighbors will do and the injured husband gradually became cognizant of his danger and ordered George out of the house. A few days later Mrs. Ward left on a visit to Quebec, accompanied by a woman whose husband, just then dead, had for many years held the most important office in the gift of the citizens, and curiously enough George also went to Quebec. Mrs. Ward after a week's absence returned home, said she had been away with Mr. B. and resumed her place at home. A few days later the citizens were startled by the arrest of Mrs. Ward on a charge of having attempted to poison her husband by putting powdered glass in his tea. The beverage was analyzed by a leading chemist and a quantity of the glass found, but meanwhile Mrs. Ward, who had been released on bail, crossed the border, going to New York, where she still is believed to be.

The developments of the case were too much for George who also left for pastures new, going to Ottawa where for a time he acted as the liar on space of The World and other papers. Even the Capital soon grew too warm for him and he had to leave there also, not openly, however, for the day of his departure various Canadian papers published a despatch descriptive of his drowning in the St. Lawrence. He bobbed up serenely all the same and was next heard of at Little Rock, Ark., where he had a spell of regularity, but some months ago was discharged ignominiously from his post on one of the papers there for having slandered the Governor of the state during a political campaign.

Mr. Ward has meanwhile been endeavoring to recover his lost wife but all efforts have failed to induce her to return and he has accordingly entered action for a divorce.

The revival of the scandal, hitherto only known to a few, has caused a painful feeling and much sympathy is felt for the injured husband.

FORESTERS' DEMONSTRATION.

A Brilliant Procession—4000 Foresters in Line—Games at Dundurn.

HAMILTON, July 30.—To-day was a great day for Forestry. There were fully 8000 strangers in town to help the local courts of the Ancient Order of Foresters celebrate the 143rd anniversary of the order. It is estimated that 4000 Foresters, attired in their handsome suits of various colors and shapes, took part in the procession. High Chief Ranger Dr. Secord, Brantford; High Chief Secretary C. L. Newell, Paris; H.C.S.C. R. R. Whitlock, Brantford; High Chief Treasurer John Shaw, Brantford; High Chief Senior Woodward A. Pinkham, Brantford; High Chief Junior Woodward W. E. Taylor, Brantford; High Chief Senior Beadle P. Secord, Brantford, and High Chief Junior Beadle T. Aves, Paris, members of the executive committee of the high court, were here, and took part in the festivities. The bright particular feature of the procession was Maid Marian, personated by Miss Stevenson, and her maids of honor, attended by a body guard attired in Robin Hood costume. The maids of honor are all highly respected ladies of the city. They presented bouquets to a number of the Foresters. The car containing a May pole and dancers, handsomely costumed, was another feature of the procession. The procession marched to Dundurn, where a highly successful program of games, dancing and other sports was carried out.

A Timely Suggestion for Farmers.

Providing Substitutes for the Short Hay Crop of 1889.

SIR,—That the hay crop of Ontario is a long way below the average is undoubtedly true. This implies that, let the season be ever so favorable for grass next year, there will be a shortage in the hay crop of 1889. No time should be lost in devising means to meet this shortage, for steps can be taken before winter that will more effectually lead to this end than any that can be taken after the winter is gone.

The only thing that can be done is to grow some substitute, and the preparation for doing so should be made at once. These preparations should embrace the twofold object of growing a substitute for hay, and that this substitute shall favour the seeding of the ground to grass on which it shall be grown.

The only substitute that can be sown before winter is rye. Where this is done the ground should be prepared at the earliest possible moment. The conditions favorable to the growth of a crop of winter wheat are also favorable to the growth of rye. If sown in August the rye can be pastured this fall, in which case it would not be wise to seed with timothy until spring; but when sown at the ordinary time timothy should be sown with the rye at the rate of from four to six pounds to the acre, according to the richness or the poverty of the soil, as the catch of this is much more certain in autumn. Clover seed—a mixture of the small red, alsike, and the large red is best for average purposes—may be sown in the spring at the rate of from five to eight pounds to the acre. The rye can either be cut for hay or for the grain, as may be thought best. When cut for hay the work may be done by either the mower or the buuder. In the latter case the sheaves must not be made too large, which will hinder the curing. Many have a strong prejudice to growing rye because it has a tendency to grow again where the grain shells, in the next crop, but this is no serious objection where the farming is rightly done. The advantages of growing rye at this time are tourfold. It furnishes an excellent opportunity for sowing grass, and thus recovering the lost area of meadow land; it will provide hay, if necessary, or grain, and will produce straw for the keeping of stock. For an exigency like the present it will be found a very useful crop, and in favorable localities we fail to see why it would not be an improvement to sow a good sprinkling of winter wheat along with it, which would enhance the value of the grain for feeding purposes.

The second supplement to the hay crop of 1889 that we propose is a mixture of oats and peas, sown thickly, not less than three bushels to the acre, and in about equal quantities, or, perhaps, what is better, allowing the oats to preponderate. These may be sown on the ground that is not very clean, and at the first moment that it will do in the spring. Ground that is not very clean will answer, if good and strong, as the crop grows so thick that it tends to smother weeds, and is cut before they are quite ripe. This crop should be cut in, say, the first stages of ripening, and will then make an excellent substitute for hay, producing an enormous yield under favorable conditions. The land should by all means be ploughed this fall. Indeed, nearly all the land for spring crops should be ploughed in the fall if we are to expect uniformly good crops. When this crop is reaped the land may be at once turned over for fall wheat, where the locality is suitable for growing this.

The third substitute is millet or Hungarian grass, which may be sown any time from the middle of May to June 20th. One principal objection to its growth is the liability of the seed to perish from drouth when sown in June. This will always make it a hazardous crop, but it is an objection that does not apply to peas and oats sown early in the spring.

A fourth substitute is fodder, or, as it is sometimes called, ensilage corn, which may be sown in drills, with an ordinary grain, not less than three feet apart, and cultivated carefully, as corn sown for other purposes. The yield on well-manured loose land is enormous, and when cut in the glazed state of the grain makes itself almost a complete all-round ration. Where properly tended it makes the ground as clean as a summerfallow. The crop may be bound in sheaves with rye straw or cord, and set up it stooks for autumn or winter use; or better still, cut and at once put into a silo where one has been constructed.

It is nothing short of a national calamity in any agricultural country when the catch of grass seed fails over a large area. It disarranges the whole system of farming, and renders a satisfactory rotation of crops impossible. The failure of no single crop is half so far reaching in its consequences. An unusually large area should be sown to grass next year, indeed must be sown, to restore the equilibrium. The most favorable grains on which to sow are, of course, rye, wheat and barley. When the seed is not sown on wheat and rye this fall, a thorough harrowing with Thomas' smoothing harrow, or one made on similar principles, when the seed is sown in the spring, will add much to the certainty of the catch.

In some localities the catch of grass has almost completely failed for two years. On my own farm and on the high land in the whole Niagara peninsula such has been the case, so that the area of grass land is seriously curtailed. In the two years, 1887 and 1888, the grass seed sown on 120 acres was literally thrown away, but this year a fine substitute is growing in the form of peas and oats, millet and corn, so that in this article, with the exception of the reference to rye, of which I am sowing a goodly quantity this fall, I know whereof I write from experience, that most reliable of all teachers.

Yours, etc.,
THOMAS SHAW.

SUICIDE AT MONTREAL.

A Richelieu Hotel Guest Blows Out His Brains in His Room.

MONTREAL, July 30.—On Saturday night a man named L. L. Lee of Plymouth, Mass., registered at the Richelieu Hotel. To-day it was noticed that he had not left the hotel all day and to-night the officials of the hotel tried to enter the room but the door was locked with the key inside. They then procured a ladder and looked through the skylight but could not see anything. An entrance to the room was, however, effected through a window, when Lee was found dead in bed, his head bathed in blood. A six-chambered revolver was found beside him with one of the chambers discharged, he having undoubtedly committed suicide. From a letter found in his pocket it would appear that his name is Holbrooke not Lee.

TRIED TO HANG HERSELF.

A Prisoner in the Hamilton Police Station Attempts Suicide.

HAMILTON, July 30.—Saturday night Ellen Millmine, mother of the young girl who committed suicide by taking a dose of rough on rats a few months ago, attempted to hang herself while confined in the cells. Mrs. Millmine lives with her husband at 10 Victoria-avenue south. She was arrested about 10 o'clock for assaulting him. The woman raised considerable noise after she was placed in the cells and Constable Lowry, who was on station duty, had occasion to go out and tell her to keep quiet. She was nervously twisting a handkerchief around her hand, so Lowry took it away from her. He also removed her bonnet and her apron and placed her in another cell. Shortly after 11 o'clock he paid another visit to the cells and found Mrs. Millmine hanging to the door. She had taken off the waist of her dress, tied it around her neck and hung it on the top of the door. She was unconscious when Constables Blakely and Lowry cut her down. Dr. Ryall was telephoned for, but before he arrived the woman had regained consciousness and was all right again. For fear that she would try to hang herself again she was taken to the jail. At the police court this morning she was fined $5 on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and was remanded for a week on the charge of attempting to commit suicide, it being thought that she is not in her right mind.

A Large Estate.

A broad land is this in which we live, dotted so thickly with thrifty cities, towns and villages! Amid them all, with ever-increasing popularity and helpfulness, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, giving hope and cheer where there is disease and despair. Wherever there is humanity there is suffering; wherever there is suffering there is the best field for this greatest American Remedy. Consumption (which is lung-scrofula), yields to it, if employed in the early stages of the disease; Chronic Nasal Catarrh, yields to it; Kidney and Liver diseases, yield to it! If you want the best known remedy for all diseases of the blood, ask for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and take no other. b

LIFE ASSURANCE COMPY OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,492 60	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,186 29	1,167,398 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,284 31	2,992,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 80	475,007 24	4,029,372 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,994 43	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

UPSET BY A SQUALL.

Persons Drowned While Sailing in Halifax Harbor.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 30.—Shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon a small sail boat was seen to go down in the middle of the harbor under a sudden squall of wind. Sailors from a bark near by picked up three hats and a rudder which floated, but did not see the occupants of the craft again. The drowned persons proved to be Garrett Roach, keeper of a sailors' boarding house, his little son and a young nephew named Wells.

MISSING MACDIARMID.

The Montreal Law and Order League Detective Sells Out.

MONTREAL, July 30.—When the License Court opened to-day there were rumors in the air that McDiarmid, the detective of the Law and Order League who was shot last week, had been bought off and left the city. Mr. Labourveau, attorney for the League, sent to McDiarmid's residence for information and the messenger was there informed that he had left on Saturday and had not been seen since.

Detective Baylis of the Provincial Revenue Department stated to-day that he had been informed by a respectable hotel keeper that before and since McDiarmid was shot he had offered to sell out to them but that they had refused. Baylis also said McDiarmid had made a collecting tour among the liquor sellers since leaving his bed and sold out cases to as many as he could. As to the shooting affray Baylis had been informed that McDiarmid was in a bar-room on Wellington Street drinking and that a quarrel occurred in which he knocked two men down and that the fight continued after those engaged in it had got outside.

Fatal Accident at Cobourg.

COBOURG, July 30.—A frightful accident happened at the matting factory about 10 o'clock this morning. A young lad named John Coombes, aged 16 years, was playing with a loose belt in the picking room, when he was caught in the belt and carried to the main shaft with such violence as to break his neck. He expired almost immediately. He was engaged to work in the factory on Saturday last and was waiting for instructions when he began tooling with the fatal belt.

A Vacillating Forger.

MONTREAL, July 30.—Benj. Bergen, the Baltimore forger, was brought before Judge Church this morning, when his counsel intimated that as accused had made up his mind to go back there would be no contestation of the case. Detective Hall's deposition was then filed, and was to the effect that on July 3 Bergen had forged a check for $60, and that the Grand Jury of the State of Maryland had found a true bill against him. James McClure, counsel for the police department, was then examined, as was also Detective Gladeau, of this city, as to admissions made by the accused to him when arrested. The evidence of some reporters who interviewed the prisoner was taken this afternoon, and Bergen announced that he would fight against extradition.

It is said that during the lifetime of the average man he will endure about 500 days sickness. The best way to reduce your average is to use Burdock Blood Bitters whenever the system requires a tonic regulating and cleansing medicine. 2w31d

Certain Cure.

A cure for Cholera Morbus. A positive cure for this dangerous complaint, and for all acute or chronic forms of bowel complaint incident to summer and fall is found in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, to be procured from any druggist or medicine dealer. 2w31d

Made on Purpose.

We are taught that everything is made to fill some purpose. The reason Burdock Blood Bitters has succeeded in being placed in the front rank of modern medicines is that it fills so well the purpose for which it was intended—that of curing diseases of the stomach, liver and blood. 2w31d

A Sad Loss.

Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dulness and debility,, are of very frequent occurrence. Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digestion by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present. 2w29d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Indispensible.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It give instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont. 5w29d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh south to south-east winds; mostly fair and very warm, with local thunderstorms; cooler northwesterly winds to-morrow.

"Able Was I ere I Saw Elba."

This sentence was spoken by Napoleon I, and is quite remarkable as either backward or forward in spelling or reading it is exactly the same. Sentences of this kind are apt to impress themselves on a person's memory almost as much as the remarkable value of the dry goods to be purchased at the golden lion, (R. Fair's) where the stock is complete, first-class and "cheap."

A Fine Entertainment.

Mr. Irad L. Garside, manager of Millis' Tourists, who perform at the opera house to-night, called at the Examiner office to-day. He says his company are having good success on the road, the reputation achieved in past years by Revillio, Millis and the others comprising the troupe has gone before them and attracted large houses of the best people. Last night at Port Hope a number of people come up from Cobourg to witness the entertainment. The public are assured of a first-class evening's enjoyment.

The Last Sad Rites.

The funeral of the late C. D. Macdonald, town clerk and treasurer, took place at three o'clock this afternoon. Rev. W. C. Bradshaw conducted the funeral rites. The burial took place under Masonic auspices in Little Lake Cemetery. The procession, which passed down George-street, was an extraordinarily large one. The Masonic Order in full regalia, were at the head, followed by Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, and the undertaker, Mr. D. Beileghem, and Dr. Kincaid, attending physician. After the hearse came the pall-bearers, Messrs. T. G. Hazlitt, C. McGill, R. Hall, J. Doherty, E. Pearse and D. W. Dumble, followed by the members of the town council in carriages, and after them came scores of vehicles conveying friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

A Splendid Tented Exhibition.

Those who are fond of visiting exhibitions under canvas, and who are not fond of it, will be gratified to read the announcement that Miller & Freeman's Monster Railway Shows is to be a visitor, coming here Monday, August 6th, An exchange says of it: "It is not saying too much to emphasize the fact that the performances given in every department by this organization have no superior with any show travelling; and the greatly reduced admission prices give to everybody the opportunity to witness them. A novel feature connected with this exhibition, and one which will bring thousands from a distance to witness, is the perilous parachute descent by Prof. Ned. Hathaway from his mammoth balloon, "Mercury," which takes place each day at the exhibition grounds at 11 o'clock, and which, of course, will be free to everybody.

No Place Like Home.

The verdict of all returned Canadians and all at present away from home is:—"Stay at home; stick to Canada; don't leave Peterborough.' The number of persons who have come back to Peterborough and county of late, who went away big with expectation as to the future, is somewhat remarkable. They all have the same story on their return, that there is no place like home. We believe that is getting to be more and more the sentiment of our people, and by the time a few more hundreds go and come back again disappointed with far-off fields, the more ready they will be to stay at home and take advantage of the great bargains at gough's. Some people imagine everything is much better at a distance, but those who are wise enough to appreciate the great sacrifice sale of clothing at gough brothers' are sure to reap the benefit. Their advertisement contains bushels of good news to the household-er in these hard times.

Fruit Social.

A fruit social will be given by the Ladies Aid of the George street Methodist church on Thursday evening next, 2nd of August, in the grounds of the church. The Fire Brigade Band will be in attendance. Admission, 10 cents.

The Old and the New.

As I have now cleared out the most of my stock of teas and am now receiving some very fine lines of new, the public will do well to call and try a few pounds for a sample. Sugars selling at the old prices—cheap W. J. Morrow, Opera House Block. dw

To Orillia.

The S. O. E. excursion to Orillia this morning, per G.T.R., was well attended. A good many took canoes along to enjoy the water privileges of Lake Couchiching and visit the A.C.A. camp on Horseshoe Island. They will doubtless have a good time. The train returns this evening about 9 o'clock. About 600 excursionists were aboard.

The cry is general that The Pantry takes the lead in the tea trade.

She Deserves It.

An exchange says: "Give your wife a vacation. She needs one. Little cares are harder to bear than greater responsibilities, and she has many more cares than her husband, and sometimes as great responsibilities. A woman's work is never done, and modern life has increased and intensified it. Cares have multiplied faster than conveniences. Life is more complex, its demands are greater and more numerous, society more exacting. Who needs a vacation if she does not? And she cannot get it at home. The more quiet and restful the home is to you the more evidence that it is a care, if not a burden to her. A housekeeper can no more take a vacation in her house than a merchant in his counting-room. Even though her absence occasions inconvenience, give an occasional vacation."

Horses that Hustle.

The horses that draw the hose-waggon are hustlers. The moment they are in harness and the doors opened they spring out like shot from a cannon and rattle away to a fire at a break-neck pace. This morning Terry Smith was just stepping into the wagon when some outsider incautiously opened the doors. Away went the horses, Terry was thrown into the wagon in a heap and the hub and box-rod crashed into the door posts, nearly upsetting the whole thing. The animals careened up the street, the firemen behind hanging on "for grim death," and not till George street was reached was their pace reduced, when Terry managed to gather up the lines and check them. It was a wonder the wagon was not smashed to pieces. People who don't understand the workings of the fire hall should not interfere. The firemen can do their own work better than anyone else.

An Early Morning Blaze.

About five o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was rung from the south ward box, and the men at the central station were quickly on their way with the hose wagon and other apparatus. They were just arriving at the fire when the town bell rang out the alarm. A veneered brick house just off Lake street, occupied by Mr. Robert Howden and owned by a widow lady residing near Keene, was found to be in flames. No water could be procured, but the firemen set to work and with their Babcock extinguishers had pretty nearly overcome the flames when some smouldering embers between the walls broke out afresh and the building was quickly consumed. The family barely got out with their clothes, very little of the contents of the house being saved. The verandah was pried off the front of the building and carried away in safety by the firemen, but otherwise the structure was a total loss. The fire originated in the back part of the house, but the cause of it is not known.

Eighty Boxes Sold.

The adjourned meeting of the Peterborough cheese board was held to-day. The same cheese as that boarded last week was offered, a total of 2,336 boxes, approximately valued at $19,000. Liverpool quotations were 46s. Before the sales began a revised set of rules was read by the Secretary, and after some discussion and slight amendment, adopted for the balance of the season. Among the buyers were Messrs. Cluxton, McCargar, Leary, Bird, Cook, Wrighton, Warrington, Fitzgerald and Carton. Mr. McCargar opened with a bid of 8c. for the board. The bidding was mainly between Messrs. McCargar, Cluxton, Leary and Bird, Carton coming in on the home stretch with a bid of 9⅛c. for selections. He named Pine Grove factory, which accepted. An offer by Mr. Leary of 8⅞c. for thy balance of the board was refused by all. The board then adjourned for two weeks.

Northward Bound.

Our reporter sharpened his pencil and took on a business-like look when he got down to the Midland station this morning, and saw the crowds about to board the train for Lakefield and the northern lakes. Among those who left for an outing, with their camping paraphernalia, were Mr. Edward Duff and family and Dr. King and family, who will put up at Mr. Harry Grundy's island. Mr. John Neil, the Misses Neil and Miss Eigleman, of Philidelphia, will stop at Capt. Wright's cottage. Mr. R. Neil will probably join them later on. Mr. R. B. McKee and family also went up for a day's outing. Messrs. Butcher, Metheral and Wyatt will camp on the former's island, near Harrisons Point. Messrs. D. Davidson and W. Hamilton will camp on Juniper Island. Mr. R. M. Anderson, of Lindsay, Mr. Harry Webber and others, besides a party of Americans, were among the north bound passengers. Monday night, Mr. D. Breese's party, Mr. H. Grundy, Mr. B. Morrow and a few others came back after a two weeks' holiday. Mr. Chas. McClelland's party and Mr. W. E. Sherwood's party come home to-night. To-morrow morning Mr. E. H. D. Hall and family, with a few friends, leave for his cottage on Stony Lake. Another large party leaves to-morrow morning also. They will probably camp in Boschinck or at the mouth of Kel's creek. They comprise Misses Smart, Dean, Craig, Hunt, Brandrette, L. Lamadee, Crosby, Barrie, Clegg and Nethercutt, and Messrs. A. Clegg, J. Crane, J. Tucker, A. Turner, T. Armstong, H. W. Stock, Thos. Barrie, W. G. Walters (of Whitby), and Geo. Morrow. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Griffin are to join them the latter end of the week. Next week parties chaperoned by Mr. A. E. Dixon and Mr. W. A. Sanderson leave for Stony Lake. Mr. W. A. Dixon, mother and brother, and the Misses Matthews, of Albany, left to-day for Chemong Park for a week's holiday. Mr. F. E. Yokome, of the Examiner, is rusticating at Bridgenorth. Messrs. W. F. McAuliffe and O'Connell went to Bobcaygeon this morning for their holidays.

The Central Exhibition.

Everything now Ready for the Event—The Committees in Charge.

Arrangements are now complete for the Central Exhibition on Sept. 25, 26 and 27. The prize-list will aggregate about $2,000, and numerous special attractions are being secured for each day's programme. The officers, and particularly the indefatigable secretary, Mr. Wm. Collins, are making a determined effort to have this year's exhibition the best yet held. The office of the secretary, with whom all entries will be made and who will be found ready to supply information, will be at Mr. W. J. Green's clothing store; his post office box is 920, Peterborough. A number of meetings of the Board of Directors have been held recently, the last one on Saturday night. Large posters for the exhibition have been printed at the Examiner office, and distributed throughout the district. Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald will make an efficient general superintendent of the exhibition affairs. The different committees are:—

Horses.—Jos. Tully, W. M. Fair and Jas. Baptie.

Cattle.—John Mounsey and John Garbutt.

Sheep and Pigs.—Robert Vance and Joseph Forster.

Poultry.—John McClelland.

Agricultural Produce and Garden Vegetables.—G. W. Fitzgerald, James Baptie and Jos. Tully.

Dairy and Horticultural Produce.—Jas Stevenson, John Garbutt and John McClelland.

Domestic Manufactures and Ladies' Work.—Jos. Tully and Jas. Baptie.

General Superintendent.—G. W. Fitzgerald.

Lady Superintendent.—Mrs. S. McKibbin.

The list of appointees to the positions on committees is an excellent one, comprising men who are known as hard workers and skilful managers. Mrs. McKibbin has for years conducted the ladies' department most acceptably and successfully.

Under such auspices the Central Exhibition this year promises to be highly successful. If fair weather should fortunately grace the occasion, it will no doubt be the best of the kind on record.

Words of Condolence.

The Town Council Records Its Regret of the Death of Mr. Macdonald.

A special meeting of the town council was held Monday evening, at which all the members were present, except Messrs. Cahill and Hall, who were out of town.

Mr. T. Kelly was appointed chairman of the Finance Committee in the absence of Mr. Davidson, who will shortly take a trip to the Northwest.

On motion of Mr. Kendry, seconded by Mr. Hartley, Mr. Jas. G. Macdonald was appointed town clerk pro tem.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Winch, that the Ontario Bank be authorized to honor all checks signed by the Mayor and chairman of the Finance Committee until further notice.

CONDOLENCE.

Mr. Moore introduced the following motion:—

Moved by Mr. Moore, seconded by Mr. Davidson, and resolved, that the members of this council, having learned of the death of Charles D. Macdonald, the Clerk and Treasurer of this town for upwards of ten years past, desire to place on record an expression of their sincere and heartfelt sorrow and deep regret at the loss of a most efficient, able and trusty officer; that the Council extend to his family its sympathy in their irreparable loss; that as a mark of respect to his memory the members do attend his funeral in a body; that this resolution be inscribed in the minutes of the council and a copy hereof be sent to his family.

Both the mover and seconder and Mayor Stevenson spoke in feeling terms of the loss to the town of a man of Mr. Macdonald's ability and integrity, and all referred to his capability for the office he held and their warm personal friendship towards the deceased.

Police Court.

Tuesday, July 31.

John MacFarlane was charged with a breach of the Scott Act, but after the evidence was taken the case was dismissed.

The abusive language case, in which two women were implicated, was dismissed.

John A. Harris, of Smith, was committed to gaol as a lunatic. Harris was confined once before and discharged as cured.

News Nuggets.

—The Millis' tourists are stopping at the Grand Central.

—The regular weekly open air concert by the band will be held in the park to-night.

—New sheds suitable for a gymnasium are to be built in rear of the Collegiate Institute.

—The family of Rev. A. Bell, accompanied by Miss Edmison, went to Stony Lake to-day for a short outing.

—A dog fight at the corner of George and Brock streets this morning drew a large crowd of spectators. No collection.

—Mr. J. J. Turner is now in his new premises, corner George and King streets. His store presents a showy and attractive appearance.

—Mr. G. Carton made his first appearance at the cheese board to-day as a buyer. He paralyse'd all the other buyers on his very first bid.

—An iron bridge was shipped to-day to Wingham from the Central Bridge Works. It filled two C. P. R. cars, and was an unusually high and long bridge.

—Messrs. John McClelland and Wm. Collins will represent the West Peterborough Agricultural Society at the annual meeting of the Agriculture and Arts Association at Kingston this fall.

—There are several drives of logs in Stony Lake yet to come down, and one small drive is now running the river between Peterborough and Lakefield. The advance guard is at Auburn already.

—Mr. E. C. Hill will do the bill posting for the Central Exhibition. He will cover the territory between Toronto on the west and Perth and Kingston on the east, along all railway lines. He will post bills and distribute prize lists. The exhibition will be well advertised when Mr. Hill gets through with his work.

Work Offered But Not Wanted.

A Paris philanthropist, who was struck by the alarming and painful increase of mendicity in the metropolis, recently made a peculiar, although, perhaps, not a novel experiment. He went round to several generous merchants, manufacturers and tradespeople, and succeeded in inducing them to take into their employment all the "Vagrom men" whom he should send to them with letters of recommendation. Then he summoned together an army of the "unemployed," made a speech to them on the advantages of labor, the advisability of economy, and the dangers of absinthe and petit bleu, and finally directed them to call for the letters of recommendation which were to procure for them immediate and remunerative employment at the minimum rate of 4f, or 3s 4d per diem. Out of 727 of his ragged audience more than half disappeared as if by magic from the scene, and have never bothered the philanthropist since. Of the remainder, some took the letters, but never presented them; others worked half a day and clamored for their wages for that brief period, while at the end of the three days only 18 men, who were all genuine artisans or laborers, were at their posts.—Paris despatch to the London Daily Telegraph.

Local Sports and Pastimes

Range and Rifle.

The practice shoot of the volunteer association could not be held Monday afternoon. The range heretofore used by the rifle association will have to be abandoned, as was feared when the building of the C.V.R.R. was first begun. The range runs alongside the track nearly the whole distance, and as the men are working at this point, firing, of course, could not be continued in safety. It was decided to lay out a range running east and west directly over the old course, and the executive committee of the Association was instructed to have the work done at once. It is expected the new range will be ready for use in a couple of weeks, when practice will be begun in earnest. The third monthly match of the Peterborough Rifle Association, to have taken place Thursday, has also been postponed till the completion of the new range. A number of our best local shots who intend shooting at the Provincial and Dominion matches at Toronto and Ottawa in August and September will have to loose their practice in the meantime, which they very much regret. However, when the new range is ready they will sail in and make up for lost time as much as possible.

Canoeing.

A. C. A. Camp, July 27.—The event of yesterday was a camp-fire given by Mrs. Lundy at the ladies' camp in the evening. It is needless to say that the whole camp was on hand, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed himself. To those who attended last year's meet at Stony Lake, the mere mention of a camp fire at Mrs. Lundy's was suggestive of a most pleasant evening. Last night the hostess was as assiduous as ever in seeking to add to the comfort and enjoyment of all. That Mrs. Lundy may attend many more meets of the N. Div., and give many more camp-fires, is the somewhat selfish wish of all.

Mr. S. S. Robinson, of Orillia, who is in camp, has his steam yacht Manda here. She lies anchored off headquarters when not in use, but is freely placed at the disposal of the A. C. A. when required. The regatta committee made use of her yesterday afternoon to rearrange the sailing course. It is now an equilateral triangle, each side of which is half a mile. As it was first arranged, each side was three quarters of a mile. Commodore Gibson, of New York, arrived in camp at 1.30 p.m. to day.

Sporting Notes.

Garden Hill baseball club will play in Peterborough on the 8th or 9th prox. The Hill Giants crushed the Millbrook team a short time ago and it is expected will give Peterboro... a close game.

There will be a practise of the Y.M.C.A. lacrosse club to-morrow morning, weather permitting. A full turnout of the boys is requested.

The Planting of Trees.

Walter Scott, in "Heart of Midlothian," says—"Jack, when ye has nothing else to do, ye may be aye stickin' in a tree; it will be growing, Jack, when you're asleeping." The American people are just learning this lesson. The first Arbor day was set apart in Nebraska in 1871. In one day 12,000,000 of trees were planted. The next day it became a legal holiday. Nearly 1,000,000 acres have already been planted under the new impulse. Nearly 700,000,000 trees are growing, that but for Arbor Day would not have been planted. Benefactors are of many classes, but is doubtful if any one more generously affects the world than the tree planter. Apple-Seed Smith was a noted Ohio character of early times, who always carried a bag of apple seeds with him, which he planted when he could, and gave to others to be planted. He is gratefully remembered. Tree-planting should grow to be a national passion.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A CURIOUS LIBEL CASE.

AN ACTION AGAINST A MONTREAL ADVOCATE.

The Alleged Libellous Matter Written on a Postal Card Sent to the Complainant—A Suicide Identified.

MONTREAL, July 30.—An action for criminal libel was taken to-day against L. N. Demers, advocate, at the instance of Lamille Godcrre, grocer. In his information complainant states that Demers had sent him a postal card through the mail. He alleges that the contents of the postal card were libellous and as others could read it, his good name had been injured by it. The total amount of property left by the late John Ogilvie is about $900,000.

Rev. Abbe Bayle, one of the founders of the Seminary of St. Sulpice in this city, died to-day at the age of 88 years.

The prosecution in the Bergen case decided this afternoon to send immediately for Baltimore witnesses, as they have become tired of Bergen's wavering tactics. The enquiry has been continued until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Montreuil, who have taken an action in the civil courts for the separation of their 15-year-old daughter, Angelina, from Maxime Van Dosch, whom she secretly married, came to the Police Court and asked that the criminal action against Van Dosch for abduction be dropped. The Police Magistrate, however, refused to do so, as the prisoner had been duly committed for enquete.

The man who committed suicide at the Richlieu yesterday was undoubtedly H. J. Holbrook of Ansonia, Ct. A letter was found in his pocket indicating his intention to kill himself, as he was weary of life.

A New Brunswick Fire.

MONCTON, N.B., July 31.—Killam's lumber mill and the Buctouche and Moncton Railway bridge at Scotch Settlement were destroyed by fire yesterday morning, 50,000 feet of lumber being consumed. The building and contents were completely destroyed. The loss on the mill is $4000. The railway bridge burned was 200 feet long.

Defaulter Nelson Discharged.

TRENTON, July 31.—Nelson, the Atlanta defaulter, was again up before the magistrate to-day. There being no one to appear against him he was discharged. He immediately left the town and, it is said, went to Belleville.

Death of a Guelph Pioneer.

GUELPH, July 31.—Mr. Robert M. Richardson, one of the pioneers of this district, died here this morning. Mr. Richardson was born in County Longford, Ireland, in 1817, and came to this country in 1835.

Two Brothers Drowned.

FARMERSVILLE, Ont., July 31.—Two brothers, young unmarried Scotchmen recently from Glasgow, named Angus and Thomas Chassells, were drowned to-day while bathing at Charleston Lake. They both slipped off a slanting rock into deep water and grabbed each other. Their boatman and uncle were on the shore, but as the drowning men did not rise even once they were unable to render any assistance. One of the young men had a situation in Toronto as a tailor.

SKIPPED BY MOONLIGHT.

A Romantic Hamilton Elopement With a Prosaic Termination.

HAMILTON, July 31.—Frank Holly, a young married man of this city, works for Mr. Cripps, the contractor, who has the work of erecting the addition to the home of the friendless in this city. In the home, for the past five months, has resided Lizzie Thomas, a young girl of 18. She was a quiet, well-behaved young woman ever since her first misfortune made her an inmate of the home, and the matron had great hopes of ultimately reclaiming her. Lately the girl has been made very downhearted by receiving a letter from her father, who lives in the city, saying he will have nothing to do with her, and it is supposed that this rendered her hopeless and in a large measure eradicated the benefit of the good influences and hopefulness for the future which the ladies of the home had striven so earnestly to impress upon her with a view to aiding her to forget the past and commence life anew. While she was in the despondent and reckless state of mind consequent upon the receipt of her father's letter a tempter bobbed up serenely, as tempters have been in the habit of doing since the days of Marguerite, and he found the girl a ripe subject for his purpose. The tempter was Frank Holly. He came to work in the new building, and it was soon noticed by the watchful matron that Frank had entirely too much to say to the girl. Holly was discharged by Mr. Cripps soon after, but this the matron did not know, and Holly has since had several interviews with the girl by pretending that he was still employed on the job; but as soon as it was discovered he was sat upon.

The girl continued to be very quiet and tractable at the home, but evidently she was mashed on Mr. Holly, and they managed, in some way best known to lovers, to arrange an elopement.

Last evening, after the gates of the home were locked and the building closed for the night, Lizzie stole softly down stairs, met Frank and the two went to Dundas.

Soon, however, the flight of Lizzie was discovered, and commendably energetic efforts were made to overtake the couple. The result was that they were arrested in Dundas about 11 p.m. by Chief Collins and lodged in the cells on a charge of vagrancy.

DEFYING JUSTICE.

The Megantic Murderer Still at Large—La Montagne's Double Crime.

MONTREAL, July 31.—A tale of defiance of justice equal to anything in the wildest dime novel comes from Sherbrooke in the vicinity of which place two murderers about whose guilt there is not the least doubt are defying the attempts of the authorities to capture them and have the entire sympathy of their neighbors. Donald Morrison, who killed a man named Warren in cold blood at Megantic a few weeks since and on whose head the Government has set a price lives in the woods near the scene of his crime. He goes into town to buy his provisions and once in a while dines at the hotel. He is well armed and with the population partly afraid and partly in sympathy with him, the officers of the law are entirely powerless. He has promised to shoot the first man that tries to arrest him, as it will not go harder with him for one than for two murders. A couple of days ago, Mr. Alex. Rose, one of Her Majesty's Justice's of the Peace, met him while driving in his buggy on the public highway and at his request drove him to town. No one has been found yet who dares to arrest him.

At St. Julie de Wolfstown, Remi la Montagne, who murdered his brother-in-law in order to conceal his incest with his sister, is also at large and defies arrest. The sister has been arrested and has made a very damaging confession both of the murder and of her relations with her brother. The assassin was well supplied with money, he having obtained $1,300 from his wife, who went to St. Anne and took $800 more from her trunk. He was one of several from that neighborhood who were convicted in Sherbrooke three years ago of aggravated assault. This morning the woman, who is very pretty and only 18 years old, was brought before Judge Rioux and remanded for eight days. She refused to say anything and even to her advocate was very reticent. Though the people around Wolfstown claim that La Montagne is still in the vicinity, the officers allege that he has crossed the border.

ALMOST A MURDER.

Mrs. Crooks of Hamilton Seriously Injured by a Dangerous Missile.

HAMILTON, July 31.—While Mrs. Margaret Crooks, a widow who maintains herself and five small children by selling milk, was standing in front of her house on Saturday night about 10 o'clock talking with some neighbors, she was struck a terrible blow between the eyes with a large piece of hard clay and stone. So heavy was the stroke that she fell to the ground, to the great surprise of the other women, who had been suspecting nothing of the sort. Her face and head were covered with blood, and as she regained consciousness and raised herself blood streamed from a wound between the eyes. Since then she has been in bed and her face and head are now terribly bruised and disfigured. Her nose was broken by the blow but fortunately her eyes were not injured. It is thought that the missile was thrown by someone who had a spite against one of the women, with whom she was talking, on account of her giving evidence in a liquor case.

A moulder named Michael Dwyer was charged at the police court with obtaining $6 from a widow named Mary Elleber. Dwyer went to Mrs. Elleber after her husband's death and told her the latter was $6 behind in his dues and that if she would give it to him he would pay it over and she would get $150 death benefit. She did so and Dwyer spent the money. The case was allowed to stand for a few days.

Another batch of little boys were before the Police Magistrate this morning. Alexander McLennan, 12 years old, was sent to the Reformatory for three years on two charges of larceny, Wm. Cusick, about the same age, was fined $3 and John Mulroy allowed to go, it being his first offence. Robert J. Fitzgerald, George S. Niblock, Herbert Marshall, Moses Niblock and James Jaws were charged by Thomas Arthur with housebreaking. The defendants are boys of from 7 to 12 years old. They were allowed to go to appear for trial to-morrow.

Little Jimpy, the 44-year-old son of Hiram Olmstead was listening to the music of the band, at the corner of James and Colborne-streets last evening when Dennis Cronin's hack ran over him, the horses knocking him down and the hind wheel of the hack passing squarely across the lower part of the poor little fellow's body. The hack contained nine persons besides the driver, and weighed, without its passengers, 1,600 pounds. He was picked up and taken home, and a doctor was summoned. In the morning he was able to stand up, and will probably be all right soon.

Sudden Death at Chatham.

CHATHAM, July 31.—A colored man named George Francis, about 30 years of age, dropped dead last night on Adelaide-street while returning from work. Heart disease was the cause.

A $15,000 Blaze at St. Henri.

MONTREAL, July 30.—The butcher shop of Mr. Cuelier, the residence and restaurant of L. Mallette and the blacksmith shop of Mr. Beaudoir at St. Henri were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $15,000.

Bartley Campbell, the dramatist, is dead.

THE WORLD OF LONDON.

POPE LEO'S EFFORTS TO SUPPRESS THE SLAVE TRADE.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone at the Irish Exhibition—M. Daudet's Latest Literary Success—A Splendid Entertainment.

LONDON, July 31.—Cardinal Lavigerie of Rome has arrived here on a peculiar mission. He has come to express the desire of the Pope to arouse English public opinion concerning the slave trade in Africa. The necessity for such an arousal is not altogether apparent, as more is heard on that subject in Parliament, in public documents and in the press of London than in any other large city of Europe. The suppression of the African slave trade was Gordon's hobby as it is Stanley's chief ambition. It was also one of the chief influences which caused the recent concessions to the British East African Company. Nevertheless, from what the Cardinal says there appears to be a great need of concerted European action in the matter. He says the trade is not narrowing, but rapidly extending. It is entirely in the hands of the Arabs, and under their brutal rule hundreds of thousands of native blacks from the interior tribes are annually sold into slavery.

The treatment of them en route from the place of their capture to market is horrible. Weak captives, unable to keep up, are ruthlessly cut down, and the route of a slave caravan can always be traced by human skeletons. The Pope, whose information comes from missionaries on the ground, is thoroughly in earnest over the matter, and will exert all the pressure in his power to check the evil. His hope is that a concert of public opinion in Europe will be able to arouse the authorities in Europe and Zanzibar to set themselves against the business. If the Sultan of Zanzibar, for instance, were held responsible for all slave dealing that is permitted to go on in his domains, a different state of things would quickly appear. The movement is not confined to the Catholic Church, but is desired to include all Christian people.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone appeared Friday morning at the Irish exposition in wedding garments after sitting for a photograph in honor of their golden wedding, Mrs. Gladstone's long green velvet train, carried over her arm, being greatly in her way during the perambulation of the exhibition. They were very liberal in their purchases, which ranged from Belcek pottery and Irish lace to reproductions of old Celtic jewelry. Mr. Gladstone's disengaging interests were expended alternately in discussion of the Speaker's dress in the famous picture of the Irish Parliament in the Art Gallery, which he denounced as incorrect for the occasion, the milking qualities of Kerry cows, the hygienic value of all-wool clothing, on which he was very eloquent, apropos of the new Irish departure in that direction and the jumping capacity of Connemara ponies. He seemed in marvellous health and spirits and not in the least fatigued after standing about for two hours.

Let me correct a report that Lord Tennyson is writing his "Confession of Faith"; such is not the fact. The Laureate has yet more idyls to sing and some shorter pieces to collect.

Fifty thousand copies of M. Daudet's new novel, "L'Immortel," have been sold in less than five weeks. There is a brisk demand for the work, which is very eagerly read all over Europe.

There is a letter of the author of "Modern Painters" now lying in Pattick & Simpson's rooms for sale on Thursday, written from Denmark Hill on a certain Dec. 16. Professor Owen had submitted to Mr. Ruskin the preface of a work he had in hand, in which the writer of the "Seven Lamps of Architecture" is defined as "a clothed sum of segments." Mr. Ruskin is delighted, and says:—

"I feel so exactly that."

If Mr. Parnell does bring an action at the eleventh hour against The Times, it can hardly improve his position. The information The Times possesses and is daily receiving is much more comprehensive than is generally believed. It could at any moment be largely supplied from the stores of knowledge placed hourly at their disposal by many who, foreseeing bad weather ahead if the commission sits and the Government carry it out in the manner they have indicated, think they will make friends with the mammon of unrighteousness and save their skins.

The most splendid entertainment given at Peterhof during the visit of Emperor William was the state dinner on Sunday week, which took place at 7, and 190 covers were laid. There were 5000 roses on the tables. Plates, epergnes, dishes and covers were solid gold.

Another American Defaulter.

MONTREAL, July 31.—The detectives are on the lookout for a young bank clerk named George F. Howell, who absconded from Patchogue four days ago, leaving a deficiency of $3,000 in his cash. His friends made up the deficiency, but it was too late, as the latter had been put in the hands of the District Attorney, and the sheriff was already after him with the warrant. The young man kept a little ahead of the sheriff and is supposed to have come to Canada, the haven of refuge for the defaulter and the boodler.

Mr. Hoar's Resolution Adopted.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—In the Senate to-day Mr. Hoar's resolution was adopted, providing for the appointment of a committee of seven Senators to report upon the relations of commerce and business existing between the United States and the British North American possessions, including the effect upon the commerce and carrying trade of the United States of the Canadian system of railways.

Serious Accident at Parkhill.

PARKHILL, July 31.—Mr. Neil Matheson, and family live upstairs over his store. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Matheson while attending to household duties stepped outside on a platform in the rear of the house. Unexpectedly the supporting woodwork gave way and she fell a distance of 14 feet to the ground sustaining serious but not fatal injuries.

THE ISLAND'S DELEGATES.

EXPECTED TO ARRIVE AT THE CAPITAL ABOUT SEPT. 10.

The New Ministers to be Gazetted on Saturday—Splendid Crops in the Lake St. John District.

OTTAWA, July 31.—Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works, returned to the city as soon to-day, after a month's vacation, apparently much benefited in health by the partial rest he has enjoyed. He utilized part of his time in inspecting the various public works in progress on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Baie des Chaleurs and up the Saguenay. Sir Hector also paid a visit to Lake St. John, being the first Cabinet Minister to visit that region. He said to-day that he was surprised at the splendid crop in that section. The yield of hay was immense, most of it was harvested and seemed in excellent condition and the crops of oats, barley, wheat and potatoes promised to be very good.

Mr. Macfarlane, Dominion chief analyst, leaves this week for Europe where he proposes among other things to visit the chemical laboratories in London, Berlin, Munster and Munich which give special attention to the analysis of foods, feeding stuffs, dairy products and fertilizers, and inspect the most modern apparatus, manipulation and process now in use for this purpose.

Hon. J. A. Chapleau is expected to return to the city in a few days. It is understood that his health has not improved so much as his friends expected and that in consequence he has been compelled to give up his contemplated trip to the Maritime Provinces.

The contract for the greenhouse, seed houses, etc., for the experimental farm at Ottawa has been awarded to Beaudet & Desjardins, who were the lowest tenderers.

I am informed that the delegates appointed by the Government of Newfoundland to confer with the Government of Canada as to the terms on which Newfoundland may become a part of the Dominion will arrive in Ottawa about Sept. 10. Sir John is expected to return to the city a week or ten days before that date, and all the ministers will be here to receive the delegates.

Sir Hector Langevin will lay the corner stone of the new public building at Joliette on Tuesday next. During the coming month Sir Hector will also lay the corner stones of public buildings at Coaticook, Aylmer and probably one or two more places in Ontario.

At 11 o'clock to-morrow the Arbitration Board will sit at the Russell House to investigate claims in connection with the Northwest rebellion. The board will be composed of Lieut.-Col. VanStraubenzie, D.A.G. No. 3 and 4 districts (President), Lieut.-Col. J. W. Lewis, Brigade Major 3 and 4 districts, and Capt. F. Gendereau, commanding the Princess Louise Dragoon Guard.

It is understood that the Minister of Customs has ordered an investigation to be made into the conduct of W. P. Leslie, who for many years has been a customs officer at West Lynne and Gretna, Manitoba, and who recently skipped out leaving a deficiency of about $1300 in his accounts.

Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine, will probably leave for Colchester Thursday to take a hand in the campaign.

A fashionable event took place this morning at the Basilica, when Mr. P. J. Brennan of the Privy Council Department and nephew of Mr. M. P. Ryan, collector of customs at Montreal, and Miss Catharine Rose O'Reilly, daughter of Mr. John O'Reilly, license inspector, were united in the bonds of matrimony.

The appointment of Hon. Edgar Dewdney as Minister of the Interior and of Mr. John Haggart, M.P., as Postmaster-General will probably be gazetted on Saturday.

NOT YET DETERMINED.

What Constituency Mr. Dewdney Will Contest—The Northern Pacific Deal.

WINNIPEG, July 31.—In an interview today Hon. Mr. Dewdney said it had not been determined what constituency he would contest, nor when he would leave for the east but it would be settled in a few days.

Hon. D. A. Wells in an interview says every one he met in Canada favored Commercial Union or something that would bring a closer trade relationship with the States. He admitted, however, that if carried out the relations of the two countries would become so interwoven that the union would grow into a political one, not annexation but partnership. The question, he says, has, not been discussed widely in the States. The Fisheries Treaty, he says, would be ratified if Cleveland is elected.

A toll-keeper on the Broadway bridge has been detected in tampering with the toll box. In a few days 173 teams passing the bridge were not reported. His dismissal followed.

The rate struck by the city is 13¼ mills, ½ mill less than last year. The total amount to be raised is $341,000.

Mr. Tilley of Howland & Co., Mr. Baird of Crane & Baird, Mr. Carruthers of Norris & Carruthers and Mr. M. H. Plewes, all of Toronto, have arrived to purchase grain.

A son of Lieut.-Governor Cauchon has been appointed caretaker of the city post-office.

The combination of banks to drive out American silver broke before being put in operation.

Goldwin Smith lectures Friday on commercial relations with the States.

A consignment of teas from Japan has been received here one month from shipment.

A. W. Austin and W. D. Matthews of Toronto are here.

Premier Greenway and Attorney-General Martin were amongst the unexpected arrivals to-night. They came by the Red River to Morris and then by the C.P.R. Premier Greenway declined to be interviewed and would say nothing beyond that the mission to New York was successful.

A Cabinet Rumor.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 31.—A rumor is in circulation that Sir Adam Archibald will be appointed Minister of Justice before the election in Colchester County, Hon. Mr. Thompson having decided to accept the vacant seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of Canada.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1888.

THE VACANT MUNICIPAL OFFICES.

It is well in the beginning to speak of them as offices, not as an office, for though the late town clerk and treasurer in one person combined the two official positions, that is not to say that it would not be far better to have the offices divided and each placed under a separate and responsible incumbent. There is no reason to say that the work was done unsatisfactorily by the late Mr. Macdonald, for it was as well done in both cases, so far as we can judge, as any one man could well do it. However, the positions being divided will remove any delays and inconveniences that are likely to occur, and the public will be better served. No one man can be expected to do two things at once and do both well, and the work of the clerk is sufficient for any one person. The late incumbent was a man of exceptional ability in actuarial knowledge, and the work required so much of his attention that it is not improbable that the demand upon his time and exertions had much to do with bringing on his last illness. It will be difficult to get any one man who will perform the double duties as satisfactorily as the late Mr. Macdonald did. It is only fair that offices of emolument should be distributed so that there may not even be the opportunity of suggesting that any one man is getting more than his share. Therefore by all means let the town clerkship and treasurership become two separate and distinct offices with two separate and distinct incumbents. The work will be more effectively done, the responsibility will be more concentrated and more desirable results in every respect will be brought about. The offices being divided another important matter is the selection of the proper parties to fill them. For the position of clerk especially, special ability and qualification are in the public interest demanded. It will therefore be necessary to make a selection with great care. It is safe to say that the applications will be sufficiently numerous to give abundant material to select from. But application is by no means a criterion of fitness. Even among the deluge of applicants there may not be one man who may commend himself to the good judgment of the council, in which case the council should make its own choice with dispassionate disregard of every qualification except that of clerical ability and otherwise fitness for the position. Personal friendship, political affiliation or the possession of ward influence should have no weight in determining the claims of any applicant. The best men are wanted for both positions When a good man is secured, it is better in the interests of the town that there should be no change. A man becomes familiar with the routine of his duties and acquires those qualities that make him a first-class official, only by virtue of long years of experience. When a man becomes thus fitted, keep him. The offices, besides being divided, should be filled as soon as may be practicable. The sooner the busines is settled, the less wire-pulling and intrigue there will be and the less danger of undesirable incumbents succeeding by artifice, where their merits would never give them a ghost of a chance for success.

Fall wheat and barley are about all harvested.

The hum of the threshing machine is again heard in the land.

Some improvements have been made in the engine of the Mary Ellen, which will give her much increased speed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Lee are visiting friends in Amhurstburg and other parts of the peninsula.

WAKE UP BOYS.

Our baseball club, after lying dormant for nearly two months, is likely to be resuscitated. The boys have not evidenced much interest in the game this season, the chief reason, we believe, being that there are no other clubs in the locality. A meeting is to be held to-morrow (Wednesday) evening and a game will likely be arranged between the mill men and citizens to be played on Saturday morning.

Mr. P. P. Young has been appointed, through the influence of Mr. James Stevenson, M. P., caretaker of the dam at the Point. Hitherto this work has been performed by Mr. John Dinwoodie, of Lakefield. Mr. Dinwoodie has been left the Lakefield dam at a salary of $20 a month. When looking after both he had $3 per day. Mr. Young will make a good official.

Eat Freely of Lemons.

An experienced and highly respected physician gave me a valuable hint the other day which others may find as useful as I did. "I am convinced," said he, "not only from practical personal experience, but on theoretically scientific grounds also, that a safeguard against much prevalent summer illness lies in the free use of lemon juice. Citric acid helps to supply the place of the fluids which are unduly dissipated through the pores of the skin in hot weather. Eat plenty of lemons and you can stand the heat infinitely better than those who do not make use of the fruit with which nature has supplied tropical countries"—The Epoch.

LAWLESS WHITECAPS.

Mormon Missionaries Whipped—A Woman Proselyte Also Flogged.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 21.—In Perry County, this state, the Whitecaps have been going for Mormon missionaries and their converts. The Mormon elders Franklin Murray and James Fallon were driven out of Muhlenburg County, Ky., several weeks ago by the citizens. The terrified elders fled across the Ohio, landing near Rome, Ind. They went back into the country and began spreading their faith in one of the most illiterate sections of that part of the state, meeting with little success. Two women, Clara Tyng and Maggie Jarvis, were the only converts in that vicinity, and when the elders started northward the two women accompanied them to assist the missionaries until they reached the nearest station on the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis railroad where they were to take a train for Missouri to join converts in that state. On Thursday they arrived in the northern portion of the county and stopped at the house of a widow, Mrs. Thomas. That night a bundle of switches with a note attached was left on the doorstep. The note warned the missionaries to leave that portion of the state and allow the women to return.

No attention was paid to the threat, and on Friday night a band of the regulators visited the house. The room occupied by the missionaries was forced and the frightened men and women taken to the woods. The two elders were stripped to the waist and tied to a tree, and each regulator, twenty in number, administered five lashes to each victim. One blow struck Fallon in the eye, destroying the sight. Both men fainted long before their punishment was ended. One of the women was then flogged until she, too, swooned, and the remaining woman was told that unless they returned home they would get a double punishment, and the missionaries would be hanged unless they left the county at once. The regulators then dispersed, and the uninjured woman summoned assistance and had the victims taken to the house, where they now lie in a critical condition. The farmers are organizing to quell the Whitecap business, and somebody will be hanged if it doesn't stop.

is incompetent to communicate the inexpressible satisfaction and incomprehensible consequences resulting from a judicious administration of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a preparation designed especially for the speedy relief and permanent cure of all Female Weaknesses, Nervousness, and diseases peculiar to the female sex. The only remedy for woman's peculiar ills, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, to give satisfaction. See guarantee on wrapper of bottle. This guarantee has been faithfully carried out for many years by the proprietors.

Causing An Impression.

Many cures caused by B. B. B. have been those of chronic sufferers known throughout the district through the very fact of their having been afflicted for years. This naturally creates a strong impression in favor of this valuable family medicine. 2w29d

REAL ESTATE.

Valuable Properties for Sale suitable for Building Sites, Residences, Market Gardens, &c.

We have been instructed to offer for sale the following valuable properties:—

1st.—East Half of Lot No. 1 in 2nd Concession of the Township of Thorah, County of Ontario. 120 acres all cleared, well good clay loam, house and barn on farm, which is situated about three and a half miles from Beaverton. Price $4500.

2nd.—The Erskine Homestead, being the North Part of Block "U" Ashburnham, containing about 14 acres, and having a frontage of about 363 feet on Concession street, and 2340 on the Road leading to Norwood. This property has on it a large dwelling house, barns, stables, and outbuildings. It is well situated for putting on the market in Building Lots, and can be subdivided to advantage. The land immediately south of it has been sub-divided and Lots are selling rapidly and buildings being erected.

3rd.—Block "B" Ashburnham, containing about 26 acres, having a frontage of about 500 feet on Concession street. It is within a short distance from town, and is well adapted for sub-division into Building Lots.

4th.—Fifteen Acres of Land in Monaghan on the Gravel Road, about 3 miles from town with brick dwelling house 34x44, containing 10 rooms and usual outbuildings. There is a good orchard on the place, and the soil first-class, suitable for a market garden, or residence for a retired farmer.

5th.—The residence of Mrs. F. W. Haultain, situated on Brock Street, Peterborough, on Court House hill, there is about ¾ of an acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees. Soil, first-class. The residence is large, with the usual outbuildings.

6th.—Erin Cottage being the West half of Park Lot No. 14 in Lot 13 in 13th Monaghan, now in the town limits, containing about 5 acres of land. There is a comfortable brick cottage with usual outbuildings on the land, which is now occupied by Mr. Elias Thompson.

Offers in writing for the purchase of any of the above properties will be received by the undersigned, and all further particulars may be obtained from them.

MONEY TO LOAN. We have a large amount of private funds for investment, and are prepared to loan on good security at the lowest current rates and on easy terms.

PRESSMEN IN SESSION.

They Elect Officers, Transact Business and Go on a Trip to the States.

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—The Canadian Press Association held its annual meeting yesterday in the Rossin House. There was a fair representation of members, sixty being present. The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

President—Rev. Dr. Dewart, Christian Guardian, Toronto. Vice-Presidents—D Creighton, Empire, Toronto; W. R. V. Summerville, True Banner, Dundas. Secretary-Treasurer—W. R. Climie, The Sun, Bowmanville. Assistant Secretary — J. B. Trayes, The Times, Port Hope. Executive Committee—H. P. Moore, Free Press, Acton; A. Patullo, Sentinel-Review, Woodstock; L. Jackson, Era, Newmarket; J. S. Brierly, Journal, St. Thomas; J. R. McLean, Canadian Grocer, Toronto; J. C. Jamieson, Intelligencer, Belleville; and J. J. Crabbe, Argus, St. Mary's.

A number of subjects were informally discussed. At 8.30 in the evening the majority of the members took the G.T.R. express for Portland, Me., to enjoy their annual outing.

DANGEROUS SPINSTERS.

Two West Virginia Women Kill One Burglar and Mortally Wound Another.

PARKERSBURG, W.Va., July 31.—Two maiden ladies, Mariah and Vierate Reeves, living near Davisville, last night shot and killed one burglar and mortally wounded and captured another. The encounter happened about midnight. One of the sisters saw a man in her room, seized a revolver and fired, killing him. The other sister was awakened, seized a weapon and sprang on the other burglar as he was trying to escape through a window. He was too late, as he fell to the ground with a bullet through his groin. The ladies are generally supposed to keep large sums of money in their house.

On An Average.

It is said that during the lifetime of the average man he will endure about 500 days sickness. The best way to reduce your average is to use Burdock Blood Bitters whenever the system requires a tonic regulating and cleansing medicine. 2w31d

Certain Cure.

A cure for Cholera Morbus. A positive cure for this dangerous complaint, and for all acute or chronic forms of bowel complaint incident to summer and fall is found in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, to be procured from any druggist or medicine dealer. 2w31d

Made on Purpose.

We are taught that everything is made to fill some purpose. The reason Burdock Blood Bitters has succeeded in being placed in the front rank of modern medicines is that it fills so well the purpose for which it was intended—that of curing diseases of the stomach, liver and blood. 2w31d

A Sad Loss.

Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dulness and debility,, are of very frequent occurrence, Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digestion by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present. 2w29d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Indispensible.
